Earl Cadogan, speaking for the Government, deprecated desultory conversation on the condition of Ireland by members of the House of Peers. Such conduct, he said, was not calculated to strengthen the Government, nor to lead to anything useful. If any sheriffs or other officials were found to be violating their oaths or acting illegally, they would be decisively dealt with. He reminded the members that the number of agrarian offenses had greatly decreased and added that speakers who urged the instant adoption of severe repressive measures forgot the promises made in the Queen's speech, that special powers would be asked only when needed.

Baron Fitzgerald (Liberal) said that before there could be peace and prosperity in Ireland the land question must be settled and that industries must be encouraged. He reminded the members that since the sixteenth century the whole course of legislation had been to repress Irish industries.

The Debate on the Address Resumed.

An amendment offered by Mr. Campbell in favor of local government in Scotland and other parts of the kingdom was withdrawn after a short discussion.

COLLAPSE OF A BUILDING.

A Dry Goods Store in Notre Dame-street, Montreal, Caves in.

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—Shortly before 4 o'clock this morning Constable Turnbull of No. 6 Station, and City and District Watchman E. E. Shilly, while patrolling Notre Dame-street were startled by hearing a terrific crash. Running in the direction of the sound they were just in time to witness the entire collapse of the building No. 1834, occupied on the lower flats by Mr. Dolan, dry goods, and on the upper floors by Mrs. Grace as a dining saloon. The whole upper front of the building came crashing into the street, which was littered for many yards with the wreck and debris. Both officers at once started to rescue the inmates, and to ascertain if there was any danger of fire. Mr. Dolan's part of the building was not occupied, and strange to say, the officers succeeded in rescuing the five occupants of the dining rooms from the ruins unharmed. The escape of these persons seems little short of miraculous. As there was no signs of fire and as every one had been gotten out unhurt it was deemed unnecessary to summon the fire brigade. As the building was a very old one it is thought that its collapse was due to the great weight of snow on the roof. At this writing it is impossible to obtain any further details such as the amount of damage done, losses or insurance.

MR. BLAKE AT HAMILTON.

He Reiterates His Views Regarding the National Policy.

HAMILTON, Feb. 14.—A meeting was held this evening in the Royal Roller Rink in the interest of the Reform-Labor candidates, at which there was a large attendance. The meeting was orderly, but by no means enthusiastic. Though there were hundreds of Conservatives present no attempt to disturb the proceedings was made. Mr. J. H. Macpherson occupied the chair and the speakers were Hon. Edward Blake, who had arrived in the city about 5 o'clock, and the candidates Messrs. Burns and Walter. An address was read to the Reform leader expressing belief in his recently declared views on the tariff question. This address was signed by some forty manufacturers of the city. Mr. Blake, in his remarks, reiterated his determination not to injure the National Policy in any way. He spoke for nearly three hours and touched on every question agitating the public.

ROW OVER OUR FISH.

THE AMERICANS STILL WANT TO RETALIATE IN SOME WAY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The sub-committee of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, consisting of Messrs. Belmont, Clements and Rice, to-day presented its report on the retaliatory bills. A substitute bill is recommended for the Senate bill and the Belmont Bill.

It provides that when the President is satisfied that American vessels are denied treaty rights or reasonable privileges he may by proclamation prohibit the entry into American ports of vessels owned wholly or in part by British subjects or arriving from Canada or Newfoundland (except when in distress) and may forbid the importation of any goods, wares or merchandise from Canada or Newfoundland, or any locomotive, car or other vehicle. A violation of this provision is made punishable by fine and imprisonment. Sections of the bill authorize the creation of a commission to take testimony with respect to damages inflicted on American citizens and American vessels.

The Peaceful Way.

We live in a state of peace, but look at the French preparations, at the building of barracks, at the position of Gen. Boulanger, at the constant outcry of the French Patriotic League during sixteen years, and then consider what we have to fear from France."

The Post recommends Germans who desire to know the position of the French frontier to study the map prepared at Wurtemburg by Major Trotsch, and published at Stuttgart, which shows that between Paris and the eastern frontier troops of the line, combined with the present reserves, form an effective force of 600,000 men, which force can be tripled in a few days.

It is thought that heart disease was the cause.

Salvationists Attacked at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Feb. 14.—The females of the Salvation Army were violently attacked by a gang of well-dressed rowdies at St. John-street yesterday afternoon. The Salvationists made no resistance nor any inclination to do so, although their assailants continued to storm the young women with large lumps of snow and ice. One girl was knocked down and very seriously injured, and but for the speedy arrival of the police might have met her death. The names of a few of the scoundrels are known to the police and they likely will be arraigned on a charge of murderous assault.

"Jem" Carney, for years the undisputed lightweight champion of Great Britain, who killed Jimmy Highland in an English prize ring, arrived in New York on Saturday. The first question Carney asked of a prominent sporting man who met him on the dock was, "How did the fight between Harry Gilmore and McAuliffe come out? He was told that the man he had come over to meet had won after a desperate battle of nearly two hours, and was asked if he thought he could lick McAuliffe. "Well," he answered, "I shall have a bloody good try." Carney is 29 years of age, having been born in Birmingham, England, in 1858. He stands 5 feet 4½ inches in height, and weighs now in his traveling suit, without the greatcoat, 11 stone 7 pounds, or 156 pounds. The fatal battle with Jimmy Highland was fought at 128 pounds for $125 a side. Carney had the best of it, and 2 to 1 was being laid on him, when the "Bobbies" broke it up. Highland's death, the result of the punishment he received in the battle, took place a few days afterward. Carney was tried for manslaughter, convicted and sentenced to six months at hard labor.

LIBERALS,

RALLY

To-Night!

A Grand Rally of every working Liberal in Town is called for THIS EVENING, in the Liberal Club Rooms, over Telegraph Office.

The Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1887.

THE "MAIL" ON THE PROTEST.

The Toronto Mail of Monday thus refers to the protest entered against the return of Mr. Stratton:—"Mr. Stratton, M. P. P., "while protesting against the raising of the "cry of bribery in West Peterborough for the "alleged purpose of injuring Mr. Cox, draws "attention to another very important matter "involved in the entering of petitions against "members of Parliament. He says he has "recently enlarged his business at considera"able cost. He has also been compelled "during the contest to neglect his own per"sonal interest, which means loss of money. "Under the circumstances he can ill afford "the vast expense to which, win or lose, an "election trial will put him. There can be "no doubt that these trials are far too costly "and that they involve great expenditure "even when the person petitioned against "has not been guilty of any corrupt act, either "by himself or through agents. This is "unjust. It is, moreover, a public injury, as "it is calculated to deter men of moderate "means, who are, nevertheless, well qualified "to sit as legislators, from entering the po"litical field. There should be some pro"tection to members of Parliament from "these tremendous costs. * * * * *

Mr. Stratton, hearing that his election on "the ground of bribery is about to be con"tested in the courts, protests firmly and "ably against the expected protest. He de"clares that his victory was fairly won and "adds that he is pursued vindictively and "maliciously, the object of the petitioners "being to put him to expense and to injure "the prospects of Mr. Cox, who is running "in the Liberal interests for the same con"stituency."

AN IMPORTANT POLITICAL GATHERING.

It is with much pleasure that we announce that Hon. O. Mowat, Premier of Ontario, and Mr. Geo. A. Cox, the Liberal candidate for West Peterborough, will address the electors in Bradburn's Opera House on Friday evening, February 18th. The subjects to be discussed will be Dominion politics. Carping Conservatives, may allege that it ill becomes the Premier of a Province to take part in discussion of Federal questions But if any statesman is justified in taking such a position it is Hon. Mr. Mowat. By the action of Sir John Macdonald, Hon. Mr. Mowat has been drawn into Dominion matters, as the champion of Provincial Rights. Especially since his return to power in 1878, Sir John, has made repeated attacks upon the territorial, proprietary and legislative rights of the Province of Ontario. It is only necessary to mention the Boundary Award Case, involving the claim by Sir John of 100,000 square miles of our territory. The Escheats Case involving the right of the Province to escheated property. The Insurance Case, the Rivers and Streams Case and the Liquor License Case, all involving the right of Ontario to legislate upon these matters. In all these cases Sir John thrust the issue between the Dominion and Province upon Hon. Mr. Mowat and in all these cases the latter "laid out" the "great constitutional lawyer," securing victory after victory. These victories for the Province are in a great degree personal victories for Attorney-General Mowat, who in every case directed the plan of defence and who conducted the Boundary case in person. Sir John still threats the conflict upon Mr. Mowat for he is still claiming, the timber and minerals in the territory given this Province by the Privy Council. In view of these facts, Hon. Mr. Mowat has every right—in fact it is his bounden duty—to take a hand in a contest against the usurpations and attacks of Sir John Macdonald of and upon provincial rights. And Hon. Oliver Mowat will receive a magnificant welcome on the occasion of his first visit. It goes without saying that thousands of Liberals will flock to meet and greet the great leader of the Liberal party in this province; thousands of Conservatives will be anxious to see and hear the man who for fourteen years has so wisely governed this Province as to receive, with a tremendously increased majority, authority from the sovereign people to guide its affairs four years longer. Thousands of Tories will, if from no other motive than curiosity, be anxious to see the "Little Tyrant" who has so often vanquished their redoubtable "Chieftain." No doubt the Opera House will be packed on Friday evening next, and those who desire admission will do well to be on hand early. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock by Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., and an address by Mr. Cox will be followed by the address of Hon. Mr. Mowat. The gallery will be reserved for ladies.

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

Sir John devised the Franchise Act to catch the Indian vote, assuring that the Indians will be grateful for this privilege. The Indians of older Canada are not likely to be dragged by the gift of the ballot into forgetfulness of the manner in which Sir John has treated their brethren in the North-west Territories. The Dominion Public Accounts for 1885—the last year for which official returns have been published—show these results:

Annual grant to Indians	$1,100,000
Food and clothing purchased (according to Dewdney's report)	454,000
To be otherwise expounded for	646,000

This is a pretty state of affairs—a prudent way in which to spend the public money. It takes more than one-half of the total amount appropriated for the Indians to distribute less than the other half. Out of one million one hundred and nine thousand dollars devoted to the Indians of the North-west, the Indians only get in food and clothing—such as they are—the sum of $454,000. "Such as they are"—the reports from all quarters show that the money actually spent for supplies was worse than wasted. Official reports assert that "The potatoes and parley received last spring were 'half rotten'"—"The trousers and shirts distributed were inferior and wore out in three or four days." The official Analyst states that the flour was not wholesome, and so worthless that he could not put a price upon it. Another sample of flour, he says, is "just one grade above millfeed." And yet the contractors were paid full price for prime mess pork and No. 1 flour. Throughout the whole expenditure the same wanton and reckless waste of public funds, the same inhuman treatment of the Indians is evident. It is iniquitous that out of a million appropriated to the Indians, over half of it should be spent in getting the food and supplies to them, which food and supplies are rotten and useless when they are delivered. The treatment of the Indians, apart from the waste of funds, is of the most cruel character, and yet Sir John thinks to make friends of old Canada Indians by giving them the ballot. It is such administration of North West affairs that brought on the rebellion and made the Indians ready to join the campaign. We are accustomed to apply the term "Indian outrages" to the cruel deeds and atrocities committed by the Indians in a savage state, but it is left to the present government of the Dominion to reverse the application, and make civilized whites the wanton agressors, and the red men the victims. There is no excuse for this iniquitous administration of the public trust, except the policy of the present government to make everything subserve their political ends. It is an extension to the North West of the "boodle" policy, permitting the pets of the government to enrich themselves from the public chest by stealing from the funds appropriated for the benefit of the Indians. We have deprived them of their lands and in lieu of these the policy has been adopted of supplying them with food and clothing, but they get little benefit, for the food supplied is "rotten" and the clothing worthless, the difference in price between good and bad supplies going into the pockets of the contractors and the Indian agents, who wink at their speculation and share the spoils. The example of the government agents neutralize the best effects of the missionaries, maintained at immense expense by different churches, for the agents not only debauch the natives with whisky, but openly practice polygamy and the most flagrant sexual immorality, and to such an extent are the immoral practices of the officials of the Indian Department carried that Rev. Mr. Macdougall, a missionary, says they are "a disgrace to the lowest barbarism let alone civilization." But does Sir John know these things? Assuredly. If he does, he is unfit for his trust, not, he is also unworthy of his position. The Dominion Government's Indian outrages are a disgrace to civilization—they are a double robbery—the country is robbed of over half a million a year to enrich government pets, who are placed in responsible positions, and the Indians are robbed of their dues. Shall the Government's license which permits them to thus outrage civilization be renewed? The electors can give their answer on February 22nd.

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds, sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. Besaw, Cook's Mills, Serpent River, 2w7d

The Difference.

It is always safer to deal with horses than women, if information about their ages is required. A horse never wears store teeth.

Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards. 2w7d

From Manitoba.

In a letter from James Irwin, Beaver Creek, Manitoba, he says: "I was taken ill last summer with a very severe pain in my back. By using one bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil I was completely cured." Yellow Oil also cures lumbago, rheumatism and all external and internal pains. 2w7d

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day: February 15th.
Polling Day: February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secresy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political-Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES:

SUITS, made to Order - - $12
Formerly sold for $15.

SUITS, made to Order - - $14
Formerly sold for $17.

SUITS, Ready-made, for $5 and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00——$4.00——$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

Threats of French Anarchists.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The Lyons police have secured clues which they believe will lead to the arrest of the persons who threw the bombs at the police in that city and St. Etienne last Wednesday. The Anarchists assert that the outrages at Lyons and St. Etienne are only the beginning of the Anarchists' campaign in France. "We have talked too long," they say; "action is now needed."

The Lanarkshire Miners' Strike.

GLASGOW, Feb. 11.—The situation caused by the miners' strike in Lanarkshire is becoming menacing. The pickets at the mines are stopping men who wish to work from going into the mines. At Airdrie order has been restored, the employers having conceded the demands of the strikers.

The Neutrality of Egypt.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The Journal des Debats declares that the proposal made to the Porte by England to neutralize Egypt is equal to a proposal of a British protectorate, and adds that Turkey will undoubtedly prefer the status quo to anything of the kind.

Sentenced to be Hanged.

HUDSON, N.Y., Feb. 11.—Oscar F. Beckwith has been sentenced to be executed on Thursday, March 24. He made a rambling speech to the court declaring that he killed Vandercocks in self-defence.

On Saturday last an old man named Peter Emery, about 78 years of age, was found hanging in an unused school house near Corbett, in McGillivray Township, Middlesex. He had formed his scarf into a noose and fastened it to the rafters overhead in such a way as to produce strangulation.

Kate McKay, who stole a quantity of money from a young man named Thompson, and goods from T. A. Mill's store at Wingham, has been sentenced to nine months' imprisonment in the Mercer Reformatory. Her companion, John Armour, is yet to be dealt with.

Turf, Field and Farm: Wallace Ross authorizes us to say that he will row Hubert in this country a race of from three to five miles for $1000 a side. Hubert, it is stated, will soon come to America. If he does come he will have no trouble in making arrangements. In the opinion of Hanlan, the English sculler is more dangerous at five miles than three miles. Ross will allow him to choose the distance.

On Thursday last a New York sport made a combination on New Orleans races, taking Wedding Day, Kensington and Little Joe. It was 40 to 1, and he banked it for $25, standing to win $1000 if the three horses won. Wedding Day was second, Kensington won, as did Little Joe. He banked the same combination at 15 to 1 for a place, put on $20, and as Wedding Day was second and the other two won, he won $750 and received his $20 back again.

In a letter to Turf, Field and Farm Mr. Joseph Rogers names Hanlan and O'Connor as the Toronto oarsmen he wishes to match against Ross and Lee. Mr. Rogers' letter reads: "As Ross and Lee previously issued a challenge to row any double in the whole world, I considered that a challenge for them to row any two oarsmen in a small city the size of Toronto would be sure to meet with their acceptance. But it seems that they are not willing to make a race in the dark, as they state. I will now name the two oarsmen—Edward Hanlan and Wm. O'Connor. If Ross and Lee are willing to row the above named gentlemen their acceptance will insure a race. The New York paper presumes Ross and Lee will accept.

In the drying-room of a tobacco factory at Belleville, N.J., one of the most savage and longest prize-fights of latter days was witnessed on Wednesday last. The principals were two mill hands, Ned Hawkins, 23 years old, and weighing 146 pounds, and Billy McMahon, aged 23, and weighing 139 pounds. The purse of $165, for which they fought, was subscribed by 16 well-known men of a sporting turn. One hundred and twelve bare-knuckle rounds were fought according to the London prize ring rules, and the fight lasted 3 hours and 35 minutes. McMahon was much the better man as wrestling and floored Hawkins 21 times, but was deficient in science. Hawkins scored 18 clean knock-downs. At the end of the 112th round McMahon was unable to stand up and Hawkins was awarded the purse.

Brain Work.

requires for its successful and pleasurable pursuit a full, uniform and continuous supply of pure, rich blood to the brain. If, through the torpidity of the liver, the blood becomes foul with bile, the brain is poisoned and over-stimulated with the excess of blood which the instructed heart sends to it with frantic impulses. Dizziness, heaviness, loss of memory, impossibility of application to any kind of work, reveal the tragic. To relieve this, and preserve not only the brain but the whole system in the best working order, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will be found invaluable. 6dw7

Jack Made a Shave.

Dead silence in the parlor. Half lights. More silence. Dim lights. Increase of silence. From the voice speaks verbally, breaking quiet: "Oh Jack you haven't shaved today." More silence in the parlor, accompanied by gradually decreasing quiet in the sitting-room.

Heat and Cold.

Is a never failing cause of disease. At this season of the year neuralgia, toothache, and a host of similar diseases are rampant. The great question, then is to find the quickest, surest, and most economical remedy. Poison's NERVILINE exactly fills these requirements. It is prompt, efficient, and most economical, for it exceeds in power every known remedy, and is as cheap as inferior articles. A 10 cent sample bottle will give every person a chance to test it. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6dw7

He Feared No Fee.

Nero fiddled when Rome was burning. Many now-a-days seem equally indifferent to danger by the manner in which they neglect ill-health. If taken in time, there is scarcely a chronic disease which Burdock Blood Bitters will not eradicate by its purifying, regulating powers. 2w7d

Toboggan Terrors.

Wife—O, John, let's not go to the toboggan-slide to-night. There have been so many terrible accidents there. What should I do if you were killed! Husband—Bury me decently, I should hope.

For the Year 1886.

No better resolution can be made than to resist buying any of the substitutes offered as "just as good" as the great only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails to give satisfaction. Beware of poisonous flesh eating substitutes. 6dw7.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw6

Judge or Jury?

Frank Mariuo, committed for trial for shooting Joseph Murphy, will be brought up again Saturday to elect whether he will be tried by judge or jury.

Received this week at Turnbull's a large shipment of wool and tapestry carpets all new patterns, extra good value.

Spilled Out.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Wm. Kennedy and her sister were thrown from their cutter near the Morgan House, but fortunately were not hurt. The horse ran up George street to its own stable without further accident.

After a Nuisance.

For some time back there has been an obstruction in the drain pipes leading from the town buildings, causing at times an insufferable stench, and excavations are being made in order to locate the seat of the trouble.

Jersey mantle and dress cloths have been all the rage. The latest Turnbull is showing is Jersey corsets. See them.

An Avalanche.

This morning a mass of heavy snow slid off the roof of the court house onto the sidewalk below. Men were passing to and from the building by the score, it being near the hour of nomination, but fortunately no one was in the track of the avalanche, or a serious accident would have resulted.

Two Weddings To day.

At an early hour this forenoon Mr. Wm. Collins, grocer, of Ashburnham was married to Bridget, daughter of Mr. Edward Clancy, of the same place. This afternoon Mr. Chas. Dunn and Miss Agnes Donoghue, (sister-in-law of Mr. Jos. Griffin), were married. Both weddings took place at St. Peter's Cathedral.

Ladies will do well to remember that Turnbull is showing piles of new dress goods and trimmings in all the latest shades. His clearing sale of spring goods is now going on.

Curling Splinters.

In the 13-point game, the third draw is being played.

It is expected six rinks of the Granite Curling Club of Toronto will play a return match with the Peterborough curlers on the Charlotte street rink some day this week, and five or more rinks of the Caledonians the week following.

The several rinks of the Peterborough curlers have begun to play for the rink medal. Last night three rinks played with the following result:—Ferguson's beat Boucher's, Rutherford downed Attrill, and Cameron extinguished the legal rink, Edwards, skip.

Turnbull is now agent for the Domestic Paper Patterns of New York. The best and simplest ever shown.

A Brilliant Organist.

Thursday evening Dr. Davies, of St. Alban's Church, Ottawa, the most brilliant organist in Canada, will conduct the opening services of the new George street church organ. He will be assisted by Mr. E. J. Lye, tenor soloist of the Orpheus Quintette Club, Toronto. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, and will be free with a silver collection taken at the door. A rare musical treat may be expected. Following is the programme:—

Overture—"Zampa"	Herold
Pastorale—Op 2	Chas. E. Stephens
Finale to 3rd Symphony	Mendelssohn
Vocal Solo—"Wait her Angels"	Handel
	Mr. E. J. Lye.

Memories of Libby Prison.

Rev. L. N. Beaudry on Incidents of the American War.

The George St., church was filled to the doors last night. From a quarter to eight till eight o'clock, Prof. Jaques played voluntaries on the organ, after which singing and prayer, followed by a brief introductory address by the pastor, Rev. I. Tovell, paved the way for the lecturer of the evening, Rev. L. N. Beaudry, pastor of the First Methodist church, Montreal.

REV. MR. BEAUDRY on stepping forward was greeted with applause. In opening, the speaker mentioned the battle of Gettysburg, in which he had been captured. That battle had stretched over a space of ground 15 miles and continued three days fighting, while the roar of the 400 cannons engaged could be heard 25 miles. It was the turning-point of the war. Mr. Beaudry then entered upon a minute description of the composition, strength, dress, etc., of the American army at the time he was connected with it. After the battle the 5th New York Cavalry, of which Mr. Beaudry was chaplain, was surrounded and himself among others captured. Everything, including their horses, were taken from them, and the speaker dwelt upon the attachment which existed between the cavalrymen and their horses. He mentioned the grateful acts and gentle feelings which the contending armies entertained for each other, except in time of battle. He also eulogized the character of the negroes and their devotion to the Union soldiers. After a long march on foot they were finally landed in the Libby Prison, at Andersonville, which was kept for the officers of the Northern army. Bad as this prison was, it was the best of any. Mr. Beaudry described the process of "fleecing" and the horrors of prison life. It was alive with vermin, "and," said the speaker, "if we never shed blood for our country before, we did there." (Laughter.) Hunger, cold, thirst, bad food and not enough at that, and every privation were endured. He recounted several thrilling escapes from the prison, and dwelt upon their life within it gloomy walls, with all its suffering and horrors. The speaker nevertheless managed to extract several humorous incidents therefrom, laughable enough now when the whole horrible dream was over, but at the time little regarded as jokes. He introduced a pathetic song which was warmly applauded, and told several sad tales of lingering death and agonizing suffering within the prison walls. Mr. Beaudry closed by asking aid in the great warfare in which he was engaged, which required more heroism and sacrifice than was needed to go through the scenes he had described. He had been engaged in the work ten years, and was meeting with gratifying success.

Rev. E. F. Torrance moved a vote of thanks. He said he had been greatly interested in the American war, though a mere lad at the time. He had listened with great interest to Mr. Beaudry's lecture.

Rev. Mr. Wallace expressed great pleasure in seconding the motion which was put to the meeting by Rev. Mr. Tovell and, of course, unanimously carried.

Mr. Beaudry in thanking the audience for their expression of kindness, remarked that he had with him books and photographs which were sold for the benefit of his church in Montreal. If any friends desired to assist in this way the articles could be got from him. A collection was taken up which it is understood amounted to about $50.

The Late Miss Crawford.

An Account of Her Sudden Death Her Funeral Took Place To-day.

The death of Miss Isabella Valancey Crawford, which took place at 11.30 on Saturday night, at Toronto, says the Globe, was the result of heart disease and was quite unlooked for. Miss Crawford had been suffering from a cold for a fortnight past, but had not been confined to bed. She was retiring for the night, her mother being in the room, when she suddenly fell to the floor lifeless. About ten years ago a medical man gave it as his opinion that the action of the deceased lady's heart was defective, and as the complaint was hereditary, her father and a sister having died from this cause, Miss Crawford was always careful to avoid over-exertion. When the fatal attack came on, a doctor was at once summoned, but on his arrival he pronounced life to be extinct. Miss Crawford was a daughter of the late Dr. Stephen Crawford, of Peterborough, and was born in Ireland, near Dublin. When about five years of age, she was brought to this country by her parents, and afterwards lived some time in France. She was an accomplished French scholar, and once wrote a story in that language. For the past ten or twelve years Miss Crawford has lived in Toronto with her mother, the last sixteen months of her life being spent at No. 57 John street. The deceased's literary labors were extensive, and she contributed continually to Frank Leslie's magazine and other publications. A story of hers, "Married with an Opal," is now being published. Miss Crawford leaves one brother surviving her, who is at present in Algoma. The deceased lady's remains were temporally placed in the vault at the Necropolis at two p. m. to-day, and will afterwards be removed for final interment in the family qurial ground at Peterborough.

We cordially invite those who anticipate erecting or buying to inspect our work and prove for themselves that our houses are not merely built to sell. Every house I've sold gives first-class satisfaction, and I am determined that every house I build shall be a standing testimony to honest building. STILL PREPARING.

GERMANY AND FRANCE READY AT ANY MOMENT TO COME TO BLOWS.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—Commenting on the recent article in La France asserting that France's despatches was pacific and that the responsibility for a war would rest with Germany, the North German Gazette says: "It requires all the effrontery of revanche journalism to dish up perversions of this nature." Articles in the same paper on Oct. 10 and Dec. 18 announced that France was ready to fight, and expressed the wish that the decisive moment would not be long delayed, and proclaimed the firm intention of the French to retake Alsace-Lorraine, adding that war would be inevitable at first opportunity.

An Improbable Story.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—A Paris correspondent dwells upon the propagation throughout France through the Masonic lodges of a feeling in favor of a war. He says the number of lodges affiliated with Alsace-Lorraine Lodge, which was recently started, is now increased to 136.

The Pope's Course Justified.

ROME, Feb. 15.—The Monitour discards the idea that the Pope is fermenting a European war, hoping thereby to obtain the restoration of the temporal power of the Church, but declares that the Pope is justified in securing the friendship of powerful empires in order eventually to submit the position of the Papacy to a vote of the powers.

Disquieting Events on the Frontier.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The Paris newspapers report many disquieting events on the German frontier. La Justice learns from Neufchateau that not a single soldier is allowed leave of absence for even half an hour on any pretence, the commander having learned that Germany is seeking a pretext for a petty quarrel.

THE CAMPAIGN CONSPIRACY.

Dillon, O'Brien and Others on Trial at Dublin.

DUBLIN, Feb. 15.—In the Commission Court to-day Messrs. Dillon, Sheehy, Crilly and O'Brien pleaded not guilty to the charge of conspiracy to induce tenants to refuse paying their rents. The Crown then proceeded to swear in a jury for the trial of the defendants. Several Catholic jurors, including one named O'Brien, were ordered to stand aside. Counsel for the defendants protested, and for a while there was much commotion.

Mr. O'Brien, one of the defendants, declared he would rather be sent to jail at once than be submitted to a trial before a jury composed so unfairly, that because a man's name was O'Brien he was excluded from it.

Mr. Crilly denounced the Crown's conduct as ruffianly.

Justice Murphy refused to interfere with the exercise of the Crown's privilege of challenging the jury.

After a long wrangle a jury of a composite character was finally sworn. Its character portends disagreement.

THE BARCELONA EXHIBITION.

The Buildings for the Purpose Being Rapidly Constructed.

BARCELONA, Feb. 15.—The buildings for the International Exhibition to be held in this city this year under the auspices of the Government, are being rapidly constructed. They are situated in the public park and adjacent grounds. The exhibition will be opened September 15 by the Queen Regent and other high functionaries, and will remain open for six or eight months. This will be the first international exhibition ever held in Spain. The awards will consist of diplomas of honor; diplomas of gold, silver and bronze medals; honorable mention, besides the awards of a national character which may be specially granted by Her Majesty's Government. Numerous applications for space have come from manufacturers all over Europe, including many from America.

FRIENDLY ISLANDERS EXCITED.

Six of Them Sentenced to Death for Assaulting a Missionary.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Despatches from Auckland, New Zealand, state that the latest advices from Tonga, in the Friendly Islands, were to the effect that the situation had become very serious; that the King had commenced the trial of the men arrested as Missionary Baker's assailants, and that 3000 natives had assembled at the trial. Six natives have been sentenced to death for assaulting Missionary Baker, and the King has refused to grant a petition presented by the Wesleyan missionaries on the islands, asking that mercy be shown the condemned men.

TO COMMEMORATE THE JUBILEE.

Twenty-five Thousand Prisoners to Be Liberated in India.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 15.—Twenty-five thousand of the 75,000 persons at present confined in the different jails throughout India for different offences will be released to-morrow as an act of clemency to commemorate the jubilee of Queen Victoria. In selecting the prisoners to be liberated especial pains have been taken to show leniency to females. All persons imprisoned for debt throughout India in cases where the debt is under 100 rupees will be liberated to-morrow also in commemoration of the jubilee, and in these cases the Government will pay the debt.

Rumored Chinese Invasion of Burmah.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Advices from India say that news of a Chinese invasion of Burmah has been conveyed in a letter to Thebaw and Ismah, who are visiting Mandalay. The Gazette and Pioneer of Bombay confirm the news. The Chinese Government has sent to the British Foreign Office a telegraphic despatch saying that it is unaware of any movement on the Chinese frontier adjacent to Burmah, and assuring the Government of the continued amity of China.

The Case of the Crofters.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—In the House of Commons this evening Mr. Cameron moved an enquiry into the "harsh and unjust" administration of the law in the Crofter districts. The Lord Advocate of Scotland denied the truth of the charge that had been made against the Scotch executive. He contended that the Crofters had been treated as leniently as possible. In the face of the opinion against the payment of rent the Government refuses to grant any further enquiry in the matter.

THE BIG STRIKE OVER.

Business Along the New York River Front Fully Resumed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The business of the steamship and railroad companies on the piers along the river front has assumed its normal condition, and freight is being moved as systematically as before the big strike. Many of the old hands have gone back to work, and those who took the places of the strikers are now accustomed to the work and the agents who have kept the strikers out say the Italians are as good as their old hands, except for their not understanding the language. The men now acknowledge they were badly beaten, and some of them are severe in their expressions regarding the action of their leaders.

At South Amboy a committee of the strikers this morning called upon the agents of the coal companies and asked upon what terms they would be reinstated in their old positions. They were told that when they were wanted the agents would send for them; the new men would not be discharged.

A FRANTIC LEAP.

Suicide of an Old Man at Suspension Bridge.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE, Feb. 15.—John Stever, a resident of Suspension Bridge, and about 70 years old, procured a ticket from the gate tender at the entrance of the railway Suspension Bridge this morning about 10 o'clock, and after peering strangely over the railway, jumped into the Rapids, falling 190 feet. He was seen by Wm. Gardiner, a carpenter, just before and after he struck the water. Stever was not a drinking man, and no cause can be assigned for the suicide.

An Incident of the Illinois Floods.

STERLING, Ills., Feb. 15.—Word has just been received from up the river that on Friday last two young men, Hugh Ramsey and McClellan Fluck, started in a skiff for the residence of Mr. Dutman, which is situated in a submerged district known as the "Como bottom," for the purpose of rescuing a family. The current upset the skiff, but the occupants caught hold of a clump of willows. In this condition they remained until Saturday morning, when they were rescued, after having been in the water for sixteen hours with the mercury six degrees below zero. Fluck, it is thought, will die, but Ramsey may recover.

He Playfully Snapped the Pistol.

DAYTON, Ala., Feb. 15.—The children of David Prowell have been using an old pistol as a plaything. One of the boys recently loaded the pistol to shoot a rabbit. He afterward laid the weapon, which had not been discharged, on the mantel in the room of his sisters. A day or two afterwards, while the girls were dressing to go to a party, another brother who did not know of the pistol being loaded, playfully snapped it at one of his sisters, and the ball went through her heart, killing her instantly.

Mr. Voorhees' Proposals.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Mr. Voorhees, delegate from Washington Territory (a son of ex-Senator Voorhees), has introduced a scheme to lend government money to co-operative enterprises of trades unions. Mr. Voorhees has also introduced a bill to prevent speculation in coal lands, providing that hereafter such lands shall be only disposed of to companies composed of actual wage-working miners incorporated under the Trades Union Act.

A Bill To Tax Telegraph Companies.

BISMARCK, Dak., Feb. 15.—A bill for the taxation of telegraph companies passed the House yesterday. It provides for the taxation of this property as the property of individuals, and that the tax shall be 60 cents per mile for the first wire, 30 cents per mile for the second, and 20 cents for each additional wire. Telegraph companies must take out a license, and failure to pay the tax abrogates the license.

The Word "Crank" Not Defamatory.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Judge Blodgett, in the United States Court yesterday, sustained the demurrer of the Tribune to the declaration of Albert H. Walker, in which the proprietors of the paper are sued for libel in referring to a pamphlet written by the plaintiff as the work of a crank. The court decided that the word "crank" was not in itself defamation, and that to call a person by that name does not necessarily furnish grounds for action.

A Quail Eater Ready for More.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The proprietor of a chop house on Twenty-sixth-street named Paul last night completed the task of eating eighty-two quail in forty-one days. He also ate five birds additional on a side bet. Ten thousand dollars were wagered on the result. Paul now offers to eat 100 quail in forty-two days.

Threatened Strike at Paterson, N.J.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The Tribune says: There is a strong probability that Paterson, N.J., whose chief industrial stay is its silk manufactories, will soon experience a lock-out that will close every one of these mills and throw 15,000 men and women and children out of employment.

Convicted of Cruelty to a Boy.

PEKIN, Ill., Feb. 15.—Gottlieb and Catharine Sanesi, charged with horrible cruelty to their 10-year old son, were found guilty to-day and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, the extreme penalty of the law. The child, whose feet and part of whose body were amputated, has been taken in charge by a local clergyman.

He Swindled the Farmers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Guy W. Foster, the head of a band of swindlers in this city who have defrauded scores of country merchants by buying produce from them and paying in worthless checks and drafts was to-day sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for six years and one month. Foster's principal accomplice has fled to Canada and cannot be reached.

Compensation for Ill-used Chinamen.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—One of the questions considered at to-day's Cabinet meeting was in regard to the reimbursement of Chinese residents of Washington territory for losses sustained during the riots in that territory last summer. It was decided to refer the claims, amounting to $4167, to Congress, with a recommendation for their payment.

A Salvationist on Trial for Murder.

WARSAW, N.Y., Feb. 15.—The trial of Robert Van Beunt for the murder of Will Roy is progressing slowly. Before the arrival of witnesses from Toronto and St. Catharines, claimed as important by the defence, there will be no developments of much interest to the general public.

Mrs. Logan Will Have $34,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A Herald Washington special says: The Logan fund now amounts to $34,000. This includes the $13,000 raised in Chicago. Capt. Lemon says the balance remaining to Mrs. Logan, after the encumbrances have been lifted from her Chicago and Washington property, will be about $21,000.

The young lady who burst into tears has been put together again, and is now wearing hoops to prevent the recurrence of the accident.

THE GERMAN CONTEST

THE INTERFERENCE OF THE VATICAN IN ELECTIONS DENOUNCED.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—Prof. Virchow, in the course of a powerful speech to the electors of the second Berlin circle, denounced the Vatican's interference as coercion of the Catholic electors which all Germany should resent. Toward the close of his speech he said: "If militarism be the supreme law, the sovereign good to which we must sacrifice commerce, industry, everything, Germany has a bad future in store. War will not be averted by one state's making always greater preparations than a neighboring state. On the contrary, these preparations must eventually result in a collision. Our position in the event of an external attack is the strongest defensive position, and if a foreign state means to attack us it will certainly not be hindered by a difference of 41,000 men." The final passage was received with enthusiastic cheers.

The report that the Crown Prince, Frederick William, was going to Rome to visit the Pope, is semi-officially contradicted.

The North German Gazette confirms the statement that no electoral manifesto will be issued. It says: "The Emperor when recently receiving a deputation from the Oberhaus so clearly expressed his wishes in regard to the September that it is impossible to throw new light upon his position. The electors know what the Emperor expects of them."

A journal in Alsace reports that the Leipsic Court issued a warrant for the search of the house of Herr Schmulz of Strasburg, Secretary of Herr Kable's Election Committee, who was suspected of being connected with the Dereuleide League, and that the police ransacked the house but found nothing of an incriminating nature. The houses of numerous bankers and others throughout the provinces are reported to have been searched for a similar reason.

The Ill-Used Quebec Salvationists.

QUEBEC, Feb. 15.—L'Evenement comments very strongly upon the brutal attacks made on Sunday last upon three women of the Salvation army. It refers to the cowardice of such assault, and asks why no arrests were made, rightly assuming that if such conduct can be indulged in with impunity in full daylight and upon the public streets, like St. John-street, Quebec must soon enjoy the unenviable reputation of a city where men are women beaters.

A Montrealer Among the Killed.

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—The body of another Montrealer has been identified among the number who were killed on the Vermont Central Railway accident, namely, that of Charles Cadieux, and was only identified by a piece of clothing found on the charred remains by Mr. Louis Cadieux, a brother of the deceased, who had gone down for the purpose of discovering some trace of his brother if possible.

Killed By An Express Train.

RUSCOMB STATION, Ont., Feb. 15.—Patrick Burns, while attempting to cross the track this afternoon, was struck and instantly killed by the Chicago express going west, which was one hour late and running about sixty miles an hour. The unfortunate victim was a farmer, about 40 years of age and single.

The Quetlah Railway.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—A despatch from Moscow says the Indian authorities have concluded to extend the Quetlah Railway to Northwest Afghanistan in order to secure an outlet for British commerce in Central Asia and that the Czar has sent a number of Russian officers to Afghanistan to investigate the matter.

Evictions on a Large Scale.

DUBLIN, Feb. 15.—Numerous extra police have been drafted in the County Clare, the authorities fearing further outrages. Evictions on a large scale have been commenced on Lord Cork's estate, on the opposite side of the bay from Glenbeigh. Little resistance is offered, but police are being boycotted.

THE "BALANCE OF TRADE."

The following facts are gleaned from the trade and navigation returns for the year ending 30th June, 1886, and the comparisons made do not show that Conservative rule is to the advantage of the country. Figures are dry reading, but he who is really interested in his country's welfare will find profit in a careful perusal of them.

The exports have fallen from $102,137,203 in 1882, to $85,257,314 in 1886. In 1874, thirteen years ago, Canada's exports were over two millions greater than in 1886. The imports have also fallen off from $119,419,500 in 1882, to $104,424,561 in 1886. In 1878 the so-called balance of trade against Canada's excess of imports over exports was $13,658,120. In 1886 the balance between exports and imports reached $19,173,247, or nearly six millions more than in 1878. In 1886 the excess in the value of imports over Canadian products imported was $20,611,326, while in 1878 it was only $24,022,908. Average balance of trade against Canada for the past five years, $23,063,437, compared with $13,658,120 in 1878. The following table shows the value of imports and exports in each year since 1878:—

Year.	Exports	Imports.	Duty.
1878	$ 79,323,067	$ 93,081,787	$12,795,602
1879	71,491,245	81,996,427	12,839,540
1880	87,911,458	85,489,747	16,126,849
1881	98,249,439	105,320,840	18,569,875
1882	102,137,203	119,419,500	21,706,837
1883	99,053,801	132,284,977	23,172,209
1884	91,466,695	116,977,643	20,166,955
1885	89,235,391	108,941,648	19,133,956
1886	85,251,314	104,424,561	18,448,123

The average amount of Customs duties paid per head of population by the people of Canada, as shown by the Customs returns, was $4.40 in 1886, $4.29 in 1885, and $3.46 in 1878. Allowing for the increase of population the Customs taxation per head was $1.03 greater in 1886 than in 1878. The average percentage of duties levied upon goods dutiable and free entered for consumption in 1886 was 19.50, compared with 18.61 in 1885, and 14.03 in 1878. The average rate imposed upon dutiable goods entered for consumption in 1886 was 27¼ per cent., compared with 26 per cent. in 1885, and 20 per cent. in 1878. The value of free goods imported in 1886 was $28,943,875, compared with $29,440,401 in 1885, and $30,619,262 in 1878. The following summary of the value of the articles exported in 1878, 1885, and 1886 show how the exports of Canadian manufactures have fallen off under Tory rule:—

	1886.	1885.	1878.
Agricultural Implt's	$ 16,658	$ 22,610	$ 36,347
Biscuits	15,384	15,826	29,964
Carriages	32,388	26,873	59,453
Clothing	12,946	15 055	26,234
Glassware	1,631	739	2,180
Grindstones	21,110	21,662	42,812
Sewing machines	25,677	29,226	273,250
Boots and shoes	68,534	78,199	246,342
Ships	208,353	246 277	1,218 144
Tobacco and cigars	22,150	25 959	68,259
Household furniture	25 070	25 831	78,808
Woollens	28 298	58,738	32,800

The following table shows how the Conservatives are strengthening British connection by means of weakening our trade relations:—

	Exports to.	Imp. from.	Duty.
Great Britain	$41,542,629	$40,601,199	$7,347,359
United States	38,578,769	44 858 039	6,790,683
France	534 363	1,975,218	735,697
Germany	293 796	2,185,523	598 161
Spain	53,075	473,465	149,387
Portugal	245,650	50,477	30 514
Italy	108,691	106,697	35 200
Holland	7,587	891,972	608,570
Belgium	6 565	591 907	132 114
Newfoundland	1,754,399	364 331	2,402
West Indies	2,121,570	2 144 672	1,384,320
South America	1,010 034	1 100,995	503 738
China and Japan	63,116	2,432 565	148 608
Australia	236,359	not given	not given
Switzerland	not given	263,085	49 052
Other countries	711,316	1,391,739	478,031

It will be observed that although we imported more from the United States than from Great Britain in 1886, yet the British imports paid over a million dollar more Customs duties than did the American goods. The returns for last year show that our exports to Great Britain have declined from $53,751,570 in 1881, to $41,542,629 in 1886; those to the United States from $47,970,711 in 1882, to $38,578,769 in 1886: those to the West Indies from $3,414,147 in 1875, and $2,533,283 in 1885, to $2,121,570 in 1886.

The ship-building business has become almost extinct in Canada since 1878. The following is a statement of the tonnage of shipping built in each Province in the year named:

	1886.	1885.	1878.
Ontario	1,302	6,857	3,220
Quebec	3 0 4	3,716	14,347

PROMISE AND FULFILMENT.

Sir John A. Macdonald promised us the N. P., and we got it. He promised us that Canadian "Appian War," the C. P. R. and we got it. He promises us now that he will give us protection for our fisheries, and we shall get that too.—[Toronto Standard, Sir John Macdonald's personal organ.

Sir John Macdonald gave the country the N. P., but nearly every prediction made by him in regard to its operation has been falsified.

The manufacturers have only saved themselves from disaster by entering into iron-clad combinations.

He gave the country the C. P. R., and he said it would not cost the country a dollar—a statement which he knew to be monstrously deceptive when he uttered it.

He promised to protect the fisheries; and he did not do it.

He promised to give the farmers higher prices on all sorts of products and the farmers know how this promise has been kept.

He promised, through the agency of the fishery negotiations, to secure reciprocal trade with the States; and he did not do it.

He promised to secure a market for Nova Scotia coal in the United States; and he did not do it.

He promised to secure a market for Canadian fish in the United States; and he did not do it.

He promised at the general elections four years ago, that millions of foreign capital would be invested in Canadian iron mines, if his party were returned to power; but it never came.

In place of all these promised advantages, which never came, he has given the country a North-West rebellion, secession in Nova Scotia, a religious crusade in Ontario, and a prospect of non-intercourse with the fifty-five millions of people in the United States.

He promised that the Dominion annual expenditure would not exceed $22,500,000, while the actual expenditure under his Government has been as follows:—

	Actual expenditure.	Excess.
1878-79	$ 24,545,251	$ 1,945,251
1879-80	24 830,691	2 230 691
1880-81	26,5 8,554	3,962,554
1881-82	27,067,554	4,567,554
1882-83	28,739,157	6,239,157
1883-84	31 1=7,706	8,667,706
1884-85	35,037,089	12,537,089
1885-86	39,089,009	16,589,009
Totals	$235,751,636	$56,751,046

Of what use to refer to what Sir John Macdonald "promised?" He has fooled the people too long. Let the electors see to it that he is deprived of the power next Tuesday,

Liberal Campaign Song.

BY JOHN MARSIL, M.D., KEENE, ONT.

AIR—"The Red, White and Blue."

Hark, hark!—'tis the sound of the battle!
Or the voice of victorious song,
Like a slogan—from ocean to ocean—
Or a tempest comes booming along;
Like a lion, then rise, thou young nation!
And your armour on-gird, while you may,
And strike with the strength of a giant,
And fight till the right rules the day.

Chorus—And fight till the right rules the day.
And fight till the right rules the day,
And strike with the strength of a giant,
And fight till the right rules the day.

Tho' the earth to its centre shall tremble!
Arise in your might, O ye brave!
And dash from the hand of the tempter
The chains that would make you a slave.
With Mowat a Blake, and Mackenzie,
As chieftains in liberty's fray,
We'll gird up our loins for the battle,
And fight till the right rules the day.

Chorus—And fight till the right rules the day, etc.

With a Blake and a Cameron* to lead us,
We shall follow, where truth leads the way;
And pluck from our bosom the leeches,
That are draining our life-blood away.
Here's a health to our Cartwright, the valiant!
And a cheer for the true Laurier!
While we rally and stand by our colors,
And fight till the right rules the day.

Chorus—And fight till the right rules the day, etc.

High Living.

High living is unquestionably bad for the liver, but whether from that or other causes, the liver becomes deranged, the best cure for liver complaint or biliousness, is that standard medicine for sale by all druggists, Burdock Blood Bitters. Remember B. B. B. is the special trade mark of this medicine. 2w7d

From Manitoba.

In a letter from James Irwin, Beaver Creek, Manitoba, he says: "I was taken ill last summer with a very severe pain in my back. By using one bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil I was completely cured." Yellow Oil also cures lumbago, rheumatism and all external and internal pains. 2w7d

Not a Farmer.

"You are not a farmer, are you, Mr. Featherly?" Bobby inquired, as that young man settled himself on the sofa for a party call. "Because pa told me that from the way you acted at the supper table last night you must b'lieve in makin' hay while the sun shines."

Salt Rheum Cured.

McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate has been tried and found to be the only positive cure for Salt Rheum, Pimples, Blotches on the face or hands, Cuts, Burns, Bruises, or any Sore that nothing else will heal. Try McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. 25c. per box at John McKee's Drug Store. eodw7

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds, sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. Beaw, Cook's Mills, Serpent River. 2w7d

Wouldn't be Lonesome.

Mrs. Jones: "You won't be lonesome, dear, while I'm away, with no one to play the piano for you?" Jones (a brute): "O, no, guess not. I understand the new boiler shop across the way is about to run day and night."

Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards. 2w7d

DOMINION ELECTION.

HON. O. MOWAT

Attorney General of the Province of Ontario,

—AND—

Mr. Geo. A. Cox,

Will address the Electors of Peterborough and vicinity in the OPERA HOUSE, on FRIDAY Evening, Feb. 18th.

A large attendance of the Electors is particularly requested.

MR. J. R. STRATTON, M.P.P., will occupy the chair.

God Save the Queen.

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day: February 15th.

Polling Day: February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secrecy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political-Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES:

SUITS, made to Order - - $12
Formerly sold for $15.

SUITS, made to Order - - $14
Formerly sold for $17.

SUITS, Ready-made, for $5 and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00——$4.00——$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

H. LeBRUN

R. W. MUNCASTER.

Lakefield School Fuel.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR, in the DAILY EXAMINER of the 10th inst. your correspondent from Lakefield asserts that on Wednesday, the 2nd inst. there was no wood at the Lakefield Public School, that wood had to be borrowed from the caretaker, and that the "scholars sat shivering in their outside wraps."

Will you kindly allow me to say on behalf of the committee and of the School Board that there is not a word of truth in the above charges. We have, and always have had, a plentiful supply of the best wood that can be procured.

Yours truly,
WM CALDWELL, Chairman.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

POLITICAL MEETING.

A meeting in the interests of Mr. Stevenson was held here on Friday evening. Mr. O'Donohue appeared on behalf of Mr. Stevenson, and although an able speaker, the greater portion of his address was more adapted to a Home Rule meeting than a meeting in this campaign. Mr. Stratton appeared on behalf of Mr. Cox and soon laid bare the arguments of Mr. O'Donohue.

THOSE ISLANDS.

The Review in regard to the statement made at Mr. Cox's meeting puts words into Mr. Stratton's mouth which he did not utter at the place mentioned nor did he attempt indirectly to convey that impression to those present. Mr. Hilliard also made the same charge at Mr. Stevenson's meeting but it was promptly denied by Mr. Stratton, which received the unanimous approval of those present. In future Mr. Strickland had better consult stronger authority than the Review before he goes to the trouble of furnishing its readers with a lot of figures unless the Conservatives are merely setting up straw men to knock them down.

ENTERTAINMENT.

An entertainment under the auspices of the celebrated Crowe family was given here on Wednesday evening and was well attended. The programme consisted of choruses, songs, solos, violin and organ music, all of which was splendidly rendered.

THE PORTUGUESE AT ZANZIBAR.

Relations With the Sultan Ruptured and the Flag Hauled Down.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Advices from Zanzibar state that the Sultan refuses to comply with the demand of the Portuguese Governor of Mozambique to surrender the territory claimed by Portugal, but recognised in the Anglo-German agreement with the Sultan as belonging to Zanzibar, and has referred the matter to the friendly powers. Portugal has ruptured diplomatic relations with the Sultan and hauled down the Portuguese flag from the consulate at Zanzibar. A number of Portuguese men-of-war have proceeded to Tungi, the bombardment of which is threatened.

THE OLD SYSTEM MADE GOOD MEN.

From the San Francisco Alta.

The question of long hours of labor is one that will not down. It is not to the advantage of the community to deprive large masses of men of needful rest and occasional leisure. But there were generations of men reared in this country under longer hours of labor than are anywhere exacted now by mine, mill or railroad owners. Not many years ago the majority of laborers in this country were on farms engaged in rural occupations. We know how it went with them, for we were "there." Their average pay was $15 per month. Their hour to rise and begin the work of the day averaged, the year round, 4.30 a.m., and their hour to knock off, when the last "chore" was done, 9 o'clock p.m., with a liability to a call in the night if a horse got "cast" in his stall, or a moon calf's mother needed looking after, or a doctor had to be ridden for to attend some sick member of the family. The day's work, from boots to socks, was a good full seventeen hours, for 50 cents. We seem to remember that it raised pretty good men. By three and a third months' work they earned enough money to enter forty acres of land, and were soon hiring other young fellows for the same wages. In those days young Americans were not on the trail of a "soft thing." They were not blubbering on the roadside for sympathy. They had no "walking delegates" to destroy the business of employers who had been guilty of the incredible wickedness of giving them work and wages. They were not in the attitude of permanent protest against their lot in life. Instead of whining about it they used its few advantages to honorably work their way out of it, and they were better sons, better husbands and better fathers for the manliness engendered by the experience.

Heat and Cold.

Is a never failing cause of disease. At this season of the year neuralgia, toothache, and a host of similar diseases are rampant. The great question, then is to find the quickest, surest, and most economical remedy. Poison's NERVILINE exactly fills these requirements. It is prompt, efficient, and most economical, for it exceeds in power every known remedy, and is as cheap as inferior articles. A 10 cent sample bottle will convince every person a chance to test it. Large bottles only 25 cents. d&w7

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let the wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can fail to find immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 50,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

A Veritable Brute.

"Shall I light the gas?" asked the landlady at the supper table. "Oh, it isn't necessary," answer the new boarder, "the supper is light enough."

Brain Work.

requires for its successful and pleasurable pursuit a full, uniform and continous supply of pure, rich blood to the brain. If, through the torpidity of the liver, the blood becomes foul with bile, the brain is poisoned and over-stimulated with the excess of blood which the irritated heart sends to it with frantic impulses. Dizziness, heaviness, loss of memory, impossibility of application to any kind of work, reveal the truth. To relieve this, and preserve not only the brain but the whole system in the best working order, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will be found invaluable. 6dw7

Turnbull is now agent for the Domestic Paper Patterns of New York The best and simplest ever shown.

Practising Law Again.

By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Mr. G. M. Roger, while retaining the management of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Co., has resumed the practice of law.

Don't Misunderstand.

It may save a misunderstanding by stating that Mr. Thos. Dolan is retiring from the dry goods trade only, and will confine himself exclusively to the tailoring and clothing business in the future. Some are under the impression that he is going out of business altogether, which is not the case, as he will continue to carry on the clothing store on the corner the same as formerly.

"Grip's" Election Returns.

Grip has made special arrangements—telegraphic and artistic—by which a feat, hitherto unattempted in illustrated journalism, will be accomplished on Wednesday, 23rd inst.—the day after the elections. On that day Grip will appear as a 24-page paper, with a large double cartoon in three colors, giving (pictorially) the result of the elections. The front and back pages will also be in colors. This issue will go to all regular subscribers free, but will sell to others at 10 cents. Address Grip, Toronto, or ask your bookseller.

Selling Out to go West.

An extensive credit sale of farm stock, implements, etc., will take place on the premises of Wm. Charlton, Esq., lot 18, 5th concession, Douro, two miles from Lakefield on the Warsaw road, on Thursday, March 3rd, by George McIlmoyl, auctioneer. Sale will commence at 10 o'clock, sharp. This sale is without any reserve, as Mr. Charlton has sold his farm and is going West. For terms and particulars of articles to be sold, see posters.

Spring lace curtains at Turnbull's. The designs are so new and prices so low they are sure to be sold early in his steering sale of spring goods which has now commenced.

Mount Pleasant.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CONCERT.—The Mount Pleasant Band will hold their annual concert on Friday, 18th. A good time may be expected as the "boys" never do things by halves.

Why does the weather change so suddenly and so often? Can it be that it forbodes a change in the government on the 22nd?

To Peterborough Mechanics.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you let me have a few lines to call upon my brother mechanics to rally round and stand by Mr. Cox on election day, because I think Mr. Cox is the best friend the mechanics of this town have ever had or ever will have. It is Mr. Cox, and not any act of Parliament, that the mechanics of Peterborough have to thank for steady employment and good wages. Just look at the amount of building he has done and is doing all the time. Every year thousands of dollars a month, in the building season, of Mr. Cox's money have found their way into the mechanics' pockets, and, therefore, when Mr. Cox asks permission to watch over our interests at Ottawa, he should have the solid support of the mechanics of this town. We would be ungrateful if we do not stand by our best friend. I, for one, in my own interests, am determined to show my appreciation of Mr. Geo. A. Cox, by marking my ballot opposite his name next Tuesday.

Yours truly,
A MECHANIC.

Peterborough, Feb. 16th, 1887.

The Hospital Again.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR.—If the council is going to do anything to get rid of this incumbrance upon the town it must be done now. Parliament meets again on the first of March and there is only a limited time given to apply for the legislation required. The application by the council should therefore be in by the 15th of March, and the legislation to be asked for is as follows: "An Act repealing the former Act upon this subject and also giving power to the trustees for the time being to re-convey the property again to Mrs. Nicholls, and also making it compulsory upon the trustees so to re-convey upon a resolution of the council to that effect." Without this compulsory power on the part of the Council, the trustees might refuse to re-convey, and then we would be just where we were. This application on the part of the Council must be carefully watched, to see that it embraces all that is required, as above stated. We will see now whether the councillors will carry out the public wish in this respect. People are complaining of their excessive taxes, and no wonder they do so. And the effect is going to be, if continued, to reduce rents and with it the value of property as well. Let us watch and see what will be done at the next meeting of the Council.

RATEPAYER.

Mr. Stevenson's "Little Joke."

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—In your issue of Monday appears Mr. Stevenson's feeble attempt to reply to my letter charging him with the serious offence of misusing his position for his own advancement. It is all very well to say his promise of a Scott Act subscription was made "laughingly and in a joke," but it is no joke for the money of the ratepayers, devoted to charity, to be turned over to the Scott Act fund to betray the hotel-keepers and make the Conservative candidate "solid" with a party he has done his little best to injure. If he only intended the offer as a joke, why did he not say so when the money was voted in his presence by the town council? This excuse is a little "too thin" as Mr. Stevenson will yet find to his sorrow. The grant "was not sought after" by Mr. Stevenson, he asserts, but the facts show that it was suggested by him and carried out according to his suggestions. He did ask for the grant, stating that as other mayors had got it, he didn't see why he should not get it. If Mr. Stevenson's disbursements for charity are so great, why is it that the town has to pay such enormous sums for charitable purposes?

I hold that Mr. Stevenson has not answered nor cleared up the serious charges I made, and the fact that he suffers himself to lie under such serious charges without making a defence, shows that a guilty conscience embarrasses him in taking the sharp curve, which he knows better than any other man how to take. Everybody in town knows that it is a bad "mess." Mr. Stevenson cannot talk himself out of it by plausible explanations, and the fact that he has failed to clear himself of the "mess" arising out of his little joke, argues that it is a more serious matter than he is capable of handling. The facts are too straight.

Your obedient servant,
ELECTOR.

Peterborough, Feb. 15th, 1887.

Campaign Meeting.

Mr. Cox and Mr. Bertram addressed a large gathering of the electors of the Second Line, Smith, Tuesday evening. Mr. Carnegie appeared on behalf of Mr. Stevenson and said his piece. The meeting was largely in the interest of Mr. Cox.

Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Moore delivered addresses to the electors of the Fourth Line, Smith, Tuesday night. Mr. Moore rode the temperance horse and claimed that Sir John was the faithful friend of the temperance cause and concluded his speech by the assertion that "Sir John was as high above Mr. Blake and his other detractors as heaven is above the earth." This, among the other statements made by Mr. Moore was too much for a gentleman in the audience who exclaimed: "May the Lord have mercy on your soul!" Mr. Stratton spoke in the interests of Mr. Cox.

Smith promises to give a good account of herself next Tuesday by rolling up a large majority for Mr. Cox.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 16.

An old man, dsaf, dumb and infirm, was found on the streets last night and taken to the cells.

Yesterday afternoon Peter Warner, of Ashburnham, was arrested by P. C. Adams on a charge of perjury committed on Feb. 8th, in the Lipsett assault case. Chief Cooper was the complainant. At the request of the defendants counsel the case was enlarged till Monday next.

Last night three young men went to the Salvation Army barracks. They were boisterous and insulting, and a couple of muscular supporters of the Army "fired" them after a long and bloody tussle. P. C. Pidgeon came along and took the most obstreperous one of the three to the coop. He resisted, but "Dick" had hold of him, and he had to go. This morning he paid his fine and was dismissed.

Ladies will do well to remember that Turnbull is showing piles of new dress goods and tri mmings in all the latest shades. His clearing sale of spring goods is now going on.

"The Union Forever," sang the customer who saw we had united the best quality with the lowest prices. R. FAIR.

Customs Law.

The following "card" is being generally circulated throughout the Dominion:—

To all Importers:

How should you like to have the pleasure (?) of "Handing over immediately All Invoices, Bills, Accounts and Statements of any portion of your importation for the past three years," to a person practically irresponsible for their use and safety?

This modest demand can be made upon you, under section 214 of Customs Act, by any Customs Officer, or special agent, who may be thereto incited by the chance of plunder.

Note specially that the burthen of disproof of alleged fraud lies with you, and even when such alleged or assumed fraud shall have been absolutely refuted, at your trouble and expense, and to an Interested Tribunal (The Customs Department), you have no redress for time and trouble, but will be be graciously let off and told not to do it again. In the interval, your business may languish and your credit be spoiled.

This is a specimen of Customs Law, as distinguished from Common Law.

DO YOU PROPOSE TO SUPPORT SUCH?

PUT THE QUESTION TO THE CANDIDATE WHO SOLICITS YOUR VOTE.

Received this week at Turnbull's a large shipment of wool and tapestry carpets all new patterns, extra good value.

A Sensation Ahead.

There promises to be startling developments in reference to the conduct of the present campaign, in the West Riding particularly. Something is sure to drop before many days, and it will light like a bombshell, too. A mysterious stranger, loaded down with "boodle," little suspects that detectives are on his trail through the side lines of Smith township, and when they overtake him there will be a genuine political sensation. There will be weeping and wailing in one political camp and corresponding rejoicing in the other, but it will be nothing to the rejoicing that will break forth when the public learn that Belleghem, the Famous Furniture Factor, is selling the best furniture in the Midland District, and that he keeps a stock unrivalled for variety, extent, and beauty. Warerooms, Hunter street, Peterborough.

Just received at Turnbull's an assortment of new patterns in cottonades and shirtings, warranted fast colors and prices the lowest in the market.

In Great Haste.

A ROUND OF FESTIVITIES.

Dinner Parties and Balls Mark the Vice-regal Course in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—Their Excellencies, Lord and Lady Lansdowne, will give a grand dinner party this evening and every evening for the balance of the week. Their Excellencies and suite will attend a ball to be given in their honor at the Kennels to-morrow evening. On Friday they will open the Cathedral Bazaar and attend the Royal Scots' ball in the evening. On Monday next a grand state ball will be given in the Queen's Hall by Their Excellencies, to which leading citizens will be invited.

The Expedition to the Philippines.

MANILLA, Feb. 16.—The expedition under the Government of the Philippine Islands, which went to Mindanao, shelled that place and dispersed the natives after a short skirmish. The expedition then landed and erected two forts previous to proceeding to the interior. The Sultan of Soolos, assisted by Spanish troops, has defeated the rebel natives and forced them to submit to his authority.

Mrs. Druse Must Hang.

ALBANY, Feb. 16.—In less than two weeks Mrs. Druse, the Herkimer County murderess, will be hanged, unless Governor Hill interferes. He is awaiting the action of the Legislature on the bill abolishing the death penalty for women. There is no hope for Mrs. Druse. Only nine senators and twenty five assemblymen favor the bill. Thirteen senators and eighty-three assemblymen will vote against it. They believe that capital punishment for man and woman should be the same, and so there is no likelihood that Mrs. Druse will be saved.

ONE MORE MISSING.

A Young Lady From Lakefield Killed in the Vermont Central Accident.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—Miss Agnes Rogers, daughter of Mr. Rogers of Lakefield, Que., has been living in Boston, Mass., for the last two years. She intended to come to the carnival and took the train in Boston, but has not been heard of since. A lady friend of hers, who had accompanied her to the depot, despatched to Miss Rogers' brother, immediately after the intelligence about the disaster at Woodstock, Vt., reached Boston, a message to the effect that Miss Rogers was on the wrecked train. Her brother went to Woodstock, but could find no trace of her after two days' search. All further enquiries have proved futile and it supposed that she has been one of the victims.

Bodies Identified.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Feb. 16.—The last two bodies at the morgue were identified this morning. They were those of Peter McLean of Acton, P.Q., and D. Maigen, a notary public of Shawenegan, P.Q.

Strange Occurrence in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Francis M. Soule, a dressmaker living at Thirteenth and Vine streets, was found in her room yesterday evening bound hand and foot and in a semi-conscious condition. When the cords were removed her wrists and ankles were badly swollen, and dark furrows marked the flesh. The gas had been turned on full from the burners, evidently with the intention of suffocating her. When able to speak Mrs. Soule stated that a poorly-dressed woman had knocked about 10 o'clock in the morning and asked for food. As she turned her back to get it the woman drew a knife and made a threatening movement at her. Mrs. Soule fainted and remembers little else. While unconscious her pocket was rifled of over $20 in money, and a gold ring was taken from her finger. Jenny Bridge, a woman of 22, has been arrested for the affair. The police are looking for other parties thought to have had a hand in it.

The Case of the Rev. O. A. Booth.

BUFFALO, Feb. 16.—Rev. Mr. Booth is not insane, but he is a sufferer from insomnia and from that gaberous affliction of so many professional men, dipsomania. It was at his own request that Drs. Conkley, Wyckoff and Granger last week examined him for his trouble and found that his volition was powerless to withstand the craving for stimulants. He thought and his physicians thought that a period of about six months of absolute rest and retirement from temptation would place him on his feet again. The commitment was signed by Judge Hammond. Mrs. Booth has returned with her children to St. Catharines, where her people are prominent and well to do. Mr. Booth may quit the asylum at any time he sees fit. It is probable he will seek a mission afterward, or an educational position.

The Campaign in Kerry.

DUBLIN, Feb. 16.—A conflict occurred today between a force of police on their way to evacuate a number of evictions orders, and a part of the population of Ilhgin, County Kerry. The people barricaded the roads, in some cases building stone walls across them. The police were at first driven away and compelled to retreat. They reformed and then charged with batons, and clubbed rifles upon the people, who fought desperately, many of them using stones in their defence. A number of men and women were injured.

FIFTY YEARS A QUEEN

CELEBRATION OF VICTORIA'S JUBILEE IN THE EAST.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 16.—In all the chief cities of India to-day imposing fetes are being held in commemoration of the Queen's jubilee. The celebrations will last three days. In all the Christian churches and in the native temples and mosques thanksgiving services have been held. A number of prisoners who have been in durance for debt or for offences against the civil or military law were set free at daylight. The Viceroy has received a large number of congratulatory addresses from all cities in India to be forwarded to the Queen.

The Celebration at Mandalay.

MANDALAY, Feb. 16.—The Queen's jubilee was celebrated here to-day by a parade of troops and the giving of salutes. Sir Charles Bernald, Chief Commissioner, in the presence of the native officials, ex-King Theebaw and Chief Isawbwa, made a speech in which he viewed the successful reign of the Empress and Queen. He warmly greeted the Chinese officials present, assuring them that the interests of China would be protected. Robes were presented to six native priests and minor titles were conferred upon a number of Burmese officials.

Radicals Who Do Not Honor the Queen.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—A mass meeting was held at Dartford to-day to make arrangements for the celebration of the Queen's jubilee. The proceedings were turbulent owing to the opposition of a large number of Radicals. The playing of the Queen's anthem was received with hisses and shouts of derision. Finally a committee on arrangements was nominated in spite of the protests of the bulk of those present.

THE SLAYER OF J. WILKES BOOTH.

Easton Corbett, who Shot the Assassin, Becomes Insane.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 16.—Easton Corbett, who gained a reputation as the slayer of John Wilkes Booth, has added somewhat to his notoriety by terrorizing and capturing for a time the Kansas House of Representatives. Corbett is a confirmed crank, and has made himself somewhat notorious in various ways. He was at the commencement of the session appointed assistant doorkeeper. There have been few signs of insanity until yesterday, when he strapped on two revolvers, and with a drawn weapon drove a negro attendant from the Representative hall. Sergeant-at-Arms Norton attempted to expostulate, when Corbett cocked his revolver and pointing it direct at the officer told him to travel. He went. The maddened man then searched for Speaker Smith, and meeting a member who somewhat resembled the Speaker, was about to fire when the man threw up his hands and said he was not the Speaker. He was allowed to move on. Corbett then took possession of the Speaker's gallery, and, walking in front of the doors, held it during the entire forenoon session, refusing to allow any one to come near. Three city policemen were called, but they would not venture into the lion's corner, and the slayer of Booth held his position. At 12 o'clock he sent word down to the House to adjourn or he would come down and adjourn it himself. The House adjourned. Corbett was afterward captured in the lower corridor, disarmed and taken to the police station, where he is now confined. He will be taken before the probate judge, and judged insane and confined in an asylum.

A GAY DAY FOR TALMAGE.

His House a Bower of Flowers in Honor of His Daughter's Marriage.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 16.—A noted society event last night was the wedding of Miss Edith Elworth Talmage, daughter of Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage, and Allan Edloe Donnan of Richmond, Va. The Tabernacle had been transformed for the occasion into a vast conservatory of flowers by the decorator. Rev. Dr. T. Dewitt Talmage, the father of the bride, and his brother, Rev. D. Gager Talmage, officiated. Miss Tucker and Miss Gallaudet of New York were bridesmaids. The bride was accompanied by Miss Talmage, her sister, as maid of honor, and by two younger sisters as attendants. The bride wore a white corded silk en train with trimmings of the finest Duchess lace. Her ornaments were diamonds, the gift of the groom. The bridal bouquet was lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. There were 5000 guests.

A reception followed at the family mansion, which, like the church, was a perfect bower of plants and flowers. The presents were almost innumerable, and were elegant and costly. Among those present were Gen. W. T. Sherman, Miss Sherman, Senator Colquitt, Mayor Whitney, Hon. and Mrs. Q. T. Strandhan, Cyrus W. Field, ex-Mayor and Mrs. Seth Low, ex-Mayor Grace, Gen. and Mrs. Stewart L. Woodford, Miss Woodford, Gen. and Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk, and many others.

THE FALLS SUICIDE.

Unavailing Search for the Body of Old Man Stever.

NIAGARA FALLS, Feb. 16.—The body of John Stever, who jumped from the railway suspension bridge yesterday, has not yet been found. Stever was 86 years old and his mind had been unbalanced for some time. His health was also feeble. He had lived at the Falls since 1857, and had saved enough from his trade as carpenter to live comfortably. His wife died five years ago and he then sold the homestead to his grandson and made his home with him. At 9 a.m. yesterday the old man left the house, saying he was going to a drug store. He went directly to the bridge, and when turned back by a bridge employe bought a ticket and was allowed to pass. He was not seen to jump, but W. Gardner, foreman of repairs, heard the noise of a falling body, and on investigation Stever was found to be missing, and his ticket had not been taken up on the Canadian side. He told his daughter in the morning, when she came in to fix his room, that it would probably be the last time, but no attention was given the remark. Stever leaves two daughters and one son.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PLAN

HE WOULD GIVE TWO PARLIAMENTS TO IRELAND.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—At the Chamberlain-Trevelyan conference to-day, Baron Herschell, Sir W. Vernon Harcourt and Mr. Morley being present, Mr. Chamberlain presented the draft of a scheme for the government of Ireland, which is a modification of his former proposals for the establishment of a Provincial Council. He would now establish an Ulster Parliament at Belfast, and another Parliament at Dublin, both to be subordinate to the Imperial Parliament, the Irish bodies holding executive authority within their own limits, but the Crown retaining the appointment of judges and control of customs and excise matters. The conference lasted several hours. Mr. Morley declared his emphatic opposition to Mr. Chamberlain's proposals. He said it would be impossible to obtain the assent of the Parnellites or of the bulk of the Gladstonian Liberals to a scheme which had already been rejected by Mr. Gladstone.

Parnell Will Adjourn the Debate.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Mr. Parnell states that he will move to adjourn the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech, in order to enable the House to form an opinion upon the report of the Land Act Commission, which will be published shortly. He also considers it imperative to call the attention of the House to the grave aspect of the agrarian question. The report recommends the adoption of Mr. Parnell's proposal to alter tenure from fifteen to five years and to admit leaseholders to the benefits of the land act.

No Help for the Crofters.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the House of Commons this evening Mr. Cameron's motion in favor of an enquiry into the "harsh and unjust" administration of the law in the crofter districts was defeated by a vote of 258 to 136.

The Record of a Day.

At Youghal 150 children left school in a body singing "God Save Ireland" because of the presence of two children whose father is an emergency man.

Tenants Armed With Enfield Rifles.

DUBLIN, Feb. 16.—The new Loyalist paper, the Union, published in Dublin, says that all the tenants on the Bodyke estate, where evictions are pending, are armed with Enfield rifles, which were distributed some years ago, and that a few days ago a Fenian visited the locality and provided the tenants with a plentiful supply of ball cartridges. The same paper says that a force of 1000 policemen and soldiers will accompany the sheriffs through the district, which is in a state of civil war.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

A Few Changes Made in the Retaliatory Bill Proposed by the U. S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—In the House to-day the only change in the substitute bill reported from that drawn up by the sub-committee of the Committee on Foreign Affairs is the insertion, after the prohibition against the entry of any locomotive, car or other vehicle, of the words, "With any goods that may be contained therein." The third and last section of the sub-committee bill, providing for the appointment of a commission to take testimony relative to the losses inflicted by the Canadian authorities on citizens of the United States, is stricken out, for the reason that a bill covering the same ground has been already reported by the committee.

FRANCE'S MENACING ATTITUDE.

The Strengthening of the Frontier Line Alarming to Germany.

BERLIN, Feb. 16.—The Nachrichten says: "The threatening character of the situation across the western frontier is becoming much more acute. In view of the fact that huts have already been constructed to shelter 100,000 men, and that preparations have been made to shelter a similar number around Belfort, we have beyond doubt to deal with nothing less than the strengthening of the French line to enable them at the beginning of hostilities to throw a large force across the frontier and thus transfer operations to German territory.

King Humbert's Contribution.

ROME, Feb. 16.—King Humbert has contributed $30,000 to a fund for the relief of the families of the men killed and invalided in the recent battle at Stati, near Massowah. The War Ministry has issued an order eulogizing the troops for their conduct.

The Church in France.

LIBERALS,

RALLY

To-Night!

A Grand Rally of every working Liberal in Town is called for THIS EVENING, in the Liberal Club Rooms, over Telegraph Office.

The Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1887.

HON MR. MOWAT.

Hon. O. Mowat, Premier and Attorney-General of Ontario, who will address the electors in the Opera House on Friday night, will arrive in town at 11.36 a. m., to-morrow. He will be the guest of Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., and will from three to four p. m., be happy to receive at the latter's residence, his many political friends and admirers in town and country.

ENCOURAGING.

The results of the nominations on Tuesday are full of encouragement to the Liberal party. As a result five opponents of the Dominion Government were elected by acclamation in Quebec, to two supporters elected by acclamation—in Yale, B. C., and Lisgar, Man. Conceding all that the friends of the government can fairly claim, Mr. Blake enters the House with a majority of three What a contrast with the result in 1882! At that time the Conservatives secured twenty-three seats by acclamation, and the and the Reformers only one—Iberville. So that in 1882, nomination day gave Sir John a majority of 22, and in 1887 left him in a minority of three. This argues a mighty change in public opinion, and shows that a change has become necessary, and the prospects are that it is near. With a just cause, a patriotic aim, and the encouragement of victory in the preliminery skirmish, the Liberals of Canada can now settle down to the few days' hard work that awaits them, morally certain that, with united endeavor, with unremitting work, the 22nd of February will complete the triumph and Hon. Edward Blake will be Premier of Canada.

THE N. P. NOT IN DANGER.

With a palpable object, the Tory bosses are raising with frantic energy the cry that the "N. P. is in danger." From what source it may be asked? Not from Hon. Blake because he emphatically declared that he has no intention of disturbing the present fiscal policy. This he declared in 1882 and repeats now. In his Malvern speech, he said:—

"Free Trade is, as I have repeatedly explained, for us impossible: and the issue is whether the present tariff is perfect, or defective and unjust."

Mr. Blake's assurances that he will not disturb what is usually known as the National Policy, ought to be accepted and believed. He is an honorable man, not given to claptrap, and what he says may be depended upon. And it is believed by hundreds of leading manufacturers in the Dominion who are giving Mr. Blake their warmest support in this contest. The manufacturers of Brockville have presented him with an address assuring him of their support.

Similar addresses, all declaring confidence in Mr. Blake and disclaiming any fear of injury from his accession to power, have been presented by the manufacturers of Montreal, Brantford, Guelph and other places, and on Monday night in Hamilton fifty-nine of the leading manufacturers and manufacturing firms of that great manufacturing city presented an address to Mr. Blake, which asserts:

"We take advantage of the present opportunity to express our entire confidence in you as a man and a statesman. Strenuous efforts are being made to cloud all the other great issues of the present campaign by asserting that your views are antagonistic to manufacturers' interests, and that the tariff is in danger. We deprecate any such attempt to divert criticism of the Government's record, but at the same time we wish to assure you that, in common with other manufacturers throughout the country, we regard your declared views on the tariff question as those which are best calculated to develop and secure the permanency of our home industries, while affording remunerative employment to the laboring class.

With you we believe that in the present condition of public matters, the tariff is not a question of practical politics, and we feel assured, that, under you as head of the Government, existing interests will be carefully guarded."

Are all these manufacturers fools? They represent millions of capital and every form of Canadian industry. If they thought the interests of the manufacturers were, as the Tory bosses assert, in danger, would they take the course they are taking? Would they support Mr. Blake as they are supporting him? By no means.

No honest man believes that the N. P. is in danger from Mr. Blake, and the N. P. is not an issue in the present contest. Why, then, it may be asked, is raised the cry that it is in danger? Why? Why does the pick-pocket raise the cry of "stop thief?" To divert attention from his own criminality. And the Tory bosses raise the cry that the N. P. is in danger because they want to divert public attention from the shocking depravity of their legislative and administrative record. Therefore, they raise the bogus cry, "The N. P. is in danger," when it is their own political lives that are endangered. The country has sickened of the corruption, waste of public money, enormous increase in annual expenditure, frightful increase of the national debt, shocking immorality of public men, from the members of the Cabinet to the humblest voting-machine in the ranks. And the party bosses know it. The see power and the possibility of plunder and boodle slipping from their grasp. This is what is in danger, and not the N. P. This is why the "danger"-cry, red herring is trailed across the hot scent of public opinion. But it won't work. The party now in power, with a deep sense of guilt, want to be tried for petty larceny when the indictment charges manslaughter. Manslaughter or, rather patricide it will be. The N. P. is not an issue in the present contest. The most abandoned and corrupt government of history is on trial and there must be no amendment of the indictment.

Hastings Happenings.

The annual winter races of the Hastings Driving Association will take place on the little lake near the toll gate on Thursday and Friday, 17th and 18th.

Mr. Thos. O'Neill, of Asphodel, lost a horse by having one of its legs broken by a kick from a neighbor's horse which strayed into the barn yard one day last week.

The Separate School was slightly scorched by fire on Monday last. The caretaker had lighted the fires as usual, and everything appeared to be safe on his leaving, but a scholar arriving shortly afterwards found the building full of smoke. An alarm was given when it was discovered that the floor was on fire near one of the stoves. The school was closed on Monday for repairs.

A team of horses owned by Mr. John Convey, but driven by Mr. Jas. Convey, ran away on Friday last near Havelock, and one of the animals got a leg broken. The poor brute was shot to end its misery. The animal was worth about $150.

Mr. Andrew Lynn jr., had rather a novel experience in the way of travel last Thursday. While loading some furniture on a sleigh at his wareroom, the horse attached to the vehicle became frightened. Mr. Lynn grasped the horse by the mane and endeavored to stop it. The animal however, wouldn't stop, and Mr. Lynn wouldn't let go, so down street both went full sail, the horse on the gallop towing Mr. L. along side, his feet sliding along the slippery street as if on skates. The partnership was dissolved when the grist mill was reached, neither being worse for the trip.—Star.

Heat and Cold.

Is a never-failing cause of disease. At this season of the year neuralgia, toothache, and a host of similar diseases are rampant. The great question, then is to find the quickest, surest, and most economical remedy. Polson's NERVILINE exactly fills these requirements. It is prompt, efficient, and most economical, for it exceeds in power every known remedy, and is as cheap as inferior articles. A 10 cent sample bottle will give every person a chance to test it. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6-1w7

His Little Joke.

"Did you take the street cars down-town this morning?" inquired Gussy.

"No, dear boy. The street caws took me down-town, don't you know. Haw! haw!"

From Manitoba.

In a letter from James Irwin, Beaver Creek, Manitoba, he says: "I was taken ill last summer with a very severe pain in my back. By using one bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil I was completely cured." Yellow Oil also cures lumbago, rheumatism and all external and internal pains. 2w7d

High Living.

High living is unquestionably bad for the liver, but whether from that or other causes, the liver becomes deranged, the best cure for liver complaint or biliousness, is that standard medicine for sale by all druggists, Burdock Blood Bitters. Remember B. B. B. is the special trade mark of this medicine. 2w7d

Getting Blind.

Bobby (returned from an errand)—Ma, Miss Smith is gettin' blind, I think.

Mother—Why, Bobby?

Bobby—Because when I went into the house she said, "Bobby, where's your hat?" and there it was on my head all the time.

A Good Name.

The best recommendation of anything is its popularity where it has been longest known. Throughout the Dominion of Canada there is no more effectual medicine for coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, bronchitis and asthma, than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, for sale by all druggists. 2w7d

DOMINION ELECTION.

HON. O. MOWAT

Attorney General of the Province of Ontario,

—AND—

Mr. Geo. A. Cox,

Will address the Electors of Peterborough and vicinity in the OPERA HOUSE, on FRIDAY Evening, Feb. 18th.

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

A large attendance of the Electors is particularly requested.

The Gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

MR. J. R. STRATTON, M.P.P., will occupy the chair.

God Save the Queen.

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day: February 15th.

Polling Day: February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secresy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political-Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES:

SUITS, made to Order - - $12
Formerly sold for $15.

SUITS, made to Order - - $14
Formerly sold for $17.

SUITS, Ready-made, for $5 and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00——$4.00——$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

H. LeBRUN

A Layman's Services.

Rev. Dr. S., who is a prominent divine in a city not far from New York, had been spending a few days on an island on the Maine coast, and, intending to depart on a certain morning, he started for the boat in company with a friend. A porter followed with the doctor's valise. Arriving at the wharf, they found that, to take advantage of the wind or tide, the boat had gone before the advertised time.

Not aware of the clerical character of the company, the porter swore several shocking oaths in quick succession.

"What do you think of that, doctor?" asked his friend.

"Well," said the doctor, slowly and impressively, "there are times when the services of a layman are indispensable."—Boston Record.

A Race After Snow Elk.

A Lander, Wyoming correspondent of the New York Mail and Express writes: About two months ago a band of snow elk was discovered in the Green River mountains. The rare animals at once excited the hunters of the region, and the snow elk were pursued by a large party. The pursuit was a signal failure, the cunning animals baffling the hunters and escaping into the deepest recesses of the mountains. The party was led into a district of precipices and snow drifts, from which they only escaped by abandoning everything except their arms. One of the baffled hunters, came to the conclusion that he could, by himself, get the best of the cunning snow elk. So ten days ago he left his camp on the Green river for the haunts of those animals. It took him three days of hard toil to reach their habitat. Once there he found the elk.

The rays of an afternoon sun shone full upon the band as it fed upon the side of a mountain some two miles distant. Night-fall found the hunter within a mile of the game, and he lay down in a snow-drift for the night, fully persuaded that the next day would see at least one of the famed snow elk fall by his rifle. With the morning light the elk were still to be seen, and the hunter began his wary approach. Through deep arroyos, beneath lofty precipices, behind huge walls of snow, and ice, the hunter took his way, and by 10 o'clock was almost within range. Selecting a fine cow, whose dazzling white coat shone in the outer circle of the herd, he began a still more cautious approach.

Suddenly the herd, as if moved by a common impulse, raised their heads, and the next instant moved off toward the interior of the mountain. Puzzled and disappointed the hunter followed in their wake. All he could do was to maintain the relative nearness to the herd he had already gained. He could get no nearer. For two days the hunter followed the snow elk into the mountains. Rising from his snowy bed one morning, the hunter found the entire heavens black with the announcement of an approaching storm. The movements of the snow elk no longer puzzled the hunter. They were seeking refuge from the storm their instinct told them was approaching. The hunter lost not a moment in taking the back track. To be caught in these fastnesses by such a storm as was portended means certain death.

Six hours hard traveling placed the hunter on a comparatively low level. Here the storm struck him. For two days he wandered blindly forward, in the midst of whirling snows and savage winds. He dared not pause, though every instant he expected to fall over some hidden precipice, and be buried fathoms deep. When the storm cleared away, our hunter found that he was lost in the midst of frightful drifts. Here his hunting craft saved him. Taking a course he kept it, and after four days of exhausting toil and fearful privations, he came out upon the southern slope of the Wind mountains and saw before him the Lander settlements, ninety miles distant from where he started.

The snow elk is a most rare animal and is know chiefly to this generation by tradition. Until this band was discovered the tales of the snow elk were looked upon as figments. The snow elk is a third larger than the common brown variety and is far more active and cunning. His color is a dazzling white, and it takes the surest and quickest eye to detect his presence amid the snow-drifts when he is not in motion.

Charles Mathews' Wit.

A correspondent of the Whitehall Review writes: "Let me tell you a semi-theatrical story, which I do not think has ever been in print. When I was a boy I used to go to the office of an eminent firm of solicitors, the head partner in which used to give me tickets for the theater. One day he asked me if I would like to see Charles Mathews. I replied in the affirmative. 'Well,' he said, 'I'm just sending a writ up to him, and I'll ask for a ticket for you at the same time.' I returned in the afternoon, and my friend handed me a pass for the theater, and at the same time gave me Charles Mathews' letter which accompanied it. The letter ran: 'Dear Blank—Herewith the ticket for which you have writ.'"

Miss Clara—"Can you recall, Mr. Featherly, the name of the author of that beautiful poem beginning with the line, 'Ah! a wonderful stream is the River Time'?" Mr. Featherly (intently)—"H'm—let me see—he was an Englishman, I fancy. No, stop a moment. I am thinking of the River Thames. The River Time! Are you sure, Miss Clara, that is the name of the river? I never heard of it."—N. Y. Times.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, plains and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Phonetic Philosophy.

"Ma," anxiously inquired a small boy, "is a tapestry like a turkey?" "Why, bless you, no! What put that into your head?" "Well it says something about a Goblein tapestry, anyway."

Brain Work

requires for its successful and pleasurable pursuit a full, uniform and continous supply of pure, rich blood to the brain. If, through the torpidity of the liver, the blood becomes foul with bile, the brain is poisoned and over-stimulated with the excess of blood which the irritated heart sends to it with frantic impulses. Dizziness, heaviness, loss of memory, impossibility of application to any kind of work, reveal the truth. To relieve this, and preserve not only the brain but the whole system in the best working order, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will be found invaluable. 6dw7

He Feared No Foe.

Nero fiddled when Rome was burning. Many now-a-days seem equally indifferent to danger by the manner in which they neglect ill-health. If taken in time, there is scarcely a chronic disease which Burdock Blood Bitters will not eradicate by its purifying, regulating powers. 2w7d

Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards. 2w7d

Time to Stop.

"Yes," bawled a social orator, "I am in favor of the early closing movement for the great mass of toilers." "Well, shut up now," yelled a practical auditor on the floor.

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds, sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. CONSUMPTION, which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequalled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

St. Paul's Church.

On Sunday evening next Mr. George H. Marsh will commence a series of evangelistic services in St. Paul's Church. Mr. Marsh has been greatly blessed in his work in other places, and it is hoped that many will embrace the opportunity of hearing him while he is in Peterborough.

Give Him a Lift.

The police court was a blank this morning. The old deaf-mute picked up Tuesday is still in the cells. He will likely be given a lift by the corporation to Montreal, which place he is trying to reach. He carries a paper which solicits aid in helping him to reach the city, his home.

Extending the Telegraph.

The C. P. R. telegraph line is being rapidly extended. The following places have recently been connected by wire:—Madoc, Weston, Belleville, Stirling, Orangeville, Shelbourne, Port Hope, Owen Sound, Teeswater, Cobourg, Brooklin, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Whitby and Newcastle.

Turnbull is now agent for the Domestic Paper Patterns of New York The best and simplest ever shown.

A Silver Collection Wanted.

Dr. Davies, of Ottawa, is in town to-day. To-night the free organ recital takes place in the George street church. Dr. Davies is the acknowledged organist of Canada. Mr. Lye, the tenor soloist of Toronto, will also sing at the entertainment. A silver collection will be taken up at the door.

A Great Advertisement.

Mr. Harry Winch's horse and cart are in no danger of being arrested by the police for infraction of the sleigh-bells law. This morning his delivery conveyance blossoming with an immense string of gongs, "like sweet bells jingled, out of tune and harsh," wakened the echoes of the street and attracted everybody's attention.

Almost Asphyxiated.

A young man named Johnston, who came from Peterborough, says the Mail, blew out the gas in his room at the Russell House on Tuesday evening, and was nearly dead when discovered Wednesday morning. The strong smell of gas in the corridor was the cause of the room being entered earlier than usual. The young man will live.

New goods. Turnbull has just received a large shipment of Scotch and English suitings and trouserings. If you want a cheap and stylish suit try Turnbull's.

A Snow-plough Smashed.

A snow-plough which was doing duty in clearing the track of the Grand Junction railway, on Saturday last, says the Herald, ran off the rails between Hastings and Keene, and was considerably broken up. An auxiliary train in charge of a gang of men was sent from Belleville in response to a message wired to that effect, and the obstruction was removed and the damaged snow-plough was conveyed to Bath yards on Sunday in swing. One train was late about an hour waiting for a clear track.

Gospel Meeting.

A meeting conducted by Messrs. Marshall and Cole will be held in the Gospel Hall, over China Hall, this evening at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Bargains extraordinary. Previous to the arrival of a large consignment of Lace Curtains now en route from Manchester, we will sell the balance of our magnificent stock on hand at sacrifice prices. An early call solicited as they must be cleared. R. FAIR.

A New Business.

Mr. W. J. Morrow has purchased the Town Clock Grocery and launched out in business. Mr. Morrow is thoroughly acquainted with the business, is popular among all, and will no doubt attract large numbers of his old friends and many new ones to the list of customers of his establishment.

Just received at Turnbull's an assortment of new patterns in cottonades and shirtings, warranted fast colors and prices the lowest in the market.

Colonial Medals.

Nearly three thousand medals and diplomas were received at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, a few days ago. They were sent across the Atlantic by the Imperial Government, and are to be awarded to the Canadian exhibitors at the late Colonial and Indian exhibition. The medals are of bronze, and are very handsome in design and finish. They are about double the size of an ordinary penny. On the obverse side is a profile portrait of the Prince of Wales, while on the reverse are the words, "Colonial and Indian Exhibition, 1886", surrounded by a cluster of oak leaves.

Ring the Wedding Bells.

The residence of Mr. George A. Elliott, of Smith, was lighted up with the joys of a marriage supper on Wednesday evening, the 16th of this month. At 5 p. m., the guests assembled to witness the marriage of his second daughter, Miss Bella Elliott, to the Rev. Alexander Leslie Adam, a minister of the Methodist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. Tovell, Chairman of the Peterborough District, assisted by the Rev. Jas. McFarlane, of Lakefield. Mr. Edward Elliott was the groomsman and Miss Morrow, daughter of W. A. Morrow, Esq., of Peterborough, was the bridesmaid. Presents numerous, varied, and elegant were given, and the best wishes of a joyous company of friends extended to the happy couple.

Spring lace curtains at Turnbull's. The designs are so new and prices so low they are sure to be sold early in his clearing sale of spring goods which has now commenced.

W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held Monday afternoon in the usual place. The President, Miss Sanderson, occupied the chair. The Treasurer's and Secretary's reports were read and accepted. Communications were received from Mrs. Chisholm, Mr. Clark, and Mr. F. S. Spence, also from Miss Pearson, of Brantford, with instructions for carrying on a "Kitchen Garden." As soon as suitable rooms can be obtained "for which a committee was appointed," the work will be commenced. We hope to report more fully on this branch of work next time. We are also pleased to acknowledge the gift of five dollars towards the reading room fund, the gift of a sympathizer in a distant city. It was also decided that the Union continue to hold their meetings on Monday as formerly.

A Bumptious Heifer.

At the corner of Hunter and George streets Wednesday afternoon there was quite a sensation for a few minutes. A farmer was driving a timid little heifer along when it suddenly became possessed of an evil spirit and for a few minutes made things decidedly warm for the farmer, who held on gamely, though it is safe to say he never received such a "yanking" before in his life. The way the heifer pranced, and bawled, and struggled was very amusing—to the spectators, who frequently "scattered" in lively style when the frantic creature rushed their way. In its frenzy it narrowly escaped cooking a horse tied alongside the street. The fun was witnessed by a large crowd.

The Domestic Fashion Sheet for February, has arrived at Turnbull's. Call and get one.

Another Mechanic Speaks.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—In the EXAMINER printed on Wednesday I read a letter from a "brother chip" and I agree with him. I believe Mr. Cox would make the best member for the town and I say too that he deserves it because he has done more than any one man to bring the town to what it is now. Though I was never in his employ, I know that thousands of dollars of his money has gone into the pockets of the wage-earners of the town. Though I am and have been in favour of the N. P., I can't see how thy voting for Mr. Cox is going to damage it. He is in favour of fair protection and that is what the working men want. The present government protects capital and leaves labour to shift for itself. There is more than one kind of protection the country needs—it needs protection from the boodlers that are growing fat on our hard paid taxes. At first it went against the grain to believe what I heard against members of parliament on the same side I had generally voted, though I don't profess to be a very great party politician. But the more I read and looked into the matter I found that the country was being robbed and that our money was worse than wasted. It's time that there was a change. A store keeper can't stand if his clerks keep going through his till, no more can the country, and I am going to vote to put a stop to the till-tapping at Ottawa. I believe Blake's the man to do it. He's an honest man and a smart man, and I believe in him, and what's more I'm going to show it by my vote and I don't believe I'm going to lose it either.

Yours, &c.,
ANOTHER MECHANIC.

Feb. 17, 1887.

Fire at Millbrook.

A Destructive Fire Which Does Considerable Damage.

A telegraph message yesterday states that about 3 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in James Fitzgerald's dry goods store, and afterwards spread to Duncan's [illegible] and Leach's drug store, and Hunter's [illegible] above the store. Fitzgerald lost [illegible] but his loss as well as Leach's will be [illegible] by insurance. The [illegible] no insurance on Duncan's store.

Ladies will do well to remember that Turnbull is shipping piles of new dress goods and trimmings in all the latest shades. His clearing sale of spring goods is now going on.

An Election Larke.

An Ottawa "Orator" at the Opera House.

Wednesday evening there was a fair audience assembled at the opera house to listen to Mr. J. S. Larke of Ottawa discourse upon the National Policy. Mr. Moore occupied the chair and, as the speaker of the evening had not yet arrived, amused the audience by rambling into a speech, to fill in the time. Mr. Pousette followed with his "experiences," and a Mr. Chagnon of Montreal, fresh from the bosom of Mr. Chapleau, spoke in English, and favoured the audience with the astounding message of Mr. Chapleau for Ontario—that Quebec would give Sir John a majority of exactly 22—fractions omitted. There is decidedly good grounds for Mr. Chapleau's confidence, seeing that on Tuesday Quebec returned by acclamation five supporters of Mr. Blake, leaving Sir John to gain 29 of a majority on February 22nd, in order to credit Mr. Chapleau's prophecy. Mr. Larke is a fairly good platform speaker, but his methods partake largely of the clap-trappy style of the demagogue. Mr. Larke began his discourse with a blow below the belt at Sir John. He asserted that while lawyers were necessary in Parliament, a "great lawyer" was not best as chief ruler—a covert allusion to the manner in which the "great constitutional" had shown that he was not a "great lawyer." After a discursive burrowing among antediluvian politics, the speaker came to the surface, to declare that debt was a bad thing—the present Government thought so, too, and after having done so nobly in this direction, the present Government were now going to reduce the debt. They "promised" the same thing in 1878. Hon. Mr. White, on the same platform a few nights before, distinctly said that "debt was not a bad thing." Mr. Larke said the debt had been incurred building the Intercolonial and C. P. Railways, and the next moment asserted the C.P.R. didn't cost the country a cent. Mr. Larke then soared into the National Policy with as much vigor as though it were an issue in the present contest. He evidently told his audience what many believed, and many things that nobody would dispute, but he mixed up fallacy and fact in a wonderful manner. Mr. Larke made some stock points in favor of the National Policy, and the applause that greeted them proceeded from a very few persons, the remainder evidently thinking it hard work to assist by their applause in the defence of a cause that was not in danger, and was attacked by nobody.

Building a Drain.

In accordance with a resolution passed at the last meeting of the town council, the drain to the new post office has been begun. The ground is frozen solid, the excavation will be no easy matter, and the cost to the ratepayers, will of course be much greater than if the work were left till after the election, which of course is impossible.

Our chief aim and study is to build substantial, warm, frost and damp proof houses. STILL TALKING WAR.

IT IS EFFECTIVE IN HELPING BISMARCK'S PLANS.

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The North German Gazette says: The Liberal press continues to circulate, urbi et orbi, the falsehood that Europe lives in a condition of most profound peace and that contrary statements are only manœuvres to intimidate the poor electors and influence them in favor of the Septennate. In support of this assertion, reference is made to the declaration of Gen. Von Schellendorff when he introduced the Army Bill in the Reichstag. The political horizon was totally different then. It has since become cloudy, solely in consequence of the attitude of the Opposition, whose unpatriotic conduct causes the conviction in France that Germany is weakened by internal divisions, and that the moment to attack Germany has arrived. Gen. Von Schellendorff's words, when uttered, were quite appropriate to the situation, but he would scarcely repeat them to-day, the opposition having conjured up a danger of war which will only disappear when France sees that Germany does not allow unpatriotic politicians to lead her—that is, when a majority is returned to the Reichstag determined to protect the Empire against its enemies.

They Must Heed the Pope's Orders.

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—The Catholic Bishop of Metz in his Lenten pastoral declares that the dogma of Papal primacy imposes upon believers the duty of docility and obedience to the head of the Church, and that Catholics must conform to his directions and act in all things in accordance with his teachings.

ITALY'S CAMPAIGN IN THE SOUDAN.

Ras Aloula, the Abyssinian Leader Considers the War Ended.

ROME, Feb. 17.—The commander of the Italian troops at Massowah, telegraphs under date of Sunday last: "The situation is unchanged. Ras Aloula has gone to Makalee. He was summoned by King John of Abyssinia. Count Salimberie arrived on Thursday from Asmara with a verbal demand from Ras Aloula to imprison Mohamed Bey, who, Ras Aloula says, incited him to attack us and prevent our invading the country. I arrested and imprisoned Mohamed Bey, and informed Ras Aloula that I had done so, and that it rests with me to punish Mohamed Bey, as he was in my employ. I asked Ras Aloula to release Count Salimberie and his companions. Count Salimberie confirmed the information that only the usual garrisons are stationed at Ghinda and Asmara, and that Ras Aloula considers the campaign ended."

Humbert Praises His Troops.

ROME, Feb. 17.—King Humbert has issued an order of the day to the army praising the Italian troops, who displayed such gallantry and steadiness in the recent battles with the Abyssinians.

Further News From Massowah.

SUAKIM, Feb. 17.—Advices from Massowah say that 800 Italian troops with Gatling guns landed there on Feb. 15, and that 2000 more men were expected. The Italians have raised a corps of 1000 Bashi-Bazouks and have armed the inhabitants of Massowah. Ras Aloula has gone to meet the King of Abyssinia, who is displeased on account of the attack upon the Italians.

The Dublin Trials.

DUBLIN, Feb. 17.—In the case of the Government against John Dillon et al. the prosecution to-day applied for an order compelling the defendants to be present during the trial. The Court refused the application.

Archbishop Walsh has subscribed £50 to the defence fund in behalf of Dillon, O'Brien, Redmond, Crilly and others, who are being prosecuted by the Crown on the charge of conspiracy. The Archbishop says he sends the contribution as a protest against the insult to many members of his flock by the packing of the jury chosen to try the defendants.

The Work of a Masked Assassin.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 17.—The residence of Peter Kramak, a Polander, at Hopeville was entered on Tuesday night by a masked assassin, who forced an entrance into Kramak's bedroom with a revolver in one hand and a knife in the other. He shot Kramak in the thigh and when he fell to the floor the murderer shot his wife three times and stabbed her in the breast and arms, inflicting wounds from which she died. The assassin escaped, leaving no clue to his identity.

The Festivities in India.

MADRAS, Feb. 17.—Yesterday and to-day were observed as holidays in celebration of the Queen's jubilee. The feasting and rejoicing were universal. The native quarters were gayly decorated and illuminated in honor of the occasion.

Rammed by an Italian Steamship.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The French steamer Barrundia while leaving Naples for New York with 834 passengers on board was struck amidships by the spur of the man-of-war Italia and was so badly damaged that the captain beached her. The main and after holds are full of water.

SALISBURY'S WIN.

REPLY TO THE ADDRESS ADOPTED BY A LARGE MAJORITY.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—In the House of Commons to-night L. L. Dillwyn (Liberal) moved to adjourn the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech for the purpose of discussing irregularities in the conspiracy trial at Dublin, by which the interests of certain members of the House of Commons were prejudiced.

The Speaker declined to put the motion or to permit debate on the subject. He said that according to a previous decision a motion to adjourn could not be put in a subject respecting which a motion stood on the order book, and that as Mr. Sexton had already placed a motion referring to jury packing, Mr. Dillwyn's motion could not be entertained.

W. H. Smith moved that the discussion of the rules of procedure have precedence over all orders of the day. He said the prolonged debate on the address showed the necessity of putting some limit to the speaking, which had become prolix.

Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt said the Opposition did not desire to place obstructions in the way of the progress of business. He hoped the matter of procedure would not be made a party question.

Mr. Labouchere objected to giving a blank cheek of this sort to the Government, thereby permitting them to monopolize every day with the discussion of the procedure rules. He did not think the Government was able to effect good legislation. The session ought therefore in his opinion to be made an educational session.

An amendment that a day be granted for debating the Welsh Disestablishment Bill was carried by 261 to 138.

Mr. Parnell asked the Government to concede time to discuss his proposal for admitting Irish leaseholders to the benefits of the Land Act of 1881. Under Mr. Smith's motion, he said, it would be five weeks before any Irish question would have a chance to be heard. He therefore moved "That the rules of procedure be not considered before the Government discloses the nature of their proposed legislation for Ireland," [Cheers.] Continuing, he said he was not disposed to surrender the interests of Ireland in order to give the Government precedence for their procedure proposals. The motion had been sprung on the House suddenly, in defiance of the fact that there were no precedents for such an interruption of the debate on the address. The affairs of Ireland were in too critical a condition to be thus put aside. The Westport Board of Guardians had just received notice of the intended evictions of one thousand persons, while Lord Cork was asking for police to assist in further evictions. Was it at such a time as this that the Irish members were debarred from bringing forward grievances?

Mr. Smith said he thought the proceedings of the last three weeks were sufficient to show how useless it was to go further into the Irish legislation until the rules of procedure were settled.

Mr. Parnell's resolution was rejected by a vote of 242 against 107. The announcement of the result was received with cheers by the Conservatives.

Mr. Smith announced that the Government would begin giving precedence to the rules of procedure on Monday.

Mr. Dillon Raises a Breeze.

Mr. Dillon complained of the removal of the venue of his trial, and accused High Sheriff Hamilton of having dismissed the subsheriff, who had compiled the jury panels for thirty years, in order to appoint Capt. Hamilton who was an enemy of Mr. Dillon's.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach, interposing, said Capt. Hamilton had not been appointed subsheriff.

Mr. Dillon replied that it was a matter of common knowledge that the post had been offered to Capt. Hamilton. He proceeded to refer to the jury panel when the Speaker ruled him out of order. Mr. Dillon bowed to the chair, but said he hardly expected that he would be allowed to refer to his being tried by a jury that had been deliberately and maliciously packed by his enemies. [Loud Parnellite cheers.]

The Speaker again interposed, and in reply to Messrs. Dillon and Kelly ruled that the subject could not be referred to in any way.

The Speaker then suggested the putting of the question on the address.

Arthur O'Connor moved to adjourn on the ground that the Parnellites had not been fairly treated. The motion was rejected by 261 to 119.

After another attempt to continue the debate the Speaker said it was evidently the sense of the House that the subject had been sufficiently discussed.

Mr. Smith moved "That the question be now put." The motion was carried by 289 to 74 and the address was adopted by a vote of 283 to 70 amid (Conservative) cheers.

The Government's Victory.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The Government's double victory to-night was partly due to the continued disorganization of the Liberals. The Conservative whips, being aware that Mr. Smith would declare urgency for the giving precedence to the discussion of the procedure rules over other business, kept a full complement of members ready. The Liberals had issued no call for the attendance of members and were taken by surprise, their benches being almost empty. The brunt of the debate fell upon the Parnellites, and before the division on Parnell's amendment the bulk of the Liberals had left the House. After the division the Parnellites held a hurried conference and decided to try obstructive tactics in order to prolong the debate. Mr. Smith will counteract this move by insisting on precedence for procedure on Monday, whether the debate on the address be concluded or not.

THE TOLL-GATE WAR AT HAMILTON.

The Farmers Who Demolished the York-street Bar Before the Court.

HAMILTON, Feb. 17.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon the trial of John B. McKay, C. Harper, jr., John Anton, George Church, Arthur Hunter, John Evans and George Miller for unlawfully tearing away part of the York-street toll-gate and damaging the keeper's house, opened before the Police Magistrate. The defendants were represented by Mr. Lavery, and Mr. Waddell appeared for the prosecution. Chas. Harper was also charged by J. N. Waddell with assault and cutting. The hearing was adjourned.

Mr. R. R. Waddell, on behalf of the Road company, has applied for injunctions against J. I. Platt, Reeve of East Flamboro; L. Bauer, Deputy Reeve; John S. Nicholson, Councillor; Hugh Drummond, Charles Bentley, Charles Lambier, Myles Maricle, Byron Maricle, C. H. Emery, Burrows Maricle, Solomon Ryckman, Thomas Buckingham, E. Van Norman, Arthur Hunter, Daniel Harris, Hiram Anderson, Wm. Payne, Patrick Downey, Wm. Cairns, John Payne, Charles Galloway, Wesley Maricle, Geo. Church, Frank Attridge and Reuben Sparks. He proposes having twenty-five injunctions obtained every Tuesday and Friday until 200 people have been served. Those on whom papers have already been served are paying toll. The others, or a good many of them, still refuse.

Just received at Turnbull's an assortment of new patterns in cottonades and shirtings, warranted fast colors and prices the lowest in the market.

Trade With the West Indies.

OTTAWA, Feb. 1.—The Government has decided to make another effort to promote trade relations with the British West Indies. Tenders have just been called for asking for a list of steamships capable of maintaining a fortnightly service with the sister colony. Sir Charles Tupper is the promoter of the scheme in the present instance. The Government is prepared to liberally subsidize any fast line of steamers selected for the purpose.

Killed in a Canadian Mine.

LAVANT, Ont., Feb. 17.—A sad accident occurred at the Wilbur mines this morning about 1.30. Five men were killed and two wounded by a fall of ground from a roof. The names of those killed are John Benton, foreman; Thos. Woodruff, Julius Bagot, William Carver and James McCormick. Those wounded are Louis Clow and Joseph Rowell

The Disabled Steamer Wisconsin.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The disabled steamship Wisconsin arrived at her pier at 4.20 p.m. to-day. She was towed in from Sandy Hook by three tugs. Capt. Bentley said if any one was to blame in the matter it was himself. F. W. Couper, of Montreal, a cabin passenger, severely criticises the life saving service.

The Mardi-Gras.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 17.—The carnival season opened to-night with the grand street pageant of the Knights of Momus. The weather is fine and the city is crowded with visitors. Fifteen allegorical cars were in the procession.

Sudden Death at Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 17.—Mr. Joseph Close, a well-known brick manufacturer and resident of this place for nearly forty years, died suddenly at his residence to-day from the bursting of a blood vessel.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1887.

A WEAK CLAIM.

At Kingston Sir John appealed to the people for their votes because he had given them votes, by the Franchise Bill, which he asserted was carried against the united opposition of the Reform party. This statement is partly truth and partly a Macdonaldism, or, to be more emphatic, a Tapperism. Not a single member of the Reform party voted against the principle of the extension of the franchise, which is less liberal than the local franchise in Ontario by which thousands who voted at the December elections are disfranchised for the Dominion elections, and in Prince Edward Island where, according to the local franchise, manhood suffrage obtains. But the Reform party did oppose the iniquitous provision, placing the power of deciding who should have votes, in the hands of revising officers appointed by the government of the day. The right to the franchise is the right of every adult Canadian citizen, and that any man, amenable to government dictation, should have the power of striking off or adding votes, free from any appeal except an appeal to himself against himself, is a blow at the principle of responsible government, a virtual placing—in principle—in the hands of the Government of the power of selecting its own jury for its own trial. The Reform party opposed this feature of the Franchise Bill, and they opposed it also on the grounds of its immense cost. Every preparation of a Dominion voters' list costs the country between half a million and a million dollars. It is a totally unnecessary expenditure, because the lists were prepared under Provincial jurisdiction in a much more economical and satisfactory manner. There is no reason why the local voters' lists should not be used for the Dominion elections; the only reason why they are not is because the Government prefers to gain the advantage derived from lists prepared under its own inspection, fearing a straight appeal to a fairly enfranchised electorate as obtains under the local and non-partizan mode of preparation. The Franchise Act is utterly indefensible in many of its provisions, and these meet the "united opposition of the Reform party," and not the alleged extension of the franchise, as Sir John deceptively asserts. When the Toronto Mail clamours for the repeal of the Franchise Act, it must be a very very bad act indeed. It must be repealed. It is a terribly dangerous power in the hands of an unscrupulous Government.

THE CONVICT LABOUR QUESTION.

We see our fences and bill boards adorned with flaring posters issued by the Canadian Industrial Association, whose chiefest industrial feature is its industry about election time in the Tory interest. One of these mendacious manifestoes contains a statement of Mr. J. G. Moylan, Dominion inspector of penitentiaries, as below:

"The only boots and shoes made at the Kingston Penitentiary are those made for the use of the institution. None whatever are made for the outside market."

To this Mr. Frederick Nicholls, the fable-manging secretary of the Association adds the following endorsation:

"The public are reminded that * * * the Dominion Government have done away with prison labor in such institutions as come under their control."

All these statements true? Not at all. Do they prove that prison labour does or is not allowed by the Dominion to compete with honest labour? By no means. Authority better than the statements of a hired concocter of campaign roorbacks can be adduced. The Minister of Justice, issues annually a blue book relating to his department. In the report of 1885 is found on page 10 proof supplied from Mr Moylan himself that he has not told the truth in the statement quoted above, and his refutation involves that of Mr. Nicholls also. On page 10 is found a list showing in what manner the convicts are employed. Here are a few of the items;

Work	No. Employed
Carpenter shops	49
Blacksmith and machine shops	33
Stone cutters	36
Masons	36
Tailor and shoe shops	71
Foundry	82

Workingmen are asked to believe that it takes the labor of 71 men every day for a year to furnish the clothing and shoes required for 500 convicts, who do not wear very stylish garments, and for whom one suit a year is generally enough. It these departments the official statement gives the value of the labor done by the convicts as $5,119.60, exclusive of material. Add to this the material and we have, as a finished product of prison labor, at least $20,000. At the very low rate at which prison labor is estimated, we have work representing at least $40,000 worth of honest labor, whereas, the official accountant states that the cost of clothing the convicts was only $5,488. The balance goes forth in competition with free labor. The Dominion Government has refused for five years to pass an act to protect workmen employed in factories; they have refused because this same Industrial Association in Toronto is opposed to it, because it is in the interest of their employes, and would deprive unscrupulous manufacturers from tyrannising over their workmen. They want to get the most work possible, the longest hours possible, and the least pay possible out of their hands, and the Government helps them by refusing to pass an act for the protection of workingmen and their families. All the Government favors are for the capitalist, as against the workingman. And the Government is bound to consult the manufacturers' interest, for upon an open and unblushing appeal the manufacturers composing the "Toronto Industrial Association, contributed thousands of dollars to the corruption fund to help the government in its election campaign. Of course, having bought the government, the capitalists can dictate their own terms and we may be sure that the capitalists won't mortgage their own interests in favour of labour, and it is equally certain that they and the government, which they have bought, will resist the just demands which labour is making for a recognition of its rights. Everywhere throughout the Dominion, Government candidates are bitterly opposing labour candidates, while Reformers have refused not only to nominate candidates against them but have endorsed the candidates of the labour party and are working for their election. But what can be expected of a party which keeps in the Cabinet Hon. Frank Smith who called the labour party "a lot of thieves." Toryism is hostile to the interests of "workingmen or the lower orders," as Tupper on the floor of parliament insultingly styled them, and it will fight against their interests to the end.

The Lawyer, the Doctor and the Minister.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

The business of this world is carried on through the operations of various trades and professions among these being the profession of the lawyer, the doctor and the minister. Special importance is attached to these three latter professions on the grounds of the extreme expense and the time required in preparing their members for their proper use. Their qualifications are chiefly mental, and the minds of the students require hard study and long training, and to understand and practice them properly needs analysis and hard and close thought and long hours of study and a facility and readiness of investigation and deduction. No one denies the usefulness of these three professions, but which one of them is entitled to the precedence over the others is open to argument. The domain of the lawyer includes the rights of property and the administration of justice. Without his interposition the whole of business would become clogged, truth would oftentimes be suppressed and great wrongs and injustice would prevail. In fact social life would become demoralized and mankind would be thrown back upon its original elements and confusion and discontent and dissatisfaction would take the place of law and order. The profession of the doctor is equally hard to acquire. Long years of study and investigation and great expense. Without the physician the world would get on badly, for if men had not health they could not enjoy the possession of property. The lawyer might give a person his own but if he had not health and life it would be of no use to him. The services of the doctor therefore are as valuable and as much required as the services of the lawyer. Then comes the profession of the minister. His duties embrace the present and the future. They should fit men for lives of peace and good order and honesty in this world, and for an eternity of comfort and happiness in the world to come. He stands, as it were between man and his Creator, and his business is to make men wiser and better, and to keep society in purity, peace and order. Any person, man or woman, can become a preacher. And oftentimes the most successful and the most sought after are those possessing very little education or preparation. The reason for this is because religion is a thing of the heart. Convince a man of his sin and you bring him into harmony with the demands of the Gospel and fit him for future life. Religion is not like law with its thousands of books to examine and study. Knowledge of the Bible is a knowledge of the law of God, and to follow its dictates is to make a man just and good here and fit him for the happiness of the life to come. Therefore, in dealing with these three professions, which are sometimes called the learned professions, we must in dealing with the list of them include in the list every man and woman who reads the Bible and who is enabled to make known its contents. The whole structure of religious faith rests upon the two great principles of repentance and pardon. Show a man his sins, convince him of the necessity of repentance and pardon, and you have done all that is necessary to save his soul. Teach a man justice and right, show him the beauties and the benefits of peace and good will and charity, and you have made him a good man, and fitting him to become a useful member of society. Convince him of the necessity and justice of "doing to others as he would like others to do to him," and you have given him all that is needful to make him a good citizen and a good Christian. So that all the knowledge which it is necessary for a preacher to know is a knowledge of the Bible, and a heart filled with love to Christ and love to his fellow man. It, therefore, follows that the success of the minister is the study of his Bible and a heart filled with love to his fellows and love to his God. And if he can but succeed in saving men's souls, he will accomplish more good than the saviour of property and the saviour of the lives of men, that is the lawyer and doctor. No doubt it is very desirable and very useful that the profession of a minister should be a well educated profession, because a well informed mind is necessary and useful in every relation of life. And education makes its possessor a good reasoner and a good controversialist and enables him the better to hold his own. And scientific investigation and a search into the past history of the world require a well stored mind and the ability to explore and properly understand and explain things which are left to us as the only records of the past ages of the world. The tendency, however, of our education in ministerial ranks is to make its possessors proud and exclusive, and to keep them far away from the people. Their duties belong to all men alike, for religion is for all men alike and the Bible is given for all. The ministry of the gospel should be democratic, because its services are intended for all, whether rich or poor. And no minister, for all ministers alike claim to be called of God, should be above visiting the poor and helpless and thus making them feel that religion is a blessing and a helper, and that the spiritual success of the church is increased by the addition to it of the poor and humble. And then justice and right will prevail and all people will be free and equal in the sanctuary before the Lord." As a rule the members of the legal and medical professions are of the people. Their chief ambition consists in securing the respect and confidence of the people. They have no foolish and unnecessary pride, and the poor man is as good in their sight as highest and best in the land. They do not neglect and pass by the poor and lowly for the sake of talking to the rich alone, but who by virtues has become possessed of much of this world's goods, and who, though poor and humble himself once, now [illegible] former acquaintanceship with a high hand. Think forsooth, there is very little of this sort of feeling among lawyers and doctors and they do not vainly patronize some men because they happen to occupy a position of influence, and look down upon others because they are poor. The professions of law and medicine are truly honorable professions. The lawyer has it in his power to do much good or much harm. Without his assistance great injustice would oftentimes be done, and with his assistance great wrongs are averted, and many innocent lives saved. Without his assistance many crimes would go free, and with his assistance they are investigated and punished. He has a wide field of duty and whether for or against the prisoner he strives to help the law in its operations and see that justice is done. So with the doctor. His business is to heal the sick, and oftentimes in doing this he has to be charitable and kind. Many of his patients are unable to reward him for his services, yet he attends them and administers to their wants just as earnestly and devotedly as if he was to receive a large reward. Early and late, in calm and storms, he must go forth at the call of the sick, and he oftentimes returns home benumbed with cold, or nearly overcome with heat, and worn out for the want of rest and sleep. For when the call of some poor fellow creature in distress comes, it may be at midnight or at the dawn of day, he has to get up and leave his warm bed and struggle through rain or snow over long distances, and at a time too when he requires care and help himself. Verily, the world would get on badly without the aid of the kind and faithful doctor. The lawyer saves the property but the doctor saves the health, without which property would be of little use. And the minister's duty is to strive to save the soul. Property and health have their day, and oftentimes a short day, and then are gone. But the interests of the soul are eternal. The rich man died and was buried but he cried to poor suffering Lazarus for but one drop of water, which proves how little money and health in this life can do in the life to come. An eternity of misery or happiness is the punishment or reward of every man, and it is the duty of the minister to secure for him the latter, which, as a rule, he might do if he labors faithfully and earnestly. All men, by nature, are sinners, and when the minister does right he labours among all alike, rich or poor, and the poor especially. And friendly and faithful services of this kind go a long way in turning the heart towards heaven. Every person of intelligence, with an open Bible in his hand, can do a vast amount of good around him, and can bring comfort and peace to many a troubled soul. And the humble and kind-hearted visitor is always welcomed wherever he goes, and especially in the lowly cottage, where the sick and the weary long for some kind friend to talk and pray with them and to cheer their drooping spirits, and give them new life and hope. To sum up these, the life and death and the future of the man is of more value than is the legal or medical talent, and, therefore, the profession of the minister is more important, provided he follows the footsteps and the example of Christ, the great Head of the church, whose self-denial was great and who went about among the poor and the lowly doing good and giving courage and hope. The minister can do nothing without the aid of the Bible, and any person who reads the Bible and who carries it with him into the family or the sick room, is just as much a minister of good as he who prides himself upon being very learned, and who imagines there is none like him. All the three professions are needful and necessary, and each in its turn deserves the thanks and the gratitude of the world. But their great value consists in their truth and honesty and in their efforts to help and to save.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirement, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Sumner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavit produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. McLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

Change of Structure Due to Change of Function.

* * * Here, however, my chief purpose is to add an instance showing, even more clearly, the connexion between change of function and change of structure. This instance, allied in nature to the other, is presented by those varieties, or rather sub-varieties, of dogs, which, having been household pets, and habitually fed on soft food, have not been called on to use their jaws in tearing and crunching, and have been but rarely allowed to use them in catching prey and in fighting. No inference can be drawn from the sizes of the jaws themselves, which, in these dogs, have probably been shortened mainly by selection. To get direct proof of the decrease of the muscles concerned in closing the jaws or biting, would require a series of observations very difficult to make. But it is not difficult to get indirect proof of this decrease by looking at the bony structures with which these muscles are connected. Examination of the skulls of sundry indoor dogs contained in the Museum of the College of Surgeons, proves the relative smallness of such parts. The only pug-dog's skull is that of an individual not perfectly adult; and though its traits are quite to the point they cannot with safety be taken as evidence. The skull of a toy-terrier has much restricted areas of insertion for the temporal muscles; has weak zygomatic arches; and has extremely small attachments for the masseter muscles. Still more significant is the evidence furnished by the skull of a King Charles's spaniel, which, if we allow three years to a generation, and bear in mind that the variety must have existed before Charles the Second's reign, we may assume belongs to something approaching to the hundredth generation of these household pets. The relative breadth between the outer surfaces of the zygomatic arches is conspicuously small; the narrowness of the temporal fossæ is also striking; the zygomata are very slender; the temporal muscles have left no marks whatever, either by limiting lines or by the character of the surfaces covered; and the places of attachment for the masseter muscles are very feebly developed. At the Museum of Natural History, among skulls of dogs there is one which, though unnamed, is shown by its small size and by its teeth, to have belonged to one variety or other of lap-dogs, and which has the same traits in an equal degree with the skull just described. Here, then, we have two if not three kinds of dogs which, similarly leading protected and pampered lives, show that in the course of generations the parts concerned in clenching the jaws have dwindled.—Herbert Spencer, in Popular Science Monthly for April.

Stradivarius Violins.

"We have persons coming in here every day with so-called Stradivarius violins," said a maker of violins in the Bowery. "They are common German violins with a copy of the Stradivarius label printed or pasted on the inside. Pretty much every violin, no matter by whom it is made, has some such label, so that labels nowadays do not count for anything. Inexperienced persons may be fooled by them, but anyone who knows anything about violins pays no attention to them.

"I suppose makers put the label on because some people like to pretend they have a valuable violin. A Stradivarius violin is worth anywhere from $3,000 to $15,000, and they are not very plenty. They can be told by their shape and by the kind of varnish on them.

"It is unsafe to pay a big price for a violin until it is passed upon by experts. I have known a label to be taken off a genuine Stradivarius and inserted in an imitation one, for the reason that one could be sold on its merits, while the other needed the label."—N. Y. Sun.

Heat and Cold.

Is a never-failing cause of disease. At this season of the year neuralgia, toothache, and a host of similar diseases are rampant. The great question, then is to find the quickest, surest, and most economical remedy. Poison's NERVILINE exactly fills these requirements. It is prompt, efficient, and most economical, for it exceeds in power every known remedy, and is as cheap as inferior articles. A 10 cent sample bottle will give every person a chance to test it. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6lw7

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Hamlin's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 86,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

A Start in Life.

"How can a worthy young man get a start in life?" This oft-repeated question wearies us. We are able to think of nothing at present that gets away with the old-fashioned best pig.

Brain Work.

requires for its successful and pleasurable pursuit a full, uniform and continous supply of pure, rich blood to the brain. If, through the torpidity of the liver, the blood becomes foul with bile, the brain is poisoned and over-stimulated with the excess of blood which the irritated heart sends to it with frantic impulses. Dizziness, heaviness, loss of memory, impossibility of application to any kind of work, reveal the truth. To relieve this, and preserve not only the brain but the whole system in the best working order, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will be found invaluable. 6dw7

Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards. 2w7d

The above programme was circulated among the large audience which assembled in the George street Methodist church last night. Every seat was filled, in both the gallery and auditorium. Owing to a misunderstanding as to the date of the entertainment, Mr. E. J. Lye, the tenor soloist, was not present. Dr. Davies, however, carried out the programme to perfection, every number showing fresh capabilities in the Dr. and affording entire satisfaction to the audience. Never before in Peterborough has grander music been drawn from an organ.

Attempted Bulldozing.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—The managers of the Auburn and other woolen mills are using desperate means to elect the Conservative candidate and are not above resorting to straight misrepresentation. They are trying to coerce employes by the threat that if Mr. Blake is returned to power these mills will shut down. This is most barefaced rot, a silly threat, the like of which is being used all over the country by political heelers. Mr. Blake distinctly states that if intrusted with power he will not disturb the present tariff to the detriment of any existing or prospective manufacturing interest, and Mr. Blake is a man of honour and can be depended on to keep his word. In 1882 Sir John asserted that there were capitalists longing to invest millions of dollars if he were returned to power, and that they would not risk a cent if he were defeated. We all know that this was a buncombe promise; he was sustained, but the millions never came. The threats of the local ward politicians are equally unwarranted, and are only used as a means of aiding the cause of a corrupt and extravagant Government. These parties had better be careful. There are other forms of intimidating voters contrary to law than holding a club, or the loss of his situation, over an elector's head. The cause of the Tory party must be desperate, indeed, when a course equivalent to straight lying is pursued in order to promote it. These parties know in their hearts that they are urging the electors to believe a lie. The threat of closing their woollen mills is a silly and futile one, for no mechanic or operative will insult his own intelligence by taking the least stock in it.

Yours, etc.,
A VOTER.

Peterborough, Feb. 18th, 1887.

Campaign Meeting.

A meeting in Mr. Cox's interests was held in Montgomery's School House, Smith, on Thursday evening. There was an attempt to pack the meeting in the interest of the Conservative candidate by importing outsiders from a neighbouring township, but the number of bona fide electors of Smith were three to one in Mr. Cox's favour. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Cox and Bertram, Mr. Carnegie appearing for Mr. Stevenson.

Personal.

Mr. George Brown, the genial station agent of the G. J. R. at Madoc, was in town to-day, the guest of Mr. M. Dolan. George makes friends by the score wherever he goes, and his many friends in Peterborough were delighted to receive a hearty handshake and smiling recognition from the coming Mayor of Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Henderson, of Peterborough, attended the Grenadiers' ball at Toronto Thursday night.

The regular meeting of the village Council was held in the Council Chamber on Monday evening the 14th inst.

Present the Reeve in the chair, Councillors Moore, Cox, Henderson and Watson. Minutes of last regular and special meetings read and adopted.

Coun. CURLING.

Our juvenile curlers have been engaged for the past few days playing a point game for a broom. The final draw was played on Monday evening and the trophy secured by Master David Smith.

FOOTBALL.

The members of Court Lakefield intend to celebrate their annual anniversary, February 25th, by a grand supper in addition to the bill of fare presented in former years. The supper will be spread in the Council Chamber, while the Court Room and Masonic Hall will be retained for music, games, dancing, etc. With an energetic committee they promise to outdo all former efforts. Tickets can be obtained only through members of the order.

RIGHT TO RENT.

The body of the late David Ray who died in Buffalo and which was stopped at Toronto by the Health Authorities, was brought down in a hearse sent up from Lakefield and interred in the family lot in Smith cemetery on Saturday.

RUNAWAY.

A lively runaway took place on Monday morning, Mr. Roger's spirited team showing what they could do. "John" managed to stick in for a time even when running over the top of a pile of building stone, but he finally went out as they made a sharp turn at the Council Chamber. He and the horses escaped unhurt, but the pleasure sleigh was somewhat damaged.

A Row on Smithtown Hill.

About 10 o'clock last night Mrs. Jas. Farley entered the police station with her little son, her clothing frozen stiff and "blood in her eye." She laid an information against her husband for assault, stating that he had choked the little boy till he was black in the face and his tongue hung out, besides throwing a pail of water over her. James was arrested, and in the police court this morning created no end of amusement. James and his spouse began talking vociferously at the same time, each telling his or her story in a blanketty blank style very unbecoming to the customary decorum of the police court, and they were peremptorily ordered to "shut up." Farley is a prominent figure-head in the police court annals, and on this, his seventeenth appearance before the police magistrate, was sent to gaol for two months.

Jersey mantle and dress cloths have been all the rage. The latest Turnbull is showing is Jersey corsets. See them.

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day: February 15th.
Polling Day: February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secrecy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES:

SUITS, made to Order - - $12
Formerly sold for $15.

SUITS, made to Order - - $14
Formerly sold for $17.

SUITS, Ready-made, for $6 and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00——$4.00——$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

Last night's meeting in the Opera House, in the interests of Mr. Cox, was one of the most successful and enthusiastic demonstrations ever held in Peterborough. As an indication of popular sympathy with the Liberal cause it was unmistakeable. The address of Hon. Mr. Mowat, though not a campaign speech in the usual acceptation of that term, was a clear logical and dignified arraignment of the misdeeds of the Ottawa Government. He showed how dangerous was the vesting of power in the hands of men who had so grossly abused it. The abuse of their position by the members of the Government to secure themselves political support, and the grasping greed of their supporters was effectively pointed out, and the gravest part of the matter was that Tory politicians were not only dishonest, and untrustworthy representatives but the Government even condoned and excused their most flagrant political crimes. Sir John himself justified the rapacious Rykert, who, to the crime of selling his parliamentary influence for $50,000, to obtain a timber limit for a "friend," added being a party to a deceptive and fraudulent transfer of the limit by which a third party was practically swindled. At Toronto Sir John endorsed the boodler Boultbee, whom Mr. Mowat described as the "worst man in parliament" and his description is correct, if Mr. Boultbee has only slightly improved on his promising apprenticeship in shady transactions, as known years ago to Peterborough citizens. When men like these are endorsed—and they are all endorsed for the whole gang of parliamentary boodlers are Sir John's candidates for re-election except "the Boy"—who has doubtless got his price for retiring—then public morality is gravely debauched, if they are allowed to be elected. The practice and example of the government have been subversive in their tendency of the proper recognition of the claims of honor—fraud and corruption in high places, in political matters, justify small minds in their application of the practice to the every day affairs of life, and while the financial and material interests of the country are being wrecked, the morality, honor, and integrity of the country are being corrupted, and all good men should unite, regardless of party ties, to secure a restoration of pure and honest government. Mr. Mowat's reference to the "National Policy" was a just estimate of the position it holds. It is not an issue in this contest, because it is the fixed policy of the country, accepted by both parties, and should be no more an issue than the question of "Representation by Population," No one is attacking it, and therefore it needs no defence. Mr. Mowat's address was throughout a statesman-like deliverance, and created an excellent impression. Mr. Cox delivered an excellent address and the fluency of his delivery, the ease of utterance, and the pointed presentation of argument show that the experience of the campaign has largely developed his powers of oratory, and that he will be able, when returned to Parliament, to hold his own in debate. His reception by the audience was a most flattering and auspicious one, and his remarks served to clear away any unfavorable impression which might have resulted from the misleading and false reports of his opponents. The nearer the close of the contest approaches, the more apparent becomes Mr. Cox's fitness for a representative of Peterborough, and the stronger his claims upon the support of the citizens, and the electors who dispassionately study the situation in all its bearings must come to the conclusion that their duty to themselves, to the town, and to the country at large, suggests their marking their ballots on Feb. 22nd for Mr. Geo. A. Cox.

Electors, the tide has turned towards Liberalism; be with the winning side next Tuesday.

A PARTISAN APPEAL.

A letter from Mr. R. C. Strickland appears in the Lakefield Chronicle of the 18th inst., appealing to the electors of Lakefield and claiming they are in honor bound to again send Mr. John Burnham to Parliament as their representative.

An inland fleet of 5 steamboats from Fort Perry, Lindsay, Fenelon Falls and Bobcaygeon, positive assurances that contracts will be let next summer on that portion of the Trent Valley Canal running through Lakefield, (he does not say where) a very satisfactory interview with Sir John Macdonald at the Queen's in Toronto, and a promise that Sir John will visit Lakefield and Burleigh works next summer, look splendidly on paper; just suits the fertile imagination of Mr. Strickland, who flatters himself that he will influence a vote or two by such a grand display of promises and assurances that are not worth the paper they are written on; and the electors of Lakefield, who are as intelligent as himself, know it. He boasts that Mr. Burnham assisted him to get an iron bridge for the village. If Ashburnham, Nassau and Young's Point could get iron bridges on fine stone abutments, could the County Council refuse an iron bridge to Lakefield on the old wooden abutments? If so, why? Then at the last hour he takes advantage of Mr. Lang, when he can have no chance to defend himself by trying to show that Mr. Lang has opposed the interests of Lakefield.

In 1885 it appears the equalization committee (of which Mr. Lang was one of eleven) raised the assessment of Lakefield ten per cent, Ashburnham also ten per cent, and Norwood thirty per cent., or three times as much as Lakefield. Mr. Strickland quite forgets to tell that Norwood was raised three times as much as Lakefield and does not claim that Lakefield has been wronged at all, which is the only fair question at issue. We would ask Mr. Strickland who does not allow us to forget that he is the representative of Lakefield in the county Council, why he did not long before see that Norwood paid a fair share of the county tax, and why he does not now see that Ashburnham pays her fair share, which she does not? Has Mr. Strickland been courting favor from those places at the expense of Lakefield, with the object of serving his own interests, and has not Mr. Lang only done his duty to all concerned?

Mr. Strickland's appeal to the working men, and especially to those who are not "blinded by party feeling," must, to say the least, appear amusing if not ludicrous to the electors, coming, as it does, from a dyed-in-the-wool Tory, and than whom a blinder partizan cannot be found. Workingmen and electors, we would not assume to appeal to you to vote except as true Canadians in the interests of your country; we would not assume to dictate to you as to whom you should vote for; but we would appeal to you as working men to assert your independence of any dictation on the 22nd inst; to mark your ballots as your intelligence and consciences direct you, and not as the puppets of any dictator; and so that you may feel that you have acted as men in the best interests of your country.

VAN BRUNT, THE MURDERER.

Testifying in His own Behalf. He Gives Details of His Toronto Experience.

WARSAW, N.Y., Feb. 18.—The trial of Robert Van Brunt for the murder of William Roy proceeded to-day. The defence is trying to prove insanity on the part of the prisoner, but it has been hard work so far.

This morning Van Brunt was put on the stand to testify in his own behalf. He affirmed and said his correct name was Robert Van Brunt. He is 23 years old, was born in London, and his father was in the Queen's Scotch Guards. He supposed his father was dead. His mother died while he was in a hospital being treated for hip disease, caused by a fall. He was then 10 years old. In London he lived with his grandmother. After that he lived in the north of England a year. He ran away and was arrested. He was apprenticed to a tailor at Dorchester, but it was too quiet, and he soon returned to London before he finished learning his trade. While in Northamptonshire, England, he became subject to fits. Before they came on he felt dizzy, had a headache, and then he fell down. Sometimes it was necessary to use chloroform to bring him out of the fits, the nature of which was fully described. At the time he was in London with Mr. Davis he had some trouble, and finally attempted to commit suicide by jumping from Westminster Bridge. He had been out of work three weeks, was despondent, and while crossing the bridge he suddenly found himself on the parapet, and a moment later in the river. He was rescued, sent to a hospital, and afterward to Bow-street Police Court, where, after a sort of trial, he was released. While in England he did not see visions of his mother. When he went to Toronto he obtained employment in the tailor shops of Mr. Abel, Mr. Hughes and a Polish Jew. He had fits while there, and once was sent to the hospital, where he was strapped down in bed for a week. At the hospital, while being watched, Van Brunt said he sprang from the bed, seized the man by the throat and threw him on the floor. Then he ran through two wards and was about to jump off the balcony when the nurses stopped him. He saw his mother as he was going to jump. While downhearted he took a large dose of laudanum in the Young Men's Christian Association room. He took two ounces too much to kill him. At Toronto he was persuaded to go to the Salvation Army. He went there to have fun. He saw drunkards and others apparently reformed and living well. If it was good for them he thought it was for him, so he joined and three months later he became a lieutenant.

At this point the proceedings closed for the day.

TULLY'S TRIBULATION.

The Misery Money Made for a Resident of St. Joseph.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 18.—Patrick Tully, an express driver, buried $2000 in his cellar a few years ago. Tully was unable to find the money when he went to look for it, and after consulting a colored fortune-teller he accused his son-in-law, a commercial traveler, of having stolen it. A quarrel ensued and the son-in-law and his wife removed to Kansas City. Mrs. Tully worried herself sick and died three months ago. After the death of his wife Tully lived alone in his house up to a few days ago, when an application was made for a lease. Before leaving the premises the old man concluded to make one more search for the treasure. He did so and found it.

He had dug in the wrong places before. When he found the money and discovered that he had done his children a great injustice, remorse hushed him until he was almost delirious. He said yesterday that he would make all amends possible to his daughter and son-in-law, and will implore them to come back to his home where happiness once reigned. He has a comfortable house which he intends giving to his daughter if she and her husband will forgive him.

RUSSIA LIES LOW.

WAITING CALMLY THE OUTCOME OF THE FRANCO-GERMAN TROUBLE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 18.—It is semi-officially stated that in Russian Government circles the conviction is gaining ground that war between France and Germany is inevitable. In addition to this it is said that as a fresh defeat of France might involve disastrous results to Russia, the Czar's Government will, in the event of war, preserve entire liberty of action. It will not support France as an ally, but may, by a firm, reserved attitude, prevent Germany from sending the whole of her army west of the Rhine, and, even if France should be defeated, alleviate as much as possible the effects of the disaster. For these reasons it is declared Russia will await the outcome of the different phases of the Bulgarian crisis with the greatest calmness and act in such a way as to avoid being involved with Austria or England at the moment when France and Germany commence hostilities.

The Augmented Vote.

BERLIN, Feb. 18.—The Gazette calls attention to the fact that while the extra military credits were under consideration in the French Chambers one deputy inadvertently admitted that an army corps was coming to France from Algeria. The Gazette asserts that this passage in the deputy's speech was omitted in the reports of the proceedings and did not appear in any of the French or English papers.

A STEAMSHIP LINE TO AUSTRALIA.

Reported Purchase of Three Cunarders By the C.P.R.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—The Evening Journal says that it is almost certain that the spring will see a line of steamships running regularly between British Columbia and the Australasian colonies. Mr. Lucius P. Tuttle, passenger and traffic manager of the C.P.R., of late has made several visits to New York with the object of purchasing a number of steamships for the proposed service to be maintained between Vancouver and Australia. It is learned on high authority that the C.P.R., through him, has just almost closed the purchase of three of the fastest steamers of the Cunard line. The steamships will be placed on the Australian route in the spring.

It is stated that the railway will shortly commence the publication of a weekly or monthly newspaper to be devoted exclusively to the interests of the road.

Has Claus Spreckles a Hand In?

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Claus Spreckles, the great Hawaiian sugar king, is at the Hoffman House. He said he had been in Washington, had seen President Cleveland and had given the legislators some facts about sugar on the Hawaiian Islands, adding "but I do not know what they intend to do about the treaty. Whether they abrogate the treaty or not and shut out Hawaiian sugar altogether, Claus Spreckles will be on the top and get along.

"Canada is making a bid to get Hawaiian sugar. But suppose I do have to pay duty on sugar I will live all the same. I do not know how the treaty will be finally settled. I am not here on that business specially, but to see about a mail line of steamships between Canada and Australia." Mr. Spreckles, it is understood, will try to get a subsidy for the Australian mail line from Congress, if not he will let Canada do some subsidising.

SEVERE THUNDER STORM.

A New York Warehouse Struck by Lightning and Burned.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A heavy rain storm commenced early this morning and culminated to-night in one of the severest thunder showers experienced in this vicinity for years. The rain fell in torrents. While the storm was at its height lightning struck the large four-story building on the docks of the American Cotton Company, which contained 8000 bales of cotton. Despite all efforts two adjoining warehouses were destroyed with 10,000 bales of cotton. The fire at 11 o'clock was still burning. The loss at that hour was estimated at $350,000.

THE POPE AND THE CARDINALS.

The Holy Father Gives Audience to Gibbons and Taschereau.

ROME, Feb. 18.—In his audience with Cardinal Gibbons the Pope said: "You are indeed happy. The American Catholic Church enjoys the greatest civic freedom. Her bishops have no other work than to live like shepherds guiding and tending their flocks." In his interview with Cardinal Taschereau the Pope was quite effusive about England and her colonies. It is rumored that the American Patriarch will be made a cardinal.

Electors, give the Boodlers the right-about next Tuesday.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

High Living.

High living is unquestionably bad for the liver, but whether from that or other causes, the liver becomes deranged, the best cure for liver complaint or biliousness, is that standard medicine for sale by all druggists, Burdock Blood Bitters. Remember B. B. B. is the special trade mark of this medicine. 2w7d

Electors, forbid by your votes the iniquity of members of Parliament selling their influence for money or money's worth.

A Good Name.

The best recommendation of anything is its popularity where it has been longest known. Throughout the Dominion of Canada there is no more effectual medicine for coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, bronchitis and asthma, than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, for sale by all druggists. 2w7d

THE OPERA HOUSE OVATION

Rousing Reform Rally Greets Hon. O. Mowat.

An Enthusiastic Gathering in the Interests of Mr. Cox—Speeches by Hon. O. Mowat, Mr. Geo. A. Cox and Mr. John Bertram.

The gathering at the Opera House was the largest, most enthusiastic, and most orderly assemblage ever convened in that place. The hall was literally packed with electors, assembled to do honor to Ontario's Premier and to endorse the candidature of Mr. Cox. While the warmth of the greeting must have been extremely gratifying to Hon. Mr. Mowat, the enthusiastic manner in which Mr. Cox was received was a gratifying augury of the support he will receive from the electors next Tuesday.

While the body of the hall was literally packed, both sitting and stand room, the gallery was thronged with ladies. The order throughout was of the most exemplary kind, and though the speeches extended over a considerable time, they were listened to with great attention, and the enthusiasm and applause were something unprecedented in the annals of political gatherings in Peterborough. The applause did not come from a few claqueurs, but was a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm all over the vast assemblage.

The platform was filled with prominent members of the Liberal party, from town and country.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., occupied the chair, and prefaced his introduction of the speakers with a brief address, in which he intimated his appreciation of the honor of presiding over so large and intelligent a gathering of the electors, and briefly outlined the claims which Mr. Mowat had to the gratitude and respect of the people of this Province, and pointed out that he had had the honor of continuously occupying the position of Premier for fourteen years, the only example of the kind to be found in the records of responsible administrations. The chairman's references to the Premier were received with enthusiastic demonstrations of assent which rose to a furore of enthusiasm when the electors were reminded of the important claims which Mr. Cox had upon their suffrages, and his eminent fitness for the position he sought. He took great pleasure in introducing to the meeting Hon. Oliver Mowat, Premier of Ontario.

THE PREMIER'S SPEECH:

HON. MR. MOWAT was received with tremendous applause again and again renewed.

He said his first acquaintance with Peterborough was in connection with his duties as chancery judge. He briefly adverted to his entry into parliamentary life. On account of a plain call of duty he had entered upon the service of his country. His opponents had adversely criticised his action but since that time they had perpetrated the same "disgraceful act" of which he had been accused, by bringing down a judge from the bench to enter the Cabinet.

Sir John had accused the speaker in 1882 of being

A "LITTLE TYRANT,"

(laughter), but it seemed to him that he was a kind of tyrant the people took kindly to, for they had kept him in power for fourteen years, and had given a further lease for four years more. (Cheers.) Sir John had accused him of having a "little soul," but it seemed that he had soul enough, with the assistance of able colleagues to govern the country, to the satisfaction of all classes of citizens, for between elections Conservatives had warmly praised his administrative and legislative record, and he was largely indebted to the majority he now enjoys—the largest in the history of his administration—to the patriotic Conservatives who had sunk party feelings to enter with Liberals in promoting what they thought the best interests of the Province. (Cheers.) Peterborough had sent him two valuable supporters in the local house. (Cheers.) Mr. Stratton, he judged from the brief address he had made to-night, would be a valuable addition to his debating talent and had no doubt a long and useful public career before him. (Cheers.) Mr. Mowat paid a warm tribute to Mr. Blezard's sterling qualities as a representative and useful and painstaking member of the Legislature. He congratulated the riding on having

SO EXCELLENT A CANDIDATE AS

Mr. Cox, who was a capable public spirited gentleman, just such a man as Hon. Edward Blake needed to render him practical and valuable assistance in the position which the speaker felt sure the people would promote him to on the 22nd. (Cheers.) Mr. Lang was also eulogized and his return predicted. Mr. Blake had shown great patriotism and disinterestedness in renouncing an immensely paying law practice for the sake of serving his country, and a man of his integrity should be at the head of the government of Canada. (Cheers.) It was a public calamity that the people had kept him so long out of power, but there was a prospect that the people would not long remain under that calamity. (Cheers.) He was a great and good man, whom the speaker knew as such. Mr. Blake was in warm sympathy with the masses and would do them great service in the higher sphere to which he would soon be called. He held that Mr. Blake was a man than Sir John Macdonald, and in power would serve the interests of the country to far better advantage. Mr. Blake had rendered him (Mr. Mowat) essential aid in the victory achieved last December. (Cheers). The speaker referred to the "No Popery" cry raised especially in connection with Separate Schools, and it was shown that no objection had been raised to the Act till the elections promised to make it an effective cry. But this failing, the "Rose Bible" cry was raised, although that book was suggested and approved of by the leading Protestant clergymen of the province. Hon. Mr. Mowat's pointed and vigorous denunciation of the evils of raising a cry that would rouse a religious discord among a mixed population, was received with loud cheers. The course of Conservative leaders on this question was a lamentable instance of their readiness to seize any cry that would make for their political advantage. Referring to the Boundary matter, Mr. Mowat showed the double course Sir John had pursued. He, in opposition to the

GREATER, BETTER AND MORE PATRIOTIC

PRACTICE OF ALL HONORABLE COUNTRIES,

had declined to ratify the award. He had done this with a double object—to conciliate the other provinces and—a much graver one—to secure the territory so that, as subsequent events had shown, he could parcel it to political supporters. ("Cries of boodlers"!) Since the award, immense grants at merely nominal sums had been made to political supporters. The provincial government had proposed to submit the matter of both the Western and Northern boundaries, to the Privy council, and the Dominion assented, but at the last moment, they refused to refer to the Northern boundary matter. Defeated before the Privy Council Sir John still claimed the timber and mineral, and then refused to submit the question of ownership of these to the Privy Council, but he preferred to keep the matter open so that he might be able to MAKE POLITICAL USE OF IT.

He continued making grants of the timber to political friends, examples of the most flagrant possible political iniquity, that any government could perpetrate. (Cheers). Conservatives had claimed that only seven timber limits had been granted but that was seven grievous wrongs done, (Cheers), and this course the Conservative members of this province had voted to endorse. We would have no further trouble of this kind if Mr. Blake were in power. The unsettled state of the matter was retarding the growth of the territory, a matter of which the Dominion government took no head. Mr. Mowat contrasted the policy of the Ontario government, in the disposal of public lands; the proceeds in the case of the local government and not into the pockets of boodlers. (Cheers). He pointed out that the Ontario government had granted four millions to railways to build a mileage almost equal to that of the C. P. R., a great railroad which might have cost much less, had the enterprise been prudently conducted. If for no other reason, for their action in reference to the boundaries and territories of Ontario, the Dominion government should be denounced by the province of Ontario. (Cheers). Sir John's mischievous tampering with the License Law for the sake of making political capital, was a most wanton disregard of public duty sufficient to bring about the condemnation of the Dominion government, and for reasons that should appeal strongly to honest Conservatives as well as the Liberals. The Dominion Franchise Act was severely criticised. The Ontario Franchise Act he (Mr. Mowat) had framed so that it was fair to both Reformers and Conservatives, as he had always tried to do equal justice to both parties as well as to both creeds. (Cheers). But under the Dominion Franchise Act, there was an unfair advantage permitted to the government of the day. It involved and there was no earthly reason besides that, that it would be for the political advantage of the party in power, that the iniquity was perpetrated. A government which would thus iniquitously wife with its great responsibilities, was unworthy of public confidence. (Cheers). The manner in which the government had distributed public lands among the supporters who were enabled to dispose of them for immense sums which should have gone into the public chest, was worthy of the severest condemnation. Such outrageous administration of the public domain defied the power of language to fitly characterise. (Cheers). In like manner the system of giving members of parliament grants of lands for railways in which they were interested, in order that they might reap personal advantage, was deserving of the most decided reprobation. The acceptance of

WENT INTO THE PUBLIC CHEST,

IMMENSE ADDITIONAL EXPENSE

TESTIMONIALS FROM CONTRACTORS

by Ministers of the Crown, was a most debasing practice, and was compared to a judge on the bench accepting a cheque for a large sum of money from the party to a suit he was trying. The government which could perpetrate all these gross wrongs, was unworthy of the confidence of the country. (Cheers). But these political crimes are not only committed, but defended by men in high places. Only a day or two ago, Sir John Macdonald was warmly defending Rykert and even had the hardihood to defend Boultbee, one of the most abandoned men in Parliament. (Cheers). The example of government occupying so high a position in not only committing but condoning crime, was debauching public morality. Now, to distract public attention from their crimes the government was raising various cries. There was the Riel cry. Now he (the speaker) held that the government did not deserve any particular credit for hanging a man who had incurred the death penalty. Then another cry to shield them from condemnation, and that was the National Policy, which was now a dead issue, was raised because it had become

THE FIXED POLICY OF CANADA,

having been endorsed by the people at two general elections. It was now the policy of Canada as much as free trade in England was accepted as the policy of that country—by both parties, though one party opposed its adoption and still disbelieved in it. And yet no one thought of making it of a political issue because it had become the settled trade policy of that country as much as the National policy had in Canada, which, no matter who was in power, could not be disturbed. Mr. Blake, if entrusted with the reins of government, could not, in view of the magnitude of the interests involved, the amount of money invested in manufacturing industries, and for many reasons, make any change that would be detrimental to the interests of the country. (Cheers.) Hon. Mr. Mowat, after briefly recapitulating his charges against the present Government, held that they had

FORFEITED THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE of Canada, and that on the 22nd of February they would consult their own interests and those of the country by conferring upon Hon. Edward Blake the power of controlling the destines of Canada. (Loud applause.) Hon. Mr. Mowat closed a most effective address, which was listened to with the closest attention, by calling on the electors to give their support to Mr. Cox, and took his seat amidst loud and prolonged applause.

THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE.

Mr. Cox, on being introduced, received an ovation. As the standard-bearer of the Liberal party he said he would go to Ottawa if elected not as a political partizan, but as an independent representative of the people. In briefly discussing the public questions now before the electors, Mr. Cox, in referring to the C. P. R., did not oppose the building of the road, but after the Government had expended $76,000,000 and used 17½ millions of acres, he believed it should be the property of the Government, and not of a few monopolists. In giving the contracts, too, for sections of the road, the Government had wasted $25,000,000 of the people's money. It had been said that because he was a member of a syndicate which had proposed a second contract, he was opposed to the building of the road. That was not so. The syndicate, of which he was a humble member, had made a bona fide offer, and by not accepting their offer the Government had sustained great loss. Then the monopoly clause closed up the great North-west for twenty years. Was that a good recommendation for the Government to come before the country, for having built a road with the public money and then hand it over to a few monopolists? As regards the

NATIONAL POLICY,

about which he was being so greatly misrepresented, he had only one opinion, and that opinion was the same all over the riding. Mr. Cox read his declaration regarding the N. P. as printed in a previous issue of the EXAMINER and so read by him at the last Opera House and other meetings. The declaration was all that could be desired, clearly setting forth the duty of the Government in the matter. He was in favor of home manufactures. It had been said, "Well, you may be in favor of home manufactures, but your party is not." Well, if sent to Ottawa, he would cast his vote in favor of it, which is just as much as Mr. Stevenson could do. It was absurd to say that he would do anything detrimental to the interests of the town or county. Here Mr. Cox was greeted by wave after wave of hearty cheers and uproarious applause which rolled over the audience. It was not likely that after so many years of living and prospering in the town, he would at this period undertake the destruction of its prospects. The Government had given the people the National Policy and now were going to build the Trent Valley Canal. (Laughter.) Mr. Cox denounced the action of the Government in the last three or four elections, dangling the canal before the eyes of the electors. There should be no more and valuable time in the attempt to make capital out of this canal. It had been said that Mr. Blake was opposed to the building of the canal. Mr. Cox assured the audience that the statement was entirely false and without foundation. Referring to the North West rebellion, Mr. Cox briefly touched upon the "callous and cruel neglect" of the government in the matter, as expressed by the Mail, the government's organ at that time. The government previous to the uprising had claimed that the halfbreeds had no grievances, but after the rebellion, thousands of grievances had been notified, the government thereby admitting its guilt and treachery. Next the disgraceful mal-administration of Indian affairs was dealt with. Millions of money was voted for the support of the Indians, but half of it never reached them, and what was expended came to the Indians in the shape of stinking pork and musty flour. Mr. Cox read the opinions of several prominent clergymen, who were loud in their condemnation of the government's neglect. He hoped Sir John Macdonald would never again have the power of doing so much harm. (Applause.) The money fradulently expended upon the poor Indians, if spent upon the Trent Valley Canal would bring that work to a speedy completion. Mr. Cox expressed the hope that the country would soon have and briefly arraigned the government for their guilty acts in doing their very best to corrupt the electorate by every means to keep themselves in power. In reference to the temperance question, he expressed some diffidence in dealing with it. He believed that the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor was a national calamity. (Applause.) The great leaders of both political parties were of opinion that the time was not yet come for action, and as long as those opinions were sustained, so long would the feeling of the country be the same. He felt that the question should be dealt with by a broad, comprehensive measure. The liquor-sellers were engaged in a legalized traffic, and had rights which should be respected, but he hoped both political parties would grapple with the subject and deal out justice to all. Any measure having that for its object would have his most cordial support. (Applause.) Mr. Cox stated that had he known that his personal actions would have been so much talked of he would not have entered upon the contest. The Review had attacked him in every possible way, and not always truthfully. He referred to the charge that he, while manager of the Midland Railway, defrauded its creditors. This insinuation he flung back in the teeth of those who circulated it. Concisely he went over his position as explained previously in the EXAMINER. If there had been a proper amount of sympathy and interest taken, he said the road might have been to-day in the hands of Peterborough citizens, with her large works here and this town as a railroad centre.

FRITTERING AWAY OF PUBLIC FUNDS

MANHOOD SUFFRAGE,

ANOTHER CHARGE,

which he denied at the last meeting, was still being circulated, namely, that he was endeavoring to lower the wages of the workingmen. It was a false statement. Why should he do anything to belittle the workingman and make his position worse? At this juncture Mr. Cox's statements were received by round after round of cheers and applause, the audience being determined to

Elections by acclamation have taken place in six constituencies not inclused above.

Brain Work.

requires for its successful and pleasurable pursuit a full, uniform and continous supply of pure, rich blood to the brain. If, through the torpidity of the liver, the blood becomes foul with bile, the brain is poisoned and over-stimulated with the excess of blood which the irritated heart sends to it with frantic impulses. Dizziness, heaviness, loss of memory, impossibility of application to any kind of work, reveal the truth. To relieve this, and preserve not only the brain but the whole system in the best working order, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will be found invaluable. 6dw7

Does it Apply to P. S. Teachers.

Found in an albaum.—"Now-a-days it is only the servants who do much studying. The ignorant prefer to teach."

Pomeroy's Porcused Plaster

Is universally endorsed whenever used. This verdict is supported by documentary evidence from thousands of intelligent people who have proved its excellence. Sold by druggists and Ormond & Walsh. 6dw7

He Feared No Foe.

Nero fiddled when Rome was burning. Many now-a-days seem equally indifferent to danger by the manner in which they neglect ill-health. If taken in time, there is scarcely a chronic disease which Burdock Blood Bitters will not eradicate by its purifying, regulating powers. 2w7d

The Stupid Apothegem.

It is never to late to mend; but a man cannot expect to have a baton sewed on much after midnight.

Heat and Cold.

Is a never-failing cause of disease. At this season of the year neuralgia, toothache, and a host of similar diseases are rampant. The great question, then is to find the quickest, surest, and most economical remedy. Polson's NERVILINE exactly fills these requirements. It is prompt, efficient, and most economical, for it exceeds in power every known remedy, and is as cheap as inferior articles. A 10 cent sample bottle will give every person a chance to test it. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6dw7

Salt Rheum Cured.

McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate has been tried and found to be the only positive cure for Salt Rheum, Pimples, Blotches on the face or hands, Cuts, Burns, Bruises, or any Sore that nothing else will heal. Try McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. 25c. per box at John McKee's Drug Store. eodw7

For the Year 1886.

No better resolution can be made than to resist buying any of the substitutes offered as "just as good" as the great only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails to give satisfaction. Beware of poisonous flesh eating substitutes. 6dw7.

Very Sympathetic.

A Mustard plaster is very sympathetic. When in can't do anything else for you it draws your attention.

Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards. 2w7d

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds, sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. Besaw, Cook's Mills, Serpent River, 2w7d

"Well, I'll tell you, Jones. I bought a very fine Tent from TURNER, and one of my friends wanted to borrow it."

"Well, I guess not. The last Tent I had got used up by lending. I told him to go to J. J. TURNER, the great Tent maker, and he would rent or sell him a tent."

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirment, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Skinner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavi s produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. MCLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

HATTON v. BERTRAM.—Lash, Q.C., and Hall (Peterborough), for adult defendants, appealed from the judgment of Proudfoot, J., at the trial. Moss, Q.C., for the plaintiffs, and J. Maclennan, Q.C., for the infant defendants, contra. A question as to the construction of a will. The testator devised "that part of my estate known as Walkerfield which I now reside upon, and containing 35 acres more or less, to his daughter. There was a general devise of after acquired property, but it was held by Proudfoot, J., that ten acres added by the testator to the Walkerfield estate after the making of the will, passed by the devise of Walkerfield to the daughter. Judgment reserved.

A. L. DAVIS & Co.

To the Members of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association.

All the New York papes give the report of the annual meeting of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, which appears to have had an unusually prosperous year. Nearly six millions of new business has been written, of which about five millions has been done in Canada, under the management of Mr. J. D. Wells, who secured the first prize offered by the Association for largest amount of new business reported by any one of its managers. Messrs. Warring Kennedy and William Wilson, of Toronto, were present at the meeting, and were elected to the Council Board.

This great organization still continues to furnish insurance at fifty per cent. less than old line rates, yet, notwithstanding this great reduction the books of the Company show a credit of persistent members of the 1881 class, equal to a dividend of 33⅓ per cent. upon their entire assessment premiums paid during the first five years. Geo. A. Morrison wants two or three good men. See ady in another column.

Received this week at Turnbull's, a large shipment of wool and tapestry carpets all new patterns, extra good value.

show its appreciation of him. Then as to an anonymous communication in the Review from a telegraph operator calling upon the fraternity to vote against him, the best answer he could give was that he was himself a telegraph operator, and there were operators coming from Brooklyn and other places at a distance, unsolicited, to vote for him. (Cheers.) Another serious (?) charge by the Review was that he was "flooding the country with the pauperd children of England." The Barnardo Home provided not only for children of foreign countries, but for orphaned children of our own country. It was not for European children only. Pauperd children the world over always had his sympathy and he was glad that he was able to afford them aid. These anonymous contributions he attributed to no one but the editor of the Review himself, who took this means to

STAB HIM IN THE DARK.

Then it had been urged that he "had been a total failure in everything he had undertaken." (Laughter.) In reference to the charges made against him regarding the Auburn Woollen Mills, he explained that the mill was formerly a 3-sett mill, and it was proposed to enlarge it to a capacity of 10-sett. For a while it was closed down, at which time he was president of the company, but had not the least part in the management. He and Mr. Bertram and the late Judge Deenistoun undertook to place it on a sound basis, subscribing large amounts themselves, and they had been successful. The industry was now a paying one, he was glad to say. Regarding his alleged Pulp Mills failure, Mr. Cox said the only connection he had with it was that he took $2,000 stock in the concern, and now he was charged with the failure of the mills. (Laughter.) He was also charged with being responsible for the alleged failure of

THE STOVE WORKS.

They didn't know that it was a failure yet. In this case too he had taken stock and endeavored to place it on a sound financial basis. But he didn't claim to be a stove manufacturer or any other kind. He had merely taken an active interest in the town's progress in endeavoring to bring these industries to Peterborough, and make them profitable. In conclusion he referred to the hollow professions of friendship made by his opponents for the workingmen, remarking that he based his claims upon no such fabrics, but if he had ever done anything against anyone, he asked the injured one to vote against him, but if on the other hand they believed he had done his best to further the interests of the town, he asked the electors to entrust him with their interests, which he guaranteed would never be abused. Mr. Cox sat down amidst an uproar of applause.

MR. BERTRAM'S SPEECH.

MR. BERTRAM, the next speaker, was loudly cheered on rising, but, the hour being late, he said he would but briefly review the career of Hon. Mr. Mowat. He paid a high tribute to the little premier, a tribute which emanated from a Conservative source. While in Toronto recently he (Mr. Bertram) was spoken to by a prominent Conservative who said "You will never again have such a premier as Mr. Mowat." (Applause.) Mr. Mowat was deserving of every support because of his position on the Boundary, Streams, License and other questions, in every one of which the "great constitutional lawyer" has been worsted. Mr. Bertram deplored the false issues which were being raised by the Tories. He dealt with the National Policy, which the Macdonald Government claimed would bring unexampled prosperity to the country. The facts of the case were now entirely turned against them. He (the speaker) had been branded as a member of a free trade party, but he could say that there was no party in Canada, nor ever had been, which could be called a free trade party. Mr. Blake states that he will rectify a few irregularities in the National Policy which have been pointed out to the electors before. Mr. Bertram referred to the personal attacks made by the Review upon Mr. Cox. The editor no doubt thought he was

FIRING OFF A CANON,

but in reality it was only a pop gun, (Laughter)—something like the gun shown by Mr. Laurier. (Laughter.) The editor's intention was no doubt murder, but it only ended in suicide. (Laughter and cheers.) They had reviled Mr. Stratton, for which that gentleman should be thankful, inasmuch as by that course the Review had brought him lots of votes, and he (the speaker) gave them perfect liberty to do the same with Mr. Cox and thereby increase the majority which he was sure to receive. (Applause.) The Tory organ had contemptuously dubbed our town Coxtown—not a bad name, for wherever Peterborough is mentioned, the name of Mr. Cox was connected with it. For the last two or three years an energetic attempt has been made to besmirch Mr. Cox, in view of the probability of his being the next Liberal candidate, but these tactics had resulted only in his gain. (Applause.) Mr. Bertram spoke of the outcome of Mr. Cox's enterprise in building up the town; he knew of instances where Mr. Cox had given money towards that end when he had no expectation of ever receiving any reward, merely because he was deeply interested in the town's welfare. There was no public work, in which the aid of public men was desired, but Mr. Cox was there. If Mr. Cox was the man whom they saw every day, if he was the man they believed him to be, why not send him to parliament? (Loud cheers.) Mr. Cox declared that he would be of the electors. He was evidently not as great an admirer of Mr. Blake as Mr. Stevenson was of Sir John, (laughter,) for it he does not coincide with Mr. Blake, he is prepared to vote against him. Mr. Bertram referred to the general mal-administration of Canadian affairs, the North West in particular. In the Trent Valley Canal, too, the government had broken faith. Mr. Hilliard, in the House, expressed the hope that the government would bring down the grant in accordance with the promise to the deputation. It never came. Then in the post-office business Sir John Macdonald's government had broken faith. They bought a site ostensibly for a post-office, a stipulation which was included in the deed. A Cabinet Minister, afterwards gets up in the House and says that the land was not bought for a post-office site. The only way the electors had to prevent this wholesale misgovernment was to mark their ballots against Sir John on the 22nd. Then they would be in the position of the Cabinet Ministers in saying how Canada shall be governed. It was high time we were halting. In ten years at this rate where would we be? In the United States, a different state of things existed. Their debt was decreasing, and in a short time they would have no debt at all, while ours was constantly increasing. The country was going in a direction which if continued would soon bring us to a crisis. Now was the time to stop this career of reckless expenditure. The riding of West Peterborough could have no greater honor than sending Mr. Cox to Parliament. Mr. Bertram then sat down amidst long and continued cheers and applause.

AN INDEPENDENT REPRESENTATIVE

The chairman, Mr. Stratton, brought the meeting to a close by a fervent appeal to the electors to rally around Mr. Cox on election day, and calling for the customary cheers for the Queen and the speakers.

SOLICITOR—D. W. Dumble.

TO DEPOSITORS—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amounts deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is FOUR per cent., either paid or compounded half-yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is FIVE per cent.

TO INVESTORS—The five and ten year FIVE PER CENT DEBENTURES of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1000 each, transferable by endorsement, with half-yearly Interest Coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested in first mortgages on Real Estate, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture-holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the shareholders having the second. The annual statement shows that the amount so invested was over $700,000, and on the security of real estate at least double that value.

By the laws of Ontario, Trustees, Executors and Administrators may deposit Trust Funds of the estates which they control in this Company, and are free from all further liability, a privilege of which many have largely availed themselves.

TO BORROWERS—Money is obtainable from this Company on approved Real Estate security at the Lowest Current Rates of Interest.

The Mortgage may be repaid by yearly instalments, or otherwise as may be agreed upon, the interest ceasing at once on all amounts paid on account of the sum borrowed.

Applications may be made either to the Head Office, or to any of the Agents.

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day: February 15th.
Polling Day: February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secrecy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES:

SUITS, made to Order - - $12
Formerly sold for $15.

SUITS, made to Order - - $14
Formerly sold for $17.

SUITS, Ready-made for $5
and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00—$4.00—$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

The Daily Examiner.
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1887.

Vote for COX, the friend of the town, and the champion of honest government.

PERSONAL SLANDER.

It is to be expected that to-day and to-night and next day all sorts of wild stories will be told regarding the Reform candidate and party. Pay no attention to them. It's an old party trick. They will be only campaign lies invented for the occasion.

RESULT OF TORY RULE.

On account of the public debt last year we paid $2.51 for every man, woman and child of our population, (reckoning that at 4,500,000) and about $12 for every family of five persons.

TO-MORROW'S DUTY.

Electors of Peterborough, the duty of to-morrow is plain. It is to rally to the polls and mark your ballots for Geo. A. Cox, the friend of the town, the man who has done more for its progress and advancement than any other. You know he is deserving of your support.

Electors, vote for Blake, honest government and an end to corruption.

HARNESS YOUR HORSES.

To-morrow decides the political future of Canada for weal or for woe. And it seems for weal, for apparently a great and decisive victory awaits the Liberal party. But that victory calls for hard work,—every vote friendly to honest government must be polled. People who have been in harness for weeks working for the Liberal cause, must also harness their horses and give their use to Liberal candidates so that every vote may be brought out. The vote must be brought out, and it cannot be fully polled unless every owner of a horse and conveyance friendly to the Liberal candidate volunteers the use of them. Will any Liberal, owning or controlling a conveyance neglect at this time to place it or them at the service of the different ward committees to-morrow? What is the sacrifice of one day compared to the sacrifice of time money and even health made in the cause of his country by Hon. Edward Blake? He is now fighting the people's battles and the people should help him. Let the Liberals who desire to see Mr. Cox elected to assist Mr. Blake, to-night volunteer the use of their conveyances to-morrow, report at the Committee Rooms, over telegraph office, to-night early. Don't neglect, every little helps and a little help by many will help on to victory.

LAWYERS TO THE FORE.

The people know when the National Policy benefits them, but the political healers have so low an estimate of the public intelligence, that they are insulting the people by telling them how they are being helped. Who are the men that do all the shouting on the Conservative stump? Lawyers. The people have lawyers to the right of them, lawyers to the left of them, lawyers in front of them. If the Conservative party have done so much for the people why don't we see manufacturers and mechanics pleading their cause. Because they are too honest, they could not have the cheek to face a public audience and plead for the worst Government in the world. But lawyers will defend the lowest criminal as well as the worst criminal government. Why should not a pettifogger make suitable return for his red bag. Why should not other local legal lights, do service in hope of favours to come? Lawyers are all right in their place, but why should they have a monopoly of telling the people how to vote? Lawyers have their say but the judges charge settles the matter with the jury. And the people to-morrow are both judge and jury; their ballots will record the verdict. A corrupt extravagant and reckless government is on trial, the jury well convinced of their guilt, and in spite of this special pleading of the lawyers, will bring in a verdict of guilty.

"COXTOWN."

This term is contemptuously applied to Peterborough, by its enemies and by some who should be its friends. But it is a name that does infinite credit to George A. Cox, the Liberal candidate. It is a practical recognition of the fact that he has made Peterborough what it is. The town is known all over the Dominion as the livest burgh in the Dominion, and Geo. A. Cox's name is always associated with it. Does not the man, who has done so much to build up the town, deserve that recognition of his services from our citizens, which envious outsiders and even his enemies accord them? Electors of Peterborough, to-morrow Mr. Cox's name on the ballot paper deserves your mark opposite it. See that it gets there by a large majority. Who should represent "Coxtown" but Cox?

TUPPER THE "CHIEFTAIN."

Sir John is making a last appeal to the country to support him on personal grounds, but Sir Charles Tupper is de facto, the leader of the party and the successor of Sir John, who will retire after the present elections. The people are not voting for Sir John but for Sir Tupper, a politician whom his fellow Cabinet Minister Mr. McLelan surnamed "the high priest of corruption." You are not voting for Sir John for he will resign after the elections, you are not voting for the N. P. for that is a fixed fact which neither party will change, but you are voting for Sir Charles Tupper "high priest of corruption," under whom, if sustained, the past ten years of corrupt and wasteful misrule will be intensified in wickedness ten-fold. Reflect seriously, what your marking your ballot to-morrow means. Will it be in favour of honest government or unadulterated corruption?

Police Court.

Monday, Feb. 21.

Wm. Lefort was yesterday gathered in by P. C. McGinty for swearing on the street while slightly intoxicated. He admitted to the Police Magistrate that he made a "little swear," and it being his first first offence, he was allowed to go with a word of warning.

Peter Warner was charged with perjury. In the Lipsett assault case a week or so ago, Warner swore positively he was to the hotel at the time and saw the row. Other witnesses testified to the contrary that Warner was not there. The prisoner was committed for trial.

Just received at Turnbull's an assortment of new patterns in cottonades and chintzes, warranted fast colors and prices the lowest in the market.

Bargains extraordinary. Previous to the arrival of a large consignment of Lace Curtains now on route from Manchester, we will sell the balance of our magnificent stock on hand at sacrifice prices. An early call solicited as they must be cleared. R. FAIR.

Won't we presently hear that a pair of fools were made on a toboggan slide.

IS IT PEACE OR WAR.

THE ISSUE HANGS ON THE RESULT OF THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

London, Feb. 19.—On the issue of the German elections hangs the peace of Europe. That is, if a majority is not elected favoring Prince Bismarck's Septennate Bill in the Reichstag, war is certain in April. In the event of a majority on Bismarck's side war will be postponed, if not avoided. The prospects are that Bismarck will carry the day and have a majority of forty-three. Such are the advices from Berlin this evening.

France, oddly enough, is praying for Bismarck's success. The Ministry know well that if he is defeated and declares for war he will call to the colors the 40,000 extra troops he demands, law or no law, and raise all the money he needs, with or without the consent of the Imperial Parliament.

Mr. Hyndman and others of the Socialist party here are convinced that in case of war there will be a Socialist rebellion in Germany, and possibly one also in the iron manufacturing region of France, as a protest against the mutual slaughter of the Gallic and Teutonic Democracies.

The above three views of the Franco-German situation show how complicated the problem is, leaving the questions of alliances with other powers out of the question. What Russia would do in the event of war is widely discussed, but without definite answer. Her statesmen, a Vienna dispatch says, are convinced that with Bismarck at war the Czar would become the arbiter of Europe, and no pledge will be given in advance to either side, though that would mean an end to the alliance with Germany.

A conference of the Railway Military Commission on Mobilization has been held at Wiesbaden, which was attended by delegates from all the German railways and numerous army officers. Exhaustive arrangements for a scheme of transit were completed. Absolute secrecy is maintained regarding the plans formed.

Plenty of Officers Offering.

Vienna, Feb. 19.—Twenty thousand applications have been already received for officers' commissions in the Hungarian Landsturm. Rich women are seeking positions in the ambulance service.

Fire Arms Machinery for the French.

Bridgeport, Ct., Feb. 19.—For some months past a manufacturing company here has been quietly filling an order from the French Government for a large lot of fine machinery to be used in the manufacture of fire arms. Ten cases of machinery were shipped to France to-day by the steamer La Champagne. The agents of the machine company, when asked to what special use the machines were to be put, were reticent, but admitted the consignment was but the first instalment of a vast order.

A COLLIERY DISASTER.

A Gas Explosion Shuts off the Escape of Fifty-two Men.

London, Feb. 19.—An explosion occurred in the Catch colliery, in Rhondda valley. There are fifty-two men entombed in the mine. Cries can be heard at the mouth of the shaft, and it is hoped that the men will be saved. The mouth of the pit is surrounded by relatives of the miners, and the scene is heartrending.

Twenty-nine persons have been rescued unhurt at the Catch colliery. Eight others have been taken out injured. Sixteen remain in the pit. It is reported that six are dead

NEWFOUNDLAND'S BAIT BILL.

The Legislature Re-enacts the Measure Amid Much Enthusiasm.

New York, Feb. 20.—A special from St. John's, Newfoundland, says the Legislature yesterday suspended the rules and passed the Bait Bill amid much enthusiasm. It will be again sent to the Imperial authorities for approval. Indignation over its previous disallowance by the Crown is deepening and spreading. Newfoundland wants the bill to protect the bait fishes which serve as food for cod, and also to keep in check French competition.

Port Perry's Assembly.

Port Perry, Feb. 19.—The assembly in the Town Hall last night was a very pleasant gathering. Visitors were present from Whitby, Oshawa, Cannington, Uxbridge, Peterboro', Bellevilla and Toronto, and dancing was enjoyed to the music of Seager's band, from Toronto. The ladies of Port Perry prepared the supper, which was excellent. The patronesses were: Mrs. John Billings, Mrs. N. F. Paterson, Mrs. A. W. Roberts and Mrs. G. H. Glendenning, and the stewards Messrs. E. J. Agar, E. J. Glennev, H. W. Hillyard, J. H. Lawder and E. J. Mundy; Hon.-Sec., Geo. Currie.

Wolseley on Lee.

London, Feb. 19.—The character of Lord Wolseley's article on Gen. Robert E. Lee in the March Macmillan's can be predicted with certainty. His admiration of that Southern leader amounts to idolatry. Gen. Lee fascinated Gen. Wolseley when, early in the war and when on duty in Canada, the latter crossed the American lines, reached the rebel camp after some adventures and spent a considerable time with Gen. Lee at his request. An anonymous account of this episode in the career of "England's only General" was written by him for Blackwood's Magazine at the time.

The Times on the Fishery Difficulty.

London, Feb. 19.—The Times advises that no time be lost in effecting a settlement of the fisheries dispute between the United States and Canada before the fishing season opens, because after its commencement the dispute may be complicated by fresh seizures of fishing vessels. "The Canadians," says the Times, "as well as their neighbors, must be prepared to waive some of the rights for which they have been stickling."

The American Prelates at Rome.

Rome, Feb. 20.—Cardinal Gibbons has been very busy since his arrival here. No definite information of the business of the Propaganda is known. Cardinal Gibbons is expected to express an opinion on many American questions. Bishops Cusic of Milwaukee and Keane of Richmond, Va., congratulated the Pope to-day upon the ninth anniversary of his pontificate. The Pope in his discourse described the Baltimore council as an honor to America and to the whole church. Bishop Keane afterward thanked the Pope.

Russian's Eastward March.

London, Feb. 19.—The Governor of Afghan-Turkestan has advices from the Ameer saying Russian officers and a company of Bokharian troopers are surveying for the purpose of bridging the Amoderia near Kuljut, and that a Russian advance is threatened between Kunduz and Baleth.

The Dutch King's Birthday.

The Hague, Feb. 19.—To-day being the seventieth anniversary of the birth of King William, the inhabitants of Holland made a holiday of it. Early this morning the people of The Hague presented His Majesty with a casket, an address and a [illegible]. The day was celebrated with great enthusiasm.

THE GREAT ISSUE.

The issue in this election is between public integrity and official dishonor. There should be only one response by all intelligent and independent electors. The boodlers, the railway charter grabbers, the colonization land appropriators, should be dismissed and the public life purified. To hide their political sins from the public the Government insist that the N. P. is the sole issue in this contest. This is not the case. The N. P. is not in question. It is the settled policy of the country and both parties will maintain it. But in one case it will be maintained by Mr. Blake in connection, with an honest and economical administration of other interests. In the other case it will be administered by Sir John in so extravagant and corrupt a manner as to neutralise all the benefits arising for its application. Remember your vote, which ever way given, does not affect the N. P., but if given for Mr. Blake it is cast for honest and efficient administration and an end to wasteful and corrupt squanderiug of the public funds. If you vote for Mr. Blake you vote for an end of spending $500,000 a year in assisted immigration. Vote for Blake and you end the impotation of the Heathen Chinese to work on Canadian government railroads. Vote for Blake and you will have Senate reform. Vote for Blake and you will have the Civil Service pruned and thousands of useless members lopped off and thousands of money saved. Vote for Blake and you will have the Franchise Act repealed, manhood suffrage brought in, and the voters' lists prepared by municipal officers at a saving in cost to the Federal exchequer of over half a million a year. Vote for Blake and you have the N. P. maintained and the public affairs administered with honesty and economy. Vote for Sir John, and you vote for the N. P., of course, and also for a continuation of the reign of boodleism, corruption and extravagance. Vote for Blake and you give the N. P. a fair chance under honest and saving rule. Vote for Sir John and you handicap the N. P. with the waste of revenue it produces, in wanton extravagance and corrupt expenditure. This is not a fight for the preservation of the National Policy, but a fight for the life of the nation. The people want honest government, and they mean to have it.

Electors, forbid by your votes the iniquity of members of Parliament selling their influence for money or money's worth.

CHANCES—FORTY TO ONE.

If Mr. Stevenson's chances for election are not any better than the chances of thirty-nine of the applicants who have been promised the Street and Bridge Inspectorship, he will be left at home. They would be forty to one against him. To get hard work out of forty applicants each one has been led to believe that he will be appointed "after the elections." Every one of the applicants will see that the chances of his getting the place, are forty to one against him. The lucky man has been decided upon, but Mr. Stevenson would lose thirty-nine workers who have been duped into promoting his election on the assurance that he will be appointed "after the elections" if the matter was decided before Feb. 22nd.

Electors, decide by your ballots that waste and extravagance must give way to economy and honest government.

HE IS DOOMED.

Sir John Macdonald never yet won an election except by having two-thirds of Quebec in his favor. Quebec is against him now, and his Government is doomed.

SLANDERING AN ARCHBISHOP.

The report is being circulated by Tory politicians that Archbishop Lynch of Toronto, is supporting Sir John, and that he would issue a pastoral in Sir John's favour. Of course this is another falsehood. His Grace being asked by a reporter as to the truth of the report made answer thus: "There is "not a word of truth in the report. My "next pastoral will be on Lenten subjects "and will not contain a word on politics."

Electors, the tide has turned towards Liberalism; be with the winning side next Tuesday.

THE HAND OF THE MILLER.

After the shifty, double dealing and deceitful course of Mr. Hilliard in trifling with the post office site he gained so much ill will and distrust that he turned tail and dared not face the music. He knew that he could not be elected and he did not come out as a candidate. But it appears he still controls the patronage he has so vilely abused. He still has influence enough to get a relative appointed to the position of caretaker of the new post office. This is an insult to those Conservatives who were snubbed in the matter of the post office site. Not only are they swindled out of the site, but not one of that section of the party can get a position in connection with it.

Vote for Blake, a fair-play tariff, economy and honesty.

ELECTIONS BY ACCLAMATION.

In Quebec six members, five of whom are supporters of Mr. Blake were returned by acclamation,—Messrs. Coursol Gigault, Scriver, Durpont, Bechard and Gibault; in British Columbia, one,—Mara; and in Manitoba, one,—Ross. Of the eight members elected by acclamation two are independent. In four constituencies, there are only Liberal candidates. So that independing of the result of polling day, Mr. Blake starts the new house with a majority often gained by Sir John 30 before polling day in 1882. This is a glorious start and an omen of victory. The man that votes Blake is sure to be on the winning side.

THE GOVERNMENT'S REBELLION.

Mr. M. C. Cameron's motion in the House of Commons on March 27, 1884:—

"That this House do resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider the condition, complaints, and demands of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories with a view to devise means for remedying any well-founded grievances and complying with any reasonable demands."

Motion rejected by 116 to 57.

Result:—A rebellion, an expenditure of $8,000,000, and a loss of 200 lives.

Electors, give the Boodlers the right-about next Tuesday.

A COSTLY HUMBUG.

A careful process of addition shows that the Senate has cost Canada since its establishment in 1868 the handsome sum of $2,400,000. Will not our local contemporary, or some other of the lights of the Government party, sum up beside this the services which the Senate has rendered in the shape of initiating useful measures, "checking hasty legislation," (running the 30 million C. P. R. loan Bill through in less than an hour without reading it), defending the constitution, protecting the weaker Provinces, or in any other way. It is a simple question in accounts. The credit side of the balance sheet is $2,400,000, Give us the debits to to balance.

Electors, you make your choice next Tuesday between Hon. Edward Blake and Sir Charles Tupper. Remember that.

"TAKE A BACK SEAT."

All the applicants but one for the position of caretaker of the new post office must take a back seat. The matter of course won't be announced as settled till after election day, but it is understood that Mr. Stevenson has promised the place to Mr. Snyder. All the other applicants are not foolish enough to run their legs off to secure Mr. Stevenson's election after they know that the promises they have been fed on for weeks are broken and that one man, whose family are enjoying a big share of the patronage at the disposal of the member of the riding, has the appointment in his pocket.

In 1884 the Senate sat 115 hours and 40 minutes; price, $133,576. In 1885 the Senate sat 222 hours and 5 minutes; price, $175,508. Two years' wages, $309,084. And all this expenditure to block the progress of the Anti-Seduction Bill and harrass the friends of the Scott Act.

Vote for COX, the friend of the town, and the champion of honest government.

SIR JOHN.

Sir John is pulling every string that will call up a vote. He endeavors to face both ways and please all parties. At Kingston in 1861, when he wanted to catch the Orange vote, Sir John said:

"I, as an Orangeman, have ever since been true to its principles."

In 1866, in Carleton, where he desired to conciliate a Roman Catholic audience, he asserted this:

"I have never set foot in an Orange lodge in my life."

Sir John was initiated into the Orange lodge at Kingston in the fall of 1844.

A CAMPAIGN CATCH.

The Conservative organ, the Mail, has declared in favor of prohibition and temperance, but Sir John relies on his personal promises to make himself solid with the liquor interest. Sir John has given his written pledge to the brewing interest that he will, if elected, pass a Wine and Beer Amendment. This is a plank in Sir John's platform that Mr. Stevenson can consistently and heartily support, for he is a bitter opponent of the Scott Act, though he promised to devote $100 of the people's money towards the funds of the Scott Act Association. As a facing-both-ways politician, the Conservative candidate is a worthy disciple of Sir John.

Electors, with your ballots condemn land monopolies. Vote for "the land for the people."

The Tory journals and even the personal organ of the unsullied premier, Sir John himself, still continue to give currency to the campaign lie that the Pittsburgh iron manufacturers have sent $150,000 to Canada to help in the Liberal elections. A despatch from Pittsburgh states that it is only a campaign lie, and apart from specific denial of the statement, it bears falsehood in the face of it. The iron manufacturers of Pittsburgh have a protective duty of 75 per cent., yet they can't compete with British ironwork which still finds its way to the U. S. markets. Under these circumstances shrewd Yankee business men would not be fools enough to pay $125,0 0 to secure the chance of free entry of their iron into Canada, a privilege which would also be enjoyed by England, when they can't compete with English iron with even a 75 per cent. duty to help them. The statement is one of the late-in-the-day campaign lies, which the people will do well to receive with utter disbelief.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Up Went the Price of Bread.

The bakers of Vancouver, B. C., have advanced the price of bread to ten cents per loaf, or three loaves for twenty-five cents, and the loaves are to be 1½ pounds in weight.

High Living.

High living is unquestionably had for the liver, but whether from that or other causes, the liver becomes deranged, the best cure for liver complaint or biliousness, is that standard medicine for sale by all druggists, Burdock Blood Bitters. Remember B. B. B. is the special trade mark of thismedicine. 2w7d

Ask For It.

"Chestnuts!" yelled several persons in the gallery at a minstrel show. "That's right, gentleman," replied Bones, "if you don't get what you want, ask for it."

A Good Name.

The best recommendation of anything is its popularity where it has been longest known. Throughout the Dominion of Canada there is no more effectual medicine for coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, bronchitis and asthma, than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, for sale by all druggists. 2w7d

LABOUCHERE SPEAKS.

HE ACCUSES THE GOVERNMENT OF SEEKING WAR WITH RUSSIA.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—In the House of Commons this evening, on motion to report the address in reply to the Queen's speech, Mr. Labouchere moved to censure the Government for its Bulgarian policy. He said the Government had tried to prevent the abdication of Prince Alexander, and had acted without the concurrence of the other signatories of the Berlin treaty. He accused the Government of trying to stir up a war against Russia, and asked if there were any dynastic reasons for trying to keep an obscure German Prince on the throne of Bulgaria.

Sir James Ferguson, Under Foreign Secretary, said the policy of the Government was in accord with an overwhelming popular feeling in Bulgaria in favor of Prince Alexander. The support which British agents gave Alexander was simply moral and diplomatic. The Government did not mean to stir up war or design to enter any alliance against Russia. There was no reason to doubt the good will of the Czar.

Mr. Labouchere's motion was negatived without a division.

W. H. Smith, replying to a question, said it was not intended to release Irish or other convicts on the occasion of the Queen's jubilee. The recent release of prisoners in India in commemoration of the jubilee had been ordered by the Government in accordance with an Oriental custom. The order did not apply to Great Britain.

A Builders' Protective Association.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A meeting was held here yesterday afternoon, at which were present nearly 500 men connected with the different branches of the building trades. The meeting was called by a committee of master builders appointed at a general meeting of the trades held Feb. 2. Its object was to organize a proposed Building Employers' Protective Federation, for the protection of master builders and employers of all kinds engaged in the many branches of the building trades, against what they may deem the unjust demands and restrictions of labor unions. An Organization Committee was appointed, whose duty it was to prepare a constitution for the government of the body.

Failures in Canada Large.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to Dun, Wiman & Co. of the mercantile agency to-day by telegraph, number for the United States 222 and for Canada 39, or a total of 261, as compared with a total of 207 last week, 261 the week previous to the last and 286 the corresponding week of last year. There is nothing special to note this week except that the failures in Canada are large and on the increase. In New York city there was but one suspension of consequence. In other sections of the country the casualties are about up to the average.

Not So Dead as He Looked.

KINZUA, Pa., Feb. 18.—Eddie Cosse, aged 16, was found lying apparently dead on the top of an oil tank near here on Sunday. A number of physicians were summoned, who agreed that life was extinct and that death had resulted from inhaling poisonous gases arising from fresh crude oil. The boy was coffined and prepared for burial at Corydon, and services were in progress Wednesday afternoon, when signs of life were seen in the supposed corpse. The boy was removed from the coffin. Medical aid was again summoned and the lad gives every hope of complete recovery.

Archbishop Taché at Quebec.

MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—His Grace Archbishop Taché of St. Boniface, Man., has arrived here and will remain the guest of the Oblat fathers for about four weeks and recuperate his health, and then proceed to Rome to attend the general chapter of the Oblat order.

Run-Off on the G.T.R.

LANCASTER, Feb. 18.—A G.T.R. freight train ran off the track here last night, nineteen cars being derailed. The accident was caused by defective roadway. None of the train's crew were injured.

A FURIOUS SNOWSTORM.

The Telegraph Service West of Omaha Cut Off and Trains Abandoned.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 18.—The worst snowstorm of the winter has been prevailing throughout the Northwest to-day. The telegraph service west of Omaha and St. Paul has been completely cut off. At Minneapolis and St. Paul nearly all trains on the lines northwest and south of Minneapolis have been abandoned. The Northern Pacific, the Manitoba and the Hastings and Dakota lines are entirely blocked. Nearly all the street railway lines in St. Paul and Minneapolis are blocked this morning. At DesMoines a severe snow storm has been raging all day. A wind storm, amounting almost to a tornado, passed near Jacksonville last night.

Dynamite in Galway.

DUBLIN, Feb. 18.—The Recorder of Galway gave a dinner party this evening in Kildysart, and among the guests were two magistrates. While the guests were seated at the table the police patrol noticed a man running rapidly away from the house. The police found on one of the window sills a box of dynamite with a burning fuse attached. The fuse was quenched. The culprit escaped.

Scotch Strikers Violent.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—At a mass meeting of striking Lanark miners yesterday it was resolved to continue the strike till the advance asked for is conceded. The secretary of the meeting, one Small, in a most violent speech condemned the action of the police, and said that dynamite was abroad, and before long the Scottish miners would raise such a revolution as has never been seen in Scotland. Michael Davitt has arranged to come to Scotland and conduct a meeting in the strikers' behalf.

Sudden Death of a Priest.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—Rev. Father Collins, a well known Catholic priest, died suddenly at Mount St. Patrick yesterday. He was formerly pastor of St. Patrick's parish in this city.

Sixty Millions—Not Six.

A paragraph in Saturday's EXAMINER, referring to the Mutual Life Fund Association of New York, stated that nearly six millions of new business have been written during 1886. It should have read sixty millions. The paragraph will be found in this column with the correct amount inserted.

To the Members of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association.

All the New York papers give the report of the annual meeting of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, which appears to have had an unusually prosperous year. Nearly 60 millions of new business has been written, of which about five millions has been done in Canada, under the management of Mr. J. D. Wells, who secured the first prize offered by the Association for largest amount of new business reported by any one of its managers. Messrs. Worthington Kennedy and William Wilcox, of Toronto, were present at the meeting, and were elected to the Council Board.

This great organization still continues to furnish insurance at fifty per cent. less than old line rates, yet, notwithstanding this great reduction the books of the Company show a credit of persistent members of the 1881 class, equal to a dividend of 23½ per cent. upon their entire assessment premiums paid during the first five years. Evangelistic Services.

St. Paul's Church Sunday Night—Mr. Marsh, the Evangelist, Opens a Week's Series of Evangelistic Meetings.

A little departure from the usual routine of services took place in the St. Paul's church Sunday night. The large edifice was crowded. Rev. Mr. Terrence conducted the opening services, and Mr. Marsh delivered an impressive sermon from the text, Romans 1-16:

For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

MR. MARSH said that the congregation would agree with him that if in spite of our many commissions and commissions of sin, in spite of all our transgressions and iniquities, if God was willing to forgive us, this cry of Paul's was one worthy of him. If sometime in life we don't confess our sins, when the judgment roll was read, our names would not be there. There are many to-day who name the name of Jesus in accents of shame. He remembered some time ago reading of a large building which took fire, and as the firemen were preparing to flood the place with water, they were surprised to see an old woman elbow her way frantically through the large crowd which had gathered around. She and for a time was not seen. In a few minutes she appeared at the door, half strangled and nearly dead from the smoke and fire, bearing in her arms her baby daughter. That was a mother's love. Years later in a large public place, this little baby, grown into a young woman, was asked by a gay companion, "who is that old woman down by the door, with her face so terribly scarred?" And that young woman was actually ashamed to say that the old woman was her mother. Our Saviour bore wounds on the cross for us, yet there were many persons ashamed to acknowledge him as their Lord. Paul took his place among the poor and lowly, and was not ashamed of the Gospel or to say that Jesus Christ was Lord. In these days it was the fashion to belong to the Methodists, or Presbyterians, or Baptists, or Episcopalians, but the mere profession of religion would not suffice. The speaker did not profess to be a prophet or to have the gift of miracles, but he would venture to prophesy that at the judgement day there would be a great thinning-out of the ranks of these professors of religion. The true child of Christ was not ashamed to acknowledge Christ.

Then Mr. Marsh went on to notice a few things which the Gospel had done for us, the children of Christ. First of all the Gospel came down from Heaven and found us all sinners, not only by nature but by practice, and there was not a person within sound of his voice who had not over and over again. They might not have broken all the ten commandments, but the man who committed only one sin will as surely be damned as he who has lived a life of sin. The question at the judgment day will not be, "How much has this man sinned?" but, "Is this man a saint or a sinner?" The Bible tells us emphatically that the heart of man is naturally evil, and if only one sin is committed, it will be punished as if we had broken the whole law. In the second place the Gospel finds us

On the mountains, wild and bare.
Away from the shepherd's loving care.

The Gospel finds us sinners, and makes us saints; finds us far away, and draws us near to Christ. And, Oh! blessed thoughts, if we are truly the sons of God, we can be just as near and dear to God as He who sitteth on the right hand of the throne. Again, the Gospel finds us suffering from a terrible disease. If we are unconverted, the Gospel finds us suffering from the disease of sin. But it brings us a wonderful remedy, the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. Mr. Marsh recited the story of the conversion of Capt. Hedley Vickers, a British officer, who became a child of God simply through reading the verse, "The blood of Jesus Christ was shed for all." Then the dire disease is taken away the minute the blood of Jesus is applied. There might be some in the congregation who would say, "We have wandered too far away; our sins are so great, there is no pardon for us." Yes, there was. The Salvation provided by God was for the lowest of the low. Years ago there was a man who was so wicked, who uttered such fearful oaths, he was reproved for swearing by an abandoned woman. Yet that man was converted and afterwards wrote the "Pilgrim's Progress." He referred to John Bunyan. Last summer Mr. Marsh said he labored among 20,000 men on the shore of Lake Superior, who were working on a railway, and there wickedness reigned triumphant, yet numbers of these men afterwards sought the Saviour and found peace. He asked his hearers what were they going to do with the Gospel to-night. They must either believe it or doubt it—either accept it or reject it, and in rejecting it they rejected Jesus. The devil in hell could not commit a blacker sin then was being committed by thousands in the rejection of Jesus Christ. The gospel of Christ was the power of God unto salvation. At the close of an evangelistic meeting recently, a man went into the vestry of the church, where it was held, wrought on by the spirit, and determined not to leave the place until he knew that Christ was his Savior. In the meantime the people were leaving the church, most of the lights were out, and he was advised to go home and seek forgiveness at his bedside. He refused; he was determined to find peace there and then, and a little after midnight, almost alone and only one light burning

THE VILEST OF THE VILE,

HIS SOUL WAS SAVED.

The next morning (he worked in a mine) a large piece of rock fell on him and crushed him, and he died saying, "It's all right; it was settled last night—it was settled last night." About two years ago, not far from town, Mr. Marsh said he spoke to an old man about his soul, but he was not listened to with any good result. After the meeting the old man said to a friend: "If I go to hell it will be my own fault; I might have been saved." Might have been! Those were terrible words. "Whatever you do," said Mr. Marsh, "don't procrastinate. Procrastination is Satan's recruiting officer. The best thing you can do ere leaving this building to-night is to trust in the Lord. Before to-morrow night you may be in the bottomless pit, cursing the day you first saw light. To bear the horrors of hell is intolerable; to escape them, if this Bible is true, is impossible." A powerful appeal to the unsaved to have their peace made with God at once closed the sermon. At the close a fervent prayer-meeting was held.

To-night Mr. Marsh will conduct evangelistic services in the school room of St. Paul's church, and every night this week. Five hundred persons can be comfortably seated in the school room, and an earnest invitation is extended to all. A collection to defray expenses will be taken up each evening.

Ladies will do well to remember that Turnbull is showing piles of new dress goods and trimmings in all the latest shades. His clearing sale of spring goods is now going on.

ELECTORAL FIGHT.

THE GERMAN PARTIES STRUGGLING STOUTLY FOR SUPREMACY.

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—There is a pause in the intensity of electoral conflict pending Monday's polling. The committees everywhere continue active, but there is a momentary lull in the public agitation. There is also a significant subsidence in war rumors. This, the Opposition say, is because the Government no longer considers such ailment necessary to excite the electorates. Though official circles are sure of victory, they are much less confident that their majority will be large. Their most sanguine estimates increase the number of Conservatives from seventy-eight to eighty-six and the National Liberals from fifty to sixty, and reduces the Freisinnigen from sixty-seven to fifty, leaving the other sections about the same as before. The Septennate majority is dependent upon a split in the Centre party, in which it is calculated there are sixty-nine Triennists against thirty Septennists. If this estimate is realized, and the Government fails to obtain a submissive majority for all its purposes the new Reichstag will vote for the Military Bill, but will be equally ready, as was the last Reichstag, to resist Bismarckian projects for securing permanent supplies. The Socialists hope to return thirty-four candidates, an increase of ten over their number in the last Reichstag. The Progressists are the only party with moderate expectations. They will be gratified if they retain their former force. The results of the elections will be known definitely Tuesday night.

It is reported that Prince Bismarck desires to convoke the Reichstag for Feb. 28 and will demand urgency for the Military Bill.

The search of houses in Alsace-Lorraine for suspected adherents of the French Patriotic Leagues still continues, and numerous persons have been arrested, including several prominent manufacturers of Mulhausen and merchants of Strasburg. The Journal of Alsace says that no incriminating documents have been found, but that the order of the Chief Procurator, sending a number of the prisoners to Leipsic for trial, charged with high treason, is based upon evidence obtained from the police lists of the members of the league, from orders issued by the Alsatian committees and from other papers.

It is reported that Emperor William has sent an autograph letter to the Pope, thanking him for his intervention in favor of the Septennate.

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day: February 15th.
Polling Day: February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secrecy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES

SUITS, made to Order - - $12
Formerly sold for $15.

SUITS, made to Order - - $14
Formerly sold for $17.

SUITS, Ready-made, for $5 and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00—$4.00—$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

EGYPT MENACED.

BOULANGER DOES NOT INTEND TO ATTACK GERMANY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—A special from London says the relations of the English and French foreign offices are becoming strained. The English complain of increasing coolness and hostility on the part of the French Ministry, who seek every means of indulging in vexatious conduct. Their official language displays an ill-temper which approaches insolence. Rumors are afloat that Boulanger's preparations on the eastern frontier are merely a blind, the object being to conceal the design of the French to attack Egypt with the immense military force now being concentrated for a pretended invasion of Alsace-Loraine. The St. James Gazette, commenting on these rumors, says that they have been current in well-informed circles in France for some time. "Although," it affirms, "the English public have not been apprised of the fact, yet it is true that the French Government has been troubling our Government a great deal lately, not with absolute menaces, but with persistent annoyance."

Austria and Russia.

PESTH, Feb. 21.—The Pester Lloyd says: Austria maintains her decision to regard the occupation of Bulgaria by Russia a casus belli. Austria will not oppose Russian forces in Bulgaria, but will choose points of attack favorable for operations

Tantamount to a Protectorate

CAIRO, Feb. 21.—The action of the Government in deciding to avoid the summoning of the Convoy meets with the support of England. The attitude of England has been discussed here by diplomats who attach much importance to the matter, as it is the first time she has been openly responsible for the action of Egypt. The diplomats believe the support of England is tantamount to the establishment of a protectorate over Egypt.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS IN ENGLAND.

A Conference of Conservatives—The Procedure Rules Before the House.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The conference of the Conservative party held to-day at the Foreign Office was largely attended. Mr. Goschen's acceptance of office under the present Government, Lord Salisbury said, had strengthened the Conservative party. "After marking time for a month," continued the Marquis, "we have arrived at serious business." He then said he hoped the Government would be able, by reforming the rules of procedure, to restore to the House of Commons its capacity for work and its reputation for courtesy. "After which," he added, "we shall be able to deal with the questions of local Government in Ireland and with other measures. [Loud cheers.] "I hope," he said, "that the present law will be sufficient to enable the authorities to cope successfully with the disorder in Ireland. In any case all bills will be postponed until after the conclusion of the proceedings for reform of the procedure rules and action on the estimates. The Government expect to present the budget during the first week in April."

England's Intentions in Egypt.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Sir James Ferguson stated in the House of Commons this evening that the proposals laid before the Porte by Sir Henry Drummond Wolffe did not involve the withdrawal of the English troops from Egypt so long as there was any fear that the Government of Egypt would be unable to maintain order in that country. He added that Her Majesty's Government never proposed anything tending to renounce the right of England to protect Egypt from internal or external disturbances. Cheers.] There was no foundation, either, for the impression that the Government looked upon the neutrality of Belgium as a precedent making it desirable to establish a similar state of affairs in Egypt.

The Procedure Resolutions.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Mr. W. H. Smith, in moving the first of the procedure resolutions, appealed to the House to maintain the dignity of Parliament and to vindicate the authority of its own proceedings. The new rules, he said, would make the authority of the Speaker absolute. He believed the House had full confidence in the discretion and judgment of the Speaker. In the judicial position which he occupied he would safely guard the interests of minorities and preserve the rights of majorities. Unless the first resolution—conferring upon the Speaker the power of the closure—was passed, it would be impossible to obtain reforms. The Speaker had at present only the power of expressing an opinion as to the time a debate should terminate. What the Government now proposed was that when any member moved the closure the Speaker should be empowered to take the vote of the House.

Mr. Gladstone said the matter of procedure reforms should not be treated as a party question. He doubted the wisdom of placing the subject of procedure in the van of all other business. The proposal of the Government practically amounted to nothing. Mr. Smith had failed to explain the delicate and difficult function assigned to the Speaker under the first rule. Upon what principle was the Speaker to proceed in giving or withholding his consent to the closure?

Mr. Parnell contended that the new rules proposed would not facilitate the transaction of business, but would produce irritation and exasperation. Soon the Conservatives would bitterly regret having introduced their present proposals.

THE GERMAN CONTEST

THE RETURNS OF THE VOTING SO FAR INCOMPLETE.

BERLIN, Feb. 21, 10 p.m.—The elections in this city have resulted unfavorably for all the Government candidates. In four of the six divisions second ballots will be necessary, but in each of these divisions the anti-Septennate candidate has at present a majority. In the fifth division Klotz, new German Liberal, has 7882 and Zedlitz Neukirth, Septennist, 7008; a second ballot is thus necessary. In the second division Virchow, new German Liberal, received 16,439, and Wolff, Septennist, 16,106; another ballot is necessary. In the third division Mmckel, new German Liberal, received 10,400, and Christensen, Socialist, 9,080; there will be another ballot. In the fourth division it is reported that the Socialist Singer is elected, but the official returns from the division have not yet been received. In the fifth district Baumbach, new German Liberal, has 10,076, and Major Blume, Septennist, 7009. In the sixth division Hazenclever, Socialist, is elected by a large majority over Grelling, new German Liberal, and Holtz, Septennist.

In Strasburg, Kable (Centrist) received 8202 and Petri 6998.

Aix La Chapelle returns a Centrist and Nurenbery returns a Socialist.

An analysis of the polling shows that today's contest was unprecedently stubborn. As the night advanced the excitement in this city became intense. Thousands of people surrounded the newspaper offices awaiting special editions giving election returns. It is stated that Singer and Hasenclever have each over 12,000 majority in this city.

Second ballots were necessary in Koenigsberg, Elberfeld Breslau, Lubeck, Dresden, Altstadt, Frankfort, Dantzic, Stettin, Cologne and Munich. Septennists are elected in Bremen, Liepsic and Brunswick. The Socialist organization has been most complete. The Socialist electors were brought to the polls in battalions. Two Socialists were returned for Breslau. Richter is returned for Hagen. Prince Bismarck on appearing at his polling station in the second division in this city was greeted with a storm of cheers. According to the ballot arrangement it is probable Berlin will be represented by three new German Liberals and three Socialists.

Archbishop Croke Denounced.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—At the conference of the Conservative party to-day Edwin Dy Lisle, Conservative member for Middle Leicestershire, spoke, saying that as a Roman Catholic Conservative he denounced the conduct of Archbishop Croke of Cashel in openly encouraging the conduct of the Irish National League, and said he would like to have the Archbishop tried for this conduct by a jury of English Catholics in London. This statement provoked great enthusiasm.

THE RECIPROCITY OF TRADE.

Erastus Wiman Speaks of its Benefits at the N.Y. Board of Trade Banquet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—As somewhat indicative of the desire to discuss enlarged commercial relations between the United States and Canada, the subject was one of the toasts at the annual banquet of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, which was held to-night at the Hotel Brunswick. Erastus Wiman was a specially invited guest and occupied a seat on the platform beside Gen. Sherman and Mr. Trenholm, Comptroller of Currency. In response to the toast, Mr. Wiman made an earnest appeal on behalf of the Butterworth bill, now before Congress, which proposes a complete interchange of all products, whether natural or manufactured, between the United States and Canada. The idea was not at first warmly received, but as Mr. Wiman proceeded to point out the strong advantages to be gained by both countries, hearty applause greeted the speaker. A clear understanding of the fishery question was conveyed and the general idea of reciprocal relations was towards the end in main approved.

Stage Robbers Driven Off.

The Officials of the B. & O. Held Responsible for the Accident.

TIFFIN, O., Feb. 21.—The coroner's verdict in the case of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway finds that the victims came to their death through gross negligence on the part of the officials and managers of the Chicago division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, and through the gross negligence of Conductor Flescher in failing to signal the express train, and through gross negligence on the part of the owners, managers and officials of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway Company for using inferior and ineffective brakes; also for the improper, dangerous and unlawful manner of lighting and heating the cars.

Struck by a Whirlwind.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 21.—An unknown fruit schooner was struck by a whirlwind on the St. Johns River last evening, lifted almost wholly out of the water, and then suddenly capsized. Everyone on board was drowned. It is known that there were five men on the schooner. It is feared there may also have been women and children among the lost, as it is customary for the families of the captains and mates of the fruit schooners to live on board the vessels with their husbands.

Locomotives Roll Down an Embankment.

FARGO, D.T., Feb. 21.—The passenger train from the west, due at Fargo yesterday morning, ran into a freight on a side track forty miles west. It struck the caboose, throwing it down the embankment on one side and the two engines of the passenger train rolled down the embankment on the other side. The engineers and firemen were all badly bruised, but not fatally injured No passengers were hurt.

Slaughter of Blacks by Miners.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—A letter received at Auckland, Australia, Jan. 26, from Kimberly, contains an account of a terrible slaughter of blacks in that district. A miner stole a black, and in retaliation a negro killed the miner and wounded his two companions. The latter escaped, secured assistance and pursued the blacks, and out of the band forty were shot down.

RIOTING IN BOSTON.

Striking Street Railway Employes Wreck a Car and Fight the Police.

BOSTON, Feb. 21.—A mob of strikers gathered at the junction of the Webster-street line with that on Main-street yesterday, and as a car turned into Webster-avenue it was wrecked with showers of bricks and stones. Each succeeding car was similarly treated, until five cars had been badly damaged. Then the police appeared and attempted to disperse the crowd. Bricks and stones were thrown at the police and many of the officers were injured. The police then charged the mob with drawn revolvers, and it scattered in all directions. About a dozen of the strikers were arrested. A little later the mob assembled again and wrecked another car. The police, reinforced by a mounted squad, charged the crowd on the double quick, and they dispersed after discharging a volley of bricks at the police. At least a dozen officers were more or less seriously injured. Another lot of prisoners was taken.

THE FIRST STATE BALL.

The Governor-General Entertains a Brilliant Assemblage in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 21.—The Governor-General gave his first state ball to-night in the Queen's Hall. The concert hall was floored over and converted into a ball-room. The decorations were on a grand scale. The assembly room was engaged for the supper room. The assemblage was a brilliant one, and the event passed off successfully. Kelly's greatness is due to his excellence in any place on the field. He is a great batter, unequalled as a base runner, a brilliant coach and a slugger. The $5000 that Kelly will receive for his coming season's baseball work can be divided into $2500 salary and $2000 for his photograph, which the Boston Club directors feel they cannot do without.

THE FISHERIES TROUBLE.

"The London Times advises that no time be lost in effecting a settlement of the fisheries dispute between the United States and Canada before the fishing season opens, because after its commencement the dispute may be complicated by fresh seizures of fishing vessels. 'The Canadians,' says the Times, 'as well as their neighbours, must be prepared to waive some of the rights for which they have been stickling.'" The Canadians do not propose, slow coach "Thunderer," to "waive some of their rights" Our rights are too clearly defined, we stand by the treaty of 1873, and that clearly defines the rights we possess, and the rights which the Americans shall enjoy at our hands. These are (1) to obtain shelter at Canadian ports, (2) to be allowed to effect repairs, (3) to buy wood, and (4) to obtain water,] but (5) "for no other purpose whatever." This is straight and plain enough. "For no other cause whatever" plainly means that the Americans are not to be allowed to practice fishing on our coasts. If they want to fish outside of the three mile limit on the open sea they are welcome to do so, but they must not expect to place themselves on an equality with Canadian fishermen by being allowed to land and purchase bait ice and other supplies necessary to their calling. They tried to do this in 1924 but at that time as at the present, their vessels were seized and confiscated, which course was put a stop to by the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But in 1866 the Americans saw fit to end the Reciprocity Treaty. Canada fell back upon the Treaty of 1818 and the Governor-General notified the American fishermen that the privileges they had enjoyed for twelve years had ceased. They were then as much "tried" as they are now and stoutly denied, the right of Canadians to exclude them from our fishing grounds, but they did practically concede our rights, for when, upon the request of the British Government, the Canadians granted the old privilege to American vessels to fish—by license, 354 licenses were taken out by American fishermen—thus recognizing the fact that the privileges granted them by the Canadians were enjoyed only at our option. The Americans will have to recognize our rights now whether they wish to do so or not, and the dire threats of war are not much to be dreaded, especially as they are made with a view of influencing the presidential election which comes on in 1888.

MONEY SAVED NOT ALWAYS MONEY GAINED.

The Postoffice Savings Banks return for the month of January is the most satisfactory in the mere way of figures that has been published since the establishment of these institutions. The amount deposited during the month amounted to $753,981, and the amount withdrawn $470,900. The amount to the credit of depositors on the 31st of January, 1887, was $18,312,508; on the 31st of January, 1886, it was $16,054,954, showing an increase during the year of $2,257,554. This increase, however, cannot be taken as an infallible index of prosperity. For, in many cases no doubt these deposits represent withdrawals from business or trade which is not yielding as large a return as the four per cent. interest paid by the postoffice and other government savings banks. Again the low rates of interest paid by the banks—only three per cent.—would operate largely in inducing depositors to withdraw their deposits and invest them in the savings bank department of the government. The absence of profitable avenues of investment in mercantile, manufacturing and other industries, swells the savings banks deposits by the addition of funds which under other circumstances would be invested in employment-providing and wealth-producing industries. So that, after all, the increase of deposits in the postoffice savings banks does not prove the prosperity of the country generally, and in many cases it indicates an exactly opposite condition, a condition of commercial and industrial stagnation. In a new country like Canada there should be very little deposit of idle money. There are immense resources to be developed, in the shape of agricultural mineral and timber interests, which, with a satisfactory condition of prosperity, should not only absorb all our surplus Canadian funds, but also draw on the financial resources of the Mother Country, and there is something wrong when we see money "salted away" in comparatively profitless idleness—serving no wealth-producing purpose, adding nothing to the wealth of the country, exercising no creative influence, no developmental tendency. Taking the country over, if one out of ten deposits his money in a Government savings bank, the other nine have to pay the interest on his investment. For this purpose, over one and a half millions were appropriated in the estimates of the current year, a sum equivalent to a tax about 33 cents per headon every soul in the Dominion, or $1.56 per family of five. If the $18,312,508, now on deposit in the Postoffice savings banks alone, were invested in some profitable manufacturing industry, it would exercise a far wider beneficial influence, in giving employment to labor, development of the trade in supplying raw material—and adding to the wealth of the country. For money at interest does not add to the sum total of wealth, it only transfers existing wealth from one pocket to another, but the industry that converts a worthless raw material into commercial wealth, or makes an acre of idle soil commercially productive, is creative in its functions and gives a practical denial to the old Latin axiom—ex nihilo nil fit.

KINGSTON politicians are of the lion-lying-down-with-the-lamb kind, they sign a material agreement to arrest each other for bribery in case detection was made.

A SALE of a cargo of fine-grade sugar was recently made at New York at a price netting 2¾c. per pound to the producer. Such low prices for this staple have not been recorded for twenty-five years.

RIP VAN WINKLE municipalities who cling to toll gates are clamoring for legislation to abolish toll gates. Progressive countries have taken the matter into their own hands and abolished them long ago. Municipalities which sleep long after the rest of the world is astir, should not complain if they are left behind in the race.

ANOTHER election by acclamation and another Liberal gain. Mr. Pepler the Conservative candidate for Drummond and Arthabaska has resigned and Mr. Lavergne (Blake) has been returned by acclamation. At the election in 1882 the Conservative candidate, Mr. D. O. Bourbeau, carried Drummond and Arthabaska against L. J. Caron, Liberal, by a majority of 610.

A COMPANY with a capital of $5,000,000 has been organized to undertake the construction of a submarine tunnel between Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia, provided the Government guarantees 4 per cent. interest on the expenditure. One or two prominent Islanders are at Ottawa pressing the subject on the consideration of the Government. It is pretty well conceded, says the Monetary Times, that the safe passage of the Straits is impossible in any other way than by a tunnel, and as projects of greater magnitude are frequently coming to the front, we should not be surprised if this undertaking assume a definite shape.

Election Day—Feb. 22, 1887.

Not in robes of silken fold,
Regal purple, gems and gold;
Not with bias ned banners spread,
Trumpet tones and martial tread
But in silence, one by one,
From the dawn till set of sun,
Does the people in its might
Forth to use its royal right,

From lone homesteads, scattered wide,—
From the city's restless tide,
Come our kings, with homely dress,
Faces marred by care and stress,
In whose toil-worn hands we see
Sign nor badge of royalty:
Yet unscepter'd kings are they
If their hearts are true to-day.

Half a continent waiting stands
Silent action of their hands,
Theirs to well and wisely choose
Men, who with true heart shall use
For our Canada alone—
For her weal and not their own
Passing glory of an hour—
Solemn trust of place and power.

Men who shall with honest hearts,
In the light that Heaven imparts,
Seek for Canada the might
Borne alone of truth and right;
Men whose wisdom shall increase
Progress, happiness and peace,
Knowing righteousness alone
Is their true foundat on stone,

But our crownless kings shall be
Honded slaves, not monarchs free,
If for favour, place or gold
Shall the freeman's right be sold;
If he trade for worthless dross
Right to use, this land from loss,
Then the freeman to the knave
Sells himself, an abject slave.

His to make the choice to-day
Nobly rule, or base obey.—
Cringing as do cravon slaves
At the beck of crafty knaves;
Or as men erect and strong,
Standing firm against the wrong,
Using, as a gift from Heaven,
Freedom's right to freemen given.

Then, as Heaven shall yet demand,
Count of duty to his land,—
As his vote shall yet be read,
When all party cries are dead,
Earthly gains and glories fled—
When the future as the past
And all hearts are known at last—
Let the freeman's vote be cast.

Fidelis.

Keene.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The house vacated by Mr. Robert McIntyre is to be occupied by Mr. William Connell.

Large quantities of wheat are being disposed of aboard the cars at Keene station this winter at prices much below that of barley in 1876, and that notwithstanding the N. P., with which the great constitutional lawyer hocus-pocused so many of our worthy farmers at that date.

Our curlers have been playing off with each other for the medal. It is now in the hands of the winning rink, W. J. Campbell, H. J. English, Alex. Campbell, sr., Robert McIntyre, skip, who won by six points on Tuesday last. These have now to play off with each other.

John R. Clark, the "boot-black orator," gave in the town hall on Tuesday night his wonderfully interesting, laughable, unique, instructive and eloquent lecture, "To and Fro in London." Mr. Clark is a remarkable and original platform genius, and well worth the change and the time.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eod wf

THE UNITED LABOR PARTY.

Delegates Arriving at Cincinnati to Attend the Conference.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 19.—There are already a few delegates here to attend the industrial convention or conference called to meet here Feb. 22. Mr. Winston of North Carolina, who has been identified with the Greenbackers, is among the early arrivals. Local delegates are candid to correct the general impression that the convention will be controlled by the Knights of Labor. Said one: "The Knights of Labor give it no official sanction. Individual Knights may attend as delegates, but they will have no authority from the order, and their action will in nowise bind the order. The conference is to be made up of individuals representing various interests, but is not to be controlled by any one interest."

All the delegates here are hopeful that the session will be harmonious, and that a platform of principles will be agreed upon that shall commend itself to the public favor. They are disposed to hoot at the idea of any faction scheming to capture the convention and guide it to suit selfish purposes.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Henry George left to-night for Cincinnati to attend the United Labor party convention which meets in that city on Tuesday next. On Monday night he will lecture there.

THE NEW YORK STRIKE.

Freight-handlers and 'Longshoremen Seeking Their Old Places.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Five hundred coopers employed by Weidman & Palmers in Brooklyn, struck to-day because the firm was supplying non-union mills. The works were closed and guarded by police. There is very little chance of the strike becoming general, as more than half of those who went out were anxious to get back to work, and claim they only went out through fear of personal violence. District Assembly 49, which called the men out, is meeting with very little success in the shops not already out, as the men have just seen the failure of the longshoremen's strike, also ordered by 49 and the "Home Club."

The freight handlers and 'longshoremen along the river front still continue to go back whenever they can find an opening. They now admit they were wrong in coming out without any grievance of their own, and they do not hesitate to denounce Master Workman Quinn and his associates. At the Providence Line Pier a deputation of old hands waited on the boss stevedore and asked to be taken back. They were told they could never come on that pier again to work.

Father McGlynn's Case.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The committee Catholics recently appointed at a mass meeting for the purpose has issued an address to the workingmen of the country upon the subject of the deposition of Rev. Dr. McGlynn from the Catholic priesthood for advocating Henry George's land theories. The address sets forth that these theories have been held for many centuries; that prominent clerics hold them now, and that the church has never declared on the subject, and they call upon their fellow-workingmen throughout the country to hold mass meetings and meetings of their unions to rally around Dr. McGlynn by unitedly declaring against political interference from Rome, and to support him by contributing to the McGlynn fund.

CHEAPER THAN THE CHINAMAN

A New Competitor in the Field of Labor at the South.

RICHMOND, Ky., Feb. 18.—J. B. Parkes, a substantial farmer living near Kingston, Madison County, has successfully trained a force of seven large monkeys to work in his hemp fields, and to break and prepare the hemp for market. They do the work more quickly and better than the negroes he formerly employed and at about one-fourth the cost. It required about four months of patient work to train the animals, but they now do their tasks with rare intelligence. The monkeys were sent to Mr. Parkes by a brother, who is in business in Cape Town, South Africa, and who had seen the animals put to similar uses there. Mr. Parkes has sent for ten more of the useful imitators of human workmen, six of them to be used by John G. Taylor, a neighboring farmer, who is also an extensive raiser of hemp.

It Has Had a Wide Distribution Throughout the United States.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The speech by Erastus Wiman at the Toronto Board of Trade banquet on Wednesday evening last has had a wide distribution throughout the United States, and especially west. When she learned that the Express Company would charge her $100 for the service, she threw the securities into a bag, saying: "I can go to Philadelphia and return for $4. I will go myself and save $96."

A Shower of Mud.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 18.—A strange phenomenon occurred in this section yesterday afternoon, the country being treated to a veritable shower of mud. The mud came down in small particles and gave everything the appearance of having been splashed by teams crossing streets. A strong wind storm prevailed two hundred miles west, and the theory is that the dust raised by this storm floated over this section and was finally precipitated by becoming saturated.

A Nun Breaks Her Vows.

NEWARK, O., Feb. 17.—The whole Catholic body has been thrown into excitement here by the escape from a church convent of Sister Superior Genevieve, who eluded the other sisters. An Every-day Affair.

To-day is Shrove Tuesday, a day specially set apart in Merry England, for the consumption of pancakes. The day will not be so much honored on this side of the Atlantic, for in this land of luxury and affluence, pancake day comes around as often as churning day, or whenever a bowl of butter milk can be borrowed from a neighbour.

A Candid Opinion!

"The Toronto World has a list of political forecasts from each riding, "free from political bias." The following item is included in the budget. To-night will show how far it is correct :—

PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 21—It is a toss-up here in both ridings. Both parties feel sure. I think there will be one of each get in.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

The mortuary statistics for January show the number of deaths during the month to have been as follows in the undermentioned places :—Montreal, 405 ; Toronto, 186 ; Hamilton, 62 ; St. John, N.B., 54 ; Halifax, 52 ; Ottawa, 50 ; Kingston. 37 ; Sorel, 31 ; Winnipeg, 29 ; London, 29 ; Victoria, B.C., 27 ; Hull, 25 ; Belleville, 22 ; St. Hyacinthe, 18 ; Fredericton, 17 ; Charlottetown, 15 ; Three Rivers, 15 ; Brantford, 14 ; Sherbrooke, 12 ; Peterborough, 12 ; Woodstock, 12 ; Guelph, 11 ; St. Thomas, 11 ; Chatham, 11 ; Galt, 10.

Ladies when you want Corsets try a pair of the new Jersey make to be had at Turnbull's.

A Mine of Marl.

On the farm of Mr John McKenzie, of Seymour, says the Herald, there is a small mine of marl which is said by experts to be of great value. There are about 8 acres of it, ranging from 3 to 6 feet deep. Marl is largely used in the manufacture of the finer class of china goods, and from it is derived an acid which in very much used for chemical purposes. The place was visited some time ago by a gentleman who was prospecting through the mineral regions of the back townships for a mining firm in Buffalo, N. Y., and the marl attracted his notice and claimed his fancy, and he pronounced it to be a valuable article. Another gentleman who visited the marl became so interested in its worth that he made an offer for its immediate purchase, but Mr. McKenzie declined to accept it. The mine is situated only four miles from the C. P. R. and only one and a half miles from Heeley Falls, both points being easy of access for shipment.

Complimentary.

Mr. R. M. Roy, for many years past a resident of Belleville, says the Intelligencer, has been compelled, by the force of circumstances, to remove to Peterborough. Having recently been promoted in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway Company, this was necessary in order to be near the centre of his field of duty. During his long residence there he was foremost in yachting and dramatic circles. He promoted these interests so vigorously that he became almost indispensable when anything pertaining to them was undertaken. Belleville Lodge, No. 81, I. O. O. F., composed of many of those who had known Mr. Roy in this connection, and of which he is a Past Vice-Grand, tendered him a complimentary supper last (Friday) evening in the room connected with the lodge. While Mr. Roy's friends in this city regret to lose him, they are pleased that his merits have been recognized by the Company and rewarded with promotion.

Election Day.

For the benefit of those who might not be aware of the fact, it may not be out of place to remark that to-day is election day. It is red hot too—that is, the election, not the day, though no doubt there are some excited politicians are under the impression that the thermometer stands 100° in the shade. To-night it will be away below freezo. There was an immense gathering of the clans to-day. From the sunny south, the hyperborean north, the oriental east, and the far western west came the voters to vote. Excited men wrangling with between-you-and-I-and-the-gate-post arguments, hot, hasty and heedless; flying horses, jingling bells, the air full of false-hoods and roorbacks, blood, boodle and buncombe, crowds of half-crazed men buzzing around the different committee rooms like flies in a tar-bucket, stacks of money piled high on the respective candidates, bets and bluffs numerous, outside sentries at the polling booths, checking off the in-going voters and electing their man by an overwhelming majority in that division; stir, bustle, excitement everywhere. Every voter a gentleman to-day, riding in his own carriage at least once in the year. The excitement all the day, at fever heat, yet in the main, all good natured, though every man determined. Every body remarks that the stir reminds him of the good old days of open voting, except the broken heads and free whiskey that marked that paleyon period. The bustle and excitement of the general elections, George Washington's birthday, Shrove Tuesday and the new moon seem all rolled into the tide of halcyon favour that whirled through the streets and eddied around the corners. Five o'clock strikes, the curtain falls, the ferment takes a new form, and the counting of the slain and captive votes begins. Hooray !

Hastings Races.

The second meeting of the Hastings Driving Associat on, says the Star, came off on the Little Lake on Thursday and Friday of last week. The first day opened with favorable weather and a large crowd in attendance. The track was somewhat over a mile, and heavy, which accounts for the slowness of the time made in the three minute and open trot. The farmers trot was the opening event of the first day with six entries.

SOUTH CHICAGO FLOODED.

Cellars Filled With Water and the Sidewalks Invisible.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—The inhabitants of South Chicago and their hopes for a diminution of the flood which the bright weather of Wednesday promised were dampened by yesterday's rain, and it is feared considerable damage will be done should the water rise much higher. The streets and sidewalks in the northern part of the town are invisible, and the cellars are completely filled with water. The water in the yards of some houses is several feet deep. The river was several inches higher than on Monday, and was still rising last night. In the neighborhood of Cummings the water was much deeper yesterday. The track of the Belt Line Railroad is at least six inches under water, and the rails of the Rock Island road are partially submerged.

In 106th-street the water is from six to eighteen inches deep. A severe thunder and lightning storm prevailed last evening, during which the house of E. T. Martin, in Hyde Park, was struck. The lightning tore a ragged hole in the roof and demolished the ceilings and walls. Running down the chimney it entered the kitchen range, which was destroyed. The lightning then ran out the open door and entered the cellar through a thick stone wall, knocking the stones and mortar in all directions. After playing havoc with the things there, it burst through a window and finally disappeared down a well. Six people were in the house, but none were injured.

Jacobini's Manifesto Condemned.

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—The Very Rev. Dr. Kopf, coadjutor to the Roman Catholic bishop of Strasburg, has issued a letter to the clergy of his diocese condemning the manifesto of Jacobini, directing the Centre party of Germany to support the Septennate. The letter declares that the Cardinal's views are not in accord with the Pope's ideas on matters.

A Blow at the Falls Photograph.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Acting Secretary Fairchild has affirmed the action of the Collector at Suspension Bridge, N.Y., in assessing duty at the rate of 25 per cent. ad valorem on certain photographs imported from Canada. It appears that tourists visiting Niagara Falls frequently cross the river into Canada as sightseers and while there have photographs taken of themselves, which are left to be finished and are then brought over by the photographer. It was claimed that they were exempt from duty as personal effects, but the department held that they could not be so considered, inasmuch as they had not been in use on of the tourists before importation.

A Victim of Hydrophobia.

PARK, Pa., Feb. 19.—A case of hydrophobia is reported from the interior of this county. John Lewis, a young man of 17, while at a religious meeting was seized with convulsions which exhibited unmistakable signs of hydrophobia. He snarled and snapped and attacked those who attended him so furiously that it was with great difficulty that he was secured. He was taken to his home, where he now lies suffering all the agonies of the madness. Lewis was bitten by a dog five years ago, and both he and his friends have been apprehensive ever since that he would be a victim of the malady.

SUN

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st. 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned :—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company :—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirement, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Skinner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavit produced abundantly supports this; but although careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. MCLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

BANKERS—Bank of Toronto and Canadian Bank of Commerce.
SOLICITOR—D. W. Dumble.

TO DEPOSITORS—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amounts deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is FOUR per cent., either paid or compounded half-yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is FIVE per cent.

TO INVESTORS—The five and ten year FIVE PER CENT DEBENTURES of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100 $200, $400 and $1000 each, transferable by endorsement with half-yearly interest Coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested in first mortgages on Real Estate, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the shareholders having the second. The annual statement shows that the amount so invested was over $300,000, and on the security of real estate at least double that value.

By the laws of Ontario, Trustees, Executors and Administrators may deposit Trust Funds of the estates which they control in this Company, and are free from all further liability, a privilege of which many have largely availed themselves.

TO BORROWERS—Money is obtainable from this Company on approved Real Estate security at the Lowest Current Rates of Interest.

The Mortgage may be repaid by yearly instalments, or otherwise as may be agreed upon, the interest ceasing at once on all amounts paid on account of the sum borrowed.

Applications may be made either to the Head Office, or to any of the Agents.

Head Office, George Street, Peterborough, adjoining Bank of Commerce.

Dominion Elections!

Nomination Day : February 15th.
Polling Day : February 22nd.

A NEW CANDIDATE IN THE FIELD!

HIS PLATFORM:

GENTLEMEN,

I have no desire to tamper with the votes of that noble army of our citizens who freely exercise the Franchise on behalf of their favorite political leaders. But, in order to take a hand in the present political struggle for supremacy between Grit and Tory, I have decided to come out and offer such tempting

BRIBES TO THE ELECTORS

as cannot fail to place me at the head of the polls.

I would scorn, like all other candidates for parliamentary honors, to buy up votes, or do aught that might be construed as a violation of our Election laws. My object is a far more patriotic one, namely—that of making a CLEAN SWEEP of all my Winter Clothing and Tweeds before Election day.

Nor will the secrecy of the Ballot be infringed by asking purchasers whether they will vote for LEBRUN, COX, or STEVENSON. No, not by a home rule scuttle full ! But every elector is expected to attend this exciting Political Winter-Clothing-Sale, and to hurrah for LEBRUN, so as to elect him by an overwhelming majority as the Workingman's Favourite Candidate.

SAMPLES OF THE BRIBES

SUITS, made to Order - - $12

SUITS, made to Order - - $14

SUITS, Ready-made, for $5 and upwards.

PANTS made to Order for $3.00——$4.00——$4.50.

If the Electors will only ponder over these facts and see and handle these Bribes for themselves, I feel certain that the 22nd will be a cold day for the other candidates.

The election returns in some thirty constituencies are still so incomplete, and some of those received so subject to revision when late figures are received, that it is not possible to be sure as to which side gained a majority in the voting of yesterday. It is probable, however, that the influence of the Government in the Territories and in British Columbia will secure to the party in power a small majority.

Christine Nilsson's Delayed Marriage.

From London Life.

I am informed that the marriage of Christine Nilsson with the Count Vallejo Miranda will be celebrated either in Cannes, whither she is going after appearing at a charity concert in Paris, or on her return to Paris in February. The delay of this long-arranged affair has been caused by the Vatican. The Papal officers are in no hurry to sanction the marriage of a faithful Spanish hidalgo with a Lutheran lady.

Several Passengers Injured.

REED CITY, Mich., Feb. 19.—An accident occurred this forenoon on the Luther branch of the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railway. A passenger coach containing eight or ten passengers jumped the track at Holland's Siding and turned over on its side. D. G. Crotty, traveling agent for the Muskegon flouring mills, had his shoulder broken, and several other passengers were slightly bruised. Crotty came to the hospital in this city and will remain over Sunday.

Supposed Murderers Arrested.

WHEATLEY, Ont., Feb. 19.—Two men known by the names of Jesse Ryan and Robert Steinhoff, were arrested about seven miles from here in a bush in the Township of Romney, Kent County, on a charge of murder, which they are supposed to have committed in Texas. They will be taken through to Sandwich to-night, where they will be held until the necessary arrangements can be made to take them across the border.

A Northwest Bank Closed.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 20.—A Deadwood, Dak., special says: The Merchants' National Bank did not open yesterday. The branches at Central City, Sturgis and Sun Dance were also closed, but the Spearfish branch remains open. No statement of the present condition of the bank is obtainable, but in the last statement published, Dec. 28, the liabilities exceeded $425,000, with resources about the same.

Marine Engineers Want Protection.

DETROIT, Feb. 20.—The marine engineers of Canada have prepared a petition to the Government praying that engineers upon steam craft of Canadian register be required to pass an examination and obtain a regular license. It is now required that captains and mates be licensed, but any man capable of pulling a lever or reading a gauge may ship as an engineer. D. Graves, Windsor, has the petition for signatures.

Railroad Car Heating.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Acting Secretary Fairchild to-day issued a circular to constructors of passenger cars and steamboats and other persons, inviting suggestions as to the best methods of building railroad cars and steam vessels and heating the same so as to prevent loss of life and property by fire. Correspondents are requested to send sketches or drawings of their designs when practicable.

London Stock Market.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—On the Stock Exchange last week business was extremely inactive, but the tone is improving. Pending the issue of the German elections, business is practically suspended. American railway securities were stagnant, but closed yesterday firm at a fractional advance.

The Miners' Strike in Scotland.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The managers of the Scotch collieries have arranged a compromise with the striking miners, and others will probably follow their example.

The Retaliatory Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The fisheries retaliatory bills will be called up in the House on Wednesday and a lively debate is expected.

"Green Articles."

A Rare Facsimile Swindler Exposed.—A Trap to Catch the Unwary—A New York Fraud's Scheme.

A number of farmers in this county have recently received circulars, a copy of which is given below. It is scarcely necessary to warn them against having any truck with "James Drew," of New York City, if that be his name. The "green articles" mentioned are counterfeit bills, $1, $2, $5, $10, and every intelligent man can form his own opinion as to how "safe and profitable" they are to be handled. Heavy penalties are attached to this business, and the unsuspecting receiver of the circular is urged not to be led away by the professions of friendship and promises of reward contained in it. Here is a fac-simile:

DEAR SIR,—Your name and address was given me by my confidential agent who said he thought you were a man in a position to handle my goods in safety so I concluded to write to you. If I have made a mistake do me no harm and let matters drop. My motto is never harm a man who is willing to prove himself a friend. My business is not exactly legitimate but the "Green Articles" I deal in are safe and profitable to handle. The sizes are 1s, 2s, 5s, 10s. Do you understand? I cannot be plainer until I know you mean business and if you conclude to answer this letter I will send you full particulars and terms and I will endeavor to satisfy you in every point; that if you are my friend I will prove a true and lasting one to you. Remember I want simply to convince you that I am just what I say; a friend to a friend. When you write be sure to send me your name and Post Office address as I might lose the one I now have before hearing from you again and then not know where to write. Trusting that you will take no offense from the above, I remain
YOURS IN CONFIDENCE.

P.S. Be sure to return this letter then I can place confidence in you. Don't fail to return this.

Enclosed in each envelope is the address of the sender, on a separate piece of paper, as follows:—

JAMES DREW,
Care Cigar Store,
1005 Broadway,
New York City.

THE DOMINION ELECTIONS.

The result of the election in West Peterborough, while giving a nominal majority to Mr. Stevenson is by no means discreditable to either the Liberal candidate or the principles of Liberalism. Mr. Stevenson has achieved success by means which do not afford him just reason for exultation or pride. No one at all acquainted with the facts holds any other opinion than this, that a large number of the votes cast in his favour were influenced by monetary considerations derived from the corruption fund supplied by government contractors and others under obligation to the government to contribute to its assistance. The procession of boys last night very appropriately carried brooms as indications of the boodle bag having been swept clean. Offensive officialism was also strongly in his power. The majority of the government officials in town and county were the most energetic workers in Mr. Stevenson's behalf; government positions and even municipal positions were paraded before several scores of applicants as rewards for voting the boodle ticket. Stevenson was a strong candidate inasmuch as he has been employed ever since Mr. Hilliards election in 1882, in perfecting his political novitiate. Since that time every step, personal and official made by him, has been taken with the object of strengthening his position as a candidate. The reputation he has worked up as a good Samaritan, in his capacity of Mayor has its record in the town accounts where appear extremely liberal debits to the Charity Department of the corporation for which the Conservative candidate has been largely accorded the credit. Every department of the civic machine has been employed (with an ostensible legitimacy) for the purpose of manufacturing capital, political and personal. For four years Mr. Stevenson has been directly engaged in paving his way for a walk-over in Peterborough, and the facts that he has been elected by the epidermis of his dental equipment, by a majority about 140 less than that by which a man of Mr. Hilliard's calibre carried the riding—is a fact not at all to be proud of, and shows that the public revolt against the iniquity of the Government of Sir John Macdonald has taken deep root in West Peterborough, and would have been successful except for the operation of causes entirely beyond the range of legitimate political warfare. On the other hand, Mr. Cox entered the contest without the special personal preparation, and political apprenticeship of his opponent. Mr. Cox has gone on in the even tenor of his way, from day to day, with no political object in view; indeed it required the strongest pressure from the party to induce him to enter the field. Not being a trimmer, he has conscientiously taken positions which, while they do credit to the honesty of his purpose, did not serve to strengthen his position as a political candidate. His strong position on the Temperance question not only alienated a large number of those who would under different circumstances have heartily supported him, but it actually converted them into energetic opponents, without drawing a compensating support from those, avowedly favourable to supporting a temperance candidate, without reference to political or other considerations. Under the adverse circumstances it is very creditable to Mr. Cox that he won on his simple merits and on the strength of the cause he championed, a vote within a score as large as that of Mr. Stevenson, a cut and dried candidate, with the moral advantage of a large majority on his side to start with and with all the government, local and "substantial" influences in his favor. The result is not accepted as a loss by the Liberals of West Peterborough—it is a decided gain—the reduction, in the face of tremendous odds of a majority of 160 to one of 22, and the certain hope that at another election, come it soon or late, a corresponding reduction will not only efface that majority, but convert it into a large minority.

East Peterborough has been redeemed, and we heartily congratulate Mr. Lang and the East Riding on the splendid victory they gained yesterday. In speaking of the redemption of the riding, we do not wish to be understood as reflecting in any wise personally on the Conservative candidate. In that respect he stands above adverse comment, but he owes his defeat to the increasing unpopularity of the cause he represented, to the unwillingness of the honest yeomanry of the riding to condone the political crimes to which his return would have been equivalent. The East Riding is now fittingly represented. Practically it is an entirely rural constituency, and it is fitting that it should send to the Dominion Parliament a representative of a class which is all too sparingly represented in that body. Mr. Lang is a most fortunate man in his representative undertakings. He has been returned as representative of his township to the township and County Councils for fourteen years in succession, and he has, in the capacities of councillor, reeve and warden, shown so much legislative ability and shown so eminently his loyalty to the service of his constituents, that, on his first application to serve them in a higher sphere of usefulness, he has been triumphantly placed at the head of the poll.

The Farmer, the Mechanic and the Labourer.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

The social body, like the natural body, is made up of a variety of members, each designed for a special purpose but all combining to produce one harmonious and perfect whole. And, like the natural body, if any one of these members is taken away loss and confusion follow. By the creation of the natural body, with its vast number of parts, all designed, each for a special use, but all working to one common end, the Creator has shown how necessary and useful to all organizations the combination of the different members is, and how much the one depends upon the others to produce one common result. Nature's laws are alike everywhere, and they must be obeyed. To undertake to change them is impossible. But they may be abused and perverted by ungrateful man. And man suffers the consequences. Every part of the natural body has its own separate use, and not one part can be taken away without loss and injury to the rest. In the social body it is the same. The business of the world is carried on through the aid of various kinds of labor, performed by a variety of people, each doing his own work but all producing a portion of the world's needs. Among these are the farmer, the mechanic and the labourer. These are three of the most important members of the social body, whose services are indispensible to the world's progress and success. It is pleasant to be able to refer to the men forming these three branches of business. Like the great mountains which rise up out of the plains and become conspicuous and may be seen afar off, these men are the backbone of the world, without whose labors there would be no prosperity and no progress. For without the farmer there would be no food, without the mechanic there would be no improvement, and without the labourer the business of the world would stand still. And as they are the three most important professions, so are they the most ancient and the most honorable. The former cultivates the soil and produces food for the support of man. By means of his labor the wilderness is subdued and the harvest rewards his toil. From the time when man first appeared upon the earth his energies have been directed how best to utilize the gifts of a bountiful Creator and to make them useful to the world. In its rude state agriculture had to depend upon mere misinformed and ignorant labor. But succeeding centuries of experience and improvement have revolutionized the past and have produced an educated and independent class of men by means of whose labor the earth is made to produce in abundance, and man's wants are well supplied. And it has come to be acknowledged that there is no life so free and so full of happiness as that of the farmer.

How blest the farmer's simple life.
How pure the joy it yields,
Free from the world's tempestuous strife,
Free 'mid the scented fields.

Nothing can exceed the peace and comfort of a farmer's life. His daily avocations are pleasant and free from care, and his mornings and evenings are full of the joys of independence and peace. He enjoys many blessings and all his thoughts and inclinations teach him to be grateful and good. He is a world to himself. And his wife and children share in his happiness and prosperity. They rise early and they go out into the fresh fields and breathe the fresh air and listen to the songs of the birds and see the cattle peacefully grazing upon the hills, who know the sound of their master's voice and come home at his familiar call. This is the history of a well-to-do and intelligent farmer. He is monarch of all he surveys. His rights no one can dispute. His life is made up of industry and happiness. And his wife and children second his efforts and do him honor. The springtime and summer and late into the fall they pass in honest, faithful work, increasing their stores and laying up for the winter. Then comes the time for rest and pleasure. The bright, frosty air and the frozen snow enable them to be sociable and to pay and receive visits of friendship. And when the night sets in and the snow lays deep upon the ground and the wind blows sharp and cold they gather around the warm fireside, and talk over the past and lay plans for the return of spring. And they do not forget to pray for the safety of the poor and homeless, and for the wayfarer and wanderer. One dark, stormy night such a family as this were startled by a hoarse cry, a cry for help. The loud bark of the watch dog told of danger and distress. All the inmates rushed to the door to ascertain the cause. They could see no one but could all the time hear sobs and moans. The dog apparently read the difficulty and led the family to the place of danger, when a sad sight meets their eyes. A woman and child were lying half hidden by the snow and nearly insensible from the cold. They were speedily removed to the house and cared for tenderly and kindly. They soon recovered sufficiently to give their history and to tell of their trials and troubles. It was the same old story of misfortune and poverty and want. They had no home and the hospitable farmer's family would not let them go away, but kindly kept them until return of spring, when with the aid of others of their class, a home was provided for them and they suffered no more. Most people's hearts are open to good influences and they are generally ready to extend a helping hand. It is a pity it is so every where, for then many a worthy person and innumerable helpless children would be relieved of much sorrow and misery. But so the world is constituted; thousands of the honest and deserving are left to desolation and want. Such is a short sketch of the life of the farmer. A life that is full of independence, and peace and happiness. What the farmer is in his profession so also is the mechanic in his profession. In his business and calling he is as necessary to the world as the farmer. Without him very many of the improvements in the course of human progress would not exist. His inventive faculties have made the business of the farmer easy by means of all kinds of agricultural machinery, and the distant parts of the earth are brought nearer together by means of steam vessels and railroads, and to-day many living thousands of miles asunder can converse together by means of the telegraph and telephone, and electricity will soon be made subservient to all the wants of the world. One of the distinctive characteristics of the mechanic is his extraordinary inventive abilities, and every year, by his means, all mankind are becoming neighbors, and nations are able, by easy communication, to understand each other better and thus so become friends. And the hitherto dark places of the earth are brought into the light of day and under the influences of civilization and the Gospel. So much for the mechanic. But more than this. His life, it is true, is one of hard work, but it is a life of independence and comfort. All honest and successful men, and women, too, have got to work hard in this world, and they will do so willingly and cheerfully, if they study their own interests. The Creator has said that man shall earn his bread by the sweat of his brow; and it is a law created for man's happiness and prosperity and peace. And it must be a pleasure for every one to be able to feel that he is fulfilling God's law, and at the same time assisting in the benefit which can only result from the general good. The world is thus made better and mankind happier. And man can thereby enjoy the fruits of his labors. The mechanic is the equal, and oftentimes the superior, of the best of men—he is intelligent and independent, and the world is benefited and made better by his exertions. Along with the mechanic comes the labourer. In many respects they are equal. The upright and industrious man, no matter what his occupation, is a man to be honored by all. It is the mind that makes the man, and no matter how hard his daily toil, he is a man still, taking his place in the world and fulfilling the duties cast upon him. The steady, honest and industrious laborer has everything to encourage him. He is independent; he lives in his own home, and it is a home created by his own exertions, and is made comfortable and pleasant, and all the wants of himself and his family are provided for. And when he returns from his daily labors he feels that there is a reward for those who do well. And it is a comfort to him throughout the long day to know that his family are made happy and respectable through his industry and energy. The world could not get on without the help of the laborer. He fills an important place in the community and he is appreciated and honored as he deserves. Thus, we see how necessary all the parts of the social body are to each other. And how, like the members of the natural body, not one of these parts can be dispensed with The prosperity and happiness of mankind, therefore, are bound up in the co-operation of all these parts, and like the injury to one member of the natural body, the loss or injury to one of the parts of the social body affects all the others. The lesson thus taught us is to endeavour to understand the value to society and progress, and even to prosperity and happiness, of all men, though of some more than others. Intelligence, and energy, and sobriety, and industry are, in a worldly sense, what are most needed for the world's peace and comfort, and then, and not till then, will civilization and Christianity rule over all.

"Jack" McAuliffe, champion light weight pugilist of America, was tendered a benefit at Brooklyn last Friday evening in which many prominent pugilists took part. The last set-to was between McAuliffe and Gilmore. The first round showed hard work, but the audience were almost too keen to appreciate the beauties of scientific boxing. Once McAuliffe struck Gilmore in the mouth and drew blood, but his foe showed at once the blow was unintentional. Gilmore's upper cutting and countering were particularly good. McAuliffe over-reached himself once in the third round, and slipped down on his knees, but he was up again and tapped Gilmore in the stomach mid-air before the latter might be fairly set. He did this again early in the fourth round, but his first one of his own was a straight hit. And before the set-to McAuliffe was presented with the belt emblematic of the championship of America, which he has won from all comers. He defeated Gilmore in the fifth round, but take it how it happened.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

Curling.

Six rinks of the Toronto Granites arrived in town to-day. They are playing Peterborough curlers this afternoon.

Situation Wanted.

A young man, 24 years of age, desires a situation in either a goat's furnishing or grocery establishment. Has had several years experience at both businesses. Apply at the EXAMINER office.

Turnbull is now agent for the Domestic Paper Patterns of New York. The best and simplest ever shown.

The Next Carnival.

Now that the elections are over, it will be in order for the townspeople to prepare for the second grand fancy dress carnival by the fire brigade, which will be held about the latter end of the first week in March. It will likely be a double-barrelled affair—a children's carnival in the afternoon and the carnival proper at night. This carnival will eclipse all former events.

Ladies when you want Corsets try a pair of the new Jersey make to be bought Turnbull's.

Removed.

Gough, the wonderfully cheap clothier, has removed to his new premises (the store formerly occupied by the Bon Marche), on George street, where he will open out an entirely new stock of ready-made clothing, overcoats, etc. The store has been handsomely repaired and commodiously re-arranged to meet the requirements of the business. Give him a call.

NEW MUSIC.

A large Selection of the latest and best music has been sent to us on approbation for a few weeks. This is a good chance to secure a few choice Pieces.

A Potator.

The other evening a young street urchin entered a dentist's rooms and shouted. "Say, boss, will you yank a grinder and trust me till mornin'." The youngster was suffering from toothache, and the kind-hearted dentist agreed to the proposition. The "grinder" was duly "yanked," when the lad, with a thoughtful look and gesture of surprise, cried, "Holy smoke! I guess I'll point." And he pointed—for the door, and hasn't shown up since. The dentist has entered the transaction in his profit and loss account.

The first shipment of boys clothing for spring has arrived at Turnbull's. The styles are new and quality the best in the market.

The Town Clock Store.

Painted, papered, repaired and re-modelled, the town clock store has branched out under Mr. W. J. Morrow's skilful management into a first class grocery store. The ceilings and walls have been beautifully painted and papered, and a neat little office erected, the interior of the store commodiously arranged, and a brand new stock of fancy and staple groceries and provisions laid in, that for quality and price cannot be beaten. Among the contemplated further improvements is the transferring of the present front glass windows to the rear end of the store, and putting in in their place new plate glasses, which are on the way. With such convenient access to the market, from the rear and side, and the central location of the store, Mr. Morrow's business is certain to succeed. May he have every encouragement.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

The Poet's Gratitude.

Mr. J. Stenson has received the following post-card from a person who, it will be remembered, he was chiefly instrumental in securing a lift to the old country. It seems that gratitude is not an entirely unknown article in this world:

FROM THE ENGLISH POET.

30 LONSDALE SQUARE, LONDON, N.
February 9th, 1887.

DEAR SIR,—I left New York on Jan. 22nd last, by the Cunard steamship "Umbria," and worked my passage to Liverpool, Eng. Arrived in Liverpool on the 30th Jan. The saloon passengers gave me £1 17s. Am all right here. Have been offered a situation on the Umbria.

Yours truly,
J. DICKSON MORGAN.

P. S.—Remember me to all friends.

EAST RIDING REDEEMED!

The West Riding Continues Conservative.

A Hot Political Contest Ended—Mr. Stevenson's Majority 22; Mr. Lang's over 100—The Tories Extravagantly Rejoice—Returns so far as Known.

The result of yesterday's polling in West Peterborough was the return of Mr. Jas. Stevenson, the Conservative candidate by the narrow majority of 22.

It was a hard, long, fight. The Conservatives are temporarily triumphant, and it cannot be said that they allowed the opportunity to pass, at least in Peterborough, without showing a due appreciation of their victory, though it was "so close it took their breath away," as a prominent Tory was heard to remark. As soon as the result became known, the Conservatives drew their candidate about the streets, carried him on their shoulders, built a bonfire, got gloriously drunk and "whooped 'er up" till all hours of night. A meeting was held in the Opera House, at which Mr. Stevenson ascribed his victory chiefly,—in fact almost entirely,—to his great purse-coal popularity, though he didn't spell it that way, yet it amounts to the same thing. This speaks volumes for the cause he supports, when he boasts of being elected on personal grounds. Mr. Stevenson also stated that means had been used in this election about which he would say nothing. He was right there. Had he told all he knew there would have been sensation. Of course, this is no insinuation that the Tories used corrupt means. Oh, no! Or did any bribing. Certainly not! Mr. Stevenson assured the people also that the contract for the Trent Valley Canal from Peterborough to Lakefield would be let out this summer, and then the town would boom. Several prominent Conservatives from the town and county addressed the meeting. Afterwards a torchlight and broom procession, headed by the band, escorted Mr. Stevenson to his residence, where they whooped 'er up again, shot rockets, laughed, danced and shouted till thoroughly exhausted, and then disbanded. Following are the correct returns as far as known:—

American Canoe Association.

A Northern Division Formed.

A formal communication has just been received from Mr. W. M. Carter, the new Secretary-Treasurer of the A. C. A., to the effect that the Executive Committee at a meeting held on February 12th, authorized the formation of a Northern Division, to be composed of such clubs or members as may elect to join it. This is the outcome of a movement at Grindstone Island last summer when a committee of Canadian canoeists was appointed to consider the question of the formation of a Division to include the greater part of Ontario and some of the nearer American Clubs, with a view to holding a meet at Stoney Lake. This is now formally decided upon, and the meet will take place probably in the first two weeks of August. A meeting of all canoeists interested will be held in about a couple of weeks to appoint a local committee to take charge of the work. The enthusiasm of the Toronto and other Canadian members over the prospect of a meet at Stony Lake is unbounded, one member having already secured the promise of 22 prize flags for the races—adding that they will send men enough to win them all. The Executive Committee also authorized the treasurer or purser of the Northern Division to receive the fees of Canadian members, and to account to the General Treasurer of the A. C. A. for the proportion of fees going into the common fund. All former members who have dropped out of the A. C. A. are authorized to resume their membership should they desire to do so without having to pay a new initiation fee—a special concession to the members of this division. We predict a great success for the Stony Lake meet of 1887.

Bargains extraordinary. Previous to the arrival of a large consignment of Lace Curtains now en route from Manchester, we will sell the balance of our magnificent stock on hand at sacrifice prices. An early call solicited as they must be cleared. E. FAIR.

Why Is It Thus?

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—I should like to enquire how it comes that the Fire Brigade Band, a supposedly non-partizan organization, supported partly by the funds of the ratepayers of all political creeds, and partly by contributions of all classes, can think it right to act as they have done recently. How comes it that when the result of the December election became known, that the band were unable to find their instruments, and that they were so easily come-at-able on Tuesday night? And how comes it that on Tuesday night the police permitted a bon-fire to be lighted on the market square, when they refused to allow a similar demonstration on the evening of Dec. 28th? Are non-partizan organizations and non-partizan officials, supported and paid by the general town funds to be allowed to become the tools of a political party? Why should the funds contributed to those not in sympathy with last night's demonstration, be used to forward a mere vulgar gloating over their reverse? I don't mind how much the winning party crows over their victory, but I object to helping pay for it.

Yours truly,
NEUTRAL.

GREAT EARTHQUAKE.

DEVASTATION ON THE SHORES OF THE MEDITERRANEAN.

ROME, Feb. 23.—Two shocks of earthquake were felt at Nice at 6 o'clock this morning. The earth rocked, walls crooked, and in some cases frail tenements were thrown to the ground. The people rushed from their houses and fell upon their knees in the streets, praying for deliverance from sudden death. Visitors to the city have become thoroughly frightened, and are leaving the place. Many persons were injured by the falling debris. Much alarm was felt lest there would be a recurrence of the shocks. The Prince of Wales, who was in Nice a few days ago witnessing the festivities which precede the Lenten season, had taken his departure, and was safe at Cannes. The shocks were also felt at Monte Carlo and Monaco, at which places they were so severe that rocks were detached from the cliffs and precipitated into the sea. The disturbance extended as far as Genoa.

Eleven Persons Killed.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—At the time of the earthquake the Riviera was crowded with English and American tourists and persons of distinction. When the first shock occurred the streets of Nice were fairly thronged with persons in ball costumes returning to their homes from the last carnival ball of the winter season. To these the earthquake came with peculiar terror. The shocks were felt with great severity at Savona, near Genoa, and a number of houses were wrecked and eleven persons killed.

The Prince of Wales being at Cannes the Queen became exceedingly anxious concerning him when she learned of the earthquakes. Her Majesty at once telegraphed him. The Prince immediately telegraphed a reassuring reply, saying he was well and uninjured. The Government, taking into consideration the popular concern about the safety of the Prince, have requested him to return to England as soon as he can conveniently to allay anxiety.

Fleeing From the City.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Advices from Nice at noon say many casualties were caused by the earthquake there. The people are panic-stricken, and the entire population is in the streets. The railway station is besieged with visitors, who are anxious to leave at the first chance that offers. Two houses, one in St. Etienne-street and one in St. Philippe-street, were destroyed by the earthquake. Three persons are buried in the ruins of those buildings.

There was also a slight shock at Marseilles this morning. The walls of a number of houses in that city were cracked. Shocks were also felt at Leghorn and Milan, and several places in the Province of Genoa, Italy.

The Shocks Were Very Severe.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Further despatches concerning the earthquakes in the south of France this morning state that two violent shocks were felt at Toulon at 6 o'clock. The first shock was of fifteen seconds duration and the second of twelve seconds. The movement was from west to east. At Cannes three shocks were felt at the same hour. The first shock, which was very violent lasted for a minute. The second and third shocks were not as heavy as the first. Many persons at this place rushed to the sea-shore for safety. Nobody was injured. At Avignon three shocks were experienced between 6 and 8 o'clock. The first shock was very severe and awakened everybody in the place. Several shocks were felt at Genova at 6 o'clock.

Widespread Disaster.

ROME, Feb. 23.—The earthquake this morning devastated the whole of the Italian Riviera. At Noli, on the Gulf of Genoa and not far from Savona, several houses fell and fifteen persons were killed. Six persons were killed and thirty were injured at Oneglia, also on the Gulf of Genoa. At Diano-Marino, near Oneglia, scores of people were killed and hundreds injured. Fully one-third of the town was destroyed. A second and severer shock of earthquake has occurred in Genoa, Pavia, Lucca, Cunes, Albissola, Borto, Maurizio, Oneglia and Noly. At Savona eight persons were killed and fifteen others injured. Immense damage was done to property.

Three Hundred Victims.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Further details from the Riviera increase the disaster. At Cervo, near Diano Marenso, 300 persons were killed by being buried in the ruins of falling buildings. Railway traffic is suspended beyond Savona. In the neighborhood of Terdegera many houses fell, killing the inmates.

Little Dick—"I'm awful glad you is engaged to sister Nell now." Mr. Nicefellow—"I feel quite grateful to hear you say that, Dick." "Yes, you always bring her candy and she gives me some, and it's the kind I like, too." "You have a choice, then?" "Oh, yes. You see all the others brought chocolates, and I don't like chocolate."

Lawyer—"How much for carrying in that coal, Uncle Rastus?" Uncle Rastus—"One dollah, sah." "A dollar! Shall've much." "Yo' mus' b'ar in min', sah, dat it tuk yeahs of ha'd experiunce fo' I was cognizant fer carry in coal. My poo' ole daddah an' moddah, sah, mus' a listed me a thousand times 'when dey was l'arnin' me ter carry coal. Hit's bin of law business, boss; yuse got ter ch'ge for educashun."

A MYSTERIOUS ROBBERY.

$783 Grabbed in the M. C. Freight Office at the Bridge.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE, Ont., Feb. 23.—The safe of the Michigan Central freight office at this place was robbed yesterday. The cashier had locked the money-drawer and was in the act of securing signatures to some vouchers, for which it was necessary to step into an adjoining room near the office, a usual custom in the transaction of the business and taking but a few moments. Upon his return the money-drawer was found partly open and $783 missing. The appearance of the balance of the cash showed that a hasty grab had been made, as the bills remaining in the drawer were in a crumpled condition.

A YOUNG GIRL'S SUICIDE.

Anna Carriere of St. Henri, Que., Ends Her Life by Poison.

MONTREAL, Feb. 23.—A young girl named Anna Carriere, residing in St. Henri, poisoned herself early yesterday morning by taking a dose of Paris green. A doctor was called as soon as the friends of the young girl ascertained the terrible fact, but science was powerless to save the unfortunate victim and she died at 12 o'clock yesterday morning. Before she died the poor girl said that grief had brought despair upon her and that she had procured the poison about a week ago. It is stated on the authority of the St. Henri police that the cause of the unfortunate girl's trouble was the drinking habits of some of her near relatives. An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict of death caused by suicide.

NOBODY TO BLAME.

A Broken Rail Caused the Vermont Central Disaster.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Feb. 23.—The commission investigating the recent railroad accident finds that the train was running at a safe speed and was properly managed. The accident was caused by the breaking of a rail. The defect in the rail was such that it could not have been detected. The commission recommend the introduction of a system of heating cars by steam. They desire a convention of railroad men to be called to provide means for such a system.

ONTARIO'S NEW GOVERNOR.

Sir Alexander Campbell to Accept the Post.

OTTAWA, Feb. 23.—It is rumored here in Ministerial circles that Sir Alexander Campbell has accepted the Lieutenant-Governorship of Ontario.

The Central Asiatics.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—Gen. Prjevalsky estimates the whole population of Central Asia at about 9,000,000, spread over an extent of 120,000 square miles. Like all peoples living under Asiatic despotism, they have no notions whatever of virtue, honor, or duty, and they exhibit no leanings of any kind toward European civilization and culture. The most frightful immorality and revolting despotism reign in the family life of the sedentary populations, while the nomads, strange to say, are milder, more modest, and more sincere.

The General expiates at great length on their fervent desire to be annexed to the Russian crown. Only in Thibet is this feeling not pronounced, owing to the fact that the Russians are so little known there. The dream of the nomadic Mongols, the Dongans—i.e., the Chinese Mohammedans—and the inhabitants of Eastern Turkestan is to become subjects of the Great White Czar, whose name, with that of the Dalai Lama of Thibet, figures in their imaginations as the symbol of magical power and authority.

At some places visited by the Russian expedition the Mohammedan mollahs implored the General to permit them to rise and murder every Chinese in the district in the name of the mighty Czar. "Only trumpet the Czar's name," said these supplicants, "from the mountain tops, and not a single Chinese will live." The unsupportable oppression of China on the one side and the gradual introduction of order and prosperity by Russia on the other must inevitably push forward Russian dominion.

The Philadelphia Walk.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—Only 19 of the original 40 starters in the six day walking match remained in the race at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The scores of the 8 leaders at that hour were: Albert 161 miles; W. Day 157; Hart 156; Vent 151; Noremac 148; Panchot 145; Bennet 144; Strokel 143.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—Nineteen pedestrians remain to-day in the six days' "go-as-you-please" walking match. The scores of the eight leaders at 1 p.m. were as follows: Vint, 348 miles; Hart, 242; Noremac, 233; Strokel, 231; Albert, 228; Bennett, 227; Panchot, 224; W. Day, 214.

The Montreal Press on the Result.

From the Post (Liberal).

By returning Sir John Macdonald to power the constituencies have in effect set the seal of approval on the rascally conduct of the late Parliament. It is satisfactory, however, to see that quite a number of the boodle brigade have been defeated, while several Ministers got in with the skin of their teeth. The Government has suffered a tremendous reverse and will probably be defeated the first session of the new Parliament. Their majority is too small to ensure a stable administration.

From the Witness (Ind. Liberal).

There can be no doubt that the National Policy saved the Government from the wrath of the people, who were really roused against corruption, but who had not got to the point of condemning it and of trusting in industry instead of in privilege for their bread and butter. Thousands and thousands of voters yesterday cast their ballots in favor of what they knew to be a corrupt and extravagant Government for the simple reason that they considered that their own or their relatives' living or prosperity depended upon the maintenance of a Government which was willing to tax other people for their benefit. The large funds subscribed by the manufacturers no doubt had a great influence upon the result in many close contests.

From the Star (Independent.)

The Conservative party may be both encouraged and warned by the election campaign which closed yesterday. Its members can now see that the Government which unswervingly and unflinchingly pursues a course which is believed to be for the public good is sure to get a firm hold of the country. The people believe in principle and they admire and place faith in the men who courageously and consistently stand by what they regarded as right. But the Conservatives may also learn that the advantages which a government and a party gain by successfully carrying out a good policy may be lost if they weakly permit a few trading politicians to use their public position for their own private gain, and if they wink at a transaction on the part of public servants which honest men cannot justify. The unjustifiable conduct of individual members of Parliament and others gave rise to the cry of "boodle" which has done the Conservative party so much harm throughout the country, and which made the fight just ended a hard one to win. The Conservative party had to bear the weight of the boodlers' sins, and were it not supported by the Government's railway policy, and particularly by its trade policy, it must have sunk under the burden.

THE INDUSTRIAL LABOR PARTY.

Opening of the Conference of the New Political Party.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 23.—The first conference of the Industrial Labor party was begun yesterday afternoon in Music Hall. There were 300 delegates present, of whom ten were women. Some of the delegates objected to having the proceedings opened with prayer, but it was done. Richard Trevellick was made temporary chairman, and he counseled good business methods. He was with them in obedience with the law, but not to defy it.

In an address of welcome Rev. C. M. Lookwood was cheered when he referred to Dr. McGlynn.

He predicted for earnest advocates of the need of workingmen respectful hearing, not only in Legislatures, but in the papers as well. Speaking of the aim of this meeting, he said it represented the unrest of the workingmen. Its chief trouble was with the lobby, which represented the class that bought class legislation. Speaking of labor organization, which he favored, he said the riot at Pittsburg was the result of labor unorganized, the peaceful strike in New York was the result of labor organization.

A. J. Streator of Illinois was elected permanent president and delivered an address. O. Preston of New York is among the vice-presidents chosen. The Committee on Rules and Regulations reported the order of reports to be made by standing committees. Each delegate to have one vote and the votes to be announced by the State Chairman. The report was adopted. Mrs. Martin Todd of Wisconsin addressed the convention.

Accident to an Aerial Performer.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 23.—Mlle. Anna Barrets, an aerial performer in Gus Hill's show, fell yesterday while doing the wire slide act. In this act she is suspended to a wire by a piece of leather which she holds in her teeth. In some way she lost her grip and fell twenty feet to the floor, sustaining serious internal injuries.

THOS. MENZIES.
A. L. DAVIS & CO.
SALISBURY & CO.
MISS KARCH.

The Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1887.

Mr. EDWARDS, the Liberal candidate who defeated Contract-Broker Mackintosh in Russell, is a nephew of Mr. James Edwards, town.

IT may be hy possible to buy the electors of North Victoria, but it takes a bigger "pot" of money than Mr. Hector Cameron Q. C., was able to disburse.

THE election of Mr. Mitchell in Northumberland by over 500 majority, in spite of the efforts of the Government, continued for over a year, to defeat him is one of the most satisfactory results of the campaign.

"BRADSTREET" estimates the loss of wages to the strikers in the recent great railroad strike in New York at nearly a million of dollars, an enormous sum to come out of the means of livelihood of the families of a body of workingmen.

THERE is something to be thankful for, remarks the Hamilton Times, in the fact that the Provincial affairs of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick—the four great divisions in the Dominion—are controlled by honest Liberal Administrations.

SIR JOHN is a great man and he can do what ordinary mortals fail to accomplish. For instance he swallowed Boultbee without a wry face, but the honest electors of East York found the boodler too much for them to get down.

THE Liberals in Tuesday's contest scattered the "brute" majority of Sir John which, in the previous Parliament, was willing to vote for anything and everything. In the present Parliament, "call in the members" won't be the safe answer to Opposition argument. This is one important step gained.

SIR JOHN has little cause to boast of his defeat of Mr. Gunn in Kingston. Mr. Gunn was absent in Europe when the elections were ordered and was only in the city a day or two before the elections. In spite of the fact he was defeated by a majority of only 12, which recounts which it is understood will be demanded, may easily change.

DURING the present campaign Hon. Mr. Blake has done an amount of hard work that would be a strain upon half a dozen ordinary men, and while being scrupulously careful to do and say only what was right, he has fought a courageous battle. It was through no fault of his that the Reformers were defeated. No honest man could have done more than he did. He has no personal ambition for the honors and emoluments of office, and his grief over defeat will be more for his country than for himself. His efforts deserved a better reward.

IF Parnell's illness is as serious as reported, the question of another leader for the Irish Parliamentary party will be a pertinent one for consideration. Among the people of Peterborough who heard Mr. Justin McCarthy during his visit to this town, as well as among millions of others, there can be no two opinions as to his fitness. Mr. McCarthy is thoroughly conversant with the history of the "three kingdoms," he is a trained journalist and a scholar of the first class. He has gained the highest respect of English as well as Irish reading and thinking people. He will prove a cool and competent leader. There is still hope, however, that Mr. Parnell may be able to retain the position which he has held with such distinguished and profitable success.

THE cause of Home Rule for Ireland is temporarily under a cloud, but it is safe to say that the recent successes of the Government and the Coercionist element is due largely to temporary causes. In the recent divisions the government secured apparently large majorities but the issued upon which they were founded was not a broad one. They mainly indicated the result of a contest between the Parnellites and the Coercionists, the Gladstone Home Rule party making no concerted rally. The policy of the government does not tend to the development of a permanent and peaceful solution of the Irish difficulty. It is expected that evictions will be pushed with unrelenting vigor and of course there will be resistance and the usual calamitous consequences which the unhappy Emerald Isle has before experienced. The Salisbury Government does not apparently grasp the full significance of the question, and their mode of dealing with it is merely temporary tinkering.

THE Mail, Sir John's organ has this to say as to the situation resulting from last Tuesday's elections: "Surveying the whole field, it is tolerably safe to conclude that another general election is not far off. Sir John, whose resources are great, may remain in power for a session, perhaps for two; but it would be impossible for any politician to carry on the affairs of Canada for a full parliamentary term with so small and so heterogeneous a majority as he has at his command. The smaller provinces, including Quebec, are each fighting for its own hand—this for better terms, that for larger appropriations, a third for both; and we know from experience how easy it is for combinations, formed for purposes of plunder, to shake the strongest of Cabinets. For this reason, * * * we see nothing but instability in the immediate future, and look for another general election before this day twelvemonth."

THE GENERAL RESULT.

The latest figures show that the government's majority is greatly reduced as a result of Tuesday's polling. The Globe's returns and classification bring the government majority down to zero with 11 elections yet to be held. The Mail concedes the government thirteen, while other Tory sheets claim a majority of from 20 to 30. The situation is not yet settled, yet it is certain that if the Government is sustained their majority is so narrow as to place them on their best behaviour.

THERE are several reasons for congratulation and several reasons for regret arising from the result of the recent elections. In the first place it is pleasant to know that greatly as has Sir John's political immorality debauched the public morality several constituencies have had the grace to reject conspicuous political scamps who made a trade of trafficking in their political influence for the sake of the spoil. Among these "m dear friend Boultbee" whose candidature Sir John fervently endorsed, is one. East York, in spite of the gerrymander, devised to oust Mr. Mackenzie, rejected the malodorous Boultbee and elected the venerable Hon. Alex. Mackenzie. Mr. Hector Cameron, Q. C., was given his political quietus in North Victoria—the people want nothing of boodling representatives. In East Hastings, Mr. John White of "blind share" notoriety, had to succumb to ballots, and Bardette. Woodworth of Kings, Nova Scotia, the running mate of "the Boy" gave place to a supporter of Hon (ex) Edward Blake, while "the Boy" himself dared not offer himself for re-election. But it is a burning shame that the people of Lincoln condoned the political crimes of John Charles Rykert, and gave him power to continue selling his parliamentary influence for timber limits, and of "doing" confiding lumber speculators of the Louis Sands variety. Hickey, of Dundas, is also spared.

LUMBERING.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather for drawing, a large number of logs have been safely landed on Eel River, principally owned by Ullyott & Co.

BOARD TIMBER.

Archie Brooks is busy at work and no weather has retarded progress. The creek is well dotted with huge well made timber and each day sees a large increase. Every stick will soon be safely landed, the most difficult to draw being already out. We observed in addition to the fine sticks of pine timber and logs some unusually fine ash of extra dimensions and rare quality.

HOTAL IMPROVEMENT.

A stranger visiting these parts has no longer to stretch his weary limbs on hard uncomfortable beds in dusty rooms. Comfort and plenty surround you, and although moxie flavors the atmosphere a good square meal makes a man feel at home.

Mount Pleasant.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The band concert, as mentioned last week, came off last Friday evening and was in every respect a grand success. A lengthy programme was rendered in a manner which was pleasing to the hearers and a credit to those who took part. We should judge that one person was particularly well pleased from the following remark which was heard,—"Isn't it just lovely, Sam."

Miss Annie Rowan of Bethany, and Miss Etta Workman of Toronto, were visiting friends here last week.

The anniversary services of the Methodist Sunday School of this place will be held next Sunday, in the Methodist church, followed by a tea and entertainment the following Monday evening.

P. S. We expect a blizzard in this vicinity this week so; band boys please take note.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

He Feared No Foe.

Brilliance of Corruption.

(Ghosts Five Hours)

In one store yesterday evening over one hundred dollars were taken in, in five dollar bills, from people who bought goods or required change. These bills were all new, crisp, Bank of British North America bills, and were almost consecutively numbered. One of the Tory candidates does his banking business at this bank. The numbering of the bills showed that they all came from the same original source of distribution and simultaneously to point of time; but were all given at the store by different persons, whose names have been noted. At other stores the same evidence is forthcoming. The bank bills have been preserved and will be produced at the election trial. It may also be stated that repeating was extensively practiced and that one Tory is known to have voted three times.

Getting Down to Weight.

College students enter into their athletic contests with an enthusiasm that is refreshing, and "Featherweight," in the Boston Globe, tells an interesting story about the preparation of the technology students. At their games the juniors won the tug-of-war, and thereby bangs a tale. When the four men who were to represent the class of '87 began to pull together it was found that they were weighed twenty-four pounds over the limit—six hundred pounds. This, too, was when they all supposed to be in the pink of condition; but they must take off those twenty-four pounds of extra weight, and and every expedient known by the athlete to reduce weight was resorted to. In fact, they went through a course of training that would put to the blush a prizefighter preparing for a battle in the ring. Finally, on the night before the eventful day, they were again weighed, and, to their consternation, they were still too heavy by one and a half pounds. They were not going to give it up then, so they decided to refrain from any more food until they had been accepted by the officials on the following day. The time for the official weighing found each one fearfully hungry, but when they stepped on the scales and found that they weighed but 599 75-100 pounds and were eligible to pull, they thought no more of eating, but went to work on the cleats just a quarter of a pound under weight. When they had won their first heat they suddenly disappeared, but showed up in time for the last pull. The "sophs" were to be their opponents, and they demanded that the juniors be weighed over again, but the referee said no. The 87 men had been weighed and accepted once, and as they had pulled one heat they were eligible to pull again. Now, the juniors had precisely this view of the matter, and as they were decidedly hungry after winning once, they slipped out and broke their fasting. The sophomores discovered the clever trick of their elders, but the only satisfaction they could get out of it was that perhaps they could be as smart another year.

The Cost of Wheat Production.

The phenomenonally low prices for wheat which have prevailed during the past year have directed attention to the details of the cost of producing that grain, and in various States of the wheat section the statistical experts are making calculations to settle the question whether, at the prevailing prices, the culture of wheat can be profitably continued. One of the most interesting reports yet published on this point has been made by the Michigan Secretary of State concerning the cost of producing and marketing the wheat, oats, and corn crops of 1886 in that State.

The average yield per acre is given at 21.98 bushels of wheat, 40.55 bushels of oats, and 70.87 bushels of ears of corn. The yield thus indicated applied to the cost per acre shows an average cost per bushel of 59.1 cents for wheat, 29 cents for oats, and 21.1 cents for ear corn. The average price of wheat on January 1, for the State, is placed at about 74 cents, oats 30 cents, and corn 24 cents per bushel of ears. In regard to wheat, the report observes that the "net profit on investment in the southern counties is 38 per cent, and in the northern counties 35 per cent."—Scientific American.

The Rev. J. L. Scudder of Minneapolis is in error when, in trying to prove that women are more fond of dancing than men, he says: "Women will dance with each other by the hour, but men never dance except with women." We have seen in a dancing hall in Rome men dancing with each other by the dozens of couples in preference to the partnership of young women who danced equally well. This was undoubtedly evidence of the most undiluted love of dancing for its action and the rhythm alone; but we take it that the love ingrained in the human heart for this historic exercise is the same whether in man or woman.—N. Y. Sun.

Mr. H. H. Fudge is evidently angry, as appears from the following card, which he prints in the Albany (Ga.) News: "Whoever poisoned my dog is a low-down puppy, and mean enough to do anything. I am satisfied that it is a white man and of good standing in this town, and he ought to be found out. I am afraid of him only in one way, and that is he will burn me up while asleep. I hope whoever it may be when he reads this he will stop, as he is called a puppy, and is not man enough to resent it. I am satisfied it is a white man, as no negro could get so much poison from the druggist without some notice being taken of it. I am responsible for every word in this card, and can whip the man that poisoned my dog. No man will resent an insult that will steal, lie, burn houses, and slip around at night and poison a man's dog."

Ash Wednesday.

Yesterday was the first day of Lent, commonly called Ash Wednesday, because of the old practice of putting ashes on the heads of the worshippers in the service of the day as a reminder that they are but earth and to earth they must return. In the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches of the town the usual services were held yesterday morning and evening. During Lent their will be a lull in society circle.

The Rising Tide.

An ice jam at the old railroad bridge is the cause of considerable annoyance to the mills in that section. Wednesday night the jam formed, backing the water until almost on a level with the top of Hilliard's dam, a little above it, and flooding the premises of the Auburn Woolen Mills, where the water rose to within six inches of the boiler grates. Hilliard's mill is closed down for the present, the back-water seriously affecting the water-power of the dam. Men were at once put to work to break up the jam, and while thus engaged, under the superintendence of Mr. Hilliard, it gave way. All escaped safely except Mr. Hilliard, who was thrown into the water, and received no injury beyond a severe chill before being rescued.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

Remembered Their Teacher.

Wednesday evening about thirty ladies and gentlemen, members of Mr. A. T. Emerson's class, in the George street Methodist Sunday School, gave their esteemed teacher a delightful surprise. It will be remembered that about Christmas time Mr. Emerson joined the ranks of the benedicts, but so quietly were the proceedings carried on that very few people were aware of it at all. Gradually the news spread among his friends and acquaintances, and the members of his class determined to give him some tangible token of their esteem. Accordingly Wednesday evening they assembled at the residence of Mr. W. J. Green, and from thence proceeded to Mr. Emerson's residence, where, after refreshments had been dispensed, Mr. Ventress stepped forward and presented him with a large Bible, beautifully bound and engraved, accompanying the gift with a few words of kind remembrance. Mr. Emerson was suitably replied, after which the genial man present spoke briefly of their relations and regards for their teacher, with the closing feature of the evening's enjoyment in the acquaintance of married life in which all the male members of the class were heartily [illegible] of blessed memories and [illegible] with matrimonial bliss.

What's in a Name?

Queer Facts Discovered in the Town Ward Line—Peterborough and Its City Soon in a New Light.

The majority of citizens may think that they know all about Peterborough and its material composition, but if they will peruse the following facts, discovered during a casual glance over the voters' list of 1886, they may be led to change their minds.

Peterborough is governed by six Kings and one Queen, the pages of honor being occupied by an Earle, three Nobles and seven Squires. One of the Kings has a fish counter, a Dane, and a couple of Marshalls. In their service are five Porters, one Barber and one Butler. Their possessions are large, and consist of a Beach, a Heather, three Hills, two Heatherfields, six Lees and three Parks, in which there are two Peoples, four Reads, three Rushes and one Rose-tree. There are besides these one Rowe of Cowan bushes, four in number, two Roses, three Lilleys, two Brooks and four Burns. They also own four Woods, used as royal preserves, in which are kept six Crowes, one Fox (which has two Dennes), five Birds, one Coon, eight Martins, two Peacocks, and three Winches. This preserve is guarded by one Hunter, six Fowlers and one Hunter, who have only one Gunn between them. The King also employs one Gardener, who grows two Pecks of Bean-s and a Spear of Sage; a Brewer, who uses one Barlee head to make beer. His four Cooks furnish each day only one Course, consisting of two Pheasants, three Fries (Frys), Veals, and eleven plates of Greens. The cuisine department is all in one Kitchen, employed in which are one Baker, five Butchers and one Creamer; the utensils and domestic articles include, among other things, one chunk of Allum and two Couches. Of domestic animals they have several Cooks, eight Drakes, two Goslins, two Kidds, three Pigeons and a Herd of live Stock.

Peterborough's religious sentiment is represented by four Popes, who sing two Carrolls and ring seven Bells six times Daily. They have only one Cross.

Two Fairs are held annually in a large Booth, at which were exhibited last time four loads of Hay, a single set of Armour, one Dredge, a Fawcett for a molasses barrel, a Galley, five Kanes, Shields, Stubbs, etc. The fair gives employment to eight Clarks, two Carters, and two Coopers. The main building has twenty-seven Halls which were put up by one Carpenter in a single Day. He made four short Johs of it. He was assisted by four Goodfellows, two Manns and their Masters, nine Sawyers, twenty-four Smiths, and a Naylor. Last year there were four Balls held, at which a Darling wearing two Diamonds and two Glasses, gained three Marks for being Spry, and not two Smart. At the balls four Harpers played three Fifes for a single Fee.

Through the King's East-lands runs one Rivers, with only one Branch. This is named in different places the Hudsons, the Jordan, and the Humber, upon which is the city of Derry. A single Craft sails upon the placid waters. The best of Fairweather usually prevails in this locality, two Breezes blowing gently during the Summer over the two Fords. On the banks of these streams live some Reeves, (one Black and twelve Whites.) They live in a New-hall near the Bridges, a few Myles North of a solitary Redman, who has one Whitehair in his head. They own some Innes in Holland, in which a Boat was once held between some men—five English and two Welsh. They were all Youngs, and each wore a Wescott. Besides this they have two Mills, in which work seven Millers. The Mills were erected by six Masons, 'one of which was Luney,' and a Plummer. They were by Law twice and secured a Grant of fifteen Moore pieces of land upon which they built. Sometimes the rain falls in Torrance, and the single Trout in the river gets wet; so, to protect it, a Thorndyke has been erected. One day the Rod-man took some Rod-Cleansieing of three Cobbs with an equal number of Webbs.) These he Carveth into eight of the Best shapes, and getting two Grubbes, hied away to a Lone part of the three East-woods. Woodhead that he was, he Give himself three severe Strains, which, by the Way, caused him a couple of Paynes. He also accidentally gave himself two Pierces in the Hart with a Blade having three Sharp points, which May break his Manly spirit.

Besides all this, there are in the king's employment twelve Browne men, one Darke and three Grey, comprising one Milner, five Taylors, one Tyler, three Wrights and two Walkers. In horses they have one Trotter, which Gambles about on three Crofts set aside for it, and which only needs one Buck from a couple of Lashers with a two Foot rule, or a couple of Nethercutts from a whip, to bring them to time. They were only Trollope-d twice in their lives. A very Sloman looks after a single Yule log and draws water from three Wells.

Four Little and Seven Long men the other day played quoits. One made two Ringers, and he was the only Gladman there, for the others ran against a Pillar and saw two Stars, after which they took a Kople over.

Legally Peterborough is not very well fixed, having but one Judge, who lives in a Garrett, takes Garlick every night, and gets up Early on the Morrow, takes a Walke down the Glen, has Pickles for breakfast, and is then ready to become the Tools of the two Powers he serves. This Judge is not very Hardy, though, but gets a Wheeler to carry him over the four Wardes in town, taking a wide Range. One day he sat down on a Thorne, where some Smart mesmpat it, but he whipped out his two Bowie Knives, of pure Steele, and raised a Storm about their heads. Finally he took a dip in Westlake to cool himself off, and sat down on a pile of Timbers to think. He thoughtlessly picked up two Stones, which he threw with all his Might. They struck a couple of Stablers who were coming down the Lane. Two Tanners who were having a Knapp, woke up and with the assistance of Sandy chased the Judge over the Plane into Hull, in Kent, but he tided the Geese and got there safe. It was a judicial outrage. Who will pay the Piper?

Police Court.

THURSDAY, Feb. 24.

Wm. Smith and Adam Scott were charged by P. C. Pigeon with fighting on Saturday night. The case was enlarged till to-morrow.

Andrew Dobbin and Joseph Langford, charged with fighting and disturbing the peace, and Andrew Dobbin, charged with committing an assault upon Jos. Langford, remanded from last week, were further remanded.

The Granites Downed.

Peterborough Curlers Teach the Toronto Professionals a few Wrinkles in the Roarin' Game.

The Granites came to grief Wednesday afternoon. Six rinks played in the Charlotte street rink on excellent ice, and though defeated, they gave the home laddies a pretty good tussle. Score:—

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To E. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,280.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A Company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as for the pre ent case) to comply with every condition and requirement, so as to repudiate claims and expenses, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Gilmour were unhappily drowned, and that a child's presence could not justify support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. McLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,120.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

A POINTER FOR BOTH PARTIES.

Excerpts From George Washington's Farewell Address.

It is of infinite moment that you should properly estimate the immense value of your National Union to your collective and individual happiness; that you should cherish a cordial, habitual and immovable attachment to it, accustoming yourselves to think and speak of it as of the palladium of your political safety and prosperity—watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can, in any event, be abandoned, and indignantly frowning upon the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts.

In all the changes to which you may be invited, remember that time and habit are at least as necessary to fix the true character of governments as of other human institutions; that experience is the surest standard by which to test the real tendency of the existing constitution of a country; that facility in changes, upon the credit of mere hypothesis and opinion, exposes to perpetual change, from the endless variety of hypothesis and opinion. And remember, especially, that for the efficient management of your common interests, in a country so extensive as ours, a government of as much vigor as is consistent with the perfect security of liberty is indispensable. Liberty itself will find in such government, with powers properly distributed and adjusted, its surest guardian.

Two men and a woman, said to be from Canada, are preaching to the blacks in South Carolina, telling them that the end of the world is at hand. The trio are suspected of seeking to cause a rising of the blacks against the whites.

A bare-knuckle prize fight for $100 was decided by Dan Gallagher and Dick McLaughlin, two Brooklyn middle-weights, at daybreak Tuesday morning, in a barn in Maspeth L.I. A prominent Brooklyn politician was referee and a well-known sporting reporter kept the time. Gallagher won by knocking his man out with a swinging right-hander on the jaw in the twenty-first round, after the contest had lasted 1h. 23½ min.

The G. T. R. line between Galt and Berlin is still closed to traffic, with nothing very decided as to when it may be opened. The freshet of Wednesday of last week so jammed the bed of the river below Blair with broken ice as to stop the passage of the water, which in consequence spread over the flats and forced a new passage for itself.

The betting market in New York has been very dull during the week. Books are now open on four events: The Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps, the Kentucky Derby and the Withers. For the Suburban, Troncoat, the black locomotive, is still favorite, the odds being backed from 20 down to 15 to 1. Troubadour, last year's winner, has been declared out.

SCORES OF LIVES LOST.

THE EARTHQUAKE MUCH MORE DESTRUCTIVE THAN WAS THOUGHT.

ROME, Feb. 24.—Details received of the results of the earthquakes yesterday show the effects to be far more serious than was thought. The loss of life and destruction of property is terrible. The most startling news comes from Genoese Riviera. Over 1500 people were killed in that district. At the village of Bajardo, situated at the top of a hill, a number of the inhabitants took refuge in a church when the shocks were first felt. A subsequent and greater shock demolished the church, and 200 of the people who were in it were killed. The destruction of property in the sections of Italy visited by the earthquakes was immense and widespread.

Another shock was felt at Mentone to-day. It was so severe that the houses were shaken but no one was injured. Additional details concerning the damage done by yesterday's shocks show in some cases that villages built on the mountain sides toppled into the valleys. Three railway trains have been despatched with food for the sufferers. A number of soldiers has also been sent to assist them.

Houses Wrecked at Nice.

NICE, Feb. 24.—Sixty houses here are tottering and ready to fall from shatterings inflicted by yesterday's earthquakes. Many others are much damaged and in most residences more or less of the furniture was damaged by the severity of the shock. Fifty persons were injured at Mentone and one person was killed. King Charles and Queen Olga of Wurtemburg remain in their villa at Nice.

Bivouacked in the Fields.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—Two slight shocks of earthquakes were felt to-day at Nice and Cannes, but no injury was caused. Yesterday's disturbance killed 2 persons and injured 10 at Nice, killed 4 and injured 2 at Bari, killed 2 and injured 12 at Bollene, and at Chateau Neuf many were injured. At Savona two houses fell, killing 9 persons and injuring 13. The whole population of Savona are bivouacked about the town.

The Disturbance Noted at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The seismoscope set up in the physical laboratory at the United States Signal Office in this city, was disturbed by and accurately recorded at 7 hours, 33 minutes, no seconds a.m., 75 meridian time Feb. 23 inst., the arrival at this point of the recent earthquake that was reported to have occurred in France and Italy. A rough calculation gives about 500 miles per hour as the velocity of the transmission.

Two Thousand Deaths Reported.

ROME, Feb. 24.—Reports of the disaster continue to arrive. The total number of deaths reported up to the present time is about 2000. The shocks were felt at Parma, Turin and Cosenza. Undulations of the earth were noticed at Catania, in Sicily, at the foot of Mount Etna. The director of the Turin Observatory telegraphs that the seismic instruments are now quiescent, and that no further disturbance is feared.

CHRISTIANS IN CHINA.

Under Persecution Their Condition is Very Critical.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Times' Pekin correspondent says the head of a rich Christian family at Se Chuen has been executed, despite the remonstrances of the French Minister. The situation of the Christians in the Provinces of Se Chuen and Kwerehow is critical, the mandarins siding with the Literats against the Christians. The correspondent thinks the Pope should send a legate to Pekin to arrange a definite modus vivendi for the protection of Christians throughout China, and to avoid the continuance of the present state of affairs, which will drift into general persecution, massacre and civil war.

AUSTRIA DESIRES PEACE.

She Cherishes No Ambition Involving Any Military Venture.

VIENNA, Feb. 24.—Major-Gen. Count Von Welsersheimb, Minister of War, during the debate in the Reichsrath on the extra credit declared that the Government entertained no warlike designs and cherished no ambition involving any military venture, but desired peace. Both the Emperor and the people of Austria were disposed to cultivate friendly relations with other nations and the speaker hoped the historical phrase "everybody is ready to do his duty to the Fatherland" would hold good in Austria.

Anarchist Disturbance in Paris.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—A statue of Louis Blanc was unveiled here to-day in the presence of the Cabinet Ministers and many societies and deputies. The ceremony was made the occasion of a violent demonstration by the Anarchists, who were present in large numbers. After the unveiling they hissed and shouted: "Long live anarchy." Then they made a rush for the enclosure in which the statue stands. The police interposed and arrested several of those who were most prominent in the disturbance.

A Murderer Takes Poison.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—George Wilson, the colored youth charged in the confession of Mrs. Mary Tabbs with the murder of Wakefield Gaines, part of whose remains were found in a pond in Bucks County, took poison in his cell at the Central Police Station this morning, and it is thought he will die. The district surgeon is endeavoring to revive him. The discovery was made by the turnkey when he went to the cell to remove the prisoner's breakfast dishes.

Tired of the Name of St. John.

TOPEKA, Ks., Feb. 24.—A bill changing the name of St. John County to Logan County passed the House to-day after a heated debate, in which ex-Gov. St. John, after whom the county was first named, was denounced by Speaker Smith and others as a hypocrite. The bill has passed the Senate, and received the Governor's signature to-day.

Run on a Sunken Wreck.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—A large unknown three-masted schooner struck on the wreck of the English steamship Brinkburn on Fennick's Island shoals last night and sank. It is thought some of her crew were lost. The loss occasioned by the sunken steamer this winter will amount to $300,000 to American vessels alone.

The St. Petersburg Conspiracy.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—It is reported here that three officers implicated in the recently discovered military plot have been hanged at St. Petersburg. The Russian Government has strictly enjoined official secrecy respecting the conspiracy.

Russia Purchasing Steamships.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Russia has just purchased several large steamships. It is reported that the vessels have been obtained for the purpose of transporting troops to Vladivostock.

To Renew the Contract.

ROME, Feb. 24.—Negotiations have been satisfactorily concluded for a renewal of the alliance between Italy, Germany and Austria, which expires next May.

A LABOR QUARREL AT PITTSBURG.

The Iron and Steel Workers Disagree with the Knights of Labor.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 24.—The strike at the Mingo Junction Iron Works has resulted in a declaration of war between the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers and the Knights of Labor, and a bitter fight, which may become national, is anticipated. The trouble arose over a conflict of authority, the workmen being all members of both organizations. Recently the workmen asked for extra pay for time lost by broken machinery. The firm refused to grant the demand, and under the rules of the Amalgamated Association the men quit work. Later W. H. Bailey, of the Executive Board of the Knights of Labor, appeared on the scene and ordered the men to resume. This was refused, and Bailey threatened to fill the mill with Knights of Labor from other places. Several conferences were held between Bailey and Weihe and Martin, President and Secretary of the Amalgamated Association, but they were unable to reach an agreement. Last night President Weihe offered to start the mill provided his association was represented on the Mill Committee. Bailey said he would agree to this if the Amalgamated Association would consent to serve, but not to be known as members of the committee. The Amalgamated people refused to entertain such a proposition, and the conference broke up. Bailey says he will furnish enough men to resume work at once, and the Amalgamated officers claim that he will not be able to do so.

They have removed their headquarters to the seat of war and will remain on the ground to persuade the men to stay away from the mill.

ANOTHER BOX MYSTERY.

A Dismembered Body Found in a Trunk at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 24.—The employes of the Baltimore & Ohio Express Company in this city made a ghastly discovery to-day which may turn out to be another trunk horror. A wooden box about four feet long was received this morning from Cincinnati. It was addressed to James Osborn, Pittsburg, Pa., and had a peculiar odor. A search of the city failed to find the person to whom the box was consigned and it was decided to open it. When the lid was broken the mutilated remains of a man in an advanced stage of decomposition were revealed. The legs and arms were severed from the trunk in order to crowd it into the box. A surgeon here gave it as his opinion that the body had been the property of a medical student who had probably shipped it to some friend in this city. The top of the head was sawed off and the work shows it to have been done by a professional hand. The authorities have telegraphed to Cincinnati to investigate the affair.

BELLICOSE SENATORS.

A Stormy Scene in the State House at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—When Lieut.-Gov. Robinson demanded his chair in the Senate this morning, calling attention, as he did, to the decision of the Supreme Court removing the injunction against him and reciting that he had been duly elected and qualified, he was promptly denied by Chairman Smith and was finally ordered from the Chamber. Declining to go, he was forcibly ejected by Doorkeeper Pritchard, assisted by others. The Republican Senators came to his rescue and an indiscriminate row, approaching a riot, ensued. Senator Johnson hit Senator McDonald, blacking his eye and skinning his nose. Other blows were exchanged. Quiet was finally restored and the Republicans returned to their seats, but declined to take part in the proceedings, alleging that the Senate was unlawfully conducted.

THE ST. CLAIR TUNNEL.

Progress of the Work on This Great Engineering Feat—The Excavations.

The shafts which will lead down to the tunnel on both sides of the river are excavated to the depth of about 25 or 30 feet, and will extend to the proposed level of the tunnel at those points, 80 feet below the surface. The shafts will be 16 by 8 feet in size, and after curbing with 12-inch square pine timber, will be 8 by 14. All the necessary appliances for successfully coping with many unforseen and unavoidable obstacles that will doubtless present themselves, as the work on the ground on both sides of the river, including huge air pumps, a complete Edison electric light plant, steam pumps with a capacity of lifting to the surface an amount of water equal to an inflow of two five-inch streams, also sufficient boiler capacity to operate all necessary machinery. The contractors also control the patent process of freezing the ground before excavating, and thus quicksands and loose earth, which have heretofore given tunnel builders a vast amount of trouble and expense, will be taken in a congealed form, and the work will proceed with but slight delay. About the only obstacle that is not easily overcome is the tapping of a large stream or fissure of water from the river, letting in more water than the pumps can lift out.

London Reporterial Enterprise.

The London Times has not often of late distinguished itself by enterprise in getting news, but there is no doubt of its power to keep a bit of intelligence away from its rivals. Lord Randolph Churchill's resignation, announced exclusively by "The Thunderer," is a late example. The young statesman drove into Printing House Square shortly after 11 o'clock at night and asked to see the editor. He was lodged with him for nearly an hour, at the end of which time, lo! as Mr. Black says in his novels, a strange thing happened. As soon as Lord Randolph had been seen off the premises an order was issued to lock every door, back and front, and take the keys to the editor's room. Dispatches, as they arrived through the night, were taken in at the window in the courtyard. Not a soul, from the editor to the printer's devil, was permitted to leave the premises on any pretext whatever. For some hours mystery and consternation brooded over the establishment. The secret was till 2 o'clock in the morning locked in the breasts of the editor and two leader writers. The paragraph announcing the resignation, and the articles commenting thereon, were written and held back to the last moment. But even then, the hour being one at which other papers had gone to press, the doors were still locked, and it was not till the paper had gone to press that the doors were unlocked.

Missing Mail Bags at Guelph.

GUELPH, Feb. 24.—Within the past month or so three mail bags destined to the Guelph postoffice have mysteriously disappeared at the Grand Trunk Railway station. The proper authorities were promptly notified of the fact. To-day Detective Day, of the Grand Trunk Railway, was in the city sifting the matter. Inspector Barnham, of the Toronto postoffice, is also here. It is understood that some money was in letters in these bags. Further developments may be expected in a day or two.

Rushes to Row Gaudaur.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Articles were signed here to-day for a three-mile sculling match between Edward Hanlan and Jacob Gaudaur for $2000 a side and the championship of America. The race is for May 30.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1887.

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

The result of the political contest in West Peterborough, while adverse to the Liberal candidate is not to be considered a very great triumph for the successful nominee of the government party. A constituency which gave large Conservative majorities in 1878 and 1882, only gave a slender majority of 22 in 1887. The Liberal party without being unduly sanguine confidently expected a much better result, and while some portions of the riding came up to or even surpassed expectations, other portions were disappointing. North and South Monaghan are to be congratulated upon the excellent showing they made, for which the Liberal candidate has a cordial appreciation, and Smith answered pretty well to the expectations which were formed. But the town fell short of what was naturally expected Peterborough would do for a candidate having so exceedingly strong claims upon it as Mr. Cox had. If there had been an expression of gratitude for Mr. Cox's good offices, commensurate with the energy and extent of his efforts in the direction of improving her condition, the result would have been a reduction of the figures of the majority secured by the Conservative candidate, approximately to, if not quite to a minority. No better example of the blindness or distortion of vision produced by party bigotry can be imagined.

In Ennismore, the result of the vote was not what was expected from that township. Whatever influenced the electors in the departure they took, it is hardly possible that they can reconcile their course of action as consistent with the gratitude they owe the Liberal party, which, in this country as in the native or ancestral land of the majority of the voters, has ever been foremost in fighting for securing and maintaining the measure of liberty and relief from oppression which they enjoy. The Irish owe very little but the natural resentment for great wrongs from the Tory party, either in Canada or Great Britain, and the fact that the electors of Ennismore have in their new alliance with Toryism, shown their sympathy with and given their assistance to a party—the same in principle as that which at this moment, beyond the seas, is applying the expedient of coercion and eviction, as part of their policy of depriving Ireland of a taste of the Home Rule which Irish Canadians enjoy, is suggestive of selfishness and indifference to the fate of their fellow countrymen of the Green Isle.

The outcome of Tuesday's polling has not disheartened the Liberals, but has rather encouraged them, and given them confidence for the coming fight which, judging from the instability of the Government's present condition, may not be far off.

JUSTIFYING ITS CONFIDENCE.

The Globe stoutly insists that its figures and classification of the members elect, returned on Tuesday last, are absolutely correct. In justification of its confidence in the correctness of the position it has assumed, the Globe remarks:—"The Tory organs in this city are stretching their consciences to their utmost capacity to make the figures of yesterday's contest show a large majority for the Government. This is done, of course, to influence the elections in those constituencies in which the elections have not been held. But before the elections in British Columbia and the North-west Territories come off, the false and absurd nature of these figures will be known. The Globe's figures throughout have been carefully compiled and accurately published, and the truth of them may be depended upon. A similar contrast between the returns given by this journal and those of the subsidised organs was seen in the recent local contests in Ontario and Quebec. The Globe's figures on those occasions were found to be fair and perfectly accurate, while those of the ramshackle sheets were ridiculously distorted. The result will prove the accuracy of the figures given by the Globe in this contest also."

THE RESULT OF THE GENERAL ELECTIONS.

As the figures of the return of the voting are verified, the result appears to be less unfavorable for the Government. Of course, the exact standing of many members cannot be decided except by a test vote, but as far as can be ascertained, the majorities by Provinces of the two parties stand at present as follows:—

	Conservatives.	Liberals.
Ontario	13	17
Quebec	..	12
Nova Scotia	3	..
New Brunswick	2	..
Prince Edward	..	1
Manitoba	3	..
British Columbia	1	..
Total majority	22 4	18

There are eleven elections yet to be held, namely, Algoma, Grape, five in British Columbia and four in the North-west Territories.

THE Mail declares that the life of the Government hangs upon a thread. Before the elections it hung upon a rope.

MANY persons in Peterborough, who had lately the pleasure of hearing Mr. Wm. Paterson, M.P., of Brant, at the Opera House, were glad to hear that he had been returned for South Brant by a majority of 578. His popularity and worthiness of the confidence of his constituents is more clearly made manifest when it is considered what desperate efforts were made to defeat him. First, his constituency was shamefully gerrymandered, lopping off a large Liberal vote, then the Indian vote, subject to the manipulation of Sir John's agents, and finally the favoritism of a revising officer was thrown onto the scales, but Mr. Paterson triumphed over all these adverse influences and was returned by a majority of 300 greater than he received in 1882.

An Important Officer.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

It is to be hoped that the Town Council will appoint a Street and Bridge Inspector at once, as his services will be needed very much in a short time. In the appointing of this officer the Council will doubtless have the interest of the town in view, and will not allow their minds to be biased by any other motive than that of benefitting the ratepayers of this town. There are a great many applicants for this office. Among the number I notice the name of Mr. John Bird, an extensive ratepayer, an energetic, shrewd, practical mechanic, a man whom the ratepayers desire to fill this office. Some of our councillors say, "Give this office to a stranger, we will get better satisfaction." I ask the intelligent ratepayers of this town, who will be most likely to protect our interests, a stranger who has never paid anything into our town treasury, who has no property or interest in the town, a man who can pull up stakes and leave at an hour's notice, or a man whose chief object in applying for this office is to protect his own property from high taxation, a man who has helped to build up the town, and a man whom the ratepayers know to be honest, shrewd economical and practical. Your answer, give us our own and esteemed brother townsman." Mr. Bird is a man who will not require to have two or three deputy Street and Bridge Inspectors under him all the time.

For nimbleness and activity—important requisites for this position—he can't be beat. He has conducted his own business successfully, we can trust him to do ours in the same way. The prominent business men and property owners of this town along with, I believe, a great majority of the ratepayers are anxious that Mr. Bird shall fill this position. He is the man the people want and the man who, the rate payers believe, will be the means of stopping a vast number of leak holes out of which we are loosing our money wholesale. From $10,000 to $14,000 of our money is spent under this office, supervision per annum. We want no drover to fill this the most important office in the town. We believe Mr. Bird will, if elected to this position, save thousands of dollars for the town treasury.

Yours,
TAX-PAYER.

Let Us Have Peace.

"Canada Presbyterian."

When this issue of the Presbyterian comes into the hands of our readers, many of them will be taking a good rest after the fatigue and excitement of the elections. We have had more than enough of politics this winter. Since last November the din of political strife has never ceased. We have little sympathy with those who vehemently denounce partyism and suggest no better plan, and none at all with those who profess to be so superfine that they cannot meddle with politics, even to the extent of voting. There is no sense in denouncing partyism without suggesting a substitute for government by party. Nine-tenths of the people who vote the party ticket are just as honorable, just as honest, just as truthful, just as patriotic, just as good citizens in all respects, as those who denounce party. Everybody knows that some of the most unsavory politicians Canada has ever been cursed with called themselves "independent." To say that partyism has evils connected with it is to utter one of the most commonplace truisms. The present struggle between the two great parties has been unusually bitter. The bitterness and violence have been caused mainly by those who four months ago let loose the demon of sectarian strife. The seeds of discord then sown are bearing their legitimate fruit in the fanaticism and hate that burns the Scriptural Selections in rural school sections. Where the strife may end no one can tell. Some of those who created the strife professed to belong to no party—in fact professed to be infinitely superior to party. What the country now needs is peace. Good citizens of both parties should "follow after the things that make for peace." By so doing they may easily lessen the evils of party warfare and show that they are really better neighbors and better citizens than some who denounce party. The struggle is over. Let us have peace.

The Fishery Trouble.

Sir John Prepared to Relax the Regulations.

BOSTON, Feb. 22.—An Ottawa special to the Herald says: "I learn on the very best possible authority that Sir John Macdonald has requested the British Government not to press the fishery negotiations with the United States until the Dominion elections are over. While prepared to relax in his enforcement of the fishery regulations, Sir John cannot admit that he has changed his position until after election, as the deficiency of the protective service and the determination of his Government to resist encroachment have been continuously urged during his campaign. He has promised Lord Salisbury that if returned to power he will considerably modify existing regulations to meet half-way the demands of the United States Government. The Department of Fisheries is collecting the necessary data by which a fair estimate of the value of the fisheries may be made for a satisfactory settlement of the existing difficulty."

WHAT TO EAT.

Food and its Relation to Health—French and English Customs.

The first meal of the day, or breakfast, is now in this country—with those in health, at all events—a fairly substantial one, although some people try—but, thank goodness try in vain—to assimilate French and English customs in regard to breakfast. France and its folks are different from England, with its solid men and women; its climate is different from ours; its notions as regards eating and drinking can never be engrafted on English bone and muscle.

Yes, breakfast ought to be a hearty one, eaten early in the morning, and eaten slowly, so as to preclude the possibility of eating too heavily, which would materially interfere with the business of the day.

A man or woman who is no breakfast-eater must either be a heavy—overheavy—supper-eater, or be in a bad state of health. A person who requires the stimulus of a cup of tea, or any other stimulus or stimulant whatever, before partaking of solid food is not in the heyday of health. I like to see a man have his breakfast first, and then feel around for his cup of coffee, tea or chocolate. I have known the strongest and healthiest of men positively forget all about the liquid part of their breakfast, and leave the table without it. I have known men who scarcely ever touched a drop of liquor of any kind from one week's end to another, and who, nevertheless, were in ruddy and robust health.

What a person eats for breakfast often gives me a clew to the state of his health. One example: if, while sojourning at an hotel I see a man come down to breakfast between 10 and 11, and sit down to devilled kidneys with plenty of sauce (piquant), and perhaps one poor puny egg to follow, I would be willing to aver that he carries a white tongue, and that his liver sadly needs seeing to.

Ham and eggs, bacon and eggs, or a beefsteak or underdone chop, with boiled eggs to follow, and then a cup of nice tea, is a sensible breakfast for a man who is going away out into the fresh air to walk, or ride, or work till noon, but not for a person who has to sit all day in the same position at manual labor. I emphasize the word manual because intellectual or mental work conduces to appetite. An author hard at his desk, if his ideas be flowing freely, if he be happy at his work, and time flying swiftly with him, soon gets hungry, which only proves that we must support the body well when there is a strain upon the mind, so that no extra expenditure of tissue may lead to debility.

Cheerful conversation insures the easy digestion of a good breakfast. It is a pity that in this country the custom of inviting friends to the matutinal meal is not more prevalent. It may seem a strange thing to say, but I would ten times sooner go out to breakfast than to dinner. One is, or ought to be, freshest in the morning; he then needs no artificial stimulus to make him feel bright, witty, happy, as he so often does after the duties of the day are over.

The midday meal, or luncheon to those who dine in the evening, and who have work to do in the afternoon, should be a light one. I am not quite sure that I do not quite approve of the city "snack." It puts one past, it sustains nature, it leaves the mind free to think and to do its duty, and, above all, it enables the stomach to have a rest before the principal meal of the day.

Now, about this meal; I have to say that, if partaken of alone by one's self, it ought to be an abstemious one. Even in company it need not be a heavy one. No matter how many courses there are there is not the slightest necessity of making too free with them.

But it is a fact, which every one must have felt, that even a moderately heavy meal is quickly and easily digested, if accompanied with and followed by witty or intellectual and suggestive conversation.

"I'm a dyspeptic; I must not dine out," I have heard a gentleman more than once remark.

Well, my impression is that it does dyspeptics a good deal of good to dine out, if they can eat in moderation and judiciously, never being tempted to call in the aid of artificial stimulus to enable them to do as men of more robust physique are doing around them.—Family Doctor in Cassell's Magazine, London.

The ranges of the West are claimed and occupied to such an extent that there are no longer opportunities for the introduction of large herds. One who wishes now to engage in the business must purchase a range and the herd occupying it. This state of affairs has caused capitalists to look elsewhere for a cattle-growing county. Longing eyes are turned toward the islands in the Pacific, along the coast of Alaska, which Lieut. Schwatka pronounces the best cattle country in the world. Others are studying the pampas countries of South America, and still others are attracted to old Mexico. Some well-known cattlemen of Texas have engaged in the business in Paraguay, and quite a number of Colorado cattlemen have invested in Mexico.—Denver Tribune.

"Grave Robs from Little Acorns Grow," and great benefits ensue from the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets—tiny, sugar-coated granules—which abridge the necessity of choking and "gagging" in the attempt to swallow some huge bolus of nauseating aspect and disagreeable effect. Their cathartic action is thorough, yet perfectly gentle, and unlike other pills, they never react towards constipation. In cases of sick headache, and as a promoter of digestion, they are unsurpassed. By druggists. 6lw8

Not that Kind.

"Mrs. Fangle is a homœopathist, isn't she?" remarked Mrs. McSwilligen during a call on Mrs. Snaga. "No, I don't think she is," was the reply. "She's very seldom at home when I call."

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds, sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. Grace—O, dear, how awkward! I've forgotten my handkerchief, Jack. Jack—Well, Grace, you may have mine, if you only promise me a kiss for a blow.

This is to certify that I have used McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and do honestly say that if it cost me one hundred dollars ($100.00) a bottle I would not be without it, as it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used, and I fell like a new man. Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards. 2w7d

The best recommendation of anything is its popularity where it has been longest known. Throughout the Dominion of Canada there is no more effectual medicine for coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, bronchitis and asthma, than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, for sale by all druggists. 2w7d

Here's Something for Paterfamilias.

Remember, the cheapest and freshest groceries can be obtained from W. J. Morrow, Town Clock Grocery, Opera House block. Heads of families will please bear this in mind.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

Depth of Frost.

The opening of the trench for the drain from the postoffice building to tap the George street sewer shows that the frost has penetrated the ground to a depth of almost, if not quite, six feet. This is coming rather close to the water mains, but it is not probable that the month of March will supply frost enough to endanger them.

Sale of Pictures.

An advertisement in another column informs the public that Mr. Valentine Best has opened in the shop on George street next north of Smart's music store, a splendid stock of paintings in oil, photographic pictures, plain and colored, mirrors, easels, frames and general art bric a brac. These fine goods have been purchased at exceedingly low figures and they will be sold at a very low price. Call and inspect.

The first shipment of boys clothing for spring has arrived at Turnbull's. The styles are new and quality the best in the market.

Social Purity.

Mr. Chas. James, lecturer of the Gospel Purity Association of London, England, will lecture to men only in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, on Wednesday evening next, on "Personal Purity." No admission fee, collection only. On Thursday evening in St. Paul's church, he will give his lecture "Christmas Evans, the Apostle of Wales" to which everybody is invited. For this lecture there will be a silver collection at the door. Mr. James, who is accompanied by Mr. J. T. Cookson, will sing several solos.

Bargains extraordinary. Previous to the arrival of a large consignment of Lace Curtains now en route from Manchester, we will sell the balance of our magnificent stock on hand at sacrifice prices. An early call solicited as they must be cleared. R. FAIR.

Ladies will do well to remember that Turnbull is showing piles of new Dress Goods and trimmings in all the latest shades. His prices and styles are right

Ought to Make Good Bread.

About three pints of mouse-flesh found its way into a grist of wheat in the vicinity of Campbellford a few weeks ago, and no doubt it went to the mill in its unrefined condition. It happened in this way, if the statement of the Herald's informant may be accepted as true. A threshing machine was in operation at a barn, and as the sheaves of wheat were being picked up and tossed to the feeder, one of the men found a great company of mice in one nest, which, according to his estimate, numbered nearly two hundred. He lifted the living mass and threw them into the thresher, and death was as effectually accomplished as if they had been put through a sausage machine. The fellow did not say whether he removed all the mangled remains of the little rodents, but it is presumed that a quantity found its way into the newly threshed grain.

Protest.

We protest against buying Boots and Shoes as high prices, when you can buy standard goods at cost from now until the 1st May. R. STENSON & SON. dw

The Great Gough.

Boodle, boodle everywhere,
And not a cent for me.

That is the cry of some of the disappointed politicians. In the town, though, the need of boodle is not felt—that is, by those who patronize Gough, the king of clothiers, who has an immense stock and sells his goods so cheap that the cry is:

Clothing, clothing everywhere,
Cheaper than you could steal.

But the all-absorbing question is where to find him. He has left his old quarters near the market square and removed to the premises lately occupied by the Bon Marche, between Messrs. C. B. Rentley's and Jas. Alexander's. But the store is not recognizable in its new appearance. "The scene is changed. And such a change!" The premises have been remodelled after the style of a mammoth clothing store in New York, with every modern convenience. And the shelves, too, are piled high with stacks of new goods—ready-made clothing, overcoats and gentlemen's underwear. Gough is determined to be more than ever aggressive against high prices. He depends principally upon his wholesale and jobbing trade, so he can afford to do his retail business at almost no profit. "Nothing succeeds like success," and the great Gough knows it. Remember, if you want a cheap suit of clothes or overcoat, go to Gough for it.

The Toronto Association.

The Toronto Association of canoeists, says the Globe, are pushing forward their new club-house with considerable rapidity. Already Mr. Hodson, the contractor, has the two cribs under way and expects to have them finished inside of two weeks. Mr. Norman B. Dick, the architect, is designing a neat building, 50x24, which will be built on the cribs just next to their sister association the Toronto Yacht Club. The floor of the building will be fitted with rooks for the canoes and will contain about 50. The next floor will have a club-room 24x20, a committee room and a large locker and dressing room, fitted with shower-bath, etc. In front a stair leading to the roof, which will be flat, and from which a splendid view of the races may be had during the summer.

At the annual meeting the secretary's report showed an increase of active members from 17 to 33, also a substantial bank account to their credit. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:—Commodore, John L. Kerr; Vice-Commodore, W. B. Raymond; Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Geo. Sparrow; Members of Committee, W. G. McKendrick and Robt. Tyson; Regatta and Cruising Committee, W. G. McKendrick, D. B. Jacques and W. A. Leys. The club membership is limited to fifty and it is expected it will reach the limit in a few weeks.

Too Much Medicine.

The Result of "Guessing" at a Dose of Medicine.

A slight poisoning accident occurred yesterday. In the afternoon Mr. Hammill, the photographer, entered the studio of his confrere, Mr. P. H. Green, on George street, as was his wont, and casually mentioned that he had a cough mixture in his pocket which would cure the cold from which he was suffering. He said he had used it several years, and it had never failed. Mr. Green, intimated that he, too, was laboring under a slight chest trouble, and it was suggested that he try the medicine, Mr. Hammill telling him to take about a tablespoonful. Mr. Green put the bottle to his lips and swallowed what he thought was a fair allowance. Mr. Hammill, too, took several doses while in the studio and afterwards went home. For a time Mr. Green noticed no ill effects from the medicine; then a slight dizziness came on. He shook it off, but it soon returned with greater force, accompanied by a weakness and tremor of his limbs. Believing the symptoms to be caused by the medicine, he tried to dislodge the stuff from his stomach, but could not. He then went to Dr. Clark, who gave him a powerful emetic, which was successful, and the symptoms of illness at once ceased. To-day Mr. Green is in his photograph gallery all right. Mr. Hammill underwent the same experience, only more violently, and is still confined to the house. Dr. Kincaid is attending him.

Mr. John McKee, who compounded the medicine, says that their illness was caused entirely by their taking it from the bottle with their mouths and guessing at the quantity, by which means they got an overdose. It was powerful stuff, and should have been measured carefully each time.

There is a moral in this which should be taken to heart by everyone. Always measure your doses of medicine according to directions.

An Awfully Sudden Death.

Heart Disease Carries off Without Warning Another Victim.

Mr. Angus McMartin, who resides at Scott's Mills, met with a sudden though painless death yesterday from an affection of the heart. It seems that Mr. and Mrs. McMartin after dinner yesterday left Morgan's hotel, at the corner of Hunter and Water streets, and started for home. Mr. McMartin was a brother-in-law of Mr. A. P. Morgan, proprietor of the hotel. On reaching Selwyn, Mr. McMartin urged his wife to go into Bell's store to get warm, saying that he would put up the horses in the shed, and after considerable persuasion she entered the store. The team was driven to the shed, and covered with the robes, Mr. Gerald Fitzgerald covering one horse and Mr. McMartin the other. The latter then came around to the store and entered, taking a chair by the fire after pulling off his overcoat. Immediately on touching the chair he threw his hands backwards over his head, his head dropped and those about him saw that his spirit had passed away. A Lakefield doctor was summoned to verify the terrible fact. The corpse was taken home.

Mr. McMartin was at one time a resident of Peterborough, having carried on a dry goods business in the premises occupied by Mr. T. Cavanagh as a hotel, but he relinquished that business and entered into business relations with the late Mr. W. A. Scott, lumber merchant. This led him to take up his residence at Buckhorn, where he has since resided, enjoying the respect and esteem of all who knew him, and very many of his friends in town will learn of his sudden and sad demise with great regret.

The Position of the Band.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Mr. Miller, bandmaster of the Fire Brigade Band, aided by the editor of the Review, makes a lame effort to defend the position in which he placed the band on a recent occasion. The statement that the band remained in their rooms till the result of the local election was made known is true, but only to that extent. When it was known who was elected the bandmaster was conveniently non-downed-able, and the other members of the band who remained did not wish to turn out, without the authority of their leader, and in justice to them my information is that they were quite willing to play on that occasion, but I am informed by a member of the band that when he reported at the rooms shortly after the result of the election was certain, there were only two or three members present. If the band intends to toady to the Tories and ignore the Liberals, I for one ratepayer, will decidedly oppose to the general funds of the town being devoted to the maintenance of the band, unless the tax is imposed like that for the Nicholls Hospital upon a certain class—in the case mentioned, upon the Conservatives alone. I have not the slightest objection to any or every member of the band working up to five o'clock for the return of the candidate whose election they may think best for the country, but when the poll closes they should, as a band, bury their politics, and not betray partizan favouritism. If Mr. Millar knew whom he was driving at he would not have closed his letter with a sneer at the amount of my contribution to the band, for my contributions have been on an average with those of other citizens. I am in favour of supporting the band liberally both with private and corporation funds so long as they conduct themselves without favouritism to any creed or party.

Yours etc.,
NEUTRAL.

One Week From To-night.

It will be an eclipse! Several novel and interesting features will be added to this carnival, announcements of which will be made later on as arrangements are completed. The Snowshoe and Toboggan Club will take part, and the Fire Brigade Band will be in attendance. Each costumer handing in a card at the door will receive a slip of paper bearing a number, duplicates of all of which will be placed in a bag and one drawn by a little girl. The party holding the number drawn will be presented with a $5 gold piece. Following is a list of the prizes:—

Best Dressed Lady in Costume, a card-receiver, valued at $5; Gentleman, gold ring, $5.
Lady in Comic Costume, pickle cruet, $2; Gentleman, scarf pin, $2.
Girl in Costume, napkin ring, $1.50; Boy, silver cup, $1.50.
Gentlemen's Race (backwards), pair cuff buttons, $2.50.
Boys' Race, silk handkerchief, $1.50.
There will also be a prize offered for the best fancy skater, barring Mr. E. J. Hartley.

Peterborough's Insurance.

A Mutual Fire Insurance Company to be Formed in Town.

Mr. A. McNeil, Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, has received a reply from the Secretary of the Fire Underwriters Association as to the classing of Peterborough in insurance rates. The letter makes certain demands which are to be complied with before the town can be classed in C. At the next meeting of the town council the matter will be laid before it for discussion.

In the meantime several prominent citizens are agitating for the organization of a Mutual Fire Insurance Company in town. The scheme is already well under way, and in a few days some definite information can be given. The organization of such a company would bring about the desired reduction of insurance rates.

The Daily Examiner.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1887.

SIR JOHN SUSTAINED, BUT NO TWO AGREE ON HIS MAJORITY.

The result of Tuesday's election is clear enough outside of the Province of Quebec. In all the other provinces the classification made by Reform, Liberal and Independent papers is practically the same:

	Cons.	Libs.
Ontario	38	39
New Brunswick	9	7
Nova Scotia	13	6
Prince Edward Island	0	4
Manitoba	1	1
British Columbia	1	0
	79	61

giving a Government majority outside of Quebec of 18. The 79 and 61 added to the 11 elections yet to be held give 151, and to these must be added the 64 elections already held in Quebec to make up the 215 members.

All the confusion arises in the classification of these 64 members returned in Quebec. They have been classified as follows:

	Min.	Op.	Ind.
Toronto Globe	22	41	1
" Mail	28	38
Ottawa Free Press	37	37
Montreal Gazette	29	34	1
" Minerve	35	29
" Star	31	25	8
Quebec L'Electeur	Op. maj. of 12.

Our correspondent whose special is given below gives the result thus: Conservatives 28, Liberals 26, Nationalists 9, Independents 1. If we give the Liberals all these Nationalists and the 1 Independent they will have a majority of 16, which, taken from the Government majority of 18 in the other provinces, would still leave their majority of 8. And if they are given 9 out of the 11 seats yet to be decided their majority would be 15 at the worst.

FLEEING FROM HAVOC

THE EARTHQUAKE GIVES AN IMPETUS TO TRAVEL.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—A despatch from Nice says another earthquake shock was felt there this morning. The disturbance was slight. Despatches from Rome give the following official list of the killed and wounded: Bajardo, 200 killed and wounded; Diano Marina, 250 killed and injured; Bressano, 50 killed and 26 injured; Diano Castello, 30 killed; Castelano, 36 killed and many injured. The number of persons killed is less than was supposed. It is estimated that in the province of Porto Maurizio 570 persons were killed and 156 injured. In the province of Genoa 34 were killed and 37 injured. Bajardo and Diano Marina were the only places destroyed. Cervo was only partially damaged. The churches at Bajardo, Castellano and Aurigo were thrown down.

On the heights around Cimies 2000 Americans, English and Russians are encamped, the military authorities having placed tents at their disposal. A battalion of infantry patrol the streets and sentinels pace up and down in front of the villas and shops.

At Mentone.

NICE, Feb. 25.—At Mentone 250 houses were rendered uninhabitable. Several fires occurred but were speedily extinguished. Military guards are on duty to prevent the pillaging of the wrecked houses. A field telegraph is now working in many places. A bread famine is expected, owing to the destruction of the ovens of the bakers.

CATHOLIC BISHOPS IN PRUSSIA.

They Must Swear Devotion and Obedience to King William.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—The royal order prescribing the form of oath which the Catholic bishops appointed to sees in Prussia shall take before being confirmed by the state in their appointments, ordains that each bishop shall swear to be submissive, loyal, obedient and devoted to the King of Prussia and to inculcate in his clergy and the people of his diocese veneration and fidelity towards the King, love of the fatherland and obedience to the state's laws. The oath also binds the bishop to refuse to tolerate by any of his clergy any teaching or action opposed to the spirit of the vows taken by the bishop in making the oath, and abstain from maintaining either within or outside of the country any relation prejudicial to the security of the country.

The oath concludes as follows: "I promise to keep all this the more inviolably, as I am certain that by the oath I took to the Pope and the church I did not bind myself to anything that might be opposed to this oath of allegiance to the King."

HIGH-HANDED PROCEEDING.

Stanley Telegraphs Regarding Affairs at Tangi and His Own Expedition.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Henry M. Stanley telegraphs from Zanzibar recounting the seizure of the Sultan of Zanzibar's steamer Kilwa, and the bombardment of Tangi by the Portuguese. In the opinion of Mr. Stanley Portugal is acting in a high-handed manner, relying on the non-interference of Germany. Passiveness on the part of England, Stanley says, will be most injurious to a valuable trade. England and Germany together ought to cry "hands off" to Portugal, before irreparable mischief ensues.

Stanley says in reference to the expedition for the relief of Emin Bey that the party have embarked on the steamer Madeira. The expedition consists of European officers, 61 Soudanese, 13 Somalis, 620 natives of Zanzibar, 50 carpenters and Tippu Tib, the Arab trader, and 40 of his followers. Couriers have gone overland with letters to Uganda, while others have been sent to Stanley Falls to meet the native chief.

An advance force will push on to Wadelai the third day after arriving at Stanley Falls without the Arabs. The force of Tippu-Tib will proceed by way of Kasongo and Lake Tanganyika to Stanley Falls. Stanley hopes to reach the Cape by March 9, 1888.

IN MEMORY OF PRINCE LEOPOLD.

The Unveiling of a Fountain at Cannes, Where He Died.

CANNES, Feb. 25.—The Fountain of St. George, erected at the foot of the Ville Nevada, by the French residents of this town, in memory of the Duke of Albany, was unveiled yesterday. The Prince of Wales was present. The Duc De Chartres, on behalf of the Comte De Paris, delivered an oration, in which he said that the French colony was happy to offer the memorial as a pledge of sympathy to the British nation. The orator's sentiments were echoed by the Mayor of the town in a short address. The Prince of Wales returned thanks. The Prince will leave Cannes to-day.

MRS. GLADSTONE PRESIDES.

A Meeting of Women to Form a Liberal Federation.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Gladstone presided to-day over a meeting called for the purpose of forming a Women's Liberal Federation. CHICAGO BOODLERS.

A Witness Tells How Tenderers of Contracts Were Approached.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—A new witness was secured yesterday against the Cook county boodlers in the person of John F. Gray, a contractor, who informed State's Attorney Grinnell that he had been approached separately by a certain "boodle" County Commissioner, a member of the Grand Jury, and County Hospital Warden Mollarcie, each of whom endeavored to have him raise one of his bids from $6000 to $8,000. The proposition was that the additional sum would ostensibly go to Gray, but really be divided among the "gang," who would guarantee Gray the contract.

Gray was unwilling to accept the terms, and the contract subsequently went to another man at a much higher figure than even the one named by Mollarcie. None of the brothers have yet been taken into custody, but it is generally understood that arrests will follow closely upon the assembling of the Grand Jury a few days hence.

New Picture-Pneumonia is Spurred

BOSTON, Feb. 25.—It is stated that on Jan. 26 a lot of milch cows from Buffalo were received at Brighton and disposed of to purchasers in Boston. One of the animals died in South Boston on Feb. 15 of contagious pleuro-pneumonia. The State Cattle Commissioners have been working since then to recover traces of the herd. The commissioners have been successful in a number of cases and while they admit that there is great danger that the disease has been spread, they believe the measures adopted will prevent serious results. Most of the animals have been placed in quarantine.

Sarah's Baggage Seized.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 25.—Sarah Bernhardt and her troupe arrived here yesterday from the City of Mexico and started via New Orleans for Washington, where her engagement begins Tuesday next. Mr. Grau says that he had more trouble in getting the troupe's baggage through the El Paso custom house than he has had in his whole trip through South America, Central America and Mexico. It was only after a lively talk in French with the customs officer by Miss Bernhardt that the trunks were allowed to go through without board.

Schaefer Challenges the World, and Mr. Slosson in Particular.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 25.—Jacob Schaefer, the champion billiardist, has challenged any man in the world to play a game of cushion carroms, 500 points, for $2500 a side, the person accepting to have the privilege of naming the place of meeting. Mr. Schaefer has also challenged Geo. F. Slosson to a game of cushion carroms, 500 points, and to a game at 14-inch balk line, for $500 a side each game, or as much more as Mr. Slosson desires, both games to be played in a city of the latter's selection.

Moody and Sankey's Project.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Moody and Sankey, the evangelists, have on foot a scheme to evangelize Chicago and other large cities. A building to cost $250,000 will be erected in Chicago for the training of Christian workers. If it proves successful they will advocate the erection of similar buildings in New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities.

A Train Lost in the Snow.

SARATOGA, N.Y., Feb. 25.—The Adirondack passenger train that left here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, is snowed in, and up to 9 o'clock this morning had not reached Stony Creek, thirty miles north of here. At 8.30 o'clock last night the train was ascertained to be somewhere between Corinth and Hadley, but since then nothing has been heard from it. There are but few passengers on board.

DIFFICULT TO DECIDE.

It is almost impossible to predict at present the actual standing of parties in the House of Commons. There are scores of circumstances which will affect that standing. As yet the returns cannot absolutely be depended upon, telegraphic despatches every day unseating candidates who appeared to be seated safely the day before. Then there are the recounts which in the case of the numerous narrow majorities enjoyed by Conservative members elect, may have a reactionary effect. Then there are legal informalities and gross violations of the law sufficient, it is alleged, to void the election of the returned candidates in several instances. Then there are the protests to be plentifully entered, and their out-come will tend to change the complexion of several constituencies. All things considered there is great difficulty on account of the shifting nature of the data, in computing the relative strength of parties as the newly elected house, and only the issue of a test vote on the floor of the House of Commons will decide the matter with any degree of definiteness.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

Next June Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, will have completed the fiftieth year of her occupancy of the throne, and the event will be duly celebrated in every portion of the vast empire over which her sceptre holds sway. Only three sovereigns have before enjoyed the distinction of filling the throne for half a century; these were Henry III, Edward III and George III. Superstitious persons will be inclined to insist that there is something in the saying, "luck in odd numbers," for, as will be noticed, all the above rulers have not only the good luck to have an odd ordinal number suffixed to their names, but all three are thirds. As our present Queen is the first Victoria, her ordinal numerical distinction is odd, too. But the success of the regal administration of Queen Victoria depends upon something more substantial than the fortuitous coincidence of numerals, which derive their whole significance from an exploded superstition. She has been a wise, discreet and constitutional ruler, while her personal character has been irreproachable and a living model of virtue, which all wives and mothers might profitably imitate. She has gained the veneration and affection of the millions of her subjects, and, of course, it may be expected that the celebration of her jubilee year will be conducted with spontaneous enthusiasm the world over. From all quarters we note the signs of preparation—only in Peterborough no proposal to becomingly commemorate the occasion has been suggested even for discussion. It is time that some leading citizen or citizens took the matter in hand, with a view of seeing that Peterborough, which leads in everything else, is not behind on an occasion which is worthy of the loyal observance of every loyal citizen of the almost illimitable empire of which we are proud to form a part.

THE CONQUERING DRAGON.

The Montreal Witness thus discourses upon the causes which led to the sustaining of Sir John in Ontario at the recent elections. And it is not far from the mark either. The Witness says:

The great stronghold of the Reform party in Canada is the western peninsula of Ontario. It is the Scotland of Canada, as far as sentiment goes, and in the Ontario Legislature that sentiment is fully represented, but such is not the case in the House of Commons. In the last election for the Local Legislature, which took place during the last days of this year, forty-five rural constituencies in this peninsula returned to Parliament thirty-five Reform candidates and only nine Conservatives. As a result of the general election of Tuesday there were returned for forty-five constituencies, covering very nearly the same area of country, twenty-two Conservatives and twenty-three supporters of Mr. Blake. The issues were certainly widely different in the two elections, but the Conservative party did everything in its power—excepting the free use of "dust"—to defeat Mr. Mowat, and it is fair to presume that they brought to the polls every man who by conviction follows their banner. It is a significant fact that in the thirty-six of these constituencies, from which full returns have been received, the average reform majority is fully a hundred votes larger than the average Conservative majority. The gerrymander has therefore again fulfilled the purposes of its existence, and the "Grit hives" may buzz and swarm with indignant wrath; but they can't do more than send one member to meet two. As a matter of course, the intimidation of workmen by employers, and the free use of "dust" have told, but the gerrymander has been the conquering dragon.

Some of the Dominion ministers had a close call for their seats. Sir John's majority in Kingston for which he proposes to sit is only 12. Mr. Carling's is 20. Sir Hector Langevin's only 30, and Mr. J. S. D. Thompson's for Antigonish is only about 40. Yet their majorities are perhaps safer and considerably larger than that of the government.

"Great Gains from Little Acorns Grow," and great benefits ensue from the use of Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets"—tiny, sugar-coated granules—which obviate the necessity of choking and "gagging" in the attempt to swallow some huge bolus of uninviting aspect and disagreeable effect. Their cathartic action is thorough, yet perfectly gentle, and unlike other pills, they never result in constipation. In cases of sick headache, and as a promoter of digestion, they are unsurpassed. Wheat Growing India.

That the United States is fully alive to the importance of British India as a competitor in wheat raising is well shown by the attention devoted to the question in the Senate. The Committee on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard has recently issued a report on the subject, which embodies a great deal of valuable information. It shows, among other things, that the tendency of ocean freights between India and the United Kingdom has been steadily decreasing for some years back. From Calcutta to Liverpool, for instance, the rates have been reduced from 32.6 cents per bushel in 1874 to 18.1 cents in 1885. From Kurrachee to Liverpool they have decreased in the same time from 29.5 cents to 16.7, and from Bombay to Liverpool from 22.5 cents in 1869 to 16.2 in 1885. This, of course, even at best, is as yet considerably in advance of the rate from New York to Liverpool, which ranges downward from ten cents per bushel. The total export of wheat from India to Great Britain has risen from 1,563 bushels in 1860 to 22,800,331 bushels in 1885. The area under wheat in British India is about 20,000,000 acres, and the yield between 205,333,333 and 224,000,000 bushels. The area in native territory would give an additional 6,000,000 acres, with a yield of about 46,666,666 bushels, making a total yield of about 282,000,000 bushels. In Northern India, which is fairly well traversed by railways, the cost of growing wheat on manured and irrigated land is said to be a little under 24 cents a bushel, exclusive of rent, or 60 cents a bushel inclusive of rent, this estimate including everything from the purchase of the seed to the threshing of its outcome. The margin of profit, exclusive of the straw, is reckoned at $2.13 per acre, with a turn-out of about 20 bushels. On the subject of railroads it is important to notice that on March 31, 1884, there had been sanctioned for construction in British India 14,790 miles of railroad, of which 10,332 had completed. Upon the railroad system of the country in that year between 10,000,000 and 12,000,000 tons of freight were carried. This U. S. Senate Committee also reports the average cost of hauling one ton of freight one mile in India as varying from 1.695 cents to 2.385 cents. The present rates on the principal lines for long distance hauling vary from 1.75 cents to 1.125 cents per ton per mile. On the East India Railway special rates as low as one cent per ton per mile had been charged, a rate at which it was said there was even a margin of profit.

Annual Temperance Convention.

The Annual Convention for 1887 of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance for the Suppression of the Liquor Traffic will be held in Toronto, on March 9th and 10th, commencing on Wednesday at 2 p.m. Sessions of the Convention will be held during both days and on Wednesday evening, all of which will be open to the public, but only members and delegates will be expected to take part in the discussions and voting. The public are cordially invited to attend. The Executive Committee will present a full report of work done with practical suggestions for further operations, so that matters of much moment will be under the consideration of the Convention from its opening hour. The great and growing sentiment in favor of immediate prohibition, and the gravity of the present political situation, make it both desirable and certain that the meeting will be of unusual magnitude and interest. On the evening of Thursday, a reception will be tendered to the members of the Alliance of the Young Men's Prohibition Club of Toronto. Members, delegates and visitors are urgently invited to stay over Tuesday evening and attend this gathering. The circular is sent to all temperance societies, to church organizations, and to known temperance workers. The bodies named are earnestly requested to elect delegates to the Convention, and all who desire to aid the great prohibition movement are invited to become Alliance members. Cards entitling members and delegates to the privileges of the Convention may be secured by application to the Secretary, F. S. Spence, 8 King street east. Members and supporters of the Alliance in other provinces are cordially invited to attend, and will be accorded full privileges in all discussions, etc., as visiting members. [Con.

Cut His Throat.

It is not often that our community is startled with the report of suicide, says the Bobcaygeon Independent. On Monday afternoon such a report was current, and on inquiry it was found that in the early part of the winter Mr. Lorenzo Wolfram, removed from his residence in Harvey, to this village, closing the premises. On Monday morning, Mrs. Wolfram went out to see if the place was all right, and on entering the wood shed was horrified to find the body of an old man, with a gapping wound across the throat. The village constable was informed, and subsequently the Harvey authorities took charge of the body and attended to the interment. It appears that the man's name was John Thomas, a journeyman shoemaker, aged between fifty and sixty, and without relatives. For a number of years he has drifted aimlessly and almost uselessly through life. He was last seen early in January, and is supposed to have been laying where he was found since that time. An open razor was by his side, and it was clear by all appearances that the unfortunate man had deliberately put an end to his existence by suicide. No reasons are known for the rash act, beyond his being tired of life.

Death-Rate of the Dominion.

According to reports furnished to the Department of Agriculture, there were during the year 1886 in twenty principal cities and towns of the Dominion, comprising an assumed population for the year of 640,000 in all, about 16,018 deaths, equal to a mortality of 25 per 1,000 of the population. The mortality the previous year in 19 of these cities and towns was 30 per 1,000 of the population, but then there was an unusual epidemic of smallpox. Excepting 13,302 deaths from this disease, the mortality was no greater than in 1885. The mortality last year in the cities and towns of Canada was nearly 25 per cent. higher than in the large and crowded cities of England. In Montreal, Quebec and Ottawa the mortality was above 30 per 1,000 last year. In the small town of Sorel, with a population of 6,000 there were 303 deaths, or 50 per 1,000. In St. Hyacinthe the mortality was 44 per 1,000. Toronto has a good record, the rate being 24 per 1,000.

LUMINOUS

ALARM CLOCKS.

The Handiest thing in the World Can be seen as well in the Dark as the Light.

EVERYBODY should have One.

R. W. MUNCASTER.

AGREEABLY DECEIVED.

"She has got a story, I'm almost certain," says Fanny Tullan. "I can see it in the expression of her face. I only wish I had courage to ask her about it."

It was a dull, rainy day—one of the bleak premonitors of the equinoctial storm—and as there was not much doing in the post-office, the girls took longer than usual at their lunch.

Fanny sat on a packing-box, turned upside down, under the stairway that led down to the sorting-room, slowly munching her cake; and Ella Hay, her companion at the counter, was nestled at her feet, eating bread and butter and raspberry jam with the heartiest of appetites.

At the same moment, Verona Gordon, the telegraphist, came lightly down the stairs in her dark-blue serge gown, and her satin-brown braids of hair shining in the oblique light of the dust-dimmed window. She caught Fanny's last sentences, and paused abruptly.

"To ask whom?" said she. "Who has got a story?"

And Fanny, spurred on by a sudden upward blaze of courage, answered:

"You!"

Verona smiled. In repose, her face was cold and grave; but when it lighted up with that rare smile, it was absolutely beautiful. Instead of being offended, however, she sat cheerfully down on the other half of the packing-box.

"You are right, Miss Tullan," said she. "I have got a story, also I never should have been in this office. I wasn't brought up to work, and I don't like working the instrument from morning until night any better than other people do."

Fanny Tullan's great grey eyes opened wide.

"Oh, Verona," said she, "won't you tell it to me?"

"Of course I will," said Verona. "Why shouldn't I? You were very kind to me, Fanny Tullan, when first I came, lonely and inexperienced, to the office. It would be hard indeed if I couldn't do as much to please and amuse you."

"Of course you have already surmised that I am a lady by birth," said she. "That goes without saying. But you would scarcely have imagined that I was once an heiress. Westerndale Hall—that was the name of the place—a beautiful old house, down by the sea. Oh, I loved that house!—and now I never shall see it any more!"

Her lip quivered; the tears came into her eyes for a second, and then she went bravely on:

"But I didn't know until quite lately that there was a lawsuit about Westerndale Hall; that some other branch of family believed that they had a better right to it than my mother and I. Mamma never told me about it; and, luckily it was not until after her death that that hateful lawyer's letter came. The letter, I mean, that notified me, with a mock respect that was worse than any amount of downright insolence would have been, that Westerndale Hall belonged to my fourth or fifth cousin, instead of me. There was something in it about my not being disturbed in the occupancy, if it suited me to remain; but I could listen to no such belittling proposition as that. I tore the letter into pieces, and packed my personal belongings into one little trunk and came away. I took refuge with a relative of my mother, who lives, in a very quiet way, in London, and it was she that helped me to go to the school, and get this place; and there is my story."

"The beginning," said Fanny Tullan, nibbling up the last crumb of her lunch; "but not the end!"

"Why not the end?"

"Oh, because you'll see that the end will be that you'll somehow go back to Westerndale Hall, and the cousin will be a stately, dark-eyed aristocrat, who will fall headlong in love with you, at the very first sight," nodded Fanny.

Miss Verona laughed in spite of herself.

"Then he may fall out again," said she. "There goes the clock! I must get back to work—and so must you, children. The fairy story is over; the work-a-day hour is beginning once more."

It was still raining hard when Verona came out into the dreary autumn night, where the wet pools glistened on the pavement, and the gas-lamps shone sullenly through the mist.

From the other side of the street a shadow-like figure approached, the radius of an umbrella extended itself over her head, and her arm was calmly pulled under that of a tall young man in a waterproof coat.

"Oh, Paul, is it you?" said Verona.

"Yes, it is I," answered a firm, cheerful voice. "I knew you would forget your umbrella."

"Yesterday's wind turned it inside out and split the gingham into ribbons," said Verona, laughing, as she hurried along by the side of her cousin, Paul Rothermel. "Well, at all events, it was thoughtful of you to come for me, Paul. But you are always thoughtful."

Paul did not answer; it was his way to be silent and abstracted.

"Well, what luck have you had today," asked Verona.

"The best of luck," he answered. "They have decided to accept my invention, and put it into immediate use. I am to have £1,000 down, and £500 a year royalty on my patent as long as they use it—which, if it don't turn out a poorer thing than I believe, will be for ever and ever."

"Oh, Paul!" cried Verona, breathlessly.

"I am very glad of this, Verona," he said. "Do you know why?"

"I can guess."

"No, I don't believe you can quite guess," he said, gently. "It is because this has prompted me to speak out what has long been on my mind—to ask you to be my wife. You are one of the princesses, dear, who should be a born princess, instead of a post-office clerk, drudging all the day long behind a desk. I want to put you on your throne again."

"Dear Paul!" she whispered, softly, and just for the fraction of a moment her little black straw bonnet crushed its cluster of scarlet poppies against his waterproof shoulder—"only put me on the throne of your heart and keep me there, and that is all I want. As for my kingdom, why, Westerndale—"

"What about Westerndale?"

"Perhaps one day we may be rich enough to buy it back. Not just yet, Paul, we are only beginning the world as yet; but some day."

"Westerndale then be it," said Paul, in his dreamy, far-off way. "Suppose, Verona, that you and I and my mother make a holiday of to-morrow, and go up and see what this imaginary place is like."

"But it isn't imaginary; and I wouldn't for the world have the heir suppose that we are prying about the premises that are lawfully his."

"Oh, bang the fellow!" said Paul. "I suppose he can't forbid us the privilege of looking, can he?"

Paul Rothermel had his way. He always did have his way, in a soft, imperturbable fashion, which you never fully comprehended until it had got the better of you past all recovery.

They took the train the next morning, all three of them—Verona having gone to the office and easily obtained leave from her kind-hearted chief, and went up to Eastport, which was the little village about a mile from where the salt waves were curling in foamy fringes to the very foundations of Westerndale Hall.

"Isn't it a sweet old place?" cried Verona. "Oh! how I long to be here once again—to be at home here!"

"It isn't bad," said Paul, meditatively surveying its grey stone towers and casements of stained glass, the old sun-dial at the south end of the house, and the group of cedars opposite, while old Mrs. Rothermel boldly ascended the flight of stone steps and rang the bell.

Out came Mr. Pepperton, the lawyer, smiling and bowing like an animate Jack-in-the-box.

"Happy to see you, Mr. Rothermel!" said he, "most happy, I am sure! Would you be so kind as to step in—yourself and these ladies? I've had fires lighted in all the rooms (a stone house like this is apt to be damp if it isn't kept well-aired) and a lunch has been sent up from the hotel in the village. Pray walk in, Miss Gordon; your most obedient! I am exceedingly glad to see that you have been able to arrive at a satisfactory arrangement with your cousin, the heir."

"My cousin, the heir? I think, Mr. Popperton, that you must have gone out of your mind!" said Verona, drawing herself up after a most stately manner.

But Paul Rothermel turned to her with a smile.

"His mind is all right, Verona," said he. "I am your cousin, two or three times removed, instead of your poor first cousin—am I not? As for being the heir, that isn't my fault, is it? The lawsuit was begun before I was born."

"Paul, you have deceived me!" cried Verona, with flashing eyes.

But the next instant they softened into liquid light; her color rose beneath his tender glance.

"Have I, dearest?" he said. "Not when I told you that I loved you. That is the main thing—isn't it, dearest? We were going to be happy without Westerndale Hall; cannot we be happier still with it?"

And Fanny Tullan and Ella Hay came to the wedding, and helped the bride rejoice.

"The story has ended exactly as it ought to," said Fanny, "as I foretold it would."

"And now we know that novels aren't a bit more romantic than in real life," asserted Miss Hay.

A Boon to Merchants.

Mr. A. V. R. Young, accountant in Mr. A. P. Pousette's office, has shown us a copy of a cash, book, day-book and journal, on the double entry system, combined in one. Its merits are far too numerous to mention, but it may be mentioned that this one book is kept easier than an ordinary single entry book, posting being simplified to that extent. By it, too, a merchant can tell at any moment the exact value of the goods on his shelves. Merchants who have examined it pronounce it just the thing required. Mr. Young is to be congratulated on having been able to fill a long-felt want. Parties desiring any information can be supplied on application to Mr. Young.

A Plum for Peterborough Curlers to Pluck—In the Final for the Governor-General's Medal—A Defeat for the Home Club—Coming Events.

Having received no tidings from Ottawa relative to the competition for the Governor-General's medal, our curlers had given up all hopes of being in the final contest with Truro, a feeling which was confirmed by a misleading item in the sporting columns of the Mail to the effect that Winnipeg had won the honor. Yesterday, however, Mr. C. McGill, secretary, received a telegram from Ottawa, and this morning a letter, a partial copy of which is given below:

"Your club is in for the final with Truro, of Nova Scotia. Arrange date of match. His Excellency the Governor-General returns to Ottawa next week, and any day of the following week will suit for game—any day between 7th and 12th of March. Game is to be played on His Excellency's ice at Ottawa. * * * Both rinks of competing clubs will lunch with His Excellency at the conclusion of the morning game. * * * Please correspond with Truro at once and arrange date.

W. STREATFIELD,
Governor-General's Secretary."

Mr. McGill will at once open negotiations with Truro as to the date of the match. May the Peterborough curlers have the best of luck, down the Truros, and come home with flying colors—and the medal.

A DEFEAT.

Lindsay beat Peterborough in Friday afternoon's contest. It will be remembered that in the forenoon the scores, which were published in Friday's EXAMINER, were 39-38, in favor of Peterborough. In the afternoon, with a change of rinks, the score was:—

LINDSAY.	PETERBOROUGH.
Rink No. 1.

Majority for Lindsay, 10.

CURLING NOTES.

Lindsay will invade town with three rinks next week, and six rinks of the Caledonians are expected.

Mr. McGill has received invitations for the home club to visit Whitby, Oshawa, Orillia and Cobourg to play friendly matches at those places.

Two rinks of junior curlers of Lakefield are playing the Peterborough lads this afternoon.

Campbellford defeated Belleville Friday at Campbellford by 12 shots.

Church Chimes.

Prof. Newman, of Macmaster College, Toronto, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church to-morrow morning and evening.

The members of Court Peterborough No. 29, C. O. F., will attend divine service in St. Paul's church to-morrow morning.

Order of service for Mark street Methodist Church, Feb. 27th, 1887:—Conducted by the Rev. J. C. Wilson; 11 a.m., subject, "The Command to Work;" 7 p.m., subject, "The Calmer of the Storm."

In the Charlotte street Methodist church on Feb. 27th, 1887, Rev. Dr. Nelles will in the morning present the claims of the new Victoria College, in federation with the provincial University, Toronto. In the evening Rev. F. H. Wallace, B. D., will preach on "the history of the English Bible."

Sunday, being first Sunday in Lent, is appointed by the Bishop of Toronto, in compliance with the resolution of Synod, to be observed as temperance Sunday in this diocese. Special sermons will be preached, and in most cases the offertory will be for the Church of England Temperance Society.

His Grace Archbishop Lynch concludes a Lenten pastoral in the following terms:—"We have sent the money ($1,200) received for the various charitable works of the Church to its proper destination. We have forwarded to his Holiness the Pope, for his schools in the East, $400; to the Society for the Holy Infancy, $200, and to Dom Bosco, for missions in South America, $100. The Holy Father sends his blessing to all who contributed to the propagation of the Faith."

To-morrow morning Rev. Mr. Tovell will occupy the pulpit of the George street church, and in the evening the Rev. Dr. Nelles, Chancellor of Victoria University, will officiate. A meeting of special importance and interest will be held on Monday next at 2 p.m., in the above church to which the laity and ministers of the Methodist church are invited to consult together with reference to the future interests of Victoria College. Rev. Dr. Potts and Dr. Nelles will address the meeting.

Military Canoeists.

The Kingston Whig says that the Royal Military College canoe club will join the new Northern division of the A. C. A.

Curling Rinks.

—Election matters have interfered greatly with curling at the rink. The medal and cup games will be played next week.

—It will now be in order for the Reformer members of the curling club to challenge the Conservatives to a match. If not in politics, the Liberals of this county can hold up their head at curling.

—Referring to the recent match between junior curlers of Lindsay and Peterborough, the Post says:—"The playing was good especially on the part of the Peterborough juniors, and the remark was made that if some of the Peterborough senior rinks would play like the boys more wins would stand to the credit of the club."

B. B. B.

What does it mean? "Bold brigade of boodlers," says one; "beer, bribery and buncombe," suggests some one else; while still another answer is, "bread, butter, and beef." All wrong, though the last comes nearest the mark. What, then, is it. Why, nothing more or less than Bellegheim's Big Bargains, which astonish everyone, and which are a matter of as much importance to the economic householder as "bread, butter and beef." Bellegheim's stock is large, varied, first-class and cheap. Don't forget that Bellegheim says so, and Bellegheim never l——, well, tells stories. His warerooms on Hunter street, are open for inspection.

Gentlemen! If you require a new suit, see the handsome stock of Scotch and Canadian Tweeds at the Golden Lion. Superb fit and fit guaranteed. R. FAIR.

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17[illegible] being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirement, to cavil, evasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Sumner were unhappily drowned and the affidavit produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. MCLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent-per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

EARTHQUAKE REGION

THE THEATRE AT NICE REOPENED AND CONCERTS RESUMED.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Monte Carlo, it is found, suffered less from the effects of the shocks of Wednesday than any other place. Scientists says this is due to the fact that Monte Carlo is built on rock. The hotels there are crowded to the utmost limit by the sudden enormous rush to the city of thousands of the pleasure seekers frightened away from the Riviera, especially from Cannes, Nice, Mentone and San Remo, all of which were thronged with visitors when the earthquakes came. The weather at Monte Carlo is beautiful, and the refugees from the shattered towns who have recovered from their fright are making the most of it. The harbor is filled with yachts. An enormous influx of fugitives from the Riviera has invaded Marseilles. The hotels and lodging houses are crowded. Eight thousand persons arrived there Thursday and Friday.

The theatre at Nice was reopened to-night and concerts have been resumed in the public gardens. The college has been reopened. A few timid persons remain encamped outside the city. A large crevice has developed in the cemetery at Mentone since the earthquakes. The cupola of the White Penitent's chapel has fallen.

Astronomer Roberts says that the danger from seismic disturbances is passed.

Another earthquake shock was felt at Genoa this afternoon. No damage and no panic. The shocks last evening at Manfredonia were also harmless.

The Pope Sends $2000 to the Sufferers.

ROME, Feb. 26.—Three more shocks of earthquake were felt at Forlia, in the Province of Campobasso, yesterday. The bodies of twenty-four persons, killed by the earthquake on Wednesday, have been taken from the ruins in Diano-Marino, and it is known that 164 are yet under fallen buildings. Almost the entire population of Diano-Marino is encamped on the seashore. Three hundred communes were visited by the earthquakes, as yet reports of the casualties have been received from but sixty. The Pope has sent $2000 for the relief of the sufferers.

Signor Genala, Minister of Public Works, Gen. Di Somnaz, Commander of the Fourth Army Corps, and a number of deputies from the disaster ravaged by the earthquake visited the injured at Diano-Marino and made arrangements for their care, and the recovery of the bodies killed and still buried beneath the debris. Genala afterward visited Diano Castella. Thirty-five bodies are beneath the ruins of that town. Nurses have been sent to Sorrato, where the affrighted inhabitants fled, leaving fifty persons injured.

CARDINAL JACOBINI DEAD.

The Papal Secretary of State Passes Away on Saturday.

ROME, Feb. 26.—Cardinal Jacobini died at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

His Eminence Ludovico Jacobini was born at Albano, May 6, 1832. In 1866, Pius IX. made him one of the Prelati Domestici. Soon after, he was made secretary of that section of the congregation de propaganda fide which is charged with the special supervision of the affairs of the eastern church. He was subsequently appointed one of the "consultors" of the propaganda, and his particular duty was to examine and report upon the decrees and ordinances of provincial synods.

In 1874 Pius IX. appointed Monsignor Jacobini to be nuncio at Vienna. According to custom he received the episcopal consecration with the title of Archbishop of Thessalonica. He remained in Vienna until October, 1880. On Sept. 19, 1879, he was created cardinal, but it was judged desirable that he should continue at the Austrian capital, in order to carry on the negotiations commenced some time previous with Germany and Russia. But in conformity with the strict etiquette of the papal court, which forbids a cardinal to hold the inferior rank of nuncio, Cardinal Jacobini, after his elevation to the purple, bore the title of pro-nuncio.

In 1880 His Eminence was recalled to Rome, and appointed by Leo XIII. to the office of Papal Secretary of State, in succession to Cardinal Nina, which office he held at the time of his death.]

THE CHURCH AND THE KNIGHTS

Cardinal Taschereau Still Considers Them a Social Danger.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A special cable from Rome says: It may be doubted whether Cardinal Taschereau's journey has shaken his opinion in regard to the Knights of Labor. He still seems to consider them a social danger. Few Roman combination, probably, has a very profound knowledge of the social question in America. Indeed, the fact is frankly admitted, but the highest dignitaries of the Church are ready to be enlightened and willing to help the working classes against the tyranny of the monopolists, if they can do so without injury to Catholicism.

TWO HAMILTON SENSATIONS.

Two Richest Sheep Keepers Arrested—An Indecent Assault Case.

HAMILTON, Feb. 27.—W. J. Willson and F. Gates, jr., of the firm of Willson & Gates, who recently kept a basket shop here, were arrested yesterday on complaint of Molsons Bank for obtaining money by false pretences. Bail was accepted.

Joseph Brennen was charged at the Police Court yesterday with having committed an indecent assault upon Elizabeth Jeffry, a 16-year-old servant girl employed at his house. The examination was adjourned.

INVINCIBLE REVIVAL

THE MURDEROUS SOCIETY SAID TO HAVE BEEN REFORMED.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Events in Ireland will force the Government to reconsider their decision to postpone the introduction of a coercion measure in Parliament until the procedure question is settled. They find it necessary to do something at once in order to meet the pressing need of new legislation to enable them to deal with Irish troubles on the lines marked out by the Conservative policy.

At to-day's Cabinet council reports of the Executor from Dublin were discussed. These announce that a fresh outbreak of outrages is imminent under an organized plan of operations adopted by the Invincible Society, which has been reformed under the leadership of the American-Irish agitators. It is supposed that the headquarters of this body is in County Clare. A special force of detectives in the employ of the Government have shadowed a number of "suspects," who have recently arrived from America and have traced them in Dublin and Liverpool, but have failed to discover what their plans are, or where they intend to carry on their operations. They have intimate relations, it is discovered, with well known members of the secret society in County Clare.

It is reported that the Marquis of Salisbury is reluctant to adopt strong measures in Ireland and is desirous to connect with them, in offering them to the House of Commons in response to the Tory demand, some element of conciliation which shall lessen their severity and tend to draw to the side of the law the more temperate among the Irish opponents of the Government. In accordance with a desire to avoid an uncompromising conflict with the great body of Irish people Lord Salisbury will associate the Coercion Bill with simultaneous proposals for relief of agrarian distress, which is one of the chief causes of the violent discontent prevalent in the rural districts of Ireland. The Premier will also offer a bill for grants of money to improve the railways of Ireland and to assist in relief of the fisheries.

SATURDAY'S STORM.

It Was General Throughout, the East and Unusually Severe.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—A blinding storm with snow began here this morning and lasted till about 4 o'clock this afternoon, when it turned into a drenching rain. Advices to the Associated Press indicate that this is part of a storm of unusual extent and severity. It covers all of New England, New York and Pennsylvania. From every direction come accounts showing that the snow is from six inches to a foot deep and in some places drifting badly. Trains are badly delayed or cancelled; street traffic in the cities is difficult and telegraphic communication almost paralyzed.

In the Northwest.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 26.—The storm now prevailing all over the Northwest comes from Northern Montana, and while the temperature is low as during the previous blizzard, the wind has been unusually severe. At 10 o'clock to-night it is clear here but with a sharp wind blowing. The thermometer registers eight above and falling. The railroads are hardly recovered from the preceding storm. The Sioux City Division of the Omaha Road and the Hastings and Dakota roads are blockaded. The Minneapolis and St. Louis and Minnesota and Northwestern have experienced little trouble. The Northern Pacific has had terrible blizzards along its Minnesota and Dakota Divisions, but no trains have been abandoned.

A Cyclone in the South.

MACON, Ga., Feb. 28.—A terrible cyclone struck Eatonton, Ga., this afternoon. The academy was blown from its foundations and wrecked and many residences were badly damaged. A blacksmith named Marshall was killed by his shop falling on him. Several others were hurt, some seriously.

A Life Lost at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Feb. 26.—A terrific gale prevailed here from last evening until nearly noon today. It is still blowing hard. Last night's storm destroyed several buildings, in one of which Detective Shepard of the City Police Department, lost his life by timbers falling and crushing him.

GERMAN POLITICS.

Another Papal Manifesto to the Electors Expected.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—It is stated that Dr. Windthorst is ready to make great concessions to the Government on financial reform measures, to which the National Liberals object. Although Bennigsen is dead against tobacco and brandy monopolies, a document is published, purporting to be the program of one of the National Liberal leaders, which shows a spirit of compromise. While the party will not lose all connection with the new German Liberals and become tools of Bismarck, an endeavor will be made to establish relations of the greatest confidence with the Chancellor so that if reform and increase of the brandy tax be really necessary a bill shall not be introduced without the previous consent of both parties.

The papers continue to discuss the possible combinations of parties resulting in the formation of a majority strong enough to oppose the Chancellor. Among the possible groupings the old Conservatives—never close supporters of Bismarck—may unite with the Clericals, thus making a majority composed of the Kreuz Zeitung party, the Centre and the Particularists. But no combination can deprive the Government of the absolute majority for the Septennate and most other purposes.

It is expected that another Papal manifesto will be issued appealing to the Catholics to refrain from voting at the test ballots for Socialists.

The Upper House Commission on the Church Bill will report next week, and it is expected that the measure will pass without a prolonged debate. Although the Clerical organs do not accept the bill as a complete measure, the attitude of the Catholic members is not aggressive, but rather passively content, the project being regarded as the outcome of an arrangement between Bismarck and the Vatican, embracing the farthest concessions at present attainable.

SOCIALISTS AT ST. PAULS.

They Greet the Announcement of the Text With Cries of "Brave."

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The parade of Socialists to St. Pauls this afternoon attracted crowds of people, and the Cathedral was crowded. The Arch-deacon preached from Proverbs xxii, 2. "The rich and poor meet together; the Lord is the maker of them all." When the text was announced there were shouts of "brave," and other exclamations of approval and some growls; otherwise there was no demonstration. A large force of police was present. In the evening an affray occurred between the police and a body of socialists, who were returning to their homes. The affair was not of a serious nature.

Examinations in British Columbia.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. Feb. 26.—Geo. Ferguson (Lib.) and James Reid (Con.) were nominated for the Cariboo District to-day. March 17 will be election day. Mr. Reid is the present Representative of the district in the House of Commons.

WOLSELEY AND WAR.

WHETHER IT WILL BE THIS OR NEXT SUMMER ONLY ONE MAN KNOWS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The Post's London correspondent has had an interview with Gen. Wolseley. Being asked what his view was of the relations of the great powers, he said, "Simply expressing my opinion, personal opinion, I should say, I feel sure that a vast and appalling war is a certainty in the near future. But this, indeed, everybody may be said to know. The rapidly increasing armaments, the huge burdens which several of the powers are laying upon themselves, and the directions in which the armaments are being developed and massed make war inevitable. But whether it will be this summer or next there is only one man in Europe who knows—that is Bismarck."

"What do you take to be the lesson of the German elections; do they mean Franco-German peace?"

"I do not see that they do, but their overwhelming lesson, to my mind, is the disregard of the popular voice in imperial matters. Bismarck's line from first to last has been to disregard the people's wishes, snub them and ride rough shod over them, yet by doing so he has created out of a handful of petty German states one of the most powerful empires of the world, an empire, moreover, in which the very people whom he has thus disregarded are the first to take enormous legitimate pride."

"Do you see the profile of an English Bismarck in the horizon?"

"No," replied Gen. Wolseley, rather sadly, "I do not. The miserable squabbles and petty personal aims of our party Government preclude any such hope. I do see, however, with the greatest satisfaction and gratification, the beginning in English life of something like a national party, in which the Liberal-Conservatives and Radicals will drop their differences on the questions of the Empire Britannica; and, indeed, an ultimate federation of all English-speaking peoples."

"That then is your ultimate ideal for us."

"It is," Gen. Wolseley said with enthusiasm. "When every man who speaks English is in the same empire or federation, or whatever it may be called, an international millennium will be reached. For we should then be able to impose peace and freedom on all the world."

"I am" he added "a great admirer of America and the American people. I witnessed at Washington the final review of the armies of the Republic at the close of the war. The spectacle of that immense force melting away among the people and being almost immediately absorbed, was the most colossal I have ever seen and left upon me an ineffaceable impression. I never lose an opportunity of assuring the people in England that the education of a public man is not complete until he has been in America and stayed there at least six months. Every step which brings England and America nearer together seems to me a step nearer the realization of the ideal civilization of the future. I am, therefore, always delighted when I hear of an Englishman marrying an American lady or vice versa.

"With such a miserable squabble over a kettle of fish as the present fisheries dispute I have not a moment's patience. I am convinced that if I or any man of ordinary tact or experience was sent over with sufficient authority to arrange matters with a similar American representative the whole affair could be settled out of hand in a week."

The Franco-German Situation.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—It is now definitely known that the German elections have failed to guarantee the peace of Europe. From all quarters come predictions of a split between the septennate coalition as soon as the one issue on which they were elected is disposed of and the consequent resuscitation of the war cry. M. Berthelemy, the author of Avant Le Bataille, has written an article in a Paris paper which is calculated to renew the war scare in rather violent form. He contends that the increase of an effective German army which has been so vigorously pushed forward by Bismarck necessitates corresponding preparations on the part of France in order that she may be ready to resist an attack from Germany, which M. Bartholemy believes would be made on her if she is not in shape to receive it. The adoption of the Septennate Bill by the Reichstag will not, he says, guarantee peace, but rather points to war as a legitimate result of the elections. The Berlin war office, declares the writer, have arranged for an immediate reinforcement of the military contingent in Alsace-Lorraine, and are sending thoroughly equipped garrisons to places on the frontier at which a garrison has never been stationed before. These steps raise the total effective force in Alsace-Lorraine from 80,000 men, its former number, to 70,000. These measures, urges Bartholemy, are not now connected with the question of election manœuvres, the occasion for any such movements having been definitely concluded last Monday. They are, he asserts, purely military measures, and are a deliberate menace to the peace of France. This situation of affairs leaves the French frontier wholly at the mercy of a sudden aggressive movement by the German forces unless a numerous, effective and watchful army is kept up by the French Government.

The latest Berlin advices refer to the general feeling of relief which now pervades throughout Germany with regard to the war outlook. The Norddeutsche Zeitung says: "At the same time there is no idea of relaxing the attitude of watchfulness, which is still necessary, despite the fine phrases of the French press. Peace depends not on Prince Bismarck, but on the conviction of France that German armaments will always keep pace with the French."

Preparations in Poland.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The war rumors are now diverted toward Russia. Vienna advises report incessant preparations in Poland. The relations between Russia, and the two other empires are so strained that official circles no longer attempt to conceal their hostilities. In Poland forts are being rapidly armed with Gatlings and Nordenfeldts and rapid shooting shell guns, and the rolling stock of the railways is being increased.

Germany Not Hostile to Russia.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The North German Gazette denies the statement made by the Temps, of Paris, that Bismarck in 1879 declared that Gortschakoff should never be permitted to take the Balkan States for Russia. The Gazette asserts with emphasis that Germany has no interest in the East and will not meddle in any quarrel which may arise there. In conclusion the paper says: "It is impossible that Bismarck has ever said anything which would warrant the inference that Germany would dispute with Russia her claim to the Balkans."

Austria Equipping Her Army.

VIENNA, Feb. 26.—The Upper House of the Austrian Reichsrath and the Hungarian Diet have by unanimous votes passed the extra credits asked by the Government for the equipment of the army and the Landwehr. Count von Zichy, in the debate at Pesth, declared that, although he opposed the views of the Government, he willingly voted for the credits to protect the throne and the fatherland.

The Bourse.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 27.—Business on the Bourse was firm early in the week, but weakened toward the close. The Rothschilds have advanced 15,000,000 florins as a portion of the Hungarian Loan. It is now certain that a

NOT OUT OF THE WOOD YET.

By forcing the National Policy as the chief issue in the recent elections, when it was in reality not an issue at all, the Government of Sir John Macdonald has not escaped—it has only carried over an adverse balance of ministerial misdeeds from one session to another. By shirking the discussion of their mismanagement of North-west matters, the Government has exposed itself to answering to the charges the coming session, and it may be sure that it will not escape arraignment on this count. Their mismanagement in the North-west has had serious consequences beyond producing a disastrous rebellion. It has retarded the settlement of that county and that of course affects the interests of older Canada. If the Dominion government had within the past nine years wisely ruled the Northwest there would have been a far larger population there than now exists, and of course there would have been a much larger circle of customers demanding the products of Ontario manufacturing establishments. Every industry in Ontario would have been in a more flourishing condition than it is now, if the government had done its duty in promoting the settlement of the Northwest. Every new settler established, every new household set up, means a demand for lumber, nails, locks, hinges, furniture etc. The N. P. is designed to furnish a home market for our manufactured products and to secure this a rapid and extensive settlement of the great Northwest is necessary. To secure this a liberal and honest land policy is necessary, and this we must have. There must be an end to the misgovernment, official corruption and departmental indifference and inefficiency that have so far marked the dealings of the government, with its trust in regard to our North-west possessions.

BOODLE is fatal to the clan Cameron. It defeated Mr. Hector Cameron in North Victoria because he sorbed it. It defeated Mr. M. C. Cameron in Huron because the susceptoter absorbed it.

THE Buffalo Express commenting on the result of the Dominion elections remarks:—"Sir John's half million Indian wards voted solidly, for him. The Dominion Franchise Act accomplished all that was expected of it in the way of disfranchising white mechanics with no capital but their tools."

AGAIN has the purchase of artillery horses for the British service, been ordered to be made in Canada. The limit of price, £45 each, is an obstacle to these animals being procured in England; and as a previous trial of Canadian horses was satisfactory, resort is had to this country for a farther supply.

THE most complete revolution in political complexion is shown by North Victoria—a change of 500 votes. In 1882 Mr. Hector Cameron, Q. C., carried the riding by a majority of 290. Last Tuesday Mr. Barron captured the splendid majority of 340. In a district where the pay car could not penetrate, the people gave no uncertain sound.

SIR JOHN cannot depend on the righteousness of his cause. In 1882 he dared not trust it with a big majority at his back, therefore he perpetrated the gerrymander. In 1886 he had a majority of 71 at his back, yet he could not depend on the gerrymander alone; he concocted the Franchise Act. If Sir John has a following sufficient to carry on public business in the present parliament, he owes it to two acts of parliament designed expressly to nullify the will of the people and promote the endorsement of wicked and corrupt administration.

THE Ottawa Citizen in its energetic endeavor to give the government an artificial majority in the house of Commons, classified Mr. Trow the Liberal "whip," as a tory circumstance which gave rise to the following electric correspondence:

"Trow, M. P., Stratford:

"OTTAWA, Feb. 24.

"Ottawa Citizen classifies you as a Government supporter. How is this?"

To this the following answer has been received:—

"STRATFORD, Feb. 24.

"The Government must be short of supporters. My political history is Grit, and I see no reason for changing. Shall sue the Citizen for slander.

JAS. TROW."

THE re-election of Mr. Wm. Paterson, of Brant, by the magnificent majority of 574, rather upsets the equanimity of the Brantford Expositor and causes its enthusiasm to bubble over in rhyme. Its headings to a report of the election returns consists of an excellent portrait of Mr. Paterson, and the following lines, in loud and exultant display letters, concluded with a cut of the British flag:—

"Paterson is re-elected.
Cockshutt's down upon the floor,
By such easy and telling
Figures as 574.

Where is Cockshutt, Hawkins, Henry,
Where the windy Tory crowd?
Hunted, whipped and sorely beaten,
In the dust their faces bowed.

What about young Tuscarora
And the township 'cross the deep?
Always Tory Onondaga,
Truly have they cause to weep.

On the battlems sits young Cockshutt
Fails to plant his Tory rag.
Good old South Brant wouldn't have it,
She prefers a stainless flag."

Education and Religion.

Rev. Dr. Nellis on the College Confederation Scheme.

At the George street Methodist Church last night Rev. Dr. Nellis, of Victoria University, preached a lengthy sermon from Hosea, [illegible] chapter and 6th verse. The reverend Doctor's text on the occasion was that often-quoted passage, "[illegible] together. Such was the teaching of the Bible, and the fact was proven beyond doubt by the history of mankind. Some scientists scoff at the idea of a religious training, while some good, pious people go to the other extreme and say there is all one far too much secular learning. But by the exclusion of either from the other, both education and religion were narrowed in their conceptions and possibilities. A Christian people without schools was an impossibility. There is no method by which Christianity can be perpetuated among a nation unless free access is given to the Bible. It was not meant that every Christian must be educated, or every minister of the Gospel an eminent scholar, but that in the church somewhere there must be that scholarship and learning in order to keep it alive. When attacks are made on our faith, shall we have no man capable of replying, or shall we let the answer go by default? No; our defenders are must be on a par with the Huxleys, and Tyndalls, and Ingersolls, who endeavor to explain away Christianity. The experiment had been made, and the result was that instead of Christianizing humanity, Christianity has been paganized. Wherever the Holy Scriptures was held from her people, the nation suffered most. Direct examples of this could be seen in Italy, Spain, Mexico and South America, all departed from their former power and glory, and now but mere pretexts of nations. Luther's Reformation could not have been brought about had not his first act been to place the Bible in the hands of the people. So closely were learning and religion connected, that scholars could not say whether the revival of religion had more to do with the revival of learning, or vice versa. It is a poor system of education that does not find room in its schools for the Bible. The preacher said he knew he was treading on political grounds in making that statement, but he did not speak from political motives. Possibly the fixing of what form of the Bible or what portions of it shall be read was a secondary consideration, but the principle that he wished to enforce was that it should be there in some form or other, either in portions or in its entirety. Referring to the proposed college confederation, he said: "In this movement we don't propose to go back on any of our principles. We are not going to surrender Christian education; we are not going to shut out the Bible. We shall continue our religious exercises the same as usual. We hope to gain greater intellectual advantages. There shall be some loss, some risk. There are some special advantages in the place we are on the score of health, economy and general discipline, and we shall incur some disadvantages possibly in this direction; we hope to have counter-balancing good effects in the form of a wider range of study, and wider range of influence, and good effects which will come from the association of so large a body as the Methodist church in endeavoring to build up at least one great educational institution in Ontario. By the combination of the resources of the state in retaining our own institution we hope to get a kind of many-sided moral and intellectual advantage, better than we can get in our present position of isolation." In conclusion Rev. Dr. Nellis called attention to the meeting to be held Monday afternoon in the church in the interests of federation, hoping there would be a large attendance.

LUMINOUS

ALARM CLOCKS.

The Handiest thing in the World
Can be seen as well in the Dark as the Light.

EVERYBODY should have One.

R. W. MUNCASTER.

De Profundis.

To wake at midnight when the world is still
And moonless darkness broods on all around,
When the loud ticking clock and cricket shrill
Makes the weird silence only more profound.
To wake and hear the lonesome autumn rain
Beat drearily against the window-pane,
While in the kennel whines the restless hound
And lonesome, ghostly winds go wailing round and round.

To lie with aching eyes that cannot sleep
Because of visions that do not fill them quite,
Wraiths of the past in panoramic sweep
Of wan-eyed phantoms trailing through the night.
To hear the death-watch sound its measured beat
And count the graves we've passed with trembling feet,
To search all maps for one guiding ray
And wander up and down and search in vain alway.

This is to drink of grief's ecstatic wine
In melancholy's cypress-shaded vale,
Where autumn leaves are always drifting down,
And autumn winds eternally bewail.
This is to pass the threshold of that door
Above which one hath writ "hope never-more."
To walk a demon round in ceaseless pain,
And cry to senseless walls, and beat on bars in vain.

Poor captive, in thine own infernal lost,
Think'st thou thy prison hinges no'er will turn?
Think'st thou, the circling mountain summits crossed,
No happy suns on happier lands will burn?
Hush, hush thou, heart. Know, for thine egress fair,
Hope builds through sleep a wide, enchanted stair.
Then close sad eyes, fold tired hands so wan,
And wake a-top in flush and glow of rose-red dawn.

—Mrs. L. A. McGaffey.

Insuring Women's Lives.

Of the many life insurance companies of this city, says the New York Mail and Express, only one is managed by women in the interests of women. The attorney for the company, when asked by a reporter for some particulars regarding its work, said:

"All the officers are ladies of wealth, and they expect no salary. What they claim is that. If a woman desires to insure, she should have the same unrestricted freedom as a man has in such matters. The company was started in 1883, and is now on a paying basis. It has a hundred agents, and its large agency in Philadelphia is managed by a woman. Some of the statistics that we gather will surprise the public, I think. For instance, I have just received the report of the English registrar general for last year. It shows that out of every 1,000 living persons 487 are males and 513 females; that of births, to every 100 females born there are 103 5-100 males; and that at every age of life the death-rate is lower among females than among males. From his figures he shows that the mean expectation of life of males is 41.82, and of females 44.62. He also finds a diminished death-rate in both sexes, and the improvement in living is shown to be greater in females than in males. This proves a statement made in 1861 by one of the English government actuaries, that on general principles, if there should be a general improvement in living, it would first be manifested in females. In this country we find from statistics that the same things prevail. This making a special subject of woman insurance has had the effect of inducing women to insure who never before thought of the subject."

"Have there been any attempts made by them to defraud?"

"Yes, there have, but where we find isolated instances of women insuring by fraud there are numerous cases of men doing the same thing. One thing observed in such a business is that although women are fighting for equal rights and all the privileges that men have, yet they don't want to assume the same responsibility, and when trouble comes they want to shield themselves behind their sex. The experience of our company has developed the fact that women ought to be held to the same accountability as men, for they have shown themselves equally as shrewd in putting up, pressing, and even creating insurance claims as any man I have come across in my experience. We have cases where women have attempted to insure a husband in failing health, but we have had no cases that I am aware of where deception has been practiced as to age. A well-planned but unsuccessful attempt to get money from us wrongfully was made not long ago by a woman who held an accident policy in the company. Her policy was for $25 a week indemnity, and $5,000 in case of death. We limit the period of liability to twenty-six weeks, and we take them on very low rates, for one of the conditions is that if a person is able to do any portion of her regular work our liability ceases. This woman fell, sustaining no injury, but receiving quite a shock to her nervous system. Within two weeks after, as we found out, she took a two-hundred-mile trip, returning after ten days, and going at her regular business again. After a month or two she presented a claim, together with a doctor's certificate, and asked for $250 on account, as a partial payment of the liability. For the sake of being liberal we gave her this, thinking that would end the matter of course. But at the end of six months what does this enterprising woman do but present us a bill for indemnity for the entire of that time! We had personal knowledge that she had not been disabled during that time, and it was perfectly evident to everybody that she had not. We refused to give her any more, and she knew so that she had no claim in law that she gave it up. A curious fact observed about woman insurance is that the moment the applicant learns that there is any doubt about her being accepted she is ten times more eager than ever to be insured.

He Laughs Best Who Laughs Last.

Aimee, the vivacious, tells of an experience she had in Lockworth, Texas, with a real cowboy. This fellow opened the entertainment by laughing very coarsely whenever the actress spoke. She managed to get through the scene, and appealed to the manager of the theater for protection. The little man said that as the cowboy seemed to be surrounding by admiring friends he thought it would not be wise to attempt his removal. Besides, the Texas theatrical code forbade interference with the audience after the admission money had been paid. Aimee is not easily abashed, and she decided on her course. When she went on again she got as near the rowdy as the limits of the stage would permit. He began his laughing, and his friends joined in. So did the actress. She stood still, and, pointing an expressive finger at him, laughed as though immensely amused. The cowboy's face changed and his laugh stopped. Aimee's didn't. She held her sides and laughed and laughed at the man. He grew red in the face and looked uncomfortable. Still the actress laughed, and by this time the audience was roaring with her, all eyes turned on the unfortunate Texan. He couldn't stand it. Abashed and thoroughly cowed the cowboy rushed for the door, followed by a great shout, and was not seen again that evening. The play then went on smoothly.—New York Sun.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream."

And yet it is, when all the marrow is taken out of it by some dread disease like consumption, that neglected, means certain death; catarrh and bronchitis, both distressing, and often leading to consumption, or like liver complaints or ophthalia, which too often make those afflicted feel this life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with "mournful numbers," brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity. Druggists sell it. 6dw9

Doubly Benefited.

There is no one remedy known that has more curative power over dyspepsia and liver complaint than Burdock Blood Bitters. "I had liver complaint and my husband was so bad with dyspepsia that he could not labor. One dozen bottles of B. B. B. has enabled us both to attend to our usual work," reports Mrs. John A. Campbell, of Brighton, N. B. 2w9d which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequalled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CONSUMPTION,

LOCAL NEWS.

A Terrace Destroyed.

About three o'clock this morning Mrs. Shields, occupying one-half of the terrace on Simcoe street next the railway track, owned by Mr. T. Beavis, who occupied the other compartment, awoke and saw from her window flames breaking out of the corner of the building. The lady jumped up and ran out over the icy ground to the pump in her bare feet and night clothes, through the freezing air, and pumped a pail of water, with which she attempted to quench the blaze. She, of course, failed, but by this time several neighbors had arrived, and the alarm was wrung. A high wind was blowing at the time, though, and all efforts of the Fire Brigade were fruitless, the fire having too much headway to be stopped. Nearly all of Mrs. Shields' household effects were saved, but a quantity of clothing was burned. Mr. Beavis saved some of his furniture also in a damaged condition. There was an insurance of $1,500 on the building in the Glasgow & London, but this will not cover his loss. The firemen worked long and hard at the fire, and at 10 o'clock this morning ceased their labors after having taken every precaution to prevent another outburst.

A Lumber Pile in the Way.

Friday evening Dr. A. R. Stephenson was driving down George street with a couple of ladies, and in the dark ran against a lumber pile which extended into the middle of the road. The occupants of the cutter were thrown out, the doctor landing on his head but fortunately receiving no serious injury, while Miss Moore, of Toronto, one of the ladies, received a severe sprain of the ankle, from the effects of which she will be confined to the house for some time. An example should be made of the parties who so carelessly infringe upon the public rights by piling lumber so near the roadway. The doctor says he is going to make the owner of the lumber pay the damages of his accident.

A Smashing Runaway.

Saturday afternoon Mr. Richard Moncrief, of Otonabee, was driving a spirited colt up George street. At the corner of Simcoe it became unmanageable, but its sturdy driver skilfully manipulated the reins and would have succeeded in bringing it down, but for colliding in front of the Golden Lion with another cutter, which was unable to get out of the way. Mr. Moncrief's vehicle was turned over in an instant, the shafts twisted off, the cutter smashed, and himself landed on his head, fortunately without injury, while his horse continued up the street. It was caught after a long run. The other cutter was owned by Mr. Lang, also of Otonabee, and it was badly broken up.

Worked Like Beavers.

In spite of the howling tempest that prevailed last night, the members of the Fire Brigade worked like beavers at the fire in the Beavis block. Every member was a moving icicle, the water and spray driven by the driving wind coating their clothing with icy incrustations. Yet they did not in the least relax their efforts. People little realise the amount of work the firemen put in. They go into what they undertake with all their hearts, and, therefore, we may expect that the Fire Brigade Carnival on Friday night will be a magnificent success. There is promise that it will be the most charming carnival ever held in town.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

A Step in the Right Direction.

By reference to the Golden Lion's advertisement in another column, it will be seen that this pushing and active firm have adopted the liberal practice of allowing a discount of five per cent. for cash on all purchases of $3.00 and upwards. This ought to induce all who can to pay cash, and help to do away with the much abused credit system, so prevalent here.

Bargains extraordinary. Previous to the arrival of a large consignment of Lace Curtains now en route from Manchester, we will sell the balance of our magnificent stock on hand at sacrifice prices. An early call solicited as they must be cleared. R. FAIR.

Turnbull is now agent for the Domestic Paper Patterns of New York. The best and simplest ever shown.

Chemong Matters.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—In justice to Mr. Roberts and for my information of the Public I deem it right to intimate that he had nothing whatever to do with my letter on Chemong affairs of the 20th January and had no knowledge of it previous to publication.

Yours truly,
NEIGHBOUR.

A Masonic Temple.

The Masons of Peterborough are negotiating for the erection of a temple this summer, which will be located in either of the two new blocks about to be built, one by Mr. Geo. Dunsford on Water street, opposite the market square, to consist of stores, for which Mr. D. Gamble has the contract; and the other by Mr. Wm. Snowdon on Simcoe street, opposite his hotel, comprising two single and two double stores, Mr. T. Rutherford, contractor. Work will be begun on these blocks as soon as possible.

Junior Curlers.

Following is the score of the curling contest between Peterborough and Lakefield juniors Saturday afternoon:—

College Confederation.

An educational meeting was begun in the lecture-room of the George street church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which Rev. Dr. Nelles and Dr. Potts, of Toronto, were to speak on the College Confederation scheme. It was fairly well attended by the public. A pithy resume of Dr. Nelle's sermon in the George street church last night appears on the second page.

Lectures this Week.

None should miss hearing Mr. Chas. James, of London, England, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. On Wednesday he will speak to men only, on "Personal Purity," in the Y. M. C. A. Rooms. The lecture on Thursday evening will be open to all, the subject being "Christian Evans, the Apostle of Wales." It will be given in St. Paul's Church School Room. Silver collection at the door.

A Former Pastor.

Sunday next Rev. Mr. Manning, a former Peterborough minister, will preach in the Charlotte street Methodist church, morning and evening. The following Tuesday evening the annual Sunday School anniversary will be held, at which Mr. Manning will speak.

Fell Off the Roof.

Forester's Sermon.

Nearly 100 members of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C. O. F., paraded to St. Paul's church Sunday, where special services were held. A collection was taken up in aid of the Protestant Home. A condensed report of Rev. Mr. Torrance's sermon appears elsewhere.

The first shipment of boys clothing for spring has arrived at Turnbull's. The styles are new and quality the best in the market.

Remember, the cheapest and freshest groceries can be obtained from W. J. Morrow, Town Clock Grocery, Opera House block. Heads of families will please bear this in mind.

Small Attendance.

Small congregations were the rule among all the churches yesterday. Few people cared to face the chilling blasts of wind or clouds of blinding snow that careened through the streets.

Broke His Leg.

Saturday afternoon Patrick Kane, a carter, was unloading some goods in front of Garvey's grocery store next the Grand Central hotel, a heavy box slipped from his grasp and fell on his leg, breaking it. Dr. King repaired the fracture.

The Band Question.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Will you allow me space in your columns to reply to "Neutral." Now sir, I must emphatically deny the charges made by him against the band. I challenge him to produce one instance where we have refused or even hesitated to play for any party, political, religious or any other organization in town when asked to do so. We have often turned out and lost our time when wanted for only an hour or two. This has been our line of action in the past and we shall continue the same course. Perhaps it would be as well to let the public know the beginning of all this fuss with the band. Well sir it just comes from not wearing uniform for the Blake demonstration. I had given orders to the band to turn out in military uniform and we certainly should have done so had not Dr. Bell, the Adjutant of the 57th battalion, met me and given me orders not to turn out for any party demonstration any more with military uniform. Had this order been published it would have saved a great deal of talk just now, especially from "Neutral," who has such great fondness for making mountains of mole hills.

If "Neutral" expects to hear any more from me he must come out over his own signature.

F. W. MILLER,
Bandmaster.

A Plea for the Widow and Orphan.

Rev. Mr. Torrance Preaches to St. Paul's Church C. O. F.

The members of Court Peterborough, No. 29, Canadian Order of Foresters, marched in a body to St. Paul's church Sunday morning, upon which occasion Rev. Mr. Torrance delivered a special sermon, choosing for his text the 11th, 12th and 13th verses of the 29th chapter of Job:

When the ear heard me, then it blessed me: and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

The duty of making provision for the temporal well-being of the members of one's own family, said Mr. Torrance, was one which was clearly laid down in the Word of God. There are some passages of Scripture no doubt which at first sight seem to imply that the acquisition of property is consistent with the Christian profession, but these passages are capable of an interpretation which brings them into exact accord with the teachings of the Word of God. Thus, it will be remembered that in the sermon on the mount Jesus Christ gives the injunction: "Lay not by for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt and thieves do break in and steal"; and, to the young ruler, who was inquiring as to the condition upon which he might have eternal life, Jesus said, "If thou wouldst be perfect, sell what thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven." The first of these injunctions, however, has reference not to the acquisition of property but to the undue love of it; while the second was called forth by the fact that his property was the idol of this young ruler's heart. It is true that in numberless instances the acquisition of property becomes the absorbing passion of the soul, but this is by no means necessarily the case. It is quite possible to subordinate one's earthly possessions to the higher interests of the soul.

As regards the duty of making provision for the temporal well-being of one's own family, there are numerous passages of scripture relating to the subject, a few of which the minister quoted. In speaking of "making provision for the temporal well-being of one's own family," it is not meant that one should aim at accumulating a large fortune in order to leave it to one's children. The inheritance which the man of fortune bequeaths to his children too often proves a curse rather than a blessing. How often have we seen the wealth which the father spent a life time in accumulating squandered by the children in a few years! The father who has trained his children in habits of self-denial, industry and thrift bequeathes to them a more valuable inheritance than one of silver and gold. But bequeathing all the fortune to one's children, however, is a very different thing from making such provision for them as will keep them from want. It is of that we speak when we say it is the duty of every man to make provision for the temporal well-being of his own family.

The law of labor and reward was laid down by the Creator when he placed man in the garden of Eden. He said unto him, "Be fruitful and multiply; and replenish the earth and subdue it." Industry will secure its proper reward, not only in increasing the possessions of the laborer, but in ennobling his life. Not less important than industry is its kindred virtue frugality, an example of which was found in the case of our Lord and his disciples. All men should save something "against a rainy day."

The society before which he had been requested to speak that day, said Mr. Torrence, was one which aims at enabling a man to make some provision for the temporal well-being of his own family in case of his death. As was stated in the prospectus which the Society issued, it aims at making the orphans' and the widows' hearts glad; aims at that which Job aimed at in the days of his prosperity, as given in the words of the text. Mr. Torrance asked the attention of his congregation for a very short time to the clause of the orphan and widow.

The first claim which he put forth in their behalf was that which arose out of their helplessness. The words "orphan" and "widow" are almost synonyms for helplessness. The second claim was that arising from the terrible consequences of leaving them in a state of penury—the dwarfing of the intellectual powers from lack of education and culture, and their liability to fall into vice, intemperance and stealing, especially. The third claim he urged in favor of the orphan was the possibility of their advancement and usefulness. Who can doubt that many an orphan child has been endowed by nature with powers which, had they been properly cultivated, would have raised him to a position of eminence. As an example of this, the preacher instanced Moses, who, though the child of an obscure Israelite, when taken in charge by Pharaoh's daughter, became an eminent man in Egypt. The last claim of the widow and orphan was the especial interest taken in them by our Lord. It is evident that they are the class which are the especial objects of divine compassion; that they are in an especial manner under the provident care of God.

Upon each of these claims Rev. Mr. Torrence enlarged, remarking that surely it must be pleasing unto God to have favors bestowed upon the widow and orphan. He concluded by saying that there was something which comes even before providing for the temporal well-being of the widow and orphan, and that was a belief in the Lord Jesus Christ, which would ensure the laying up for them a treasure in heaven. He urged the brethren to become members of the Christian brotherhood, that where Christ was, they might be there also.

The Queen's Jubilee.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—We believe it is the intention of our best citizens to take active steps immediately towards celebrating the Queen's Jubilee in a becoming manner by taking out a policy in the "British Empire Mutual Life Insurance Company," which is represented in this district by c. c. henderson, whose office is in the very heart of the business centre of this thriving burgh, easy of access and inviting, where every loyal citizen should call at the earliest moment and make application for a life policy, and thus add their quota to the pleasure it will afford Her Most Gracious Majesty to know that her loyal subjects in Peterborough and surrounding country have made such a wise provision for themselves, their families, and those in any way dependent upon them, during Her Majesty's Jubilee year. It will be more especially gratifying to our Noble Queen, to place your trust in an office of such absolute security as THE BRITISH EMPIRE, and thereby take no chances in the many claims continually offered to loyal subjects of this GREAT DOMINION, and any man that has ever doubt with heart-rum and tried to do half decent at all, will adopt it only, that there is no fairer, squarer, or more honorable man to deal with in the community, and if you know of any reason that is an honest one with any real foundation, why you should not patronize him, do not go near him. If you have no reason, why call and see him and get the full particulars in reference to the BRITISH EMPIRE, (upon which the sun never sets).

(Sgd.) SOMEBODY.

Book-keeping.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—My attention has been called to a paragraph appearing in Saturday evening's issue of your paper, commending the invention, by a Mr. Young, of a combination that nicely did duty for a Pay Book, Cash Book and Journal. The paragraph also stated that by this method a merchant could tell at any time the value of the goods on his shelves.

So as to prevent any misunderstanding, kindly allow me to say that a combined Day-Book, Journal and Cash Book is well known to all competent and experienced book-keepers. It has been taught in Business College's for upwards of 15 or 20 years.—I have used and recommended it during the past 10 or 12 years. Any of our graduates can give merchant's the form for such a book.

To tell the value of goods on the shelves there is but one satisfactory way, and that is by "taking stock."

There is not a merchant in Peterborough doing any kind of a large trade who would attempt such a thing. Perishable and fashionable goods must always bring large profits, staple goods must always bring small profits, and unsaleable goods or damaged goods must always bring losses. Now, who can tell with anything like certainty his exact percentage of profit? A man's percentage of profit is so variable that the result of one year cannot be taken as a guide for another year. I have known firms to guess at their average percentage of net profit, but "stock taking" invariably "spoiled it."

Yours respectfully,
BANNELL SAWYER.

A WOMAN HANGED.

AN UNUSUAL EXECUTION IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

HERKIMER, N.Y., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Druse was hanged at noon to-day for the murder of her husband William Druse. Upon reaching the gallows Mrs. Druse stepped to the middle of the board platform and knelt while Dr. Powell offered up a prayer lasting about three minutes. She sobbed acutely at intervals, and at the conclusion of the prayer her clergyman, Dr. Powell, grasping her hand, bade her good-bye and stepped outside of the enclosure so as not to witness the hanging. Previous to this Mrs. Druse gave to Powell a bouquet of flowers which her daughter Mary had sent to her. The executioner then stepped forward and pinioned her arms and legs together; the noose was adjusted and the black cap drawn down over her face. At this point she again showed signs of collapse and began to scream and screech at the top of her voice in a hysterical manner, but the drop choked off the cries in her throat and the body of the murderess was sent flying upward about four feet, shaking forward to the right and settling back to within one foot and a half of the platform. Fifteen minutes after the drop fell life was pronounced extinct. When the black cap was drawn back it was found that death had resulted from asphyxia. The body was placed in a coffin and turned over to Dr. Powell, who promised to give Mrs. Druse Christian burial. Yesterday the condemned woman asked Dr. Powell, the jail physician, to write a confession she wished to make, on condition that it should not be made public until after her death. The confession was taken down by the doctor as follows:

"What I am about to say to you has never been made public before, and I assure you on the honor of a woman in reading on the brink of the grave that I am speaking the truth. The world has turned against me, but I know I have one friend left and that is you. Now you must promise me not to say a word of this until I am gone. Then you can publish it and let this cruel world know the truth of the matter. I don't want to take any more of your time than can help, so will begin at once. I must take you back before the murder and tell of a conversation I had with Charles Gates in reference to the killing of Druse. It was about Dec. 1, on a Wednesday night. Druse was away, as he usually was a big part of the time. Gates came and asked if I was alone. George and Frank were out sliding down hill. Mary was upstairs, so I then asked me if I didn't want to get rid of Druse. I told him I was nearly dead now and didn't care what happened. He asked me if I had the pistol he gave me yet. It was in the pantry, and I told him so. I went and got it and showed it to him. He saw it was not loaded in all the barrels (meaning the cylinder chambers) and he put in some more cartridges and gave it back to me. He wanted to know if I could fire it, and I went to the door and snapped it. It didn't go off, for the cartridge wasn't good. He put in another and said: 'Well, you know how to do it, and that's enough.' He then said: 'Now, if anything happens you can depend on me to help you. With that he went away. He came again on Dec. 17, the night before the murder, and told me to hurry up—to take the first chance I got. He said I shouldn't burn the head because it would leave traces; he would take care of that. He said he would get the buckwheat at the same time and save any sense of suspicion. The next morning I saw him coming up the road just as Druse sat down to breakfast. This was just after he had raised the ax to strike me, and I ran in the buttery. I got the pistol and came out. He was sitting down to the table. He swore awful about the tea and sugar, and I raised the pistol and shot. I hit him in the neck and only stunned him. Gates then shot through the window and he fell to the floor. Gates then shot again. Tooly shot once. Gates shot three or four times. I took the ax and cut his head off and chopped him up. The head was wrapped in paper and carried out to the woodshed. It was put in a bag of buckwheat. The body was all burned up, and none was given to the hogs. It was all burned and none bolted. Gates came that night and I told him what had happened. He grasped my hand and said 'I thank you.' He said he would come for the head that the next morning, which he did. He took Druse's head with him. It was some mile from Richfield Springs, where I could find it if I choose. It will never be found though, for he swore to me with Gates and one more, Charles Peterchard is talking about it some, but he is dead now and can't tell. Gates is the only one who knows anything about it. There was another man with Gates when he got the head, and that was Elwood. His name was Bill. It took eight hours to burn the body, and it made a awful smell. I nearly fainted several times. George and Frank Gates were there some of the time. They didn't see much, though. I sent them down to the wood lot and had them carry chunks. I killed Druse because I couldn't stand it any longer. He was a brute, and I hadn't slept with him in twelve years. That is all I can tell. Gates put up Frank to tell what he did to above it all on me, but he won't get his reward some time. Now, you mustn't tell anyone this until I am gone, and not let it get into any paper until after 12 o'clock to-morrow. I don't care how many know it then. I want to get to see my child. I will close. You can say as you like of me, but I am more innocent of the crime than those who put me up to it. I really believe that all of who so cruelly treated me will be punished on that pitiful night from Heaven. Oh! I could cover with shame, but I die in peace with every one."

THREATENING WAR.

RUSSIA BRISTLING AT GERMANY AND AUSTRIA.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The Star's London special says the outlook in the East becomes hourly more threatening. The Times publishes a statement from Vienna that the relations of Russia with Germany and Austria are severely strained, and, what is more important, there are no further attempts in official circles to conceal the fact. Despatches from other sources confirm this.

The Levant Herald, whose special correspondents have recently been making close enquiries into the Russian armaments, declares that the Russian forces now concentrated in Central Asia equipped for active service in the field number fully 300,000 men of all arms. Of these three divisions of 5000 men each are ready to march on Afghanistan at a few days notice. Reports have also been received of the Russian troops massed in Russian Poland, respecting which it has been so difficult to obtain information. These reports prove that Russia has made enormous preparations for an offensive war. The details confirm the outlines of Russian plans published by Russian papers based on the assumption of war between France and Germany.

At the war office and admiralty the opinion grows hourly that Russia means simultaneous operations against Bulgaria and Afghanistan, and that Austria and England will meet her on those fields.

IN THE TOILS AT MONTREAL.

Two Men Held for Uttering Counterfeit Paper Money.

MONTREAL, Feb. 28.—Thos. Power, alias Thos. Welsh, alias the Kid, and Chas. Bulse, saloonkeeper, Craig-street, were before Police Magistrate Dugas to-day and remanded for eight days. For some months past quite a business in passing counterfeit paper of the Bank Commerce and Dominion $1 and $2 notes has been going on. Some days ago Chief Sherwood went to Toronto to look after the operations of the gang, who were supposed to be working in that quarter, and on February 10 Detective Skillington arrived in Montreal and began, with Detectives Grose and O'Leary, to see what could be done with Thomas Power, a fugitive from justice in Detroit, and who was known to be in this city. After following him for some time they succeeded in establishing proof to the effect that on Feb. 16 Power had passed a $10 counterfeit bill, which he said he had received from Charles Bulse. The latter denies the charge, and states that during carnival week his place was full of all kinds of people—gamblers and crooks, for all he knew—from the United States.

Before he got clear of the plow it backed upon him, striking him on the head and killing him instantly. The remains were brought to the city this afternoon. The deceased leaves a wife and two young children.

Storage of Oil at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Feb. 28.—There is an intention to erect coal oil sheds on the Louise embankment, in which all oil arriving in this city will be stored. Mr. Perry, inspector of the Fire Underwriters' Association, states that this project is sure to be strongly resisted on the part of the marine underwriters, since, in the event of a fire, the burning oil would float on the surface of the water in the docks and endanger all the shipping therein.

EARTHQUAKE REGION

CANNES DEPLORES THE VISIT OF THE EARTHQUAKE.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—A letter from Cannes says a feeling of profound gratitude is general over the providential escape of the town from a terrible disaster, but that deep gloom prevails, especially among business people, who foresee that the Riviera will never again be a health resort.

A chasm has opened in the ground near Nice, from which a stream of hot, muddy water bubbles up. Portions of the coast have sunk, and other portions have risen. A stiff wind is blowing at Mentone, making it dangerous to walk about. Hundreds of visitors from a distance have arrived there, being impelled by curiosity. The building inspectors have condemned two-thirds of picturesque old Mentone.

The Sewers Damaged.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—M. Lockroy, Minister of Public Works, says the sewers in the shaken districts are so damaged that the soil will become infiltrated with sewage and be a source of contagion as soon as hot weather comes. The Government will send engineers and specialists to do everything possible to avert such a disaster.

Despairing Men and Women.

ROME, Feb. 28.—The troops have been compelled to keep back at the point of the bayonet crowds of despairing men and women who were impeding the work of excavation in their efforts to find missing relatives. Bodies of victims of the disaster are terribly disfigured. The rescuers in some cases have been obliged to flee from tottering walls, although they could hear the groans of the victims buried beneath the debris. All the members of the family of the Mayor of Bajar to were killed. Of another family of twenty-two persons, named Malstri, only a single member, half demented, is left. Half clothed people are wandering on the sea shore exposed to inclement weather.

A Scientist's Gloomy Predictions.

THE STAR'S BRIBERY CHARGES.

Mr. Graham will Forfeit $3000 if They Are Not True.

MONTREAL, Feb. 28.—At the special meeting of the Council called for this afternoon to consider the boodle combine, the Mayor stated what action he had taken in the matter, and read a letter from the City Attorney, who stated that the meeting was not legal, as according to city charter sufficient notice had not been given. The Mayor said that as they were met they might have an informal expression of opinion. The discussion was then opened. Ald. Rainville declaring that the charges had only been published after he had refused money offered him if he would withdraw from the Mayoralty contest. He moved that a committee composed of Ald. Grenier, Laurent, Mooney and Farrel be appointed to investigate.

Ald. Grenier said if what Ald. Rainville had said was true it was simply infamous.

Mr. Graham presented a document to the Mayor declaring that moneys and other valuable properties had been given to the aldermen of Montreal.

Mr. Thibaudeau—"Give the names."

The Mayor—"Order, order. Mr. Graham will have fair play here as well as anywhere else."

Mr. Graham also handed in a document offering to deposit $3000 to be forfeited if his charges were not sustained. The meeting dispersed without any definite action being taken in the matter, a lively discussion, however, taking place.

THE INFECTION OF EXAMPLE.

"As the old cock crows the young cocks learn"—thus the proverb runs and we see its verification every day in Canada. In both Montreal and Quebec cities, the municipal representatives of the people, are formally charged, with trafficking in their influence—selling their power as aldermen for money. The Montreal Star makes specific charges, involving directly several well known representatives. The offences charged are exactly of the same nature as those for which several New York aldermen are serving sentences in Sing Sing prison. And in Toronto we know that there is more than suspicion that aldermen are not above the charge of profiting personally by their representative positions. This is a most unfortunate and disgraceful state of things, yet sad to say, it does not evoke that expression of detestation and horror which would have been called forth twenty years ago. The reason is plain; the public sense of shame has been deadened by the too frequent spectacle of flagrant immorality in high places. The process may be fairly said to have began fifteen years ago, when the Prime Minister of Canada used his official and representative position to sell a railway charter to secure funds to debauch the electorate of the country. This is exactly what the Montreal aldermen are charged with doing, only in the first instance the proceeds did not go into the premier's personal pocket; they merely replenished his political purse—so to speak. Five years later the people were unfortunately persuaded to condone Sir John's offence and to rehabilitate him with the character they so unceremoniously deprived him of in 1873. As a result of the popular pardon of Sir John's charter-selling offence, every unjailed political scamp took heart of grace, and since that time the vie intime of political circles has been marked by a veritable Saturnalia of fraud and boodleism, which was partially laid bare by the disgraceful exposures of last session of the Dominion Parliament. The crime was brought home to many of the members of parliament on the government side of the house. All of these, with one exception, sought re-election as Sir John's candidates, and the rankest boodler of them all received the Chieftain's personal and cordial endorsation. That some of them were re-elected is an everlasting disgrace to the electorate concerned—so lost to shame, so wrapped up in political prejudice—with the moral sense so deadened that they debased themselves by endorsing a course of action equivalent to crimes for which as good or better men are now languishing in the penetentiary. To what can such a state of things be ascribed unless to the infection of example of wickedness in high places? For years the people have been inured to political crookedness till by degrees the sense of political shame, and the sense of political morality have been destroyed, and evidences of the utmost personal and political depravity, are received with public apathy, if not, indeed, as in the case of political partizans, with positive approval. As a consequence men with pockets bulging with the "boodle" representing the sale of their political influence, are sitting cheek by jowl with honest men at Ottawa How long shall the people of Canada tolerate and assist in the perpetuation of this fright-condition of things?

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Ontario Legislature re-assembles this afternoon for the despatch of business. The session will not probably be a long one.

MR. RYKERT, who got $90,000 for nothing, could well afford to spend enough of it, says the Witness, on Lincoln to secure that patriotic constituency. So Mr. Rykert has been re-elected, and so on. Righteousness in Canada is still a voice crying in the wilderness.

MR. BARRON, M. P. for North Victoria, travelled eighty-six miles on election day, remaining long enough at points of polling to satisfy himself the work was going on right, and ending at Peterloo Falls within half an hour after the poll there was closed. Mr. Barron as an enthusiastic bucolic admirer remarks is a "worker from the word "go." An enthusiastic cricketer, during the progress of a match, he puts in hard work similar to that which won his election in North Victoria.

ACCORDING to the Statist, the average price of wheat in Great Britain in 1886 was lower than in any year since 1761, being 31s. 1d. per quarter. The highest annual average reached during the period named was 126s. 6d. per quarter in 1812, and 1835, 1851, 1864, 1885 and 1886 are the only years in the present century in which the annual average has gone below 40s. per quarter.

Victoria College Confederation.

An Educational Meeting in the Interests of Victoria College. A Scheme for Better Religious Instruction.

A small audience assembled in the George street Methodist church Monday afternoon, no doubt owing to the intense cold. The proceedings were began by singing and prayer by Rev. E. F. Torrance. After Mr. James McFarlane had been appointed Secretary, Rev. Mr. Tovell made a few introductory remarks stating the object of the meeting. The sum of $450,000 was wanted in order to place the confederated college in Toronto on a first-class basis. Of this sum $200,000 had been given as a starter by Mr. Geo. A. Cox, of Peterborough, and he was sure that another $20,000 could be raised by the county.

Rev. Dr. NELLES was the next speaker. He said there was no better friend to the University than Mr. Cox, and no more liberal friend, or none more thoughtful of the financial needs of the institution. He was always on hand for every good work. There were other good men in town also who were good supporters of the college. Referring to the subject of discussion for the meeting, Dr. Nelles said it was decided at the general conference to advocate the confederation of the various theological colleges into one common university. This university was to be supported and controlled by the State. It involved of course the removal of Victoria University to Toronto, the central location. So soon as the money required was secured the erection of the buildings would be began. Dr. Potts had been elected Secretary of Education and had charge of this movement in behalf of the Methodists. He did not want anyone to think that Victoria University was going to Toronto because of any failure at Cobourg. The college had done thorough work, but they had reached a point where it was necessary to expend money in repairing the old buildings and erecting new ones; there was, besides, a general feeling that Cobourg was not the best location, and in addition there was this fact that all the colleges and universities in Ontario are in want of funds. It was impossible to sustain the University on an income of $20,000 a year, and the income of Victoria College never exceeded that. In view of all this, it was felt by University men and educational people that a new departure was necessary. It was thought that if the college could keep up the same religious instruction and not be trammelled in any way, while it should gain in having greater intellectual advantages and wider range of religious instruction, it would be wise to evolve some such scheme as the one now before them, and everything was in a fairly satisfactory condition, on the part of Victoria University, to go to Toronto. It was proposed that Toronto should erect the buildings and the people at large pay for its maintenance. The income at present was about $15,000, but $30,000 would be required, and if Toronto spent $200,000 on the building (the estimated cost), the people would do their share in its support. There were some disadvantages in leaving Cobourg, but on the whole it would be better to go to Toronto.

REV. DR. POTTS, of Toronto, secretary of the Methodist Educational Society, said that the Methodist Church had reached a most important hour in connection with educational matters, and if we of to-day guided its interests properly and well, the coming generation would rise up and call us blessed. Regarding the scheme of confederation, several projects had been mooted, and the present scheme, the cheapest and best of them all, would cost $450,000. The grandest thing Methodists could do educationally was to go in harmony with the State University and use their influence in the general advancement. There was a prevailing impression that Toronto should at least pay the cost (from $150,000 to $250,000) of the erection of the buildings. It would be located in Queen's Park, not far from the University and the Parliament Buildings. Dr. Potts advocated the erection of a first-class building, not one which could be put up cheaply and and poorly, but one which should be a standing monument to religious education. It was proposed to raise $200,000 for building, and $400,000 or $450,000 for endowment. There was no question whatever of the ability of the church to raise that amount. Whenever a cause was put fairly before the people, they never failed to respond. Dr. Potts said he thought Victoria College ought to go to Toronto, because numbers of Methodist youths were attending Toronto University, who, if Victoria College were there, would attend it. Some people said, "Oh, what do we want with a university? if a rich man wants to send his son to college, let him pay for it." There never was a greater fallacy. Many of the young men attending the University were financially unable to bear a College education; they were the sons of men of moderate means. This confederation would have a good effect that way. They had secured a site of about five acres in Queen's Park at a nominal rent of $1 per year while confederation lasted, with the right of buying the land according to a price fixed by arbitration if they desired. This will give an independence from any tyranny from other universities or the Government. Dr. Potts said he was prepared to answer any questions those in the audience might wish to ask.

One gentleman asked for an idea of the sacrifice to be made of the property of Victoria University in this confederation.

Dr. Potts said they hoped after a time that they would be able to dispose of that property, possibly to the Ontario Government. Of course against the loss of the Cobourg property must be put the immensely advantageous site secured in Queen's Park, considered the best in Toronto. The doctor said that the town of Cobourg had only given the college a site of 4 acres, about $4,000 probably.

A photograph of the proposed new building was passed among the audience. It showed a highly decorative but substantial building of the Gothic style of architecture, with a frontage of 222 feet, depth of main building 60 feet, depth of wings 92 feet, height of ridge 85 feet, and height of tower 130 feet.

Rev. Mr. Wallace moved, seconded by Dr. Fife, that this meeting having listened with great pleasure to the explanations of the Federation scheme presented to us by Rev. Dr. Nelles and Rev. Dr. Potts, express cordial approval of the enterprise in view of the great advantage it will confer both upon church and state, and that a district committee be formed, whose duty it shall be to aid the educational authorities of the church in procuring subscriptions to the Building and Endowment Fund of Victoria College, Toronto.—Carried.

The appointment of a district committee was then proceeded with, resulting as follows:—Chairman, Rev. I. Tovell; Secretary, Rev. Mr. Wallace; Messrs. James Macfarlane, Geo. A. Cox, Jas. Stevenson and John Hull (Lakefield.)

Rev. Dr. Potts closed by saying he hoped the contract for the confederation building would be let before another winter. The Methodist church could not afford to fail in this movement, and as the college bears the name of the Queen, and this is her jubilee year, the first sod should be turned in 1887 in her honor.

The meeting was brought to a close by Dr. Nelles.

LEGAL ANECDOTES.

Wise, Witty, and Pungent Sayings of Bench and Bar.

The writer remembers hearing of a gentleman who, not wishing to pay the legal and recognized fee for a consultation with his lawyer, devised an expedient whereby he expected to gain the information he required without the usual cost. He accordingly invited the man "learned in the law" to dine at his house on a particular evening, as a friend and old acquaintance. The lawyer gladly accepted the invitation, and attended at the house of his friend and client prompt to the minute. The conversation for some time was very general and agreeable, and by and by the shrewd client, by hinting and suggesting, at last drew the lawyer out into a learned and explicit dissertation upon the subject the host wished to be informed upon. The client pleased, satisfied, and smiling, chuckled in his sleeve, thinking how nicely he had wormed out the advice desired and pumped his lawyer free of cost.

The feast over, the lawyer departed, equally pleased, and, both being satisfied, all went as merry as a marriage bell. But a few days afterward the client recieved a letter from his lawyer informing him that the charge for professional consultation and advice was 13 shillings and 4 pence, and would he "kindly attend to the payment of same at his earliest convenience, and oblige." The client was wild—caught in his own trap; but, being determined to outwit the lawyer and gain his own ends, he forwarded to the latter a bill for "dinner, wines, and accessories supplied" on the 16th inst., amounting to 13 shillings and 4 pence, saying that if he would settle inclosed bill he should only be too pleased and happy to settle the lawyer's little bill. The lawyer retorted by threatening to commence an action against mine host for selling wines without a license unless his, the lawyer's, bill was immediately paid. Do I need to say that the lawyer was victorious?

When I was a boy, I heard of a lawyer who was called up in the middle of a cold winter's night to draw out the will of an old farmer who lived some three miles away, and who was dying. The messenger had brought a cart to convey the lawyer to the farm, and the latter in due time arrived at his destination. When he entered the house he was immediately ushered into the sick-room, and he then requested to be supplied with pen, ink, and paper. There were none in the house! The lawyer had not brought any himself, and what was he to do? Any lead-pencil? he inquired. No; they had none. The farmer was sinking fast, though quite conscious. At last the legal gentleman saw chalked up on the back of the bed-room door column upon column of figures in chalk. They were milk "scores" or "shots." He immediately asked for a piece of chalk, and then, kneeling on the floor, he wrote out concisely upon the smooth hearthstone the last will and testament of the dying man. The farmer subsequently died. The hearthstone will was sent to the principal registry in London with special affidavit, and was duly proved, the will being deposited in the archives of the registry. I may mention that the law does not state upon what substance or with what instrument a will must be written.

There was once a plain, outspoken judge who, addressing the jury, said: "Gentlemen of the jury, in this case the counsel on both sides are unintelligible, the witnesses on both sides are incredible, and the plaintiff and defendant are both such bad characters that to me it is indifferent which way you give your verdict."

It was once reported to the notorious Judge Jeffries that the Prince of Orange was on the point of entering into the country, and that he was already preparing a manifesto as to his inducements and objects in so doing. "Pray, my lord chief justice," said a gentleman present, "what do you think will be the heads of this manifesto?" "Mine will be one," he grimly replied.

An undoubted alibi was some time ago successfully proved in an American court as follows:

"And you say you are innocent of the charge of stealing this rooster from Mr. Jones?" queried the judge.

"Yes, sir; I am innocent—as innocent as a child."

"You are confident you did not steal the rooster from Mr. Jones?"

"Yes, sir; and I can prove it."

"How can you prove it?"

"I can prove that I didn't steal Mr. Jones' rooster, judge, because I stole two hens from Mr. Graston the same night, and Jones lives five miles from Graston's."

"The proof is conclusive," said the judge; discharge the prisoner."

It is said that the other day a client received the following bill from his lawyer: "Attending and asking you how you did, 6s. 8d.; attending you on the pier, when you desired me to look through a piece of smoked glass, 6s. 8d.; looking through the same, 6s. 8d.; rubbing my eye, which watered, 13s. 4d.; attending at luncheon, when you praised the sandwiches and asked me to partake thereof, 6s. 8d.; consulting and asking my opinion thereof, when I said they were very good, 6s. 8d." Most probably the client treated this as a joke, or perhaps it drove him to extremities.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said a criminal in a case about a herd of hogs, "there were just thirty-six hogs in that drove; please to remember that, gentlemen—thirty-six hogs; just exactly three times as many as there are in that jury-box, gentlemen." We are informed that the counsel did not win his case. The jury were not so pig-headed.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said an Irish barrister, "it will be for you to say whether this defendant shall be allowed to come into court with unwashed face and hands, with the cloak of hypocrisy in his mouth, and draw three bullocks out of my client's pocket with immunity."

We have heard of several cases of female ingenuity in aiding the escape of prisoners. Here is one. The criminals were handcuffed, and with their escort were awaiting the train which would convey them to the county jail. Suddenly a woman rushed through the crowd of spectators with a shower of tears and cried out: "Kiss me good-by, Ned." The escort good-naturedly allowed the process of osculation to be performed, and the sheriff smiled feelingly. The woman passed a key from her own to the prisoner's mouth, with which he undid the "bracelets" and escaped while the train was in motion.

There is a girl who seems to have peculiar notions of breach-of-promise cases, for she threatens to sue her own father for breach of promise! She explains that the old gentleman first gave his consent to her marriage with her lover and then withdrew it, and that in consequence her beau got tired of waiting and has gone off with another girl.

"Prisoner at the bar," said the judge to a man on his trial for murder, "is there anything you wish to say before sentence is passed upon you?" "Judge," replied the prisoner, "there has been altogether too much said already. I knew all along somebody would get hurt if these people didn't keep their mouths shut. It might as well be me, perhaps, as anybody else. Drive on, judge, and give me as little sentiment as you can get along on. I can stand hanging, but I hate gush."—Chambers' Journal.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream."

And yet it is, when all the marrow is taken out of it by some dread disease like consumption, that, neglected, means certain death; catarrh and bronchitis, both distressing, and often leading to consumption, or like liver complaints or scrofula, which too often make those afflicted feel that life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with "mournful numbers," brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity. Druggists sell it. 6dw9

There is no one remedy known that has more curative power over dyspepsia and liver complaint than Burdock Blood Bitters. ST. JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY

WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

Anywhere and Everywhere.

RHEUMATISM KILLED.

Suffered 40 Years and Cured.

N. Albany St., Ithaca, N. Y., U. S. A.

For over forty years I have been a victim of rheumatism. I was persuaded to try St. Jacobs Oil. I have used two bottles and a man more free from rheumatism, never walked our streets. My limbs are now as light and limber as in my youth.

JOS. EDSELL.

Did Not Walk for 15 Years.

Mrs. George A. Clarke, St. Catharine, Ontario, states, "I had rheumatism and dropsy, and did not walk for 15 years. I tried eminent physicians and celebrated springs. My case was thought incurable. I was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil. Its effects were simply wonderful. I have the use of my limbs, and think it the best remedy in the world.

Suffered 30 Years and Cured.

Bangor, Maine, U. S. A.

Mr. Frank Durgen, who works at Madden's Harness Shop, 127 Exchange Street, said: "My father, who lives at 47 York street, has suffered with rheumatism and erysipelas in his feet every winter but this, for the past thirty years. He has employed the best physicians and tried all the known remedies for such diseases but received no benefit until last winter, at which time his feet and the lower part of his legs were swollen to four times their natural size. He applied St. Jacobs Oil to the afflicted parts, and was cured.

Suffered 30 Years—Cured.

Mr. William Howes, civil engineer, Bad Lion Street, High Holborn, London, England, was afflicted with rheumatism for 30 years. Sometimes his hands swelled to twice their natural size; his joints were so stiff that he could not walk, and his feet so sore that he could not bear any weight on them. Nothing relieved him till he he applied St. Jacobs Oil. The result was marvelous. Before using two bottles all pain left him and he is now cured.

ST. JACOBS OIL is sold by Chemists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the Dominion of Canada. Price 50c cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Canadian Branch, 30 York Street, Toronto, Canada.

From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Upper Register.

This morning Miss Annie Delaney, well-known in town as one of our most prominent vocal and instrumental musicians, left town for Boston, where she takes a course of four months' further training in music at the New England Conservatory of Music. Miss Delaney is not satisfied with the high position she has already taken, but is determined to become as proficient as possible, and no doubt the course she now enters upon will result in placing her amongst those at the head of the musical profession in this Province. At the end of the present term she will return to town to resume her music classes and also to again assume charge of the organ of St. Peter's Cathedral. During her absence Mr. Dennie, of Belleville, will take her place as organist and also look after her pupils.

Winter Meet of the Driving Club.

The races on Little Lake Thursday and Friday are the subject of much discussion among horsemen all over the district. Entries are rolling in quickly, and every race it is expected will be keenly contested. The track is in prime condition. It is fifty feet wide at the narrowest part, and the home stretch gives a good long run, while the bed is of solid ice smooth enough for skating. The managers are doing everything in their power to make the meet a success. Information can be procured from Mr. J. J. Daly, Secretary, or by reading the poster announcements.

What the Day Brings Forth.

This is the first day of March—and the first day of spring besides, if the almanac can be believed, March being reckoned a spring month. Everybody will be thankful to know that spring, beautiful spring, is here, though perhaps not aware of the fact until the infallible almanac comes out with the information. It is also fair day—another fact, only known by reason of its being the first Tuesday in March. Fair day is a myth in Peterborough.

W. C. T. U.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held their regular meeting Monday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. hall. There was a good attendance, and the meeting opened with the usual devotional exercises. The chair was occupied by the president. After the treasurer's, secretary's, and committee's reports were read and accepted, a communication was received from Miss Skinner, of Toronto, who will be here on Wednesday, March 9th, to organize a Young Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

Social Purity.

Every young man should hear what Mr. Charles James has to say on the subject of "Personal Purity." Mr. James will lecture in the Y.M.C.A. Hall on Wednesday evening on this topic. On Thursday evening he will lecture in St. Paul's school room on "Christmas Evans, the Apostle of Wales." Everybody will be welcome at this lecture. Silver collection at the door.

The Singing Class Defunct.

Mr. Seward's singing class has breathed its last. It died Monday night for want of support, with an expiring groan of reproach at the apathy and lack of interest manifested by the people of Peterborough in its welfare. Should Mr. Seward receive any substantial encouragement from the citizens, however, it will be continued. For the present, non est.

Curling Links.

A rink of junior Lindsay curlers play in the Charlotte street rink to-night with a rink of Peterborough minors.

Two, or possibly three rinks of the Lindsay curlers will play the home club in town to-morrow, and probably an equal number of the Lakefield curlers, one match to take place in the afternoon, and the other in the evening.

On Exhibition.

The handsome presents to be given away at the Fireman's carnival Friday night, are on exhibition in the show window of W. A. Sanderson's jewelry store. A glance will show that they are worth trying for, and there will no doubt be a large turn out of customers than ever before. The posters about town will furnish particulars. Keep the date free.

THE INSURANCE MATTER.

Mr. A. McNeil, Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, laid down some correspondence between himself and Mr. McLean, Secretary of the Fire Underwriters Association, stating the requirements from Peterborough to be classed in B to be a chemical engine, and giving its cost, inerits, etc. Mr. McNeil stated that the elevation of Peterborough in insurance rates from C to B would save 11 to 12½ % in the cost of insurance. He didn't altogether favor the chemical engine, but something should be done to have our insurance rate diminished, and for that purpose he moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that the Mayor call a public meeting at an early date to discuss the question of insurance, and obtaining reduction of the present fire insurance rating.

HARD ON THE WATERWORKS.

Mr. MENZIES said there had something like this come up before. Since the waterworks hydrants had been put in, his insurance had increased 50 per cent.; instead of reducing the insurance sufficiently to save the cost of the waterworks system, it had increased their insurance by one half. He thought the only means for settling the matter was the establishing of a Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He favored the holding of the meeting, though.

Mr. DOUGLASS thought the most important point was to find out the cost of running this chemical engine after it was purchased.

Mr. KENDRY explained the raise of insurance rates in Peterborough to be not on account of the waterworks but on account of the raise of rates all over the country by the underwriters' association.

Mr. YELLAND backed up Mr. Menzies' statements. They had not only to pay for the increase of insurance rates but for the waterworks besides.

Mr. CAHILL brought up another objection against the waterworks. It had been urged that they would decrease the cost of fire appliances sufficiently almost to cover the cost of the system, but it turned out the fire brigade cost more than ever.

HANDLE IT WITH GLOVES.

Mr. GARTLEY advocated a careful handling of the question, especially in the matter of fire brigade expenses. He hoped there would be a good turn-out at the public meeting.

Mr. MCNEIL, in answer to Mr. Douglass, quoted from Mr. McLean's letter stating that the cost of chemicals would not probably be over $20 per annum. He also replied to Mr. Menzies, showing by figures that without the waterworks their insurance would be much higher than now.

Mr. MENZIES thought this Underwriter's Association [illegible] furnish the town with a chemical [illegible]. They owed it to us.

The motion [illegible] was put and carried.

STREETS AND BRIDGES.

Mr. CAHILL [illegible] the report of the Street and Bridge Committee, which stated that the contract for supplying the corporation with pine planks had been given the Dickson Co. at $9. per thousand, and the contract for supplying oak scantling to Mr. Alfred McDonald at $3.00 per M. The committee had also decided to purchase a quantity of round cedar from Mr. John O'Connor, if satisfactory. The report was adopted.

A BY-LAW TO AMEND

Mr. MCNEIL presented a by-law to amend the rules of order so as to prevent any member of the council securing his own appointment to any town office. The second reading of the by-law was deferred till the next meeting.

FIXING THE LICENSES.

The council went into committee of the whole, Mr. Hartley in the chair, on the second reading of the license by-law. The provisions were left the same as last year, and the by-law passed.

The council then adjourned.

The Local Boundary Dispute.

The Township of Smith Claims the Present Boundary Retained, the Town and Township to be Extensions.

The following letter, referred to in the Town Council report, was read at the meeting Monday night:—

James Stevenson, Esq., Mayor, Peterborough:

DEAR SIR,—I have received from the municipal corporation of the township of Smith a memorial to the honourable the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, in which they contend that the following description of the boundaries between the town and township is incorrect:

"Commencing at the northern extremity of Reid street, in the town of Peterborough, thence in a north-easterly direction and along the newly opened road (leading from the said northern extremity of Reid street to the Communication Road in the township of Smith) to the said Communication Road, thence northerly along the said Communication Road to the northern limit of the south half of township lot number three, east of the said Communication Road; thence easterly along the said northern limit of the said south half of the said township lot number three, to the road or road allowance in the rear of the range of lots on the east of the Communication Road, thence in a north-westerly direction along each road or road allowance to the concession line between the first and second concessions of the said Township of Smith, thence easterly along the said concession line to where the same will strike the waters of the River Otonabee."

They contend that the above description is erroneous and impossible, and that it was intended by the town of Peterborough to extend their limits only to the northern limit of the south half of lot number one east of the Communication Road, and the town and township have always treated the said intended limit as the true and correct one. They claim the true boundary to be as follows:

"Commencing at the northern extremity of Reid street in the town of Peterborough thence in a north-easterly direction, and, along the newly opened road (leading from the said extremity of Reid street to the Communication Road in township of Smith) to the Communication Road; thence northerly along the said Communication Road to the northern limit of the south half of township lot number one east of the said Communication Road, thence easterly along the said northerly limit of the said south half of the said township lot number one to the road or road allowance in the the rear of the range of lots on the east of the Communication Road, thence in a north-westerly direction along such road, or road allowance to the concession line between the first and second concessions of the said township of Smith, thence easterly along the said concession line to where the same will strike the waters of the River Otonabee."

I will present their memorial to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council at the earliest possible moment, and I would be glad if your Council would pass a resolution with regard to this matter, stating the position of the town and what they require.

Should I not hear from you in a reasonable time, I will assume that the application is acceptable to your Council.

I am, yours truly,
J. R. STRATTON.

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirement, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Sumner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavits produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. MCLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent. per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

THE CRASH TO COME.

EUROPE IS MUSTERING ALL HER ARMED MEN.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Germany continues to keep up her belligerent attitude toward France, and has lately been pouring troops into Alsace-Lorraine and greatly strengthening her garrisons there. There are now 65,000 men, with 17,000 horses and 280 guns, in the annexed provinces. The correspondent of the Statistical Journal shows that to be one gun to 230 men, the German average being only one to 330; also that there are eleven men under arms to each square mile of territory. To carry that rate out all through the country would require 2,200,000 men in Germany, 2,250,000 in France and 28,000,000 in European Russia.

M. De Giers's Opinion.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 28.—A long interview took place yesterday between the Turkish Ambassador and M. de Giers on Bulgarian matters and the general European situation. M. de Giers is stated to have expressed the opinion that the disturbed European equilibrium would soon be re-established, and probably no war would ensue for some time to come. As regards Bulgarian affairs they would not disturb the peace because the European powers must finally admit the legitimate demands of Russia in Bulgaria. Referring to Turkish military preparation, M. de Giers declared there was no menace on any side to Turkey, but that the extraordinary outlay it incurred was out of proportion to the financial condition of that country.

France's Activity.

BERLIN, March 1.—The Nachrichten says: "The situation has not yet lost its threatening character, compelling Germany to provide for every contingency. Among the warlike preparations of France during the past week may be noted the fact that 241 truck loads of planks and beams passed the frontier stations, and that immense orders have been given for steel tubes for firearms. The rolling stock of the French Northern and Eastern Railways has been massed in large parks at various points, and the work of finally clearing the glacis in the Belfort and other fort works has been begun.

The Neutrality of Belgium.

BRUSSELS, March 1.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Frere Orban, leader of the Opposition, opened an attack upon the Government's military policy, especially the projected fort works on the Meuse. The latter, he said, would be useless for the purpose for which they were intended. With the help of the network of railways and numerous bridges an enemy could always turn the fort works and penetrate to the country without passing under the fire of the forts. Besides, the neutrality of Belgium would not be damaged. The declarations of English statesmen had stood good until the present. Great Britain would never allow such a violation of public law, nor would any army attempt to commit such a crime, the most atrocious that could sully the pages of history.

Roumania on the Fence.

BUCHAREST, March 1.—In official circles here an attitude of the strictest neutrality is favored, whatever may be the turn of events, but it is admitted that Russian troops may cross the Pruth before the Roumanian Government receives warning. Premier Bratiano adheres to the policy of keeping Roumania free in order to enable the Government to decide at the last moment whether to side with the Central European powers or with Russia. Arrangements are being completed in readiness for mobilization.

The Government has ordered large quantities of hospital and ambulance material, and 1000 extra workmen are employed in the arsenal getting artillery and ammunition ready. A commission will start for England to-morrow to purchase torpedo boats.

DOODLERS IN OLD LONDON.

A Committee to Enquire Into Alleged Crookedness of the Corporation.

LONDON, March 1.—In the House of Commons to-night Geo. Howell, advanced Liberal, asked the Government to assent to the appointment of a committee to inquire into corrupt expenditures by the corporation of London on bogus meetings, the audiences at which were hired to be present for the purpose of defeating the bill for the reform of the London Government.

Mr. Howell said he had seen documents which proved that members of the corporation had diverted $108,000 of the public moneys in an effort to defeat the measure before Parliament.

Mr. Gladstone declared that the matter was of the greatest importance, and that an inquiry must be granted in order to prove whether or not the greatest corporation in the country had misused its trust and adopted illegal methods to pervert public opinion or control legislative action.

W. H. Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, assented to the appointment of a committee of inquiry.

The Government Have Not Refuse.

LONDON, March 1.—The Government was loath to consent to the demand of the Radicals in the House of Commons for a committee to inquire into the charges that the London Corporation was using public moneys in a sharp agitation against reforms, but it did not dare to refuse an investigation. The sittings of the committee will be public. It is claimed there are abundant proofs that public money has been used in getting up bogus meetings and petitions, and it is asserted that in the corporation's accounts moneys are put down as having been paid to persons whose reality have no existence. The evidence, it is said, does not incriminate the higher members of the corporation as individuals, although it shows that they assented to a loose general application of the city's funds.

THE CHURCH & K. OF L

CARDINAL GIBBONS BRINGS THE MATTER BEFORE THE VATICAN.

ROME, March 1.—The correspondent here of the Associated Press is authorized to state that the American bishops take a favorable view of the organization known in America as the Knights of Labor. Cardinal Gibbons has placed before the Vatican a formal statement as to the nature of the organization and the attitude the church should adopt towards it. The Cardinal says in this that he considers that any condemnation of the K. of L. would be not only useless, but highly inopportune, and that it might alienate the sympathy of the American laboring classes from the church and might hamper the mission of the church to the laboring poor. In addition to the above positions recommended by the statement of Cardinal Gibbons, the Primate treats the alarmist theories respecting the K. of L. as puerile, and says nearly one third of the men belonging to the organization are Roman Catholics. Respecting the charges that the association is a secret order, the Cardinal says it is not a secret society in the sense condemned by the church, and is consequently exempt from canonical censure. In Canada the case is different. Cardinal Gibbons further says he considers the organization of the Knights of Labor in the United States not only harmless but that it will possibly be beneficial in assisting in the eventual settlement of the great question of the proper relations between labor and capital.

FROM THE QUAKY QUARTER

Slow Trains on the Riviera Railway—Shivers in Austria and Bulgaria.

LONDON, March 1.—Slight earthquake shocks were felt yesterday at Alassio and Albenga. Trains on the Riviera Railway continue running, but at a slow speed, further landslips being feared. On Feb. 22, eleven hours before the earth shock, two kilometres of road was destroyed between Nice and Saspel by the fall of a hill. Similar accidents happened near Istria. The earthquake was felt in several places in Austria and Bulgaria. Six severe shocks were experienced at Shumla on the morning of Feb. 26.

THE RETALIATORY BILL.

A Report Announcing Disagreement of the Senate and the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.—In the House Mr. Belmont of New York presented the conference report on the Fisheries Retaliatory Bill announcing a disagreement. Mr. Belmont said it was a matter of public notoriety that a report had been made to the Senate in which it was stated that the differences between the House and Senate upon this question were irreconcilable. The majority of the House conferees regretted that the gentlemen representing the other body should have reached such a conclusion. The House conferees believed the House had decided this question to be a national question, not one to be settled by a retaliatory policy which affected Canada alone.

Mr. Rice of Massachusetts agreed in the declaration that the differences were irreconcilible, and explained that the point of friction was in regard to the clause excluding rolling stock, locomotives and trains. He did not know the motives that controlled the action of the House conferees. He called upon the members of the House to rise above party considerations and take action which would sustain the Administration in the manly, able American position it had taken in this subject. He moved that the House recede from its amendments to the Senate bill. Pending action the House took recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to the consideration of the Bridge bills.

VIGOROUS ACTION AT VANCOUVER.

The Assailants of the Chinese to be Dealt Summarily With.

VICTORIA, B.C., March 1.—The Legislature to-day suspended the rules and passed a bill to meet the emergency of Vancouver. The bill virtually suspends the city's charter and vests all power in the Legislature. The Government has assented to the bill. A special force has been sworn in and will proceed to Vancouver to-morrow armed with batons and revolvers. Three of the ringleaders in the attack upon the Chinese a few days ago have already been arrested and more arrests will follow. The Chinese at the time of the attack were driven into the waters of the inlet and some of them were nearly drowned. Those left in the city after Thursday night have since been sent out. The Government force will protect their interests and deal summarily with those taking part in the outrages against the Chinese.

A Political Split in Germany.

BERLIN, March 1.—The split between the New German Liberals and the Socialists here is becoming pronounced. Herr Krueger, the Socialist leader, attends New German Liberal meetings and reproaches the Liberals for failing to adhere to the compact against the Government.

The supplementary elections will extend over Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Until Saturday the definite composition of the Reichstag will be uncertain.

Printers' Strike in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, March 1.—The compositors on all the newspapers and job offices in the city struck for an advance of 5 cents in the price of composition this afternoon. The proprietors offered to compromise, but the offer was refused by the Typographical Union. The scale demanded is 28 cents for day and 43 cents for night work. The job scale was fixed at $16 per week.

An Attachment for a Goderich Man.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Judge Andrews today on application of Melville C. Day and other executors of the will of Commodore C. K. Garrison, granted an attachment against the property of Henry T. Attrill of Goderich, Ont., in proceedings brought by the executors to recover $32,000.

Smallpox in a Poor House.

WATERBURY, Conn., March 1.—Two cases of smallpox were removed from the Alms House to the Pest House to-day. The eighty-five inmates were quarantined and vaccinated last Saturday after a fatal case had occurred, and the spread of the disease has caused considerable consternation.

BERLIN, March 1.—The negotiations for a renewal of the treaty of alliance between Italy, Austria and Germany have been suspended owing to the Italian Cabinet crisis. Prince Bismarck is unwilling to renew the alliance unless the Italian policy be guaranteed permanence.

TWENTY-FIVE CANADIAN KNIGHTS

To be Created in Honor of the Jubilee Year—Toronto's Mayor Not on the List.

OTTAWA, March 1.—A gentleman who claims to have been consulted in the matter, and to have seen some of the correspondence, says that quite a number of Canadians will be knighted during the Queen's jubilee celebration. Among them the mayors of Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Quebec, Montreal, Kingston, Ottawa, London, Winnipeg and a British Columbian city yet unnamed. Hamilton is not mentioned. Nor is Toronto, as it is believed the democratic sentiments of the Mayor of the latter city will not permit of it. In that case the honor will be conferred on some prominent citizen of Toronto, either a merchant, a judge or a lawyer. The Mayor of the town of Cornwall is included in the list through the intervention of the Prince of Wales, who has a kindly and special recollection of the place. Sir John Macdonald can be raised to the peerage if he sees his way to accepting it. The Marquis of Lansdowne is to be advanced to a dukedom. The number of jubilee knights from Canada is to be limited to twenty-five. Eighty odd applications for the honor have been made to Sir John and other members of the Government. These have been all turned over for the present to the Governor-General's office.

A LONDON ELOPEMENT.

One Carpenter Takes Another Carpenter's Wife and Goes to Rochester.

LONDON, Ont., March 1.—Mrs. White, wife of J. L. White, who is a carpenter in the Grand Trunk Railway shops here and fairly well to do, and Alfred Luscombe, also a carpenter in the Grand Trunk Railway shops, eloped on Saturday afternoon. The couple took tickets for Rochester, N.Y. Both are 40 years old. Mrs. White left behind her five children, pretty well grown up, and took the two youngest with her. Last week Luscombe borrowed $300, giving as collateral a mortgage on his lot. Mr. White says he will spend every cent he has got in the world to get back his children. Mrs. Luscombe being a rather delicate woman, the shock has brought on an illness that may have serious consequences. It is said that the intimacy sprang up between the eloping couple in an East End church, where they were both members. Previous to the elopement the couple were often seen together, and last summer, while Mrs. Luscombe was on a visit to Sarnia, Mr. Luscombe boarded at Mr. White's house. On one occasion Mr. White spoke to Mr. Luscombe saying that he (Luscombe) was too intimate with his (White's) wife. The charge, however, was laughed off.

THE TRADE OF MONTREAL.

Large Increase of Business Over 1886—An Encouraging Outlook.

MONTREAL, March 1.—The customs revenue at the port of Montreal continues to show a large increase over the record of 1886, indicating that the business of the city, and of the country, is on a satisfactory basis, the demands of trade calling not only for the full employment of home manufactories, but necessitating also the importation of enlarged quantities of foreign products to meet consumption. The collections in February amounted to $719,005, $72,557 more than in the same month last year, making the excess for the two months of the present calendar year over 1886, $253,213. The receipts since the commencement of the fiscal year were:

ELECTED MAYOR OF MONTREAL.

Hon. J. J. Abbott Defeats Mr. Rainville by Over a Thousand Votes.

MONTREAL, March 1. — The result of the mayoralty elections to-day has been a great surprise to Alderman Rainville's friends, who claim that the voters in the east end who were supporting them did not turn out as was expected. The Grand Trunk authorities also used their influence against Mr. Abbott presumably on account of his connection with the Canadian Pacific Railway. At the close of the poll the vote stood: Abbott, 6966; Rainville, 5463; majority for Abbott, 1783.

The following gentlemen will compose the new council: Messrs. Gremor, Farrell, Archibald (elected by acclamation), McBride, Malone, Cunningham, Robinson, Dupuis, Jeannotti, Rousseau, Grenier (St. Jean Baptiste Ward).

RETURNED TO OTTAWA.

The Governor-General and Suite Take Their Departure From Montreal.

MONTREAL, March 1.—The Governor-General and suite left this afternoon for Ottawa by the Canada Atlantic and were escorted to Bonaventure Station by the band and a detachment of the Sixth Fusiliers and followed by the good wishes of the city. Before his departure His Excellency wrote to the Mayor, acknowledging courtesies extended to him while in the City of Montreal.

Death of D. Ford Jones, ex-M.P.

GANANOQUE, March 1.—Sunday last Mr. D. Ford Jones, late ex-M.P. for this county (South Leeds) passed quietly away at his residence here. Mr. Jones had always been a consistent Conservative in politics, an honorable and respected citizen of Gananoque, and, as a member of the Church of England, ever liberal with his means and consistent in upholding the doctrines and usages of his church.

Mr. Jones at different times occupied prominent public positions here. He was the first reeve of the village after incorporation and warden of the counties. He was elected to the old Canadian Parliament in 1864 for South Leeds, and was elected for the same constituency to the House of Commons in 1878 and 1878. He came to Gananoque in 1832, and in company with Mr. Isaac Briggs established the shovel and fork manufactory. After a few years he bought out Mr. Briggs' interest and continued the business himself.

An "Enoch Arden" Case.

MONTREAL, March 1.—A story comes from the village of Terrebonne to the effect that some fifteen years ago a married man named Berthiaume left that place to seek his fortune in California, intending to send or return for his wife when his money would permit. In a year's time Mrs. Berthiaume received word that her husband was dead, and a few years afterwards she was married again to a prominent merchant of the village, and has since lived happy with her second husband. A few days ago Berthiaume turned up and claimed his wife. The village cure having been appealed to decided that the woman should live with her first husband.

MONTREAL, March 1.—A serious fire occurred in the drygoods store of Archambault Bros., St. Catherine-street, to-night which resulted in extensive damage to goods and property amounting to about $10,000, fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire cannot be ascertained.

LACK-A-DAISICAL LOYALTY.

Iron-clad partisan newspapers have a most summary way of disposing of charges against the Dominion Government. No matter how grievous are the crimes committed by the Federal authorities, they must not be discussed. We must not cry down the credit of the country by exposing the iniquities of its rulers. Let things drift; let the boodlers gorge themselves; let our public money flow like water; let corruption and fraud eat its silent and destructive way into the foundations of the state; let everything go to the unending bow-wows; but, pray, don't mention it—it will get the country into bad odour. Let us enjoy the "game" of rascality but, for goodness sake, don't let us get the "name." Our extravagance and lavish expenditure will exhaust our internal resources and sap the foundations of our prosperity, but don't speak of it; we may find it necessary to go into the money markets to borrow money to replace what boodlers have stolen, and we want to borrow on the best terms. Let waste and corruption run riot, let misgovernment have its full fling, but keep the knowledge of it dark—"have some respect for the country," —as the Toronto World says.

FOOLS' PARADISE.

On Wednesday, January 23rd, the EXAMINER published a copy of a circular issued by New York rascals offering to gullible individuals tempting inducements to become instantaneous millionaires by operating with counterfeit money. It is, of course, a clear swindle designed to dupe the unwary. There is not the slightest danger of the persons silly enough to invest their money in "green goods" becoming issuers of counterfeit money. The most they will get for their money will be a box of saw-dust or paper shavings. Any dealings with these rascals will, in a double sense, be throwing good money after bad. The country is flooded with these circulars, and any who is foolish enough to take the bait deserves to have his jaws torn with the hook. Any man who is willing to commit a felony for the sake of making money easily and rapidly deserves to lose any money he is fool enough to risk for such an object.

A SENSIBLE PROPOSAL.

Mr. John Murray, of Yorkville, Toronto, is level-headed on one subject, anyway, no matter how he voted. Among a number of suggestions for the proper celebration of the Queen's Jubilee, made by correspondents to the Globe, Mr. Murray makes this practical and sensible proposal:

"I suggest that the city secure from the Government a number of square miles of free grant territory as near Toronto as possible and lay out some in farms of one hundred and fifty acres, and that a committee be appointed by the Mayor and City Council to open a fund for the purpose of sending out and maintaining for the first year a number of workingmen with small families to whom the City Council, as well as charitable institutions, have to extend a helping hand year after year. This, to my mind, would be as good a work and as memorable an institution as could be started, and in a few years would become almost self-supporting, as money lent to men to start them on a farm this year would be paid back in one, two or three years by either work, timber or produce, and the money could be used for aiding others. It would be a jubilee, indeed, for many a man in this city, who has a large, helpless family, to get a start on a farm that he could call his own. His family, however small, could be of some service to him, besides he would have them under his control and away from the many temptations which a big city offers and poverty makes keener. Companies of five, ten, or fifteen families could locate together and work into one another's hands, so as to make labour easier and expenses lighter, and by-and-bye Toronto would reap the benefit of the trade of a lot of well-to-do farmers. One thing is certain—thousands of dollars will be spent, but whether to aid the poor or gratify the rich, whether for one day's amusement or years of lasting good, is the question for thoughtful consideration."

This proposition or something akin to it is worthy of "thoughtful consideration." If carried out it would serve a double purpose. It would decrease pauperism and promote the settlement of the country with wealth producing population. Whatever permanent benefit there would be in the burning of of thousands of dollars worth of powder or in pomp, parade and ceremony, no one, who recollects Her Majesty's liberal endowment of common sense, can doubt that a proposal like that outlined above, prudently carried out, would meet with her approval rather than some flashy display that fades and perishes with the making.

THE United States claim to be a mighty nation but they have some mighty small ways. A bill has become law at Washington declaring that government contractors shall not employ Canadian mechanics or labourers, and a bill has been introduced into the Michigan Legislature providing that Canadian students in Michigan University be charged higher tuition fees than American students. For a great nation the Yankees can show a great deal of spite—all because we wont allow them to steal our fish.

ALBERTA is a nice place for a political candidate who undertakes to make a personal canvass. The constituency is about 600 miles in length by about 250 in width, embracing in the neighbourhood of 150,000 square miles, and containing 25 polling divisions.

The Band Question.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Mr. F. W. Miller is out in another letter trying to explain away the position of the band, or, rather, his own position. He challenges me to produce one instance where the band or he representing the band "refused to play for any party political, religious or any other party." Will not the instance of the 28th of December suit him? It suits me and is to my mind conclusive enough. Bands we know are usually looking for engagements, and it would have been in the interests of the band if they had found out as they could have done in a few minutes, if their services were required on the evening of December 28th. As to the band not appearing in uniform on the occasion of the Blake demonstration, that is not in the question, although if the band had been anxious, they could as well have appeared in uniform on that occasion as they did on the occasion of the Conservative demonstration.

As far as I am concerned this subject has been exhausted, and I hope that a musical organization, which expects support from both political parties, will decide which they must do, to treat both political parties alike. If they fail to do so they must expect favours from the quarter in which their favours are bestowed.

Yours truly,
NEUTRAL.

The Question of Book-keeping.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

SIR,—It is surprising to me that a man holding the position that Mr. Bannell Sawyer does, should address a letter to the public informing them that the invention spoken of by you in favorable terms, was an idea in fact some eighteen or twenty years old, and he goes on to say that he has been using this system for ten or twelve years. Mr. Sawyer evidently did not read the article through as he deals with only one sentence of it. "By it too, a merchant can tell at any moment the value of goods on his shelves," and it does not occur to this learned gentleman that there might have been something different from the six column journal, (which he has reference to) as per the sentence preceeding the one above quoted "its merits are too numerous to mention," ect: Now I do not wish to come before the public discussing matters but I might say that this book of mine is not the six column Journal but an improvement on it including the merits I thought the old Journal had and such other improvements as I felt disposed to make. Mr. Sawyer also informs us that there is but one way of teleing what stock there is on hand viz, "taking stock." Merchants as a rule, mark their goods to yield a certain percentage and taking into consideration all classes of goods they carry, mark perishable and fashionable goods high, and others low, etc: and average the percentage; by deducting that total from the amount of merchandise received, will it not give within a comparatively small amount the merchandise on hand? It is not my contention that one can tell the exact quantity of goods on hand but by careful marking of goods I maintain that a merchant can tell very closely by my system, in fact a number have already informed me that they think it will do all I claim for it. If other accountants think the idea old, and want to appear before the public as critics I would strongly advise them to first see the design before they try to pull it to pieces. Thank-you for the space in your valuable paper

I am yours &c.,
A. V. R. YOUNG.

The Newfoundland Bait Bill.

HALIFAX, Feb. 25.—Sir Ambrose Shea and Premier Thorburn of Newfoundland arrived here last night. They are on their way to England to urge upon the Imperial Government the necessity of giving their assent to the Bait Bill unanimously re-enacted by the Newfoundland Legislature. There is no denying the fact that Newfoundland is in a desparate condition, that great distress exists, that the Colonial treasury is depleted, and that there is very serious trouble ahead over the fishery question with the increasingly aggressive Frenchmen.

The Trial Trip of the Dauntless.

SANDY HOOK, N.J., Feb. 27.—The yacht Dauntless, which is to have a transatlantic race with the yacht Coronet, went out on a trial trip to-day, and when south of the Highlands and off Monmouth Beach blew away her main jib, but set another when off the Hook. There was a heavy sea and a westerly gale, the velocity of which was sometimes as high as sixty miles per hour. The Dauntless seemed to do well with both topmasts housed. Under close reefed fore and main sails, fore stay sail and jib, at 3.30 p.m. she tried to pass in by the Hook, but the wind and ebb tide were too much for her and she went outside again.

SANDY HOOK, Feb. 27.—The Dauntless came to anchor off the Highlands at 5.40 p.m.

London Stock and Money Market.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Discount was in good demand during the past week at 3½ to 3¾. On the Stock Exchange prices were firm and rose throughout the week, but the advance was slow and hesitating, the public being still doubtful as to the maintenance of peace. Business in home funds, foreign securities and English railway securities was exceedingly limited. In American railroad securities activity was resumed.

American Consuls Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Among a number of appointments confirmed by the Senate are these: A. A. Brown, Consul at Clifton, Ont.; L. Moore, Consul at Hull, Que.; W. C. Hall, at Prescott. The Consular appointment at Sarnia has also been ratified.

Enjoy Life.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. TO RECRUIT OUR EFFECTIVE ARMY

Parliament Asked to Vote $75,000 for the Purpose.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—It is understood that the Government will ask Parliament at the coming session to vote $75,000 in the military estimate to be devoted to the purpose of establishing a permanent company of infantry at London, Ont., and a battery of artillery at Victoria, B.C. "C" Battery, as this will likely be called, will be devoted to garrison purposes. The barracks will probably be erected at Esquimault, where the celebrated dry dock is located, and where the British naval squadron in the North-ern Pacific calls for coal.

Fire on a New York Pier.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Shortly after 6 o'clock this morning, a fire broke out on the Morgan Line dock at the foot of Charlton-street, North River. The flames extended rapidly, and soon the whole dock was in flames. The steamer Lone Star, which was lying alongside, caught fire, and was towed out into mid-stream, badly damaged. The pier and its contents are a total loss. The steamer Lone Star was damaged about $100,000, and was beached on the Jersey shore. The loss on the pier was about $100,000. There were about 9000 bales of cotton stored there. Some of this was saved and the rest perished by fire. The loss on the cotton was $150,000.

Legislation for the Laborers.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 28.—The House Labor Arbitration Bill has been passed by the Senate without amendment. The House Bill to prevent the employment of convict or alien labor upon public buildings or on public works, or in the preparation of material for public buildings or public works, was also passed.

They Murdered a Whole Family.

ODESSA, Feb. 28.—Two assassins were arrested yesterday when about to sail for Turkey. The men were Nihilists, and murdered their employer, a rich land owner, named Govozzelo, his wife and eight children and several relatives, and then decamped with the spoils, amounting to 200,000 roubles.

Hopelessly Divided.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 28.—The Conferees on the Fisheries Retaliatory Bill have decided to report disagreement to their respective houses, being hopelessly divided as to the limitation to be placed on prohibition of traffic.

O. K. Testimony.

The testimonials we publish may be verified by any person who may doubt their truthfulness.

ELGIN, Dec. 18—We, the undersigned, have used NERVILINE in our families as prepared by N. C. Polson & Co., of Kingston, Ont., and certify that it never fails to give relief in colds, coughs, and rheumatic pains; and we have no hesitation in recommending it to the public. W. Pennock, Postmaster, Elgin; Henry W. Warren, Eliza Powell, Elgin; Cephas Brown, South Crosby.

Ten cent trial bottles may be purchased at any drug store, Polson's Nerviline, the never-failing pain cure. Try it now. 6dw9

Two Crops.

The crop of cork is gathered from the cork tree every eight years, but the crop of men who succumb to drawing corks is harvested continually.

Worthy of Confidence.

The praptration sold by druggists known as Hagyard's Yellow Oil is worthy of all confidence as a household remedy for pain. It has been over a quarter of a century in the market, and never fails to cure or relieve rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, quinsy, deafness, burns, scalds, bruises, frost bites and internal or external pains and injuries. 2w9d

The Plumber.

It has been discovered that the ancient Romans had lead pipe. If they had pipe they had plumbers, and that accounts for their decline and fall.

Pomeroy's Peroused Plasters.

J. B. Slater druggist, of Johnstown Pa., says of the above: "I like your goods very much; think they are destined to a great success." Of all druggists and Ormond & Walsh. 6dw9

Important.

It is of the utmost importance that some good household remedy should be kept within handy reach in case of pain and accidental injury. The most useful remedy of this kind is undoubtedly Hagyard's Yellow Oil, for internal and external use in all painful complaints. 2w9d

A Hot Subject.

We don't have to depend entirely upon the coal monopolies for heat. An empty coal scuttle will make things very warm around the house.

Humorous.

The most humorous man is not always the happiest; the man who has scrofulous rumor or any obstinate humor of the blood, does not feel very lively, at least not until he is cured, which, by the way, Burdock Blood Bitters will do in the most troublesome of blood humors. 2w9d

Postage Sixty Years Ago.

"Walton's Register" for the year 1828 shows that there were 168 post-offices in Vermont at that time, and that about $20,000 was annually paid on the postage of letters, papers, and pamphlets by the citizens of Vermont. The compensation of the postmasters was on the basis of 20 per cent on the first $100 of receipts and 25 per cent on the next $100. Brattleborough was then the largest office in the State. The salary of Asa Green, the postmaster, was $630.89. The rates of postage were: For a single letter of one piece of paper for any distance not exceeding 30 miles, 6 cents; over 30 and not exceeding 80 miles, 10 cents; over 80 miles and not exceeding 150 miles, 12½ cents; over 150 and not exceeding 400 miles, 18¾ cents; over 400 miles, 25 cents. Letters composed of two pieces of paper were charged triple rates, and more than three pieces quadruple postage. The highest salary paid any of the 4,000 postmasters in the United States was then $2,000, and there were only 10 who were paid that sum, while 27 received $1,000 and upward. The population of the State was about 235,749, an increase of 17,635 in 10 years, of which 50,951 persons were engaged in agriculture, 776 in commerce, and 4,484 in manufactures. There was an enrolled militia force of 20,781, and Gov. C. P. Van Ness was the captain-general of the forces.—Burlington (Vt.) Press.

He'd Choose to be a Baby.

The following story was told at the recent encampment of the Grand Army at Mexico, Mo. A group around one of the numerous camp-fires were relating incidents of bravery and cowardice shown in battle, and this is one of them: "It was at the battle of Gettysburg," said the speaker, "when the bullets were falling like hail, and the shells were shrieking and bursting over our heads in a way to make the bravest heart tremble, a private dropped out of the ranks and skulked back to the rear. He was well under way, when, unfortunately for him, he was met by General Slocum coming to the front.

"'What are you doing here? Get back to your post,' the General shouted.

"The poor fellow stopped still and trembled like a leaf, but made no reply.

"'Get back to your post, you miserable coward; aren't you ashamed of yourself to be skulking back here when you should be in the front with your brave comrades?'

"Still the man made no reply, but commenced to cry like a year-old infant.

"'You infamous, sneaking coward,' shouted the infuriated general, 'get back to your post; I'll ride you down like a dog. Why, you are nothing but a baby.'

"'I-I-I'll t-t-t-tell you what, g-g-general,' said the blubbering fellow, 'I'd g-g-g-give anything just n-n-now if I was a b-b-baby, and i-i-if I had my ch-ch-choice I'd r-r-rather be a female b-b-b-baby.'"

The Beautiful Miss Chamberlain.

Miss Chamberlain is now 23 years old, and is the daughter of Mr. William Chamberlain, of Cleveland, O., and the granddaughter of Mr. Zelah Chamberlain, who was one of the wealthiest residents of that city. Her mother was a Miss Wilson, also of Cleveland. Mrs. Chamberlain owns many lots in the city of Cleveland which were for many years poor property, but which four years ago rose suddenly in value and made her a rich woman. But Miss Chamberlain's position as an heiress is due to her grandfather, "old Zelah Chamberlain," as he is known. For many years he held in his possession Minnesota state bonds to a large amount, on whose interest the state had defaulted. One day about ten years ago the Minnesota legislature resolved to pay this back interest to a certain amount. This was telegraphed to Mr. Chamberlain by a friend, and the latter immediately hired a special engine and steamed to St. Paul, arriving there before any other bondholders, and receiving the full amount due him.

It was after this little episode and in the summer of 1881 that the Chamberlains decided to spend a summer in Newport, whither they repaired with their daughter, and there she made her debut. She attracted considerable attention from her slight but perfectly-formed figure, her delicate, pearly complexion, her rich brown hair and eyes, small and perfect mouth, and her naturalness of manner and conversation. Going from Newport to London, she made a success at once upon her entrance there the following season, and it was not long before it was reported that the prince of Wales was devoted to her. Many exaggerated stories of her friendship with the prince have since been publicly told, but no charge of any departure from perfect propriety of conduct has ever been made against her, despite the gauntlet of envious eyes and tongues she has constantly been obliged to run. The story told of her that she first called the prince "Jumbo," while amusing is hardly true, as he had long been known as "Jummy" among a certain set of his associates, a nickname which the duke of Portland also holds.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream."

And yet it is, when all the matter in taken out of it by some dread disease like consumption, that, unrelieved, means certain death; for lung and liver troubles, both of them, and often leading to consumption, or like liver complaints or scrofula, which too often make those afflicted feel that life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with "mournful numbers," brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity. Druggists sell it. 6dw9

We would therefore advise you strongly if you are a subject of any of the above troubles to get McGregor's Speedy Cure and be convinced. It is sold in 50c, and $1.00 bottles at John McKee's Drug store. eodw9

"For the past four or five years," says Mrs. Emery, of Cottam, Ont., "I have been subject to kidney troubles. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. It has done me more good than what was claimed for it. I can recommend it to all suffers from like diseases." 2w9d

Doubly Benefited.

There is no one remedy known that has more curative power over dyspepsia and liver complaint than Burdock Blood Bitters. CURES ALL HUMORS,

Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Thoroughly cleansed it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all Canadian Wheelmen.

The spring meeting of the Board of officers of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association was held at the Walker house Friday, there being present: W. A. Kern, President, Woodstock; F. Gusedinger, Montreal; W. H. May and C. Foster, Belleville; C. Langley, H. Ryrie, and G. H. Orr, Toronto; S. Woodrofe, Woodstock; Jas. S. Brierley, St. Thomas; and Hal. B. Douly, Secretary-Treasurer, Simcoe. The question of the location for the meet for 1887 was discussed, but no definite action was taken, the matter being left in the hands of a committee to consider the claims of the several cities from whom applications were received. It was decided that hereafter all cloth for Association uniforms shall be purchased through Mr. C. Langley, Chief Consul District No. 3, Toronto. The proposition to alter the term of the Association year was, after considerable discussion, rejected. The prospects for a successful year for the C. W. A. are excellent.

Attempted Murder at Bethany.

There was an attempt at murder in Bethany last week. The Lindsay Warder correspondent says:—We are sorry to say that the record of our village for the past week is not as creditable as formerly. nothing less than an attempt at murder having taken place on last Monday. It appears that Wm Frasher had determined to marry a young lady of our town, and on that day demanded an affirmative reply to his proposal. The reply was not satisfactory, whereupon he drew a revolver and fired at her, the ball grazing her ear and lodging in the wall behind. The ruffian then fled, and at the time of writing, is still at large.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

Shook Hands Over It.

A case of "insulting language" was settled at the police court this morning by the parties shaking hands. The defendant in the case persisted in the belief that an acquaintance (the plaintiff) owed him money, and never missed an opportunity of taxing him for it. Yesterday he wanted to lick his debtor, but the latter declined with thanks, and this morning brought his over-frisky old friend into court to settle differences. The magistrate persuaded them to let bygones be bygones and shake hands.

Getting Ready for Spring.

Local dry goods merchants are busy preparing for the usual spring millinery openings. Their head milliners are now in the cities inspecting spring patterns and buying goods, and the Toronto World's young men seem to have been badly smitten with the many charms of the estimated 500 fair milliners who invaded that city, judging from the length of space devoted to a gushing description of their visit and the flattering poetry dedicated to "the dashing milliner girl."

On the Tapis.

A local event of more than usual importance is "in the wind." As will be seen by the large posters about town, the second grand fancy dress carnival of the Fire Brigade will be held Friday evening in the Charlotte street rink. Valuable prizes will be awarded, the band will be in attendance, gorgeous decorations will add charms to the general beauty of the scene, everything will be done to make it a success, and the carnival is bound to make a sensation. For particulars see posters.

The Women of India.

The Rev. E. C. B. Hallen, M. A., will give an address on "Work Among the Women of India," in the Baptist church on Tuesday, March 8th, at 8 o'clock p.m. Mr. Hallen has had 27 years experience in missionary work in India. His addresses are most interesting, dealing only with facts and exhibiting curiosities in connection with the address. A collection will be solicited at the door to defray expenses.

Social Purity.

All Young men should attend the lecture on "Personal Purity" at the Y. M. C. rooms to-night by Mr. Charles James, of London, England. Good music will be provided. Mr. James, and Mr. Cookson who accompanies him, are both musical. On Thursday night Mr. James will lecture in St. Paul's school room on Christmas Evans, the Apostle of Wales. All are invited.

To Rise With the Governor-General.

Our curlers will close with the Governor-General one day next week. After their match with the Truro curlers for the medal. In honor of such an auspicious occasion they have decided to get complete outfits of the nobbiest and neatest clothing from Gough the clothier, who can furnish a complete set of the most stylish toggery at shortest notice. Gough the clothier does a big trade, for he keeps the best, biggest and cheapest stock of any.

The Juniors Downed.

Following is the result of the match Tuesday between Lindsay and Peterborough junior curlers:—

The Rhone To-morrow.

Should the weather clerk at headquarters favor this vicinity with fine weather Thursday and Friday, the races on Little Lake cannot but be a great success. Entries are already numerous in each class, and close and exciting contests are confidently looked for. The first race will be called to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Little Girl and Her School Bag.

A little girl while on her way to school this morning jumped on a farmers' sleigh for a little ride, and to facilitate matters, threw her school bag in the sleigh box before jumping on. She tumbled off, and the sleigh went on with her school bag, while the little girl ran wailing and shouting after. The sleigh didn't stop, though.

Belleville Chief of Police.

Jno. Newton, a member of the police force, was on Tuesday appointed Chief of Police of Belleville, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hugh McKinnon. There were fourteen applicants.

Market Items.

A nominal market of meagre capacity and extent assembled on the square this morning. Beef was plentiful, very few apples or potatoes offering at all. The butter market was also quite deserted. Prices are stationary.

Assessors at Work.

The town assessors, Messrs. McKee, McGrath and Aldridge, have begun their labors for the year in assessing the town property and gathering the usual local statistics.

Here's Something for Paterfamilias.

Remember, the cheapest and freshest groceries can be obtained from W. J. Morrow, Town Clock Grocery, Opera House block. Heads of families will please bear this in mind.

Curling To-day.

Three rinks each of Lindsay and Peterborough curlers played a match on the Charlotte street rink this afternoon. At three o'clock the home laddies had a lead of 4 shots, with the game about half finished.

We protest against buying Boots and Shoes at high prices, when you can buy standard goods at cost from now until the 1st May. R. STENSON & SON. dw

Obituary.

The Late James Middleton.

It is with regret that the death is recorded of Mr. James Middleton, Sr., who passed away at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Isaac Elliott, of Selwyn, on Sunday, February 27th, 1887. The deceased gentleman was a native of the County of Sligo, Ireland. He came to Canada and settled in the township of Smith in 1841, having been a resident of that township nearly half a century. He leaves behind him four children, (his wife having died several years ago,) three sons and a daughter. His sons are James, a member of the township council of Smith, William and John, and his daughter Julia is the wife of Mr. Isaac Elliott, of Selwyn. During his long residence in Smith, the late Mr. Middleton gained the respect of the hundreds who knew him. In politics he was a Reformer and in religion an Episcopalian. The funeral takes place on Wednesday next at 10 o'clock a.m., to the Little Lake Cemetery.

Chemong Matters.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

SIR,—In compliance with the request of friends, I am induced to state that I do not know who was the author of a letter published in the EXAMINER of the 20th. January, signed "Neighbor," and that I was not in any way accessory to the statements made therein, neither had I any knowledge of it before seeing it in print. I am surprised that any one should have so little discernment as to suppose I had written or instigated the letter. I would not have noticed the letters that have been published on "Chemong Matters" even so far, but for the satisfaction of friends who may be interested in the subject.

Yours Truly,
EDWARD R. ROBERTS.

SEVENTY MINERS ENTOMBED.

A Dreadful Accident in a Colliery at St. Etienne, France.

PARIS, March 1.—An explosion occurred today in the Beaubrun collieries at St. Etienne. It is reported that several hundred miners were killed.

Later advices state that when the explosion occurred in the Beaubrun collieries there were but eighty men in the galleries. Six of these have been rescued unhurt and four have been taken out more or less injured. The seventy others are supposed to be all dead.

The latest advices from St. Etienne say there were 204 men entombed in the mine and that forty-three have been recovered and sixteen are dead.

Threatened Uprising of Halfbreeds.

ST. JOHN, D.T., March 1.—Serious difficulty is feared with the Halfbreeds. There are in this settlement upwards of 1000 families of Halfbreeds, among whom are many of Riel's oldest lieutenants, who found it expedient to remain during the winter. They took with them a considerable number of horses and cattle. They have been taxed for these animals by the local authorities, but have steadily refused to pay the tax. Writs were issued last week directing Sheriff Flynn to seize sufficient goods and chattels to cover the tax. This Flynn has been doing, but the Halfbreeds have been holding meetings and threatening vengeance. They say they will make an effort to recover their property by force.

THE BOMB-TOSSERS.

THE BRIEF FILED IN THE MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

CHICAGO, March 2.—The Anarchists' brief, which was filed yesterday, makes a pamphlet of 96 pages. Lawyer Swett admits that the defendants, or some of them, have been guilty of "foolishness of speech and foolish newspaper writing," but it is denied that any of the eight men have been "legally connected" with the throwing of the Haymarket bomb. The brief reviews the evidence against each defendant, beginning with Neebe, who was sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. The testimony against him is summarily described and dismissed in a single word—"nothing."

Evidence against the seven men sentenced to hang is analyzed at great length. After going over all that was directed toward Fielden, Parsons, Schwab and Spies, the brief says: "The only facts we have thus far seen satisfactorily proven and by lawful evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, are that there was a meeting at the Haymarket which was extremely peaceable, and that some of the defendants were there. The police appeared and ordered its dispersion. Immediately upon this order the bomb was thrown by an unknown person. The aiding of this person in the throwing of that bomb is the very gravamen of the offence.

"It is the corpus delicti as to these defendants, and in reference to such corpus delicti the cases stand before Your Honors naked and bare of any evidence whatever. It is argued that Lingg, the bomb maker, did this work, under a wild and foolish but indefinite craze, and without any definite or formed purpose. Consequently he did not aid and could not abet Officer Degan's murder within the meaning of the law."

The chief point made by Lawyer Sweet is in regard to the grave error he claims Judge Gary committed in admitting what is termed in the brief "illegal evidence." Under this head is classed Herr Most's book, the bloody clothing of the murdered policeman, the bombs and fulminating caps unearthed in various places after the Haymarket massacre, and the Anarchists' flags and other insignia confiscated by the authorities about that time.

To the "diabolical sentences and suggestions" read from Most's book during the trial Mr. Swett attributes mainly the conviction of the defendants. He argues that the book was not connected legally with the defendants, and if for no other reason than its introduction as evidence, the eight men should have a new trial. Regarding Most's book Swett says: "From the time of its introduction it was waved like a bloody shirt before the jury, and with this the imagination of the prosecution knew no bounds in denunciation, and by it, and by the book in evidence, the attorneys for the State aroused and made uncontrollable the passions and prejudices of the jury."

The brief dwells upon the alleged misapplication of the law of conspiracy in the trial. Mr. Swett declares, in conclusion, that the bomb-throwing was the natural outgrowth of agitation, having a legitimate object, as John Brown's raid was a natural outgrowth of the formation of the Republican party; and that the defendants have no more been proven guilty of conspiracy than have the Radicals, who, not knowing John Brown's purpose, made intemperate speeches characterizing the constitution of the United States as a "league with hell." Questions in relation to the empanelment of the jury, and the instructions of the court, Mr. Swett leaves to his colleagues, Black, Solomon and Zeisler.

A BIGAMOUS PRINTER.

How He Placated an Irated and Pursuing Wife.

NEWARK, N.J., March 2.—James McDonald, a printer, who deserted his wife in Toronto, Ont., was arrested here yesterday living with another wife. He was allowed to choose between returning with wife No. 1 or being tried for bigamy. He paid wife No. 2 $100, and left with his first wife for Canada.

Sunday's Compromise.

NEWARK, N. J., March 2.—Another scene in the bigamy case of James Macdonald, the Toronto printer, was enacted to-day. Mrs. Macdonald No. 1, who had followed her husband from Canada, entered police headquarters and said she had accepted $400 from her husband, agreeing that she would return to her home and allow him to live unmolested with Miss Annie Saunders, wife No. 2. Her husband accompanied her to the railroad station and saw her start for Canada.

NO TRUTH IN THE STORY.

The Government Will Not Indict Archbishop Croke.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The Post's London correspondent believes there is no truth in the story that the Government have decided to proclaim the National League and put Archbishop Croke on trial as instigating to sedition. He says their law officers warned them that no proof of the Archbishop's guilt would be forthcoming and that the chances of convicting a Catholic Archbishop was absolutely non-existent. As for the National League, he says, the important fact is that it has been very quiet of late and has had nothing to do with the plan of campaign, which is the work of private and more or less spontaneous agencies.

KNIGHTS GRATIFIED.

CARDINAL GIBBONS CHAMPIONS THEIR CAUSE AT ROME.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Cardinal Gibbons' favorable report to Pope Leo as to the aims and standing of the Knights of Labor was received with much rejoicing by the Knights in this city and elsewhere. It had been thought by many of the leading Knights that the McGlynn controversy and the attacks made by Henry George on the church would have prejudiced the authorities at Rome against the order, and this fear was aggravated by the fact that Cardinal Taschereau, who sailed in company with the American Cardinal, had announced his intention to endeavor to influence Rome through it in his fight with the Canadian Knights.

Bishop Keane of Richmond and Bishop Ireland of St. Paul, who are both friendly to the Knights and who are recognized at Rome as representing the more progressive element in the American hierarchy, are with Cardinal Gibbons to support him in the position which he takes. Cardinal Gibbons, before leaving for Rome, carefully examined the manual of the order. He also held a long conference with Master Workman Powderly. His present position is the result of his investigation. It is said in clerical circles that the Knights had powerful enemies within the Vatican. Many of the Cardinals thought the order to be of a character similar to the secret societies of Italy and Spain and opposed it for that reason. This report of Cadinal Gibbons has no bearing whatever on the McGlynn case, nor will its endorsement by the Pope carry with it anything more than an approval of the general plan of the order.

THE EARTHQUAKE VISITATION.

Shocks Said to Have Been Felt on this Side of the Atlantic.

ROME, March 2.—The official list of Italian earthquake victims places the dead at 646, and the injured at 432. Twenty thousand persons are homeless. Material losses are estimated at $10,000,000.

The Genoese have contributed $20,000 in three days for the relief of sufferers. Fully 20,000 persons are homeless.

The Stench of Corpses Fills the Air.

LONDON, March 2.—Of the 300 bodies of victims of the earthquakes buried at Diano-Marino only fifteen were identified. About 5000 persons there are still camping out. The air is becoming horribly offensive owing to the stench that is arising from corpses that are yet in the ruins.

Long Island Feels the Tremors.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Various points along the Long Island coast report that earthquakes were felt this afternoon. Buildings were shaken perceptibly, but as far as reported no damage was done. The sea was smooth and the sky had a hazy appearance.

The Shocks Continue.

ROME, March 2.—A severe shock of earthquake was felt to-day in Reggiot Decalabria, and two slight shocks occurred at Diano-Marino. The people fear further disasters because of the excessive heat and the fact that the sea has not returned to its ordinary level.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

Six Opponents of the Septennate Elected in Berlin.

BERLIN, March 2.—The reballot in the first division of Berlin to-day resulted in the election of Klotz, New German Liberal, who polled 9081 votes against 7794 for Zidlitz Neukirch, Septennist. In the second division Virchow, New German Liberal, defeated Wolff, Septennist. In the third Muenkel, New German Liberal, had 11,260 votes and Christensen, Socialist, 10,559. In the fifth, Baumbach, New German Liberal, received 12, 816 votes, defeating Blume, Septennist, who polled 8031. The fourth and sixth divisions were carried in the first contest by Socialists. Berlin has thus returned six deputies who are opposed to the Septennate.

At Lubeck the Socialists engaged in a riot after the announcement of the result of the election there, in which their candidate was defeated. The military intervened and made many arrests. A number of those arrested have been released.

The supplementary elections in 24 electoral districts have resulted in the return of 3 Conservatives, 4 National Liberals, 10 New German Liberals, 2 Centrists, 4 Socialists and 1 Imperialist. Koenigsberg returned a National Liberal, Frankfort-on-the-Main a Socialist and Bremen a New German Liberal.

FROM HAMILTON.

An Elopement at Lynden—A Wholesale Shoe Firm Defrauded.

HAMILTON, March 2.—A few days ago Constable McNair was given a warrant for the arrest of Samuel Wood of Lynden, for breaking into the hotel of Mr. Pitton of that place, and about the same time it was reported that Wood had left Lynden in company with a young woman, the wife of a Mr. Bishop of that place, and having in his possession a watch belonging to a young man named Savage, which he had got, without leave, for the purpose of timing a horse-race. Mr. Bishop agreed to follow Wood and his wife with the constable, and as Wood is a powerful fellow, Bishop, who is one of the few men in Lynden who is his match, was to do the work of arresting. When they had searched three days and traced the runaway pair for a considerable distance, Bishop went ahead, the constable following far enough behind to come upon the scene when wanted. At last, when Bishop came up with Wood he received a blow which knocked him down and then Wood ran. Bishop picked himself up and followed and was close upon Wood when Mrs. Bishop screamed, and that settled the chase, for Bishop stopped and Wood escaped. Bishop then brought his wife home. The affair has caused much talk at Lynden.

Mrs. Elizabeth Trumblett, who carried on a shoe store on King-street west, has absconded, leaving numerous creditors, of whom Griffith & Co., wholesale boot and shoe dealers, are the heaviest losers. She is supposed to be in Rochester.

Boulanger's Growing Power.

BERLIN, March 2.—It is rumored in official circles that changes are imminent in the French Cabinet. Gen. Boulanger's influence, it is said, has so increased that the ministers in favor of a peace policy will soon be driven to resign, Gen. Boulanger thus obtaining dominance in the Cabinet.

Food Adulteration.

OTTAWA, March 2.—The excise officers of this city have of late been paying attention to the matter of food adulteration, and as a result a large number of shopkeepers have been summoned to appear in the police court shortly to answer to a charge of selling adulterated food.

The Turmoil Done.

MONTREAL, March 2.—The city has again assumed its quiet aspect after the turmoil of the elections. The newly elected mayor and aldermen have been the recipients of numerous congratulations.

The weather is much milder, and has the appearance of a drawing thaw.

THAT BAIT MEASURE.

THE IMPERIAL POWER DISALLOWS THE BAIT BILL.

LONDON, March 2.—Sir Henry Holland, Colonial Secretary, has sent a dispatch to the Governor of Newfoundland informing him that the Home Government does not feel justified in disregarding the strong protests of France against the restrictions at this late period, which are calculated to inflict grave loss upon the French fishermen, and is therefore unable to allow the bill passed by the Newfoundland Legislature in relation to the fisheries to operate this season. The Secretary says the Government thoroughly understand that French bounties are a grave disadvantage to the British fishermen, still it is not shown that the British fisheries are unremunerative.

The Island May Enter the Confederation.

OTTAWA, March 2.—Speaking of the discontent in Newfoundland consequent upon the disallowance of the bait bill, Hon. Mr. Foster, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, said to-day: "The entry of Newfoundland into the Confederation is not at all unlikely. The feeling in that colony seems to be well defined and vigorous. The present delegation to England, I understand, has been authorized to lay this prevailing sentiment before the Colonial authorities. It seems to be a matter of life or death to the fishing interests of the island. The agitation will probably mould the present somewhat uncertain political sentiment of Newfoundland into a more definite shape. I should not be at all surprised if the island should move in the direction of confederation with the Dominion. This would simplify the fishery question and in confederation with the Canadian spirit of improvement and our vigorous trade policy put into active force there, Newfoundland might easily enter a new phase of progress."

THE FISHERIES DIFFICULTY.

Hon. Mr. Foster Says Canada Will Continue Her Vigorous Policy.

OTTAWA, March 2.—Speaking of the Canadian fisheries dispute to-day, Hon. Mr. Foster said the present Government would make no change in its attitude with reference to the fishery question. The old Government took no extreme ground, but simply stood for the rights of Canada as guaranteed by the treaty of 1818. Its enforcement of fishery protection last season was courteous, inclining even to leniency and strictly within the lines of established precedent. The Government is not prepared to abandon its former ground and steps will be taken, in case no arrangement is reached in the meantime, to still more thoroughly and efficiently guard our coasts and protect the interests of our fishermen during the coming season.

The Retaliatory Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The House resumed the consideration of the conference report on the Fisheries Retaliation Bill. After the debate, the House, by 140 to 113, agreed to recede from its amendments to the Senate bill. A motion to reconsider was tabled. This passes the bill in the shape in which it passed the Senate.

Guelph Monthly Cattle Show.

GUELPH, March 2.—The monthly cattle fair to-day was well attended by buyers and sellers. There were about 300 head of cattle on the ground. The price paid for good animals was from 3c to 3½c per pound live weight. Cows were sold at from 2½c to 3c. Although the prices were low business was brisk.

Cut To Pieces By a Train.

LONDON, March 2.—John Sinclair, an Elfrid farmer, was run over by a train on the G.T.R. near here on Tuesday and cut to pieces. His remains were strewn along the track for a quarter of a mile.

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1887.

HON. WILFRED LAURIER, the Quebec Liberal leader, has a larger majority than any other successful candidate. It reached 1,936.

A NEWS paragraph states that Mr. John White secured every Indian vote in East Hastings. This is becoming. He wants the Indians to colonize the blind shares estate he gobbled from the Half-breeds of St. Louis de Langevin.

THE depression in trade is shown by the customs and excise collections at Ottawa during the month of February. The excise collections decreased $1,626 compared with the corresponding month last year; and the customs returns by $3,000. Other ports, it is feared, will make a similar showing, and thus swell the already enormous deficit for the present fiscal year.

THE death of Mr. D. Ford Jones, ex-M.P. for South Leeds, is announced. Mr. Jones, who was a well known Conservative, was elected to the Commons in 1874 and 1878, and was a prominent opponent of the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty with the United States, when that subject agitated the public a dozen years ago.

DISASTERS come not singly. A few days ago the Albany Club—a Toronto Conservative conglomerate — "bounced" Bunting from its membership roll, and on Monday a fire damaged the Reform Club rooms, Toronto. The Albany's disaster is the worse—it is irreparable. The Reform Club can get other rooms, but the Albany can never get another Bunting—no matter how much they may regret their precipitancy. They have crooned their lullaby "By, baby Bunting!" and the last tie is broken.

The McLachlan Claim.

The following letter is copied from The Budget, an insurance journal:

To the Editor of The Budget.

SIR,—I am favored with yours of 19th asking me to supply you with the "true facts of this case." In my unwillingness to be the medium of inflicting injury on the Citizens Insurance Company, and exposing some flagrant inaccuracies into which the manager, Mr. Gerald E. Hart, allowed himself to be led, I refrained from replying to his letters in the Star and the Shareholder. I shall now, however, give you a brief statement of the chief points, and you may do with them what you like.

Besides $7,100 of life assurance we had $10,000 of accident insurance on the late Mr. J. S. McLachlan. The latter was issued on 21st Aug., 1885—of that sum $5,000 was re-assured in the Citizens, and the premium paid for that year when the two companies adjusted their accounts on 31st Dec., following—the practice has been for years to settle accounts only at end of year.

The renewal for Aug., 1886, was written out in receipt book with all others due that month, but he being absent nearly the whole summer, it was not taken up when due. On the evening of 17th Nov., he telephoned enquiring if it had been paid and being answered in the negative said, "I am going on a couple of days' duck shooting to-morrow, send receipt around at once." That was done, three of our clerks having had a hand in the bearing from stub, making entry in cash book and conveying same to Mr. McLachlan; so that there is no mystery as to that.

The first intimation we received of the accident was from the chief clerk of the Citizens who came across enquiring if the $10,000 accident policy had been renewed, as Mr. McLachlan was reported to be drowned. The drowning occurred some time on 13th and the Citizens' enquiry was some time in early afternoon of 10th. He was informed that the policy had been renewed.

Nothing further was done by us in the matter till 7th Dec., when the president and general manager of that company, in conversation with the writer, denied that they were on the risk, as we had not notified them of the renewal, claiming that the contract of re-assurance between the companies was expressly limited to agency business. They also asserted that owing to the circumstances surrounding the accident, the McLachlan family could not make a claim on the companies. That information was given by Mr. Hart to be published by the Journal of Commerce, and intimated besides that all the companies interested were to hold a meeting and determine on a joint course of action.

A number of affidavits were received from well-known men of nigh character testifying to the all but certain death by drowning of Mr. McLachlan, which fact was placed beyond cavil by the disappearance at the same time and in same manner of his comrade, Mr. Sumner. No one doubts that the drowning took place. Our directors admitted the claim and ordered payment in the usual way—merely taking a bond that the money would be returned with interest should it ever be discovered that Mr. McLachlan was not drowned, as we believe. Copies of the claim papers were served on the Citizens, and demand made for payment, but up to the present moment that has not been received.

Referring to Mr. Hart's letter in the Shareholder of 7th, he there affirms that, the contract of re-assurance had been written in the Citizens office, by one of its clerks, and signed by said clerk, it being too unimportant to receive general manager's personal attention, and that any one acquainted with insurance business could by reading it see that it applied only to agency business. He further denied that his company had any intention of repudiating the Sun's claim.

I shall let letters speak for themselves, and first as to contract:—Mr. Hart wrote on 26th August, 1884. "Dear Sir,—As renewals of accident policies re-insured with your company come in to us from time to time, we would like to understand that you cover us under them in the same manner, and to the same extent as you did under the original policies, whether the renewal receipts are forwarded to us or not from your office."

To it you will see was simply an enquiry.

Reply:—"28th Aug., 1884, Gerald E. Hart, Esq., general manager, &c., Dear Sir, —Your favor of 26th inst. is to hand, I note its contents. The understanding is that we cover you under the renewal of policies re-insured by you with us and that you cover us in the same way, whether the renewals be sent by us to you or by you to us (as the case may be), or not, and that the re-assuring company will receive exactly the number of premiums which the original company does and be bound to pay its share of the claims in the same way as the original company. We look to you however, to see that we receive our share of every premium paid to you on every policy of which you have reinsured a part with us, whether the receipt be forwarded to you or not. We shall see that this is done to you on our part. On the other hand, nothing that I have said shall be considered as preventing the original company from cancelling the risk provided it gives notice to that effect before the beginning of the new policy year. Kindly write me accepting these terms. Yours truly, (sgd.) R. Macaulay, managing director."

His reply:—"29 Aug., R. Macaulay &c., —Your favor of 28th inst., replying to mine of 28th in re-insurance of accident renewals has been duly received and is in every respect satisfactory. Yours truly, G. E. Hart." P.S.—This will apply to late renewals also."

As between companies doing considerable re-assurance with each other, was that contract trifling and unimportant; or written in Citizens office, or signed by Citizens clerk? Any one can see that the contract was drawn up by the Sun and approved, ratified, and its application extended, over Hart's signature. But let me ask, most emphatically, is there one word in any of the letters that would even hint that it was meant to apply to agency business only?

Then about refusing to pay:—Under 20th Dec., 1886, he wrote "With reference to a contract existing between the two companies under dates 26th and 28th August, 1884, we beg to say that it is not our understanding that such contract applies to Montreal city business .....only to such as renewals from agents.....Our board further desires me to say, that in the event of the intention being plainly shown, that the risk was to have been continued with this company, that they are not satisfied with the proofs of loss submitted, as under the terms of your policy, which this company is to re-insure, it is expressly stipulated that the insurance shall not extend to mysterious disappearance, nor to any cause of death, or disability, the nature and cause of which are unknown, or incapable of direct and positive proof, until such proofs are offered they would decline in any event to admit the claim," and on 3rd January inst., he wrote demanding "proof satisfactory to our minds that the risk in question exists with us and that Mr. McLachlan is dead." All that after the proofs had been in their possession for some time!

I have no desire to make any remarks disparaging to the Citizens or its general manager, but if the above contract can be shown to expressly exclude, or not include, city re-assurances; or if the quotations cited do not show that company to be refusing to pay on the proof of death on which the Sun Life paid, then no one will be more surprised than I. Rather than say more I leave those matters with you to publish or not, as you may think fit, seeing that as an editor, you have requested them.

Since writing the above, I have received the final decision of the Citizens' Board of Directors, stating that "no insurance exists" inasmuch as the Sun received the last renewal premium outside the days of grace allowed in the policy. In fact they have from time to time adopted every possible plea of repudiation. At one time their contention was—the McLachlan family cannot prove their claim, then, we were not requested to renew. Reminded of the above contract, they insisted that it was expressly applicable to agency business, and as McLachlan's was a city risk it was not covered. Later, the proofs of death are insufficient, which could only be made so by the production of the body. Public opinion being against such a stand they demanded affidavits that the re-assurance had remained unchanged and that the intention of continuing it with them had never been abandoned. That given, they demanded access to our books, which was also unreservedly allowed. At another time it was objected that if the re-assurance existed it was unaccountable that they should have been kept in entire ignorance of the fact for six weeks after the death—although they were the first to notify us of the death when enquiring if the policy in which alone they were interested, had been renewed, and now the premium was received by the Sun outside grace. Doubtless, all of these and more, too, will be used in their defence in court.

From the outset the manner of the president and general manager impressed me with the belief that they were merely fishing for pretexts to justify resistance. The Sun's directors acted in thorough good faith throughout, doing a simple act of justice to one of its assured members—no more than would have been accorded to any other in similar circumstances. We did not anticipate laudation nor other benefit than has arisen chiefly, if not solely, from the unfortunate attitude of the Citizens. Years ago the executive of the Sun Life resolved upon and adopted a common sense course of action toward its assured. An unconditional policy was issued and a determination come to that no claims should be opposed on mere technical grounds—fraud alone would warrant that.

On the principle that it were better that ten rogues should escape than that one innocent person must suffer, we prefer putting a liberal construction on the terms of the bonds our company issues. There will not, knowingly on our part, be any litigation on mere, flimsy technicalities. We have paid the $5,000 owing by the Citizens, while they prefer contesting with the view of gaining time or finally escaping payment altogether of their own bond. Honor bright is a jewel.

Yours truly,
R. MACAULAY.

FORESTER'S ENTERTAINMENT.

It has become a by-word that any entertainment given by the Foresters is certain to be a success, so that tickets and invitations are always in demand. The anniversary entertainment given last Friday evening by Court Lakefield, No. 43, C. O. F., was no exception to the rule, as it eclipsed in success and point of numbers present any former attempts. By 9 p.m. the spacious court room and adjoining Masonic Hall were thronged with as happy a crowd of young and old as it would be possible to collect together. Many were the remarks of surprise by the guests to find such a comfortable and handsomely furnished court room, that can be surpassed but by one or two in the order. Games, cards, singing and conversation all helped to add to the enjoyment of the evening, while frequent selections from the Forester's band tended to still further enliven the proceedings. At 10 p.m. an adjournment was made to the council chamber for supper. Tables had been laid the entire length of the large hall while the adjoining rooms were utilized for reception, cloak rooms and kitchen. Over 250 sat down to supper which in charge. Supper over some retired home, others adjourned to the court room to resume interrupted games or conversation, but the majority remained. Willing hands soon removed the supper tables and the vacated space was thronged with young people impatient for the first note from Prof. Scrimgour's violin. As time passed some of the older heads caught the contagion and a "set" of "patriarchs" proved to the amused onlookers that they could still "welt the flure" as well as the youngsters. The evening passed all too quickly for many and it was nearly 3 a.m. ere the last good-nights were said. Court Lakefield is still pushing ahead, five applications were received last month, which will bring the membership up to over 70, and many others have signified their intention to join.

WINTER SPORT.

During the soft weather, a few days since, while Mr. Giles Stone, who has charge of Messrs. Stricklands' shanty in Harvey, was out wood-ranging, he came across the fresh track of a large bear, which he tracked to its den. Having only a small axe with him he returned to the shanty and secured his rifle and soon dislodged Bruin with a ball which only wounded it, and which caused a rush at the hunter. Another ball between the eyes brought it to bay, and on examining the den two young cubs, only a few days old, were found, and as they had no means of feeding them in camp, they were despatched. The mother weighed over 200 pounds.

THE FOX FIND.

Our local fox hunters have raked in five more foxes since my last item, and have only one more (the black one) is required to complete their bag for the season, thirty in all.

PROPERTY CHANGES.

Mr. Samuel Wallace has sold his farm in South and bought that of Mr. Lawrence Steele, which is partly situated in the village. Mr. Steele has secured Mr. W. McDonald's brick residence on Concession street, and Mr. McDonald will, in all probability, build this summer.

NO POLICE.

A drunken man (a stranger), who had been refused admittance to the hotels in the village, amused himself on Saturday afternoon by firing several shots from a revolver on Queen and Bridge streets. As we have no village constable he was permitted to take his departure in peace.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers, Life is but an empty dream."

And yet it is, when all the energy is taken out of it by some dread disease like consumption, that, realized, means certain death; catarrh and bronchitis, both distressing, and often leading to consumption, or like liver complaints or scrofula, which too often make those afflicted feel that life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with "mournful numbers," brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity. Chronic Neuralgia—Instantly Cured.

Market Place, Sussex Road, Eastborne, Eng.

Up to five months ago, I have been subject to the most serious form of neuralgic attacks in the head and temples, which came on always once a week, and sometimes as often as once in four days. I had heard of St. Jacobs Oil, and most remarkable to say, in less than two hours from the time my wife rubbed the Oil on my temple, I was free from pain and able to attend to my business. But the most remarkable thing about it is, I have never had an attack of the neuralgia since.

For the last five years I suffered dreadfully from neuralgia and nervous pain in my head. It affected my face and eyes, so that at times I was unable to attend to any work. I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil at once, and after the first application to the affected parts, I felt instant relief. M. M. CLARK.

Social Purity.

A very good audience of young men listened on Wednesday evening to a vigorous lecture on "Social and Personal Purity" by Mr. Charles James, lecturer of the Gospel Purity Association, of London, England. It was given in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, and Dr. Fife occupied the chair. Before commencing his lecture Mr. James sang a solo entitled "There'll be joy bye-and-bye," in a very pleasing manner. The eloquence of the Welsh is a well-known characteristic, and Mr. James fully upheld the reputation of his countrymen. He spoke for over an hour and was listened to with the greatest interest and attention. He specially dwelt on the secret sins indulged in by boys and young men, describing in telling words the terrible effects of these vices on the physical, mental and moral faculties. He also referred in plain strong terms to the social vices, and to the many agencies used by Satan to entrap the young into these sins The young men were earnestly urged to be truly chivalrous, and to treat every girl and woman with the respect they wished to be shown to their own sisters. We doubt not that very much good was done by the lecture. Many of those present wished for a repetition of it, and this will probably be arranged for next week, after Mr. James visits Toronto and Hamilton. The public, both ladies and gentlemen, are invited to attend the lecture to-night in St. Paul's church school room when Mr. James will speak on "Christmas Evans, the Apostle of Wales."

Preparing for the Carnival.

The skating rink is being gorgeously decorated to-day for the grand carnival to-morrow night. To-night the rink will be flooded and first-class ice formed. There will, of course, be no skating to-morrow afternoon. This second carnival promises to be even more attractive than the first. For the sum of 25c. a sight can be witnessed that will at once delight the eye and amuse the senses. Those wishing to help the Fire Brigade—the hard-working laddies who bravely face every danger for the good of their fellow-citizens—can not do better than attend the carnival. Handsome prizes are to be awarded the best costumers and skaters.

A Cow for 15 Cents.

Harry Lindley, the drollest, funniest, and most genial of Canadian low comedians, opens a weeks' engagement at the Opera House with a good company on Monday evening next, with Saturday matinee. The inimitable Harry offers as a prize drawing a live cow, which will be drawn for in the usual way. Here's a chance to secure a good milcher for 15 cents.

"Christmas Evans, the Apostle of Wales."

Mr. Charles James, of London, England, who delivered the eloquent lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last night, will lecture to-night, under the auspices of the Association, in St. Paul's church school room at 8 o'clock. No charge for admission, but a silver collection will be taken at the door to cover expenses.

Here's Something for Paterfamilias.

Stricken Down by Apoplexy.

Dr. O'Sullivan, of Peterborough, at the Point of Death—No Hope of Recovery Entertained.

Citizens of Peterborough were surprised and shocked this morning on hearing that Dr. J. O'Sullivan, an old and respected resident, was lying at the point of death in Emsemore, the result of an apoplectic stroke.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. O'Sullivan and wife drove to Emsemore on a couple of sick calls, and while at the house of Mr. Creagh, Reeve, his last stopping place, the doctor was attacked by the sudden malady. After tea he went outside to "take a turn in the yard," and not returning in a reasonable time, search was made for him, with the result of finding him lying on the ground in a dead faint. His insensate body was tenderly carried inside and placed on a sofa, after which Rev. Father Kelly the parish priest, was summoned, who did everything a priest could do under the circumstances for the unfortunate doctor. About 1 o'clock Dr. Bingham of town, was called out, But could not succeed in restoring animation to the unconscious. Telegrams have been sent to Dr. O'Sullivan's brother a barrister in Toronto; his father-in-law city clerk of Kingston, and Senator Sullivan, notifying them of the sad occurrence.

Mrs. O'Sullivan is deeply affected by the sudden blow. She recalls a conversation which took place between herself and the doctor on the road to Emsemore, in which the latter remarked that he had a premonition of approaching illness, and hoped no sudden malady would attack him. It appears that the doctor expected something of the kind, and his fears were only too quickly realized.

Dr. Bingham offers no hope of the recovery of his patient, who still remains unconscious, the most strenuous efforts having failed to rouse him from his lethargy.

Another Victory for Lindsay.

The Lindsay Curlers Out-play Lakefield and Peterborough.

The hopes of the Peterborough curlers ran high at the beginning of their game with the Lindsay visitors yesterday afternoon, but before the match was concluded they sank to below zero, as the inevitable result of the play became more and more apparent. When half the ends had been played, Peterborough was ahead, but their opponents played admirably and succeeded in coming out ahead with a good majority. Score:

Concerning Book-keeping.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—In our letter of a day or two ago, we spoke of a form of book which we had used for years as a combined Day-book Journal and Cash Book. Mr. Young thinks we meant the 6 column journal; we made no more reference to the six column journal than to the journal introduced by Prof. Goodwin many years ago, which, was designed to help merchants tell the value of the goods on their shelves, but which fell far short of that desirable explanation; further we made no more reference to the 6 column journal than to any journal having special columns. The 6 column idea is much older, being in use amongst wholesale men for over 30 years. We had reference to the books combined as named above, and which is older by ten or twelve years than Mr. Young the inventor. The Chicago Seven Column System has been before the public for several years past, and its leading feature is a copy of the old six column journal. Mr. Young is deserving we think no os as an inventor, certainly but as a modifier, possibly. Again, the idea of telling the value of goods on the shelves by the record kept in his "new" book is much older than Mr. Young himself, although from his manner of advertising, one might be led to think that he was the originator of the idea. Why, there is scarcely an experienced merchant on George street who has not tried the experiment or heard of it. In our letter we said there is but one satisfactory way of determining the value of goods on the shelves. We repeat it and we challenge the business men of the town if they would not gladly abandon the old hardship of "taking stock," if it were possible.

We must acknowledge that for merchants dealing in some one specialty; or for some wholesale merchants, the scheme is feasable; but for retail men, and those are the men Mr. Young is trying to allure, the thing becomes more grotesque and ridiculous the longer we examine it. Many merchants mark their goods according to their salability. For example, the latter will often charge more for a low cost hat than a high cost one, because it may be a more saleable article—It often happens. And he does not add this profit upon any fixed principle of applying percentage. Possibly he may mark the bulk of his goods at a certain advance, which will cover expenses of freight, salary, rent, taxes, insurance, bad debts, his own services, interest on his investment, etc., but he cannot mark his goods at different rates and in various ways, and then average them in order to discover the value of goods on shelves. If Mr. Young never formulated another mathematical formula, this one "that by averaging his percentage of profit and deducting the average percentage from the amount of goods sold a merchant could find the cost of goods unsold," he would have said enough to show that his knowledge of business arithmetic was in a dwarfed and benighted condition. It is similar to the reasoning of the merchant who having purchased an article for $1.00 less "20 and 5%" and sold it for $1.00 less 25%, thinking he had sold the article at cost. In the first place it will be seen that $1.00 less 20% leaves 80c., and 5% from this leaves 76c., which equals cost. In the second case he sold it for $1.00 less 25% which equals 75c. To find the cost of goods on shelves Mr. Young says to "average the percentages." We would call attention to this fact that the amount of the sales of goods the different percentages of profit must also be taken into account. And another item is the waste that is constantly going on in the waying and measuring—books of account do not allow for this, as a rule.

We conclude by adding that very few experienced book-keepers would be willing to risk their reputation by announcing themselves "inventors" of a combination that was invented before they were born; and few experienced merchants would risk their sanity by relying on their "books" to tell the cost value of goods on the shelves. Goethe was dying when he exclaimed "Mehr Licht;" we trust that our young men may not have to die before they are willing to admit that they need "more light."

Yours respectfully,
HANNELL SAWYER.

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirement, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Sumner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavit produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interrupted to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. McLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

PARLIAMENT TO MEET

THE DOMINION HOUSE WILL MEET ON APRIL 13.

OTTAWA, March 3.—It is officially announced that the Dominion Parliament has been summoned to meet for the despatch of business on Wednesday, April 13. It is generally believed there will be a very short session, unless amendments to the election law are brought forward, in which case the hope that Parliament will adjourn by the Queen's Birthday will be blasted.

Dawson Carries Algoma.

PORT ARTHUR, March 3.—The election for the House of Commons for Algoma was held to-day. All the returns are in with the exception of Manitoulin Island, which will not materially alter the result. Dawson, Conservative, so far as heard, has a majority of 131, Port Arthur gave Dawson 163 majority and Sault Portage, where Burk expected a large majority went Conservative by five majority.

THE SILISTRIA REVOLT.

Many Rebels Have Been Killed by Government Troops.

SOFIA, March 3.—The loyal troops of Ashmala garrison have suppressed the revolt at Silistria. The engagement was brief and almost bloodless. The insurgents occupy the citadel at Rustchuk and are shelling the loyalists in the barracks.

The Rebels Attacked.

BUCHAREST, March 3.—The leaders of the revolt did not cross the Danube but passed into Dobrudja. The garrison at Rustchuk split into two factions. The Government troops are attacking the rebels sheltered in the barracks and many have been killed and wounded. Nobody is allowed to leave Rustchuk.

MYSTERIOUSLY POISONED.

One Hundred Inmates of a St. Louis Convent Taken Suddenly Ill.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 3.—Nearly 100 inmates of St. Joseph's Convent, in South St. Louis, were suddenly prostrated during last Tuesday night and yesterday morning, displaying every symptom of poisoning. The facts of the case have been kept secret until to-day. The younger pupils attending the academy showed the first symptoms and one after another was taken down. Several of the older pupils and a few of the sisters in charge of the dormitories were afterwards attacked and the malady threatens to become general. A physician was summoned and he, aided by the sisters, administered the necessary medicines, which in most cases relieved the patient. Several pupils, however, are still prostrated, but no serious results are anticipated. The doctors have been unable to determine the kind of poison which produced the sickness, but are of opinion that it was taken with the food of the morning meal last Tuesday. It is supposed to have been contained in the canned fruit which was eaten at that time, but no one suspects that it was placed there intentionally.

GILDER TURNS BACK.

An Expedition to the North Pole Added to the List of Failures.

WINNIPEG, March 3.—Col. Gilder, who started on a voyage to the North Pole, is returning to New York. He reached Fort Churchill too late to catch the Hudson Bay boat to Nottingham Island, and as he would have to stay several months about Churchill without occupation he decided to return to New York to transact some business, after which he says he will leave in time to catch the next Hudson Bay boat several months hence, or else catch a whaling vessel bound for the Northern seas.

Runaway Accident at Guelph.

GUELPH, March 3.—Mr. Richard Fosbury, an eldest daughter Ethel, and Eliza, the youngest daughter of Michael O'Connell, gardener, were out driving this afternoon when the horse took fright and ran away, throwing all three out against a telegraph pole. All were badly cut about the head and bruised. To-night Mr. Fosbury has regained consciousness and it is thought he is out of danger. Miss Fosbury is in a semi-conscious condition, and Miss O'Connell is delirious. The recovery of either is doubtful.

Ottawa's Jubilee Celebration.

OTTAWA, March 3.—The City Council Committee on the Queen's jubilee celebration has decided and recommended that a grand demonstration be held here July 1 and 2, the attractions to include a military review and sham battle. The committee will wait on the Minister of Militia to secure the holding of the military camp for this district at Ottawa next summer at the time of the celebration. For the cost of the festivities it is proposed that a by-law to grant the necessary amount be submitted to the people.

A Telephone Patent Annulled.

OTTAWA, March 3.—The Minister of Agriculture gave judgment this morning annulling the Bell Telephone Company's patent for the Blake transmitter, granted in 1877. Evidence is now being taken in support of an application to have patents for the Edison transmitter annulled. There is no appeal from the Minister's decision.

UNHAPPY IRELAND.

CONCILIATION APPEARS TO BE DONE AND COERCION THREATENS.

LONDON, March 3.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt writes to the Times to show that the troubles in Ireland arise from the attempt of the Government to enforce the payment of rents, which their own land commission has declared the people are unable to pay. He quotes from speeches of Sir Michael Hicks Beach and other Conservatives, made last year, in which it was admitted that if Mr. Parnell was able to prove all the premises of his Tenants' Bill, the Government would be bound to attempt to supply a remedy. The land commission, says the writer, proved Mr. Parnell to be in the right, yet the Government, instead of bringing a bill to deal with judicial rents, proposed fresh coercion measures.

LONDON, March 3.—In spite of the pressure of a section of the Cabinet in favor of coercion, the council to-day decided to conclude the closure debate before the production of the Crimes Bill. If the first rule of procedure is not passed by Tuesday, Mr. Smith will ask for a continuous sitting until the rule has been passed. The council further decided to restrict the Crimes Bill to clauses dealing with changing of the venue of jury trials and magistrates' powers of summary trials in cases involving sentences of not more than six months. The Ulster Tory proposal that boycotting be made punishable with severe measures was right.

Trial by Jury in Ireland.

DUBLIN, March 3.—At the Clare Assizes yesterday Judge O'Brien, commenting upon the action of the jury in acquitting a prisoner who was without a shadow of a defence, said that it was useless to try cases before such juries, and Mr. Murphy, on behalf of the Crown, said he would postpone the principal cases until the next assizes.

Fathers Keller and Murphy, who are supposed to be Plan of Campaign trustees for the Ponsonby estate, have been summoned before Judge Boyd.

The Coercion Proposition.

LONDON, March 3.—The Conservative movement with the object of forcing the Government to deal with Ireland immediately is assuming a critical phase. A number of Liberal-Unionists have joined the Conservatives in this movement.

The Cabinet council fixed for yesterday was postponed by Lord Salisbury in order to enable him to have separate consultations with the ministers, and try to reconcile the differences on the extent to which coercion shall be carried in Ireland.

THE NEW REICHSTAG.

The Speech From the Throne Repeatedly Interrupted by Cheers.

BERLIN, March 3.—Two hundred and fifty members were present at the opening of the new Reichstag to-day. Prince Louis of Bavaria occupied a seat in the Imperial box. The members of the Bundesrath entered the chamber headed by Herr Von Boetheher, representative of the Chancellor, who read the Emperor's speech.

The speech expressed gratification at the benevolent disposition of the Pope toward the empire. The foreign policy of the empire, it continued, is continually directed towards the maintenance of peace with all the powers, and especially with Germany's neighbors. The foreign relations of the Government are the same as when the last Reichstag was opened. If the present Reichstag, without hesitation or division, gives unanimous expression to the resolve that the nation will put forth its full strength in full panoply, now and at all times, against any attack upon our frontiers, such resolution, even before being carried out, will materially strengthen guarantees of peace, and remove doubts which the late Parliamentary debates may have inspired. The Emperor feels assured that the Reichstag, by its resolution, will give the Federal Government a national policy on a safe basis, and derives from this conviction a confident hope that God will bless his efforts to preserve the peace and security of Germany.

The concluding passages of the speech, referring to Germany's peaceful policy and appealing to the Reichstag for unanimity in voting the Army Bill were repeatedly interrupted by cheers. When the reading of the speech was concluded, Count Leichenfeld proposed three cheers for the Emperor and led the demonstration that followed in response.

AN UPRISING IN AFGHANISTAN.

A Fanatical Dervish Declares Himself Ruler and Defies the Ameer.

BOMBAY, March 3.—News received from Afghanistan through native sources shows that the Ameer is making strenuous efforts to raise a new army. All boys between the ages of 10 and 18 years are being drilled for military service, and those who have reached the age of 18 years are being enrolled in the army. The Ameer has issued a circular to his subjects telling them to prepare for a holy war. It is believed he contemplates war against Russia.

A telegram from Lahore confirms the reports that the Ameer is raising a new army. The son of the fanatic Dervish Mushk Alum, backed by the Tarsks, Indors, Utaks, Jokees, Kakars and other tribes, has proclaimed himself ruler of Afghanistan, and has sent the Ameer a defiant letter threatening to attack him without delay.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

A Brilliant Crowd Attends the Reception at Buckingham Palace.

LONDON, March 3.—The first of the Queen's jubilee drawing rooms was held to-day at Buckingham Palace. Her Majesty is in the enjoyment of fine health and spirits and took an hour's drive before the time appointed for the event. The attendance at the drawing room was greater than at any preceding affair of the kind during the long reign of the Queen, and the number of debutantes was unprecedented. The weather was fine, the crowds congregated in the parks and roadways around the palace numbering many thousands, and the court officials say that the reception was the most brilliant they ever attended.

THE KNIGHTS AND THE CHURCH.

The Pope Said to Favor the Aspirations of Modern Labor.

ROME, March 3.—It is said on authority that there is no likelihood that the Holy See will take any other than the most favorable view of the attitude of Cardinal Gibbons and the American bishops toward the Knights of Labor. The statements drawn up by the papal Delegate, the letters of certain American Catholic statesmen to the Pope and the personal opinion of Cardinal Manning, all support Cardinal Gibbons. The Pope himself, it is said, favors the aspirations of modern labor.

Yellow Fever Suspected.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The steamship Portsmouth, from South America, passed quarantine to-day and came up to her wharf in Brooklyn. Two firemen on board were very ill, and one of them, Wm. Colgan, 28 years old, died before the vessel reached her wharf. The other man, Thomas Durkin, was placed in an ambulance and a start made for an hospital.

HAMILTON MATTERS.

A Fashionable Wedding—Fined for Obstructing the G. T. Railway Track.

HAMILTON, March 3.—A fashionable wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Alex. Gillies, No. 40 Hunter-street, the parties being Miss Ida Gillies and Robert B. Skinner, wholesale merchant of this city. Rev. D. H. Fletcher, of McNab-street Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The floral decorations were very handsome and the assemblage very fashionable.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mallory, East-avenue north, celebrated their golden wedding. The worthy couple received many handsome presents.

The master tailors met last night and considered the request of the journeymen for an advance of 10 per cent. on all classes of work, and for 18 cents an hour on all extra work. They decided to make a final offer to the men of 10 per cent. advance and 18 cents an hour for repairing and altering, but not for other extras.

Thomas Peters, Robert Ball and John Watson, belonging to Dundas, were each fined $4 and bound in sureties of $200 and bail of $400, extending over two years, for placing obstructions on the Grand Trunk Railway track at Dundas.

William Gassard, of West Flamboro, was to-day sent to jail for one month for assaulting his grandfather, an old man named John Arnold.

Joseph Greenfield, a bailiff, went into Collier's restaurant yesterday and seized a beer pump on an execution against Collier. Mrs. Collier says the restaurant belongs to her and that when the bailiff made the seizure he was trespassing, and a suit at the Police Court resulted. The Magistrate reserved his decision.

MRS. DRUSE'S BODY.

It was Secretly Removed From Herkimer to Albany.

ALBANY, March 3.—It is published here this morning that the body of Mrs. Druse has been secretly removed from the vault at Herkimer and brought here for scientific purposes. It is alleged that some days ago a well-known Albany doctor made overtures for the purchase of the body. That he was successful the following circumstances indicate: The night following the execution, it is said, the body was removed from the vault where it lay awaiting burial and conveyed to a neighboring town. It was then placed in a rough box and Tuesday it was shipped to this city on the train on the Central road, arriving here at 3.50 p.m. Shortly afterward the box was removed from the depot and placed in a convenient building until dark. At 6 o'clock the corpse was removed from the box, placed on a stretcher, and thus conveyed in a closed sleigh to its destination, arriving at 8.30 o'clock, and attracting no attention. The fact that the body was shipped from another town than the one where the execution occurred, that it was put on an express train that did not stop at Herkimer and the great precautions surrounding the reception of it in this city all tended to throw off suspicion. It is thought an autopsy would settle many vexed questions in medical jurisprudence. Experts pronounced Mrs. Druse sane, but many of the public persisted in thinking otherwise. A confirmation of the expert testimony would be most desirable, as proving the wisdom of the law of capital punishment and the justice of its infliction in the present instance. In connection with the above it will be remembered that Peter Louis Otto, who was hung in Buffalo, was pronounced sane by experts before his execution, but after death a New York expert stated that after an autopsy of the remains he found Otto had been insane for a long time prior to his execution.

STILL ADVANCING.

Yesterday the third annual meeting of the shareholders of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company was held at the company's offices, and the same phenomenal evidence of success and thrift which characterized the operations and progress of the company as shown by the first and second reports of the directors, is afforded by a perusal of the third report. The increase has been a substantial one all around. The assets have advanced from $926,101.23 on Dec. 31st, 1885, to $1,395,345.58 on December 31st, 1886, about fifty per cent. The increase in deposits amounting to $236,204 shows how firm a hold the company has upon the confidence of the public, while the confidence of capitalists in the excellent management and stability of the institution, is demonstrated by the fact that foreign capitalists, though the claims of the company have only recently been placed before them, have invested liberally in the securities of the company. At the same time the payments upon capital account have amounted to $80,000, the shares rating at ten per cent. premium. Although only in the third year of its existance, the company's directors were able to declare two semi-annual dividends of three per cent. each, and this in the face of the fact that the sum of $22,000 was added to the reserve fund, increasing this rest to $60,000, and in face of the fact that the interest allowed to depositors is 5 per cent. The security offered by the company is of the most satisfactory character. There is the half-a-million of paid up capital and a reserve fund of $60,000, which all stands between depositors or security holders and the loss of a single cent. The Central Canada Loan and Savings Company stands high in the favor of both borrowers and investors; the many wealthy farmers of this district have, through its medium, an opportunity of profitably investing their surplus gains in undoubted securities, and personally attending to and directing their investments and of receiving a higher rate of interest than the banks have been willing to allow them. Persons who want to borrow money can, through its medium, do so for a lower rate of interest, with less expensive details, and on more favorable terms of payment, while at the same time the whole business can be transacted personally and with a greater sense of freedom than with outside corporations. In every respect this company commends itself to the investing and borrowing public—in the first case undoubted security, careful financial management, and handsome earnings; in the other liberal terms, both as to interest and repayment, and ample guarantee of fair treatment in every respect.

PROGRESSIVE PROSPERITY.

Third Annual Meeting of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company.

Report of Directors—Flourishing State of Company's Affairs—Election of Directors.

The third annual meeting of the shareholders of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company took place in the board room of the Company's offices in the Cox block Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox, President, occupied the chair, and the following Directors and shareholders were present: Messrs. J. R. Dundas and F. C. Taylor, Lindsay; J. M. Ferris, Campbellford; E. S. Vindin, Port Hope; James Stevenson, M. P., Richard Hall, Dr. Kincaid, J. H. Roper, William Walsh, Peterborough.

DIRECTORS REPORT.

Mr. GEO. A. COX, President, read the third annual report of the Directors, as follows:—

The Directors have pleasure in submitting herewith their third annual report, showing the results of the business of the Company for the past year, accompanied by the balance sheet as at 31st December, 1886, with Auditors' certificate attached.

The paid up capital has been increased during the year by $80,000.00, upon which a premium of ten per cent., amounting to $8,000.00, was paid in. The deposits were increased by $236,204.27, the currency debentures by $115,500.00, and the assets by $469,244.35, now amounting to $1,395,345.58.

In December very satisfactory arrangements were concluded with Messrs. Finlayson & Auld, of Glasgow, to act as the representatives of the Company in Great Britain, and before the close of the year sterling debentures were issued to the amount of $10,463.33, or £2,150. The issue of the prospectus and other preliminary expenses in connection with these negotiations were paid out of the profits of the year in pursuance of the policy that has been adopted to pay all commissions and charges of every kind out of the profits of the year in which they are incurred.

From the profits of the year the Directors have been enabled to pay two half-yearly dividends of three per cent. each, and with the $8,000 premium received on stock have transferred $22,000.00 to the reserve fund, which now amounts to $60,000 00, leaving $2 093.19 at the credit of Profit and Loss account.

Notwithstanding the large amounts of money to loan by outside corporations, we have a steady demand for money on the very choicest securities and from the most desirable borrowers.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. A. COX,
President.

We hereby certify that we have carefully audited the books and accounts of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company, of Ontario, for the year ending 31st December, 1886. The postings and balances of the Company's ledgers have been examined; and we find the whole correct, and in accordance with the above statements. We have also inspected the mortgages and other securities, and find the aggregate thereof agrees with the amount under the head of "Securities."

J. H. ROPER,
CHAR. D. MACDONALD, } Auditors.

Peterborough, March 1st, 1887.

At the conclusion of the reading of the report the PRESIDENT in moving its adoption said:—The substantial increase of $289,204.27 in the deposits received, of $543,719.81 in the new loans made, and of $115,500 in the currency debentures issued during the year, as well as the very creditable proportions to which the business of the Company has attained at the close of the third year of its operations, indicates the favor with which it has been received by both investors and borrowers, and fully warrants the prediction that we made at the first annual meeting that the Company would become the medium in this wealthy and prosperous agricultural district through which the more successful and wealthy farmers could purchase debentures or deposit their money at a higher rate of interest than they had been getting for it at the banks, and at the same time enable their less fortunate neighbors to borrow it at a lower rate of interest, at less expense, and upon more favorable terms of repayment than could be done through outside corporations. The depositors and debenture holders while thus assisting the borrowers, were keeping their money within easy reach in case they required to use it for the purchase of additional lands or for any other purposes, and at the same time they not only had the security of their own money invested in first class securities, but they also had the capital stock of the Company amounting to $1,000,000, one hundred thousand dollars of which had been paid up in cash besides the Reserve fund of $60,000, the whole of which would have to be lost before the depositor or debenture holder could lose one dollar. The shareholders of the Company, those who take the risk of protecting the depositors from any possible loss, have also every reason to be satisfied with the operations of the Company because they have received 6% on their money, and already a reserve fund of $60,000 has been accumulated, which stands between them and any loss, and makes the intrinsic value of their shares worth a premium of [illegible] over 12 per cent. The care with which the loans have been selected and the desirable class of business that has been obtained is evidenced by the fact that upon investments of $1,395,345.58, the interest due and overdue on the 31st December has all (within a few hundred dollars) been since paid up. In view of these facts and the careful inspection of every loan, your Directors see no reason then for to anticipate any losses, but the experience of all similar institutions show that it is only reasonable sooner or later to expect losses; the Directors, therefore, deem it prudent not only to prevent, as far as they can, the possibility of loss by the closest scrutiny of every loan, but by the payment of a moderate dividend, and by the lowest ratio of expense consistent with efficient management, husband their resources and be prepared to deal promptly with any loss that may arise out of the profits of the year in which it occurs, and at the same time gradually accumulate a reserve fund. The shareholders will, it is believed, concur in that view rather than look for the payment of a higher dividend, although the earnings of the Company thus far would seem to warrant that.

MR. J. R. DUNDAS, Vice-President, seconded the motion to adopt the report, which was carried.

Messrs. J. H. Roper and C. D. Macdonald were re-appointed auditors for 1887.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

We are wonderfully quiet since the election, and we cannot help wondering if a like peace would have prevailed if the other party had been victorious. Methinks moxie and melody and almost martner would have been the order of the day, judging by the pandemonium that was enacted election night on the streets of our usually quiet burgh. However, the rioters find it the proper policy to submit to the inevitable, and, knowing that the best possible end has been attained, they surely feel safe and solid in the hands of Mr. Lang, who has won a victory few men achieve in the first contest. We congratulate him, and leave our interests in his keeping, without a doubt of his capability of caring for and promoting said interests to the end.

The missionary meeting in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening was very well attended, though the evening was not very favorable. Rev. Mr. McEwen, of Lakefield, was the principal speaker, and in a very eloquent, forcible and brilliant speech, laid the claims of home and foreign missions before the most attentive audience. He concluded his arguments with a strong appeal to the men of the church to do more for the missionary work, to deny themselves of small vices and "save from smoke" by dropping the tobacco and cigar money into contribution boxes at the church doors. He quoted himself as having tried this experiment with success and benefit to mind and body, and knew it paid. The report of the Ladies' Missionary Society here showed good work, and with the Sunday School contributions was nearly three hundred dollars, and the Rev. gentleman felt it would be more than doubled were his advice taken, and no one could say where the movement might end.

Rev. Mr. Andrews followed in a short and fervid address, in which he roused the earnest sympathies of the audience by his vivid descriptions of the needs of the heathen at home and abroad. He dwelt humorously on the possible cause or causes of Rev. Mr. Hyde's absence, and alluded to the choir's performance in flattering terms, closing with the earnestly expressed hope of generous contributions to the collection for the mission fund, and he was not disappointed, as the plate offerings amounted to about forty-one dollars. The usual vote of thanks closed the meeting.

The W. C. T. U. purpose giving the Band of Hope in this section a treat on Monday evening next. Entertainment by the band.

Presentiment of Death.

The subject of presentiment concerning death and fatality in families spoken of in Hancock's case recalls some sad points in the Bayard history. Few families have been more depleted by sudden death than the Bayards, and in many instances there have been forewarnings and presentiments. It is said that Miss Bayard wrote a letter indicating her approaching death. There are now in Washington many old naval officers who remember the interesting circumstances attending the death of Miss Bayard's cousin, Charles C. Bayard, at Mount Vesuvius. He was the favorite son of Richard Bayard, of Philadelphia, whose father and Secretary Bayard's father were brothers. In 1843, while on board the United States ship Congress, in company with several young friends from on board, he made the ascent of Mount Vesuvius. It was the same Congress that went down in Hampton Roads before the Merrimac, and in the party was the same Joseph Smith, who, as commander of the Congress, had his head taken off by a cannon ball and of whom his father said, when he heard that the Congress was taken: "Then Joe is dead." In the party also was Lehman B. Ashmead, of Philadelphia, with whom young Bayard afterward went to Jerusalem to visit the Holy Sepulcher. While there they both had tattooed on their arms, by an old dragoman, the heraldic arms of Jerusalem, with the date of their visit. In the case of young Bayard the tattooed cross developed virulent features, festered, and finally he became sick and the arm became greatly swollen. He continued to declare that he would die, and even after it appeared to grow entirely well he was in the habit of saying to Mr. Ashmead and other friends: "This arm will be the death of me yet." Ten years afterward young Bayard left for a cruise in the Columbia as flag lieutenant of Commander Morris. Before leaving he took a sad farewell of all his friends here, and declared to one and all that "they would never see him again." He was very dejected and despondent. Ten years to a day from his previous visit, in company with young Carter Tucker, of Maryland, and a few friends, the Columbia being then at Naples, he made the ascent of Vesuvius during an eruption. With him were Rear Admiral Simpson and Rear Admiral Calhoun, who were then lieutenants. He had the arm of a Prussian army officer. He was quite gay. Just near the Hermitage, where he had halted ten years before, the party stopped, finding it would be dangerous to go nearer the crater. As they were turning a mass of lava and rock struck young Bayard on the arm where he had been tattooed, cutting it fearfully and obliterating the cross, and before the party could reach the foot of the volcano he died. His mother is still living, upward of 90 years of age. His body is buried near the foot of Vesuvius.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream."

And yet it is, when all the marrow is taken out of it by some dread disease like consumption, that, neglected, means certain death; catarrh and bronchitis, both distressing, and often leading to consumption, or like liver complaints or scrofula, which too often make those afflicted feel that life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with "mournful numbers," brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

LOCAL NEWS.

The Opera House.

On Monday night Harry Lindley and his company appear here in their new play "Over the Hills to the Poor House," in which Brudder Gardner's Lime Kiln Club is an interpolation. Lindley's niggerisms caught on immensely in Montreal, the Star pronouncing his characterization of a darkey "a revelation." The company comprises fifteen people, including Miss Laura Booth, the eminent actress. As an extra inducement the management offers an agricultural feature, viz., the presentation of a valuable short horn cow to the holder of the lucky number. In Belleville, where the company has been playing three weeks, the Intelligencer says: "Lindley has acted fairly, for he has not only given dramatic value, but his gift business was honest. The cow won by Mr. A. Noles was sold on the spot for thirty dollars, and the sewing machine was of good make and material."

Christmas Evans.

A very good audience listened to Mr. Charles James, who lectured in St. Paul's school room on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The pastor, Rev. E. F. Torrance, occupied the chair, and introduced the lecturer, who spoke on Christmas Evans and his Welsh contemporaries. The lecture was a vivid picture of the life and times of the great one-eyed preacher whom Wales delights to honor. Mr. Torrance, in presenting a vote of thanks which had been moved and seconded by Messrs. G. E. Williams and Bansell Sawyer, said that he was not given to flattery, but could say that he rarely had listened to a lecture with more interest than the one just given. Mr. James, in replying, let out the fact that he had just passed his twenty-first birthday.

Not Down on the Programme.

"Maggie Roach" is a bolter. At the races on Thursday afternoon she diamounted rider after rider, and the last one, Gus. Moore, had a narrow escape from serious accident. The horse bolted and shot Moore over its head; then it jumped or tumbled over a cutter in which were two men, upsetting the vehicle and hitching out the occupants, one of whom, Mr. Sam Fletcher, received an ugly cut in the head. "Maggie Roach" struck Crescent street and ran up town, while the horse attached to the capsized cutter started off and made a complete circuit of the track, and was caught near its former standing place. The cutter was not damaged much.

Preparing for the Carnival.

The hard frost of last night put an excellent surface of ice on the skating rink, ready for the carnival this evening. The rink has been nicely decorated, and everything is in readiness for the great event. Parties skating are required to hand in their names and the character represented written on a card, at the door, where they will receive numbers for the drawing for the $5 gold piece. A fine instrumental programme will be rendered by the band. Don't fail to attend. Admission only 25 cents. Go and help the Fire Brigade.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

The Late Miss Crawford.

The remains of Miss Isabella V. Crawford, daughter of Dr. Crawford, formerly of this town, who died suddenly in Toronto about 10 days ago, aged 36 years, was brought in by the 11:30 train C.P.R. to-day and conveyed to the Little Lake Cemetery for burial. She was followed by a few friends and acquaintances and by her brother from Algoma, the only one remaining of a family of thirteen.

Illustrated Lecture.

Mr. D. W. Campbell will give a lecture on the great and beautiful sights of London, illustrated by 100 large dissolving views, in the school room of St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, on Thursday evening, March 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. The lecture is instructive and interesting, and is highly recommended by the clergy and press. Admission, 25c.; children 10c.

Change of Milliners.

Miss Boutwetherick, who has for some time had charge of the millinery department of H. S. Griffin & Co., has gone to another field of labor, and her place has been taken by Miss Thorne, who is at present in Toronto selecting spring goods and will arrive in town to-morrow. Miss Thorne comes recommended as an A 1 milliner, having had a large city experience.

Here's Something for Paterfamilias.

First Day's Races.

Fine Weather, Fine Track, and Fine Sport.

The first day's proceedings of the ice meeting of the Peterborough Driving Club passed off satisfactorily, to say the least of it. The weather was all that could be desired, and the races were witnessed by fully 1,500 people, who gathered from all over the county and surrounding districts. It is expected the number of spectators would be doubled this afternoon. Much of the success of the races is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Jos. Daly, secretary, and Mr. W. Clancy, treasurer, who obligingly furnished every information or rendered any assistance in their power.

All the decisions of the judges gave satisfaction. The judges are: Messrs. Allan Adams, of Port Hope; Jackson Reid, of Lindsay; and Martin Conners, of Peterborough. Mr. Charles Nixon, of Bewdley, acted satisfactorily as time-keeper.

Following are the races and their results:

THREE-MINUTE TROT.

Purse, $60.—1st, $30; 2nd, $20; 3rd, $10.

H. C. Winch's "Sleepy Dan"	1	1	1
M. L. Lawson's "Bessie K."	2	2	2
John Irwin's "Lady B."	3	3	3

Time—3.02, 2.56, 2.56.

RUNNING RACE.

Purse, $50.—1st, $25; 2nd, $15; 3rd, $10.

C. A. Lean's "Albert L."	1	1	1
Dr Lean's "Lucy"	2	2	2
E. Brown's "Maggie Roach"	3	3	3

Time—1.08, 1.12, 1.08.

The races were, as a rule, too easily won, the winners having things about their own way. An exciting time is looked for in the 2.45 trot this afternoon. To-day's programme includes also a free-for-all. A full field has been entered for each event.

"Kitchen Garden."

A Description of its Operations and Aims

DEAR MR. EDITOR.—Would you kindly afford space for the following extracts from a letter of Miss Mary Scott, of Ottawa, in connection with the "K. G." as many friends of the W. C. T. U. are not fully acquainted with its meaning. Miss S. is a very live worker, and we trust her hints and suggestions will reach the noble hearts and principles of our town girls.

Several of them have been called upon and we are doubly pleased to say that the advance of refinement and culture is fully appreciated by them.

To bring this branch of work more clearly before us, Miss Skinner, of Toronto, has kindly consented to remain over from one train to another on Wednesday, March 9, and will address the ladies that afternoon from 4 until 5 in the Baptist Church. Let her efforts be assisted by a full house. "Ladies show your colors."

The following are the extracts:

26 Albert Street,
OTTAWA, Jan. 27th, 1887.

My Dear Miss Sanderson:

Your letter received by this morning's mail, and in answer I would say that I am delighted if there is any prospect of a kitchen garden "opening" in Peterborough, as I am especially interested in that branch of work, although Miss Pearson, of Brantford, is the superintendent of that department.

Of course, it comes under my work, too, because some of the Y. W. C. T. U. are conducting kitchen gardens very successfully. To my mind this is the most interesting of all the branches, because it is such a work of prevention; it teaches the children how to become good housekeepers, and makes home bright and happy, thus forming a counter attraction to the saloon, against which we are fighting all along the line.

I will tell you how they are taught. The first thing is to get a class of twenty children. "In Ottawa we have sixty three classes in all." Of course you would have to send for a teacher and Miss Pearson of Brantford, or perhaps one of our young ladies might go, this teacher would first train a normal class of young ladies which could be done in about two weeks "having lessons every day," then the young ladies could teach the children.

Every movement it made to music on the piano; they always sing while the work is going on. Every song explains how the work is done, the children just love it and so do the teachers. Of course it require good deal of practice but what branch of temperance work does not.

I am very anxious to see a Y. W. C. T. Union started in Peterborough and I understand, you have a good many young ladies who might go into the work. Would it not be well to have one organized and let them take up the work as the Brantford Y. W. C. T. U. did. I will gladly give you any assistance in my power, as my heart is in the young womens work because I see how much good it is doing all who enter it from the right spirit. How they are being developed into earnest Christian women with broader sympathies than mere denominationalism can ever do. I want all the young women in the province in this work, and do you know I hardly ever see a nice sweet young face but I want it for our work?

In Ottawa, if I do say it, we have the cream of society in the "Y." union. Now I must not tire you out and belive me with love and the hope that the Master may bless your efforts,

Ever yours sincerely.

Annual Meeting of Peterborough Cheese Manufacturers.

The annual Spring meeting of the Cheese Manufacturers Association of Peterborough, was held in the Old Music Hall on Thursday at two o'clock. A very good attendance was present, and much discussion took place; but the greater part of the time was occupied in reorganizing the society, and forming new by laws. Officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Mr. W. Crebbin.—President.
Mr. S. Spence, of South Dummer.—Vice-President.
Mr. David Pilkie, of Lakefield.—Secretary-Treasurer.

As there was no time for further business, the meeting was adjourned until Saturday, March 26th, when many important matters will be discussed, and arrangements made for procuring the best and cheapest manufacturing material. A full attendance is particularly requested.

This society, although young, has already done much towards the improvement of the cheese manufactured throughout the vicinity of Peterborough, and the members are determined not to cease in their efforts, until Peterborough cheese stands highest in the market of Canada.

Town Engineer.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I notice by your report of the town council meeting on Monday evening that the committee on appointments once more recommends the appointment of town engineer without salary. Now, I understand there have been several applications for the position, and why the committee should recommend one who is already County Engineer is something not easy understood. It is a well known fact that several bridges require building and repairs in which the town and county interests are not identical, therefore, I think it would be to the town's interest to have some other one appointed who would not be connected with the county to look after the town's interest. This would be a check upon joint expenditure which one occupying both positions would create. At the last meeting of the county council the Locke bridge was ordered to be closed when the County Engineer thought it unsafe. Which is it, the town or County Engineer should be the judge in the matter? and as the town is expected to pay half the expense of rebuilding the said bridge is there not an inducement to create work seeing there is no salary attached to the office of town Engineer, in order to get a percentage on the expenditure which is also a reason that the work is not as cheaply done as it would be was he under salary. Hoping the town council will look to the public interest in this matter, which is of more importance than a great many are aware of, and hoping you will give space to the above in your paper, I remain,

Yours, etc.,
A RATEPAYER.

The Late John Fair.

An Estimable and Respected Cavan Citizen Called Away.

On Friday last at his residence in the Township of Cavan, John Fair, Esq. after an illness of about two weeks passed to his reward at the age of 75 years and 8 months. Mr. Fair was the eldest son of the late James Fair, who emigrated to Canada from Ireland, about the year 1820. The family settled in Cavan, in the year 1823, on the farm where Mr. Fair lived till his decease. Mr. Fair was a man of sterling character, strong individuality, and very marked religious trend of character, dating the commencement of his religious life to the labors of the late Rev. John Gilmour of Peterborough. Where true christian character is always best estimated—in the family—Mr. Fair shone brightest, and what tests religious principles as to their value, daily life and worldly intercourse, all proved those principles to be real. In his intercourse with men he let no opportunity pass where it offered itself, to enforce the duty of living a christian life, springing from a regenerated nature, a new creature. The funeral took place from the homestead on the 27th. ultimo, and was attended by a large number of grieving relatives and friends. Rev. Rural Dean Allen of Millbrook conducted the burial services, and took occasion to refer to Mr. Fair's unblemished character, purity of life, devotedness to the doctrines of the Holy Scriptures, and the strong desire he always manifested to promote the cause of truth and righteousness. He also, in very feeling terms, referred to his family relations and the great affection in which he was held by brothers and sisters, and in his own family, justly remarking that Mr. Fair left very few behind him whose christian character shines so continuously unclouded. Mr. Wm. Fair of North Monaghan is the eldest son of the deceased, and Mrs. W. J. Hall of this town is his eldest daughter.

WORK OF SMUGGLERS.

THEY CAUSE A DISASTROUS INUNDATION NEAR MORRISBURG.

OTTAWA, March 4.—Several weeks ago the River St. Lawrence between Farran's Point and Morrisburg, extending a distance of nine miles, overflowed without warning, submerging all the low lying lands on either bank. Such an occurrence, especially at a point on the river where the current is so rapid, proved unprecedented in the memory of the oldest inhabitants in the vicinity. The water blocked up as far as Morrisburg, flooding the lower part of the town and compelling the factories to suspend work. Barns on the shores further down were swept away, while roads and dwellings were partially submerged. An investigation resulted in the discovery that the narrow channels between Croil Island on the Canadian and American sides respectively, were jammed with ice, thus accounting for the devastating inundation above. Certain suspicious circumstances having been communicated to the authorities, it was learned a few days ago that the ice bridge was formed by smugglers, who thereby greatly facilitated affairs in conveying contraband articles from the United States into Canadian soil. The ice jam is decidedly an artificial one, the smugglers forming it by cutting huge cakes of ice along the shore and towing a sufficient number into the narrow channel to form a solid obstruction on either side of the island, which is in American territory. Floating ice coming down the river lodged against the narrow ice bridge, hourly increasing it in strength. The authorities at Ottawa were recently notified. Major Anderson, Chief Engineer of the Marine Department, was immediately dispatched to the scene. He has since returned and has probably submitted his report to the Minister of Marine. The Canadian and American authorities are now on the look out for the smugglers, whose identity is already supposed to be known. If they are captured proceedings on the strength of certain evidence will be brought against them for causing the ice jam. The culprits will be liable for the latter offence under the laws of the State of New York, there being no provisions for such offences in the criminal code of the Dominion. It is estimated that the damage to Morrisburg from the ice jam and consequent floods will reach $75,000.

GERMAN POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

Election of President and First and Second Vice-Presidents of the Reichstag.

BERLIN, March 4.—Altogether there have been cast 1,429,034 more votes than at the last general election. The increases are: Conservatives, 333,441; Imperialists, 305,508; National Liberals, 601,125; Democratic, 13,481; Centre, 248,701; Polish, 9438; Socialist, 224,192; Protestor, 82,083. There is a decrease in the New German Liberal vote of 447,702.

Herr Wedell-Piesdorf was to-day elected President of the Reichstag.

Herr Wedell Piesdorf, who was to-day elected President of the Reichstag, is a Conservative. He has accepted the office. For first vice-president 172 members voted for Dr. Buhl, National Liberal, against 107 for Baron Von Frankenstein, Centrist. Dr. Buhl accepted the position. For second vice-president 172 members voted for Herr Hertling, Centrist, who declined to accept the position. Another ballot was taken and Baron Unruhe Bomst, of Reichspartei, was chosen by 169 votes. The House then adjourned.

The Military Bill will be presented and declared [illegible].

DEATH OF FATHER BECKX.

The General of the Society of Jesus Dead At Rome.

ROME, March 4.—Father Beckx, General of the Jesuits, is dead.

[Pierre Jean Beckx, General of the Society of Jesus, was born at Sachsen, near Louvain, Belgium, Feb. 8, 1795. He was admitted to the Society of Jesus at Hildesheim in 1812, was confessor of Ferdinand of Austria-Modena after the conversion of the Duke and Duchess to Roman Catholicism in 1825, and became pastor of the newly established church at Kothen. After Duke Ferdinand's death in 1850 he accompanied his widow, the Duchess Julia, Countess of Brandenburg (natural daughter of Frederick William III. of Prussia) to Vienna. In 1847 he was appointed procurator for the society in Austria, but the revolution in 1848 obliged him to leave that country, and he became rector of the College of Louvain. Subsequently he was the Superior of the Society for Hungary, and eventually Provincial for the whole Austrian empire except Galicia. After the death of Father Roothaan, in 1853, he was elected General of the society. In 1871 he published an appeal to the representatives of foreign governments on the question of the seizure by the Italian Cabinet of the great convent of St. Andrew, on the Quirinal.]

BENEDICTION FOR McGLYNN.

A Message of Peace From Rome for Henry George's Disciple.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The following cable was received yesterday in reply to one of congratulation to the Pope:

Rome, March 2.—To Mr. Henry Carey, Chairman of St. Stephen's Parishioners, New York: Your telegram was most acceptable to the Sovereign Pontiff, who, returning thanks, imparts most lovingly his apostolic benediction to the Rev. Dr. McGlynn, to you and to the faithful of the parish.

The parishioners are in great glee, and interpret this despatch as foreshadowing a reinstatement of Dr. McGlynn. Dr. McGlynn was much moved by the news. He interprets the message as a vindication of his course. The congratulatory message referred to as having been sent to the Pope on the anniversary of his 70th birthday and the 50th anniversary of his priestly career was sent by a committee of the parishioners. Dr. McGlynn had no part in it.

ABLEGATE'S REPORT.

IT WOULD BE UNWISE TO INTERFERE WITH THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The Herald's despatch from Rome has the substance of the report of Mgr. Straneiro, lately Papal Ablegate in the United States. Mgr. Straneiro in his report refers to the Knights of Labor as follows:

"The Knights of Labor is a society composed of about a million workingmen, half of whom, perhaps, belong to the Catholic religion. The society has, however, neither political nor religious bias. Its object is to guard, in an honest and legal manner, the compensation due to the laboring classes for the work they have performed, against the despotic proprietor or contractor, and to oppose the injustices that may be committed against these poor sons of labor.

"This society has but lately sprung up in America. It has been received with favor by the whole working class, and has suddenly developed great strength. There are many, however, who, for reasons not quite sufficiently explained, were very much alarmed at the appearance of this society. They said its objects were secret and its intentions bad, and therefore it should be condemned as a secret society.

"Cardinal Taschereau of Quebec, it seems, by a decree of the sacred office, condemned the Association as a secret society, and forbade all Catholics to be Knights of Labor under penalty of being excommunicated by the Church. The American Episcopate was generally opposed to such measures, which, though possibly suitable to Canadian Catholics, might prove unwise when applied to Americans, should it be considered necessary to extend these measures to the United States."

The Herald's correspondent says the unanimous views of the American Bishops are backed so strongly and opportunely by the independent reports of the Roman Ablegate that they cannot but carry immense weight. It is said that Cardinal Taschereau is anxious to have the question referred to the Holy Office, where precedent is all decisive, and a judgment once uttered is irrevocable; but the Pope, who is also Prefect of the Inquisition, may vote the proposed transfer from the Propaganda. The last word, in any case, will be said by the Holy Father.

THE REVOLT AT SILISTRIA.

The Uprising Suppressed and Many of the Rebels Shot.

RUSTCHUK, March 4.—The commander at Silistria seized the Government of that town on Monday last. Troops from here and from Rosgrad and Varna suppressed the revolt. With the exception of the killing of the commander the affair was bloodless. On Tuesday Major Ouzounoff, with a battalion of engineers, surrounded the Rustchuk barracks, arrested all the officers and proclaimed Metropolitan Clement regent of Bulgaria. The inhabitants rose in arms against the insurgents and fighting continued throughout Wednesday, when the insurgents attempted to retreat across the Danube, but owing to a heavy fire poured into them from the shore they were compelled to abandon their boats and take refuge on an island, where they were finally captured. All the insurgents were found to be wounded. The authority of the regent is restored, and the whole town is rejoicing over the downfall of the rebels. The leaders of the revolt will be shot.

Anarchy Spreading.

PARIS, March 4.—A telegram from Giurgevo says that risings have taken place at Tirnova and other places, and that the insurgents are reported to be masters of affairs. At Tirnova communication between Sofia and the provinces is interrupted. Anarchy is spreading in Bulgaria.

THE IRISH PROBLEM.

The Chief Secretary for Ireland Raises a Slight Commotion.

LONDON, March 4.—During the debate last night J. O'Connor protested that the police had used excessive violence at meetings in Cork, where they had used their batons on Parnellites.

The Chief Secretary for Ireland said the meetings alluded to had been called to intimidate the jury, and Parnellites ought not to be surprised if something worse than batoning occurred.

The latter phrase caused an angry scene, in which several Parnellites accused the Chief Secretary of threatening an honorable member. Thus the Chief Secretary denied, and the Chairman called upon Healy to withdraw the objectionable language.

Several members expressed their disapproval of the Chief Secretary's expression which Healy speaking later said could only mean that the Government intended to substitute firearms for batons.

At a late hour, the vote asked for the Irish police was agreed to by 246 to 121.

The Incendiary Abroad.

LIMERICK, March 4.—A sensation has been caused here by the perpetration of very extensive incendiarism last night in the country surrounding the city. A large number of houses occupied by tenants, and hay and outbuildings were burned. As the victims were in all cases persons who had paid their rents the outrages are set down as political, and great excitement prevails. The aggregate of property destroyed is very large. It is ascertained to-day that the fires were caused by armed incendiaries who escaped. The district was ablaze all night.

MILITARY ACTIVITY IN AUSTRIA.

Forts are Being Armed. Ammunition Stored and Railways Built.

VIENNA, March 4.—At the military conference to-day, presided over by the Emperor, it was decided to appoint several officers for the superior commands in the event of war. The Crown Prince will command an army corps. The erection of wooden huts for troops in Galicia is proceeding rapidly. The forts are being armed, ammunition and provisions are being stored, and the construction of strategic railway lines is being hastened, there being 170 men now at work. These preparations are causing great anxiety in Galicia. It is feared that in the event of an Austro-Russian war the Austrian troops will be withdrawn from the defensive line in the Carpathians.

MUSIC IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

At the present moment the subject of music in Public Schools is receiving considerable attention from the members of the musical profession in the province of Ontario and indeed is interesting all lovers of the art. Wherever music has been tried its usefulness and value have been freely admitted. Its worth as an educational factor, its tendency to refine and elevate the pupils, and the widespread moral influence it exercises are acknowledged on all sides by experienced teachers and educationists.

A very interesting discussion took place on the subject at the recent meeting of the Royal Canadian Society of Musicians and a report was adopted containing the following recommendations:—

1. That music be taught in all County Model Schools.
2. That music be made one of the compulsory subjects in all High Schools and Collegiate Institutes.
3. That compulsory regulations be made and enforced so that a uniform and practical course of study, in singing by note, will be insured in all schools where music forms part of the curriculum.
4. That the formation of singing classes for public school teachers be encouraged on the same basis as drawing classes.
5. That arrangements be made to have an address given on the benefits to be derived from the study of vocal music in the public schools at each meeting of County Teacher's Associations held during the first half of 1887.

An influential committee was appointed to wait on the Minister of Education and lay these ideas before him, with a view to their adoption as soon as practicable. We have no doubt that the Hon. Mr. Ross, who is himself a practical teacher and a man of liberal views and wide experience, will be favorably impressed with this idea of teaching music as a part of the school curriculum, and will further the project in every possible way.

We hope to see the practical study of vocal music and singing, in keeping with the acknowledged superiority of our school system, adopted and available to all public school children. It will of course be necessary to teach the teachers as the starting point, if good results are to follow. True, in almost every town and village throughout the province, the services of efficient instructors could doubtless be secured from among the music teachers. In Peterborough there are some gentlemen who have already shown their skill in training large classes of children, most of whom were quite ignorant of even the rudiments of a musical education. No doubt the School Board could easily obtain a competent teacher from this class of experts. But experience indicates that when the regular school teachers instruct their own pupils, under careful supervision of a musician, the best results can be obtained.

The worst feature in all past attempts to impart a smattering of music in our schools has arisen from the almost invariable practice of allowing the pupils to sing a few songs after hearing the air rendered by the teacher. Such a habit is simply destructive, so far as the acquirement of a real knowledge of vocal music is concerned. The children should be taught carefully by note, and although many advocate the system of tonic sol fa, as the easiest and simplest of all methods, it will be remembered that the best and most experienced musicians in these days contend that the staff notation is quite sufficient, and in all respects superior to all the others. The Holt system has also the recommendation of many able music teachers in our own Province.

Another evil to be deprecated and avoided is the habit of teaching the children musical symbols only. If the work of training the pupils in vocal singing is to be successful they must be systematically instructed and encouraged, not only to learn the notes, but to practice reading simple airs from the first, thus combining thorough knowledge of the staff, with the desire of all beginners to practice airs for themselves.

The works from which selections should be made require to be chosen carefully. At social entertainments, Sunday School concerts and such like gatherings, we sometimes hear the vilest trash, flimsy, clap-trap compositions, offensive alike to good taste and sensitive ears. There is no excuse for such performances in these days any more than there is for intelligent people to regale themselves on dime novels or such low literature. Many good composers have written pleasing, melodious and clever songs for children, and from the multitude of these that exist the faithful teacher may easily procure suitable compositions for the little ones and thereby elevate the present standard. We hope the teaching of music in our schools may shortly be commenced and enforced, as a regular and very desirable part of the school curriculum.

Personal.

Mr. D. J. Bansell Sawyer has received official intelligence that he has been elected a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario.

Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., West Peterborough, has been placed on the Legislative Committees on Railways, Printing, and Standing Orders, and Mr. Bigsard, M.P.P., East Peterborough, on the Committees on Privileges and Elections, Printing, and Private Bills.

More than Claimed.

"For the past four or five years," says Mrs. Emery, of Cottam, Ont., "I have been subject to kidney troubles. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. It has done me more good than what was claimed for it. I can recommend it to all suffers from like diseases." 2w9d

The Question of Book-keeping.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

SIR,—Mr. Sawyer again does me the honor of addressing a letter half a column in length to the public, trying to persuade the men of this town to not listen or entertain any idea regarding a design which, coming from one who, as he says, "his intellect is in a dwarfed and benighted condition, etc.," and is trying to allure merchants into adopting this system and begs of them not risk their "sanity" by doing so. Mr. Sawyer pays me a great compliment by insinuating that my eloquence and powers of persuasion would induce any man to adopt a thing he did not understand and risk a design not calculated to benefit him. It also pays the mercantile men of Peterborough a poor compliment in insinuating the same thing, as I firmly believe that there are merchants here who know more about their line of book-keeping than either this learned Mr. Sawyer or my humble self. I consider Mr. Sawyer has placed himself in a very ludicrous position in this affair by coming out as a philanthropist to protect the rights and privileges of our merchants when they have not requested him to do so; further, he has written two letters about a design about which he knows nothing, as he has not seen it and is, therefore, incompetent to judge the merits or demerits thereof. In regard to his saying I am advertising it, it is absolutely false, as he is the one who is doing it for me, and I must admit (although it evidently is not his intention to do so) that he is doing it well; but, no doubt, he thinks he is advertising the Peterborough Business College at the same time at your expense. It is only fair to say in justice to myself that I have not come before the public as a great inventor; on the contrary the reporters of the Review and your paper are the authors of both the locals which appeared in these two papers, and were not from my pen. The reporters rightly enough said it was designed by myself, as I have had occasion in my studies to examine a number of American, English and Canadian works on the science of book-keeping and I have not seen a design similar to the one which seems to be such a thorn in the side of our learned friend, and if I had, I hope my judgment would not have allowed me to come before the public telling them that I had originated a design which was years and years older than even Mr. Sawyer. It seems a very feasible plan to me for an experienced merchant who carries say ten different kinds of goods, to mark each at what he thinks they will sell for, making allowance for waste, etc., then find the average percentage and deduct from the total sales, when that total deducted from the amounts received in merchandise will show at any time during the year within a very limited amount the amount of stock on hand, and would afford great convenience by enabling him to so make his purchases as to keep his stock at whatever figure he felt disposed. As Mr. Sawyer says, stock-taking should be done once a year, and when done would prove a check on any employes, as the merchant knows what goods he received and sold, and after stock-taking the amount on hand, and by comparing with his books would be able to form an adequate idea of what his profits should be. Mr. Sawyer's personal allusions to me as to age, etc., are too childish to be taken further notice of, and I will say in conclusion that I think Mr. Sawyer has done ample justice to whatever feeling prompted him to enter into this discussion (I will leave the public to form its conclusion as to what that feeling was) and I would consider it a personal favor if you would let this matter be wound up, as my time can be employed more advantageously than reading the attacks made on me, both as an accountant and citizen, and replying to them, and I think the public will agree with me in saying that Mr. Sawyer has acted in a most unprofessional-like manner, as we, deriving an income from the same source should, instead of trying to injure each other, try and benefit the cause, thereby benefitting ourselves, as in the past I have endeavored to assist Mr. Sawyer as much as lay in my power by speaking favorably of his college and anything which I thought was calculated to benefit him, and in return have been assailed by him with allusions unworthy of an accountant or gentleman.

I am, sir,
Yours respectfully,
A. V. R. YOUNG.

THE RETALIATION BILL.

It is Believed that in the End it Will Result for the Good of Canada.

MONTREAL, March 4.—The feeling among the people here regarding the Retaliation Bill which has been signed by the President of the United States, is that while it may for a time injure our fishermen, in the end the country will be the gainer. It is thought the passing of the bill is in the interests of large fish firms, who desire to control the price of fish in American markets. The railway authorities do not anticipate any interference with the International train service as a result of this retaliation measure.

R. W. MUNCASTER.

CHINESE ANECDOTES.

Stories Which are Curiously Similar to European Tales.

Two persons standing over a stove on a cold day warming themselves were overheard indulging in the following dialogue: No. 1, apathetic, and given to verbiage, addressed No. 2, repatedly hot-tempered and decisive, whose clothes he noticed smoldering, as follows: "My dear friend, there is something I would like to speak to you about; I have seen it for some time and all along have wanted to tell you, but, as people say your temper is so fiery, I hesitated; on the other hand, if I do not speak you may be a loser, so I have come to the conclusion at last to ask your permission to do so." "Out with it," said the other. "Well, your clothes are burning," mildly continued No. 1. "Why the deuce," cried No. 2 in a passion, as he observed considerable damage already done, "could you not speak at once?" "It is true, then, what people say: What a temper he has got," muttered No. 1, as he lazily walked off.

A wood-cutter was at work in concert with his son, while his little grandchild played near him. The old man accidentally cut his son's finger, whereupon the irate sufferer called his father a blind old fool. "You son of a dog!" cried the little boy, "how dare you abuse your father!"

The following is told of an incorrigibly idle offspring of a literary father: A youngster, having a great disinclination to study, was shut up in a closet with strict injunctions to apply himself. Stealing near, the parent, to his delight, heard his boy droning over his book, and was presently still more pleased by hearing the supposed student exclaim: "I understand it!" The excited father rushed in, crying out: "I am proud, my son, that you have at last mastered that work." "Yes," said the boy, "I always thought books were written, but to-day I have discovered that they are printed."

"Come here to dinner," cried a good housewife to her husband, at work in a field. "All right," he shouted, "as soon as I have hid my hoe." At dinner his wife remonstrated with him for shouting so loud about hiding his hoe. "I am certain," said she, "the neighbors have heard you, and some one has already stolen it." Struck with the remark, the man returned to the field, and, sure enough, the hoe was gone. On returning to the house, and impressed with the wisdom of her previous caution, he whispered into his wife's ear: "The hoe is stolen."

The following impromptu, though consequent on a fall, can not be looked upon as the outcome of a deficient understanding. A man stumbled and fell. Trying to rise, he again fell. "Hang it," he cried, "if I had known I was to fall again I would not have tried to get up."

A woman was fanning the corpse of her husband, and being asked by the neighbors why she fanned a dead man in the middle of winter, she replied: "My husband's last words were, 'Wife, wait till I am cold before you marry again.'"

The feminine propensity for concealing age and resenting impertinent questions in regard to it is common to all times and nationalities, but that does not detract from our admiration of the trick by which the truth was got at in the following instance: A man, newly married, thought when his wife unveiled for the first time she looked rather old and wrinkled. Telling her so, he asked her real age, when she replied, "45 or 46." "You wrote in the marriage contract 38 years," said he, "but you look even more than 45 or 46." At last she admitted 54. The husband was still doubtful; so he bethought himself of a stratagem for getting at the truth. Jumping up, he said: "I must cover up the salt before going to bed, or else the rats will eat it all before morning." "Well," said his wife, laughing, "I have heard of and seen many strange things in the sixty-eight years of my life, but I never saw or heard of rats eating salt before."

A doctor opened a drug store, but for a long time had no customers. At last one customer came. When supplying his wants the vendor observed that the drug was full of weevils. "What is this?" said the buyer. "Klang tsan (medicinal larvæ)" replied the doctor. "But," said the man, "Klang tsan are always dead." "Yes," said the doctor, "but you see, they cannot remain dead after eating my medicine."

A doctor, as a punishment for causing his patient's death, had to pay ten burdens of wheat. While carrying the grain he was met by a man who asked him to come and treat a sick member of his family. "All right," said the doctor, "I will be there shortly; but in the meantime you may be getting your barn cleaned out."

A barber shaving a customer's head drew blood and put one of his fingers on it. Again he made a cut and put down another finger, and so on till he had no more fingers free. "Ah," said he, as he paused in his work, "a barber's is a difficult trade; we ought to have a thousand fingers."—Haido Lin Kuang.

"The fine set in separate numbers, Life is but an empty dream."

And yet it is, when all this marvel is taken out of it by some dire disease like consumption, that, neglected, means certain death; catarrh and bronchitis, both distressing, and often leading to consumption, or like liver complaints or scrofula, which too often make those afflicted feel that life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with "mournful numbers," brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity. LOCAL NEWS.

Temperance Work.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union have arranged for a visit from the White Brothers, Temperance workers, to Peterborough. Their work here will commence on March 26th., and they will be assisted by Mr. W. W. Buchanan, of Hamilton, Dominion Councilor of the Royal Templars. Peterborough Council R.T. of T. will also assist in the work and the co-operation of the town clergy is expected. The meetings will be held in the churches and will continue for a week. It is also probable that the Hamilton Helpers, another band of temperance workers will be here the week previous, and in that case the temperance revival meetings will be held during two weeks.

A Warlike Outlook.

It is to be regretted that the United States Senate has passed the retaliatory fishery bill which may lead to serious complications. It is desirable therefore that every able-bodied resident of the Dominion who can pass inspection should secure himself against any possible contingency arising therefrom by putting on a life policy with e. e. henderson, the reliable agent of the British Empire Mutual Life Insurance Company. Free policies, all claims paid immediately.

New Masonic Temple.

Last night at the regular communication of Peterborough, Lodge A. F. and A. M., a design for the new temple, prepared by Mr. D. Gamble, was submitted and approved of. The new temple will in all probability be located in Dansford's block on Water street, opposite the Market. The plans provide for a lodge accommodation, 135x33 feet, and if carried out will result in a Masonic Temple to be equalled nowhere outside the large cities. The exterior of the building will bear a dome and suitable inscriptions.

A Governmental Majority.

Says the Post: "The Lindsay Board of Education numbers among its members two M. P's. What other Board can make an equal claim?" On behalf of Peterborough the EXAMINER not only makes an "equal claim," but will "go one better." Peterborough's School Board includes one M. P. and one M. P. P.—a straight majority of one P. for this side.

Illustrated Lecture.

Mr. D. W. Campbell will give a lecture on the great and beautiful sights of London, illustrated by 100 large dissolving views, in the school room of St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, on Thursday evening, March 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. The lecture is instructive and interesting, and is highly recommended by the clergy and press. Admission, 25c.; children 10c.

Harry to Coming.

Harry Lindley has been playing to good houses in Belleville this week. He opens a week's engagement in Peterborough, on Monday night in "Over the Hills to the Poor House." Harry is a host in himself and should succeed in drawing bumper houses.

Turnbull's new Spring Carpets in wool, union and tapestry are beginning to move. Every one who inspects them is delighted with the patterns and pleased at the prices.

To Repeal the Scott Act.

Cobourg town council adopted the following resolution Monday night by a vote of 5 to 3: "Inasmuch as the Scott Act has seriously impaired the revenue of the town and has not produced the results anticipated by its promoters,—Resolved, therefore, that this Council do petition Parliament for the repeal of the said Act."

Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Church will be held at the residence of Mr. Bruce Ferguson, Stewart street, on Friday evening, March 11th, at half-past seven. Refreshments will be served during the evening and a good musical programme provided. Admission 25 cents. 4d

Monthly Social.

The monthly social meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association is announced for next Monday evening. An excellent programme of music has been prepared, and a talk will be given by the Rev. Mr. Tovell on "Athletics." Coffee and cake will be served, and a very social time is anticipated.

Lakefield Carnival.

Mr. B. M. Eden announces that he will hold another grand fancy dress carnival in his rink at Lakefield Monday evening next. Valuable prizes are offered, and the band will be in attendance. A number of Peterborough skaters are arranging to attend.

Oddfellows.

A social entertainment will be given under the auspices of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, I.O. O.F. on Tuesday evening, March 15th, when an odd and interesting programme will be presented for the entertainment of Oddfellows and their friends

Ladies when you want Corsets try a pair of the new Jersey make to be had at Turnbull's.

The Late Dr. O'Sullivan.

Contrary to expectation Dr. O'Sullivan did not rally from the attack of apoplexy, with which he was seized on Wednesday evening. There were only brief lucid intervals of consciousness. He died at the residence of Mr. M. Creagh, Ennismore, on Friday night, at eleven o'clock.

The deceased gentleman was born in the township of Seymour, Northumberland County, Ontario, in 1842. He taught a school in Asphodel for some years, and attended Victoria College, previous to attending Queen's University, where he graduated in medicine in 1868. He began the practice of his profession in Peterborough, and had worked up one of the most flourishing practices in the town or Midland District. This he enjoyed until he entered upon political life, he having been elected local member for East Peterborough in 1875. Following the result of a protest against his return, he was elected again and sat out the parliamentary term, declining a nomination for a second term. At that time he retired from politics, confining his active interest in public matters to an earnest advocacy of the cause of Ireland, taking, though Canadian born, an active interest in the Home Rule struggle. He was President of the local branch of the Irish Land League, a position he held at the time of his death. He was one of the Delegates to the Chicago convention, and his last public official act in connection with the organization was presiding at the lecture of Mr. Justin McCarthy M.P., last fall. As a member of the congregation of St. Peters' Cathedral, he was a most active and influential promoter of its interests, taking an especial concern in charity, which earned for him an honorary membership of St. Vincent de Paul Society. In September 1870 he was united in marriage to Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. M. Flanagan, City Clerk of Kingston. He leaves a widow and one daughter to mourn his death. Dr. O'Sullivan will be greatly missed among a vast circle of acquaintances in town, county, and Midland district generally.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, Geo. street to the R. C. Cemetery on Monday at 10 o'clock, when a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Peters' Cathedral.

A Peterborough Horse Wins the 2.45 Trot—Second Day's Races.

Harry Winch's "Sleepy Dan" isn't sleeping by any means. He got away easily from all competitors in both races for which he was entered. He won the 2.45 trot without much trouble. The free-for-all Friday afternoon, the closing race, was perhaps the most keenly contested between two horses of any. It was not finished, but will be concluded this afternoon. The Second Grand Carnival of the Fire Brigade—List of Costumes and Prize-Winners.

As was expected, the second fancy dress carnival under the auspices of the Fire Brigade Friday night was, if anything, even more successful than the first. A glance at the list of characters below will furnish more satisfactory evidence of the truth of this statement than a half-column of complimentary introduction. Suffice it to say that every one was satisfied. The band played beautiful selections during the evening, the rink was handsomely decorated in the usual style with evergreens, streamers, flags, etc.; while the galleries were thronged with spectators. The $5 gold piece was won by Master Miller, son of the bandmaster Miller, who held the lucky number 11. The drawing was bona fide, and gave every satisfaction. The following is the list:—

LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Gross Life Business for 1886, - - - $3,540,000.

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Maraulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirement, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Sumner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavits produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. McLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent. per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

GREAT DIVINE DYING

HENRY WARD BEECHER STRICKEN BY APOPLEXY.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Henry Ward Beecher was stricken to-day with an attack of apoplexy, from which the physicians declare he cannot recover. The news did not get abroad until late in the afternoon, and then it spread like wildfire. The house in Hicks-street was besieged to-night by friends and members of his congregation, and bulletins were posted from time to time on the door-post stating his condition. Mr. Beecher was in a drowsy condition all the evening, from which it was difficult to arouse him. He answered questions in a husky voice with "yes" or "no," and twice he asked for water. At other times he remained quiet. He seemed to recognize those about him, but there was nothing to indicate that he realized his critical condition. Mrs. Beecher watched at his bedside all day, and was perfectly calm and collected in her demeanor. His children were at once summoned to his bedside, and his son, Herbert F. Beecher, who is in San Francisco, was telegraphed to come home at once.

Mr. Beecher's illness was altogether unexpected. He was in his usual good health up to last Thursday evening. He ate a supper consisting of half a dozen roast clams and spent the evening playing backgammon with Mrs. Beecher. He retired early and did not complain of feeling unwell. He, however, appeared restless after lying down, so much so that he attracted the attention of his wife, whose room adjoined. She arose several times during the night and went into his room, finding him on each occasion in an uneasy slumber. About 4.30 in the morning Mrs. Beecher heard him vomiting, and hastened to his side. He told her he had been suffering with a severe sick headache all night, an affliction to which he is a comparative stranger. He vomited profusely and said he felt a little better. Shortly after he fell asleep and slept without a break until 8.30 o'clock Friday afternoon. He was not disturbed during this time, as it has been his habit for years to sleep in that manner when out of sorts. He was accustomed to say that sleep was one of his grandest remedies.

Mrs. Beecher became a trifle nervous when her husband continued to sleep so long, and in her anxiety she sent for Dr. Searle, the family physician. The physician found him conscious, but noticed that his face was drawn slightly to one side, and that his articulation was thick. When Dr. Searle called again this morning he found a decided change for the worse, the left side being partially paralyzed. He then decided to send for Dr. W. A. Hammond. Dr. Hammond arrived at 2 o'clock, and it was then evident that Mr. Beecher was failing. His temperature was 100 1-5, and his respirations were of the peculiar irregular character known as Cheyne Stokes respiration, indicating serious cerebral disease. The paralysis had increased, and he was evidently suffering great pain. His articulation was more impaired than ever and his extremities had become equally warm. His face at times was very much flushed, and at no time was it pale. He moved his right arm and leg uneasily, as if he were suffering pain. He remained on his back and made no attempt to roll over. Dr. Hammond, when asked as to his chance for recovery, said that it was doubtful if he could live over Sunday, though under favorable circumstances he might linger a week. Dr. Searle said: "There is a bare possibility that he will survive the shock, but his full mental and bodily faculties can never be restored."

A midnight bulletin says: "From 11 to 12 o'clock there has been little change. During the past hour Mr. Beecher rallied for a short time, and then relapsed into unconsciousness. No change is expected before morning."

The family retired shortly after 12 o'clock, leaving a light turned down in the front hall. A nurse and Mr. Beecher's daughter, Mrs. Scoville, were left to watch by the bed for the night. Mrs. Beecher declined to go to bed, but lay down on her couch in the adjoining room, ready to be called at a moment's notice.

His Latest Labor.

NEW YORK, March 5.—For the last month or so Mr. Beecher has been busily engaged in writing the second volume of his Life of Christ. He has been closely confined at his work, as he wished to finish it for publication in early summer. He has not been away from his house since his return from Europe except to run up to Peekskill and his country seat for a day at a time. The close confinement wore on him. Mrs. Beecher tried to induce him to take exercise, but he refused.

Much excitement was caused in Brooklyn by the announcement of Mr. Beecher's illness. Immense crowds gathered near the house and read the bulletins. All through the evening prominent citizens were calling and leaving cards at the door. A policeman was stationed in front of the house to keep the crowd away. Mr. Beecher is over 73 years of age.

Mr. Beecher's Dream.

New York, March 5.—Dr. Hutchinson, a Brooklyn physician, was called by Mrs. Beecher. The doctor said to a reporter: "I reached the house at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and found Mr. Beecher sleeping. His appearance was quite natural, although I thought his face was drawn somewhat to the right side. The skin, especially of his extremities, was cool, but not cold. I easily aroused Mr. Beecher, and he was perfectly conscious. I said to him: 'You've slept so long that your wife became worried and sent for me.'

"'Yes,' he responded, 'I have slept a good while. I've been dreaming. It was rather a pleasant sort of dream, too. You know I have always been a great dreamer.'

"'And what was your dream,' I asked.

"'I thought,' was the reply, 'that I had been made a Duke and my wife a Duchess. I dreamed we had a large amount of property invested in British consols, and I've been trying all night to figure out the income. You know, doctor, that arithmetic has always been a great source of trouble to me.'

The Last Bulletin.

NEW YORK, 8.30 p.m., March 6.—The following bulletin has just been issued by the attending physicians: The condition of Mr. Beecher has not materially changed during the day. He is in a deeply comatose state from which he cannot be aroused and from which he will never probably rally. He lies quietly, like one in a deep sleep, and gives no indication of pain or uneasiness. No one except Mrs. Beecher and her children are allowed to visit his bedside, and no further bulletins will be issued until Monday morning.

Eulogized by Dr. Parker.

LONDON, March 6.—Rev. Mr. Parker at service this morning eulogized Mr. Beecher. He expressed the profoundest sympathy of himself and his hearers with the afflicted pastor. He prayed for Mr. Beecher and for his friends that they might be comforted by the knowledge that this servant was prepared for heaven, "We mourn" he said, "yet we rejoice in our sadness. Why should we mourn when a traveler completes his journey, when a voyager leaves the sea over which he has wandered and rejoins his kindred at home."

All Hope Given Up.

NEW YORK, March 6.—At an early hour this morning it was noticed that many more people were on the streets than was usual in the vicinity of the Beecher residence, and by 8 o'clock there was quite a crowd eagerly looking for the first bulletin, and as it was posted on the door-post the people crowded the stoop to read it. There was a feeling of thankfulness plainly visible on the countenance of the assemblage that the life of the illustrious divine was still spared and as the day advanced the throng on the sidewalks rendered the streets in the vicinity almost impassable. In the crowd were people of every station from the millionaire to the prosperous tradesman and the poor laborer. Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage called with his daughter Edith about 1.30 and he was admitted into Mr. Beecher's presence About 10 o'clock this morning Dr. Hammond arrived at the house and an hour later the following bulletin was posted: "Prof. W. Hulmuth of New York, in consultation, fully confirms the opinion of the physicians. Mr. Beecher is gradually failing. He may, however, live for some days."

That all hope was given up was plainly indicated by this bulletin, and the remark of Dr. Talmage as he passed out: "It is very serious."

Mr. Holliday conducted services at Plymouth Church this morning and the 11 o'clock bulletin was read to the congregation The effect of it was noticeable on the congregation by the number of handkerchiefs in use and the stifled sobs of many of those present.

At the church of Dr. Talmage the scene after the rev. gentleman's prayer was almost as affecting. Dr. Talmage made a very affecting appeal on behalf of Mr. Beecher. He prayed fervently for the divine blessing on the afflicted preacher and alluded to Mr. Beecher as the friend of the slave, the friend of the millionaire, the friend of the workingman, the friend of the friendless, the friend of all mankind.

Mrs. Beecher Never Leaves His Side.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Rev. Mr. Beecher is still lying in a deep comatose condition. He does not move, but lies on his back with an occasional movement of the right arm. His breathing is heavy and spasmodic, giving four or five heavy respirations and then almost ceasing. Mrs. Beecher has been most of the time in the sickroom. She bears up heroically and scarcely ever leaves her husband's side. Since the doctors informed the members of the family that it is only a question of time for the end, they remain in the sick chamber awaiting new developments.

THE RETALIATION BILL.

Manager Olds, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Gives His Views.

MONTREAL, March 5.—There was considerable discussion on the streets yesterday over the passage of the Edmunds Retaliation Bill by both Houses of Congress, and the signing of it by the President. Traffic Manager Olds of the Canadian Pacific Railway said: "I regard the whole question as one of marine interest, confined to a limited area and only connected with the fishing question. My opinion is that if arrangements are made for a regular ocean service to other markets for cured fish Canadian fishing industries would only suffer temporarily. I cannot imagine that the bill has been passed except for political purposes. There is a possibility that certain annoyances may arise out of customs transactions, but I do not think this would last long."

Nova Scotia Excited About It.

HALIFAX, N.S., March 5.—The action of the President of the United States in signing the Retaliation Bill has caused considerable excitement in some of the fishing centres of Nova Scotia, and is the sole subject talked about. Fishermen, who formerly sought employment on American vessels during the season are undecided whether to go to the States again this spring, and much bitterness is expressed over the position of affairs, the people having expected that the two countries would arrive at an early agreement.

IN HONOR OF LIEUT.-GOV. ROBINSON.

The Canadian Club in New York Arranging for an Entertainment.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Prominent members of the Canadian Club, ascertaining that Lieut.-Gov. Robinson of Ontario was to visit New York next week, are arranging to tender him a reception at the club rooms on Thursday night next. Preparations for a very complete entertainment are being made, and efforts will be made to show the appreciation entertained of the acceptable manner in which the Governor has discharged his duties during his term of office.

A Toronto Man Among Them.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Last night at Cromwell, Ind., treasury officers from Chicago seized twelve blooded stallions and arrested three prominent farmers for smuggling. The principal delinquent, A. Fansom of Toronto, Ont., escaped. During the past five months $80,000 worth of horses have been admitted free of duty at Port Huron and Detroit and are now scattered over Michigan, Kansas, Ohio and Indiana. Some of them are located for seizure in the future. The horses seized are worth $20,000. The three farmers, whose names are withheld, have been taken to Indianapolis for examination.

TO DEBATE ARMY BILL

THE REICHSTAG READY FOR A DISPLAY OF TEUTONIC TALK.

BERLIN, March 5.—The Reichstag will begin to debate on the Army Bill Monday. There are 221 Septennists and 176 opponents of the bill. This estimate is based on the supposition that ninety-seven Centrists will adhere to the triennate, but when the division is taken it is probable that through Centrist, Septennist votes and abstentions the Government will obtain a majority of nearly 100. Leaders of the Conservative and National Liberal parties and of the Reichspartei have exchanged views on accelerating the passage of the bill. It has been decided to use the full strength of the majority to limit the discussion solely to a plenary sitting, and to try and close the general debate in a single sitting. The committee proceedings will be merely formal. The bill, therefore, will be practically passed on Monday

The Centre exhibits a growing discontent with the new Church Bill. The Germania asks the Pope to withdraw any approval he may have vouchsafed the Prussian proposals. Bishop Kopp, in the commission at Oberhaus moved an amendment to the bill, according to ecclesiastical authorities absolute right to establish seminaries where they deem proper. The commission rejected the amendment. Bishop Kopp now insits upon the motion concerning the anzeigepflicht, the effect of which would be to nullify the power of presidents of the provinces in ecclesiastical appointments. The motion would continue nominal anzeigepflicht but when the President differed with the church authorities over an appointment the church would adhere to the right of installation without interference. Further, the Clericals demand that the orders expelled under the law of 1875 be restored to their ancient rights and former possessions, the superiors of the orders to be simply bound to deliver to the Government a list of members. It is improbable that the Government will concede one jot beyond the project as presented. The Centre party is in no position to dictate and would be made to feel its weakness. The rumor that the Government will tacitly allow the admission of Jesuits is untrue.

MONDAY, MARCH 7, 1887.

THE ACT MUST GO.

THE Conservative journals congratulate themselves on the fact that Sir John has sufficient majority to carry on the Government, but, if so, the majority is so small in a house of 215 members that the government cannot carry things with a high hand as they were able to and with a ority o over seventy. The opposition will make its influence felt and there is one unjust enactment which will be attacked with a prospect of removing it from the statute book. This is the Dominion Franchise Act which the Tory organ, the Mail, has demanded should be re-dealed. By the aid of the gerrymander, the government carried South Wentworth, South Norfolk, West Middlesex, West Huron, East Lambton, East Bruce, North Grey, Monck and North and South Ontario. These would without the least doubt have gone Liberal if their bounds remained as they were in 1881. But the Franchise Act had a wider and more general affect in influencing the result in favor of the government. In the city of Hamilton the manipulation of the lists rendered possible by this Act, made sufficient changes in them to effect the result adversely to the Liberal candidates. In two wards alone of West Bruce 61 Liberals were left off, a circumstance which may not have affected the final result but it is proof positive of the terribly dangerous influence which the Franchise Act exercises in favor of the government of the day, in stifling the expression of public opinion and destroying the spirit of responsible government. Referring to the trouble, annoyance and expence which arise under the Franchise Act the Hamilton Times remarks :—

"To make the lists complete, the two party organizations will have to make a complete census of the city, and will have to spend "barrels" of money for appeals, witness' fees, and various court charges. This will have to be done every year, and not merely in the year when a general election is expected. A vacancy may occurr at any time, either through a member being unseated by the Court, a member resigning to accept some office of emolument, a member being called to the Cabinet, or the death of a member. And, then, who knows but the Ministry may be defeated on some test question, and a dissolution of the House of Commons suddenly ordered? Or who knows but Parliament may be dissolved before its natural expiration, as has happened three times already since 1867? Eternal vigilance is necessary to give a party any chance to win. The Franchise Act involves a heavy tax upon both political parties, and both should unite to get rid of it."

The Act is unfair, it is expensive, it is unnecessary, for the Ontario franchise is much broader and much more liberal, and there is not one argument in favor of its retention on the statute book, except that it enables the party in power to manipulate the franchise in its own favour, and thus prevent honest judgment being passed upon its course.

THE Methodist body is evidently assuming the cause of College Federation with earnestness. This assumption is not based on eloquent advocacy of the cause alone, but practical steps are being taken. So great success has attended the securing of subscriptions towards the necessary endowment fund of nearly half a million, that there is not much doubt that the amount will be raised with little difficulty and in a surprisingly brief time. In Toronto similar practical measures are on foot. Mr. J. N. Lake, of Toronto, is visiting United States colleges with a view to getting hints for perfecting the plans of the new Victoria College building in that city. By the time Toronto has the buildings ready, the rural Methodists will have the $450,000 endowment fund in the bank. Methodism, perhaps, is the most aggressive and go-ahead propagator of Protestant principles in the country, and the belief that other denominations are receding is due to the fact that they are stationary or advancing so slowly that, therefore, they seem, compared to the onward religious rush of Methodism, to be receding.

THE Presbyterian Review remarks that "Toronto has lately shown many cheering signs of activity in instituting and carrying forward moral reforms and benevolent and philanthropic enterprises. The White Cross League is meeting with warm support and is daily finding new adherents. The Society for the Suppression of Cruelty to Animals has been revived, and a well meant agitation with promise of success has arisen for shortening the hours of work for women in shops. These and many other schemes that might be mentioned are very encouraging proofs that the public conscience is awake, and that the faithful preaching of the Gospel of Christ tells with powerful effect upon the whole tone of the community." If the Review could only assure us of some influence that could be brought to bear with beneficial effect upon the moral condition of Toronto aldermen, its felicitations would smack something of millennial proximity.

Rev. D. J. Macdonnell of St. Andrew's Toronto, in the course of Sunday's sermon, said: "There are men in both parties who cannot be bought. I feel disposed to mention in this connection the name of one man who has been tested and found true, who has spent his life in the service of Canada, and who now in declining years and with broken health stands higher in the estimation of his country than ever, and lives in the hearts of the people as he never lived before."

The kitchen window is the best place for plants; the steam from the boilers and kettles keeps the air moist.

THE VALUE OF A FRIEND.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

There are few people in this world who don't know the value of a friend. Rich and poor are alike in this respect. There are plenty of enemies to be found, but few real true friends. It is an old saying that a friend in need is a friend indeed. The man who helps another in times of trouble is such a friend. There is too much selfishness and too much indifferance to the wants of others. Men prefer to spend their superabundance for their own indulgences. They act as if they thought the poor or the needy don't require any help. It seems to be a law of nature that the more a person has the more he wants, but he forgets that the more he has the more is required of him. A man once went to another, whom he thought his friend, and told him of his sore distress, and how the loan of a small sum of money would save him from ruin. He was refused and he was returning home expecting soon to see his property gone and his family without a home. A comparative stranger happened to meet him and asked him what was the matter. He told him and he related the refusal of his friend to help him. The stranger asked him how much he required and he said to come with him. He then handed him the needed amount with the remark that he was not to repay it until he could do so without inconvenience. He said he wanted no security and that he left the matter to his sense of duty and right. That man went home rejoicing and his pressing creditors were paid and he and his wife and children were made happy once more. I may just mention that in time this money was faithfully repaid with interest. Here was a friend in need and a friend indeed. A man was confined to his bed with sickness. His harvest was all ripe, waiting for the sickle. His neighbours gathered, went into his fields, cut his grain and put it carefully in the barn, and thus a whole years work of that poor man was saved. A poor, but respectable woman and her grown up daughter wandered along the road, trying to reach her father's house, many miles away. She had lost all she possessed by unforseen misfortune. A kind man, living by the roadside, saw her, took pity on her and took her in and cared for them. The next day he quietly placed in this mother's hands money sufficient to meet all her present wants, and they went on their way. In the course of time the daughter married a wealthy man. Their former friend then fell into difficulties and the daughter's husband became his creditor for a large amount. He was pressing for his money and this friend of his wife expected to be turned out of their old home when, the now wife, whom he had so befriended, discovered the trouble she frankly told the history of their own difficulty and the kind help this man had given her and her mother and she asked her husband to give her up his claim, duly discharged, in order that she might help repay her benefactor for his help to them in their time of need. The husband did so and she at once went to him and placed the claim and receipt in his hands, and he and his old wife were saved and made happy. Verily the just man had his reward. In the early days of the settlement of the State of Western New York, when the country was a wilderness and when people were few and far between, there lived near neighbors an honest old Quaker and his wife and another man and his wife. The Quaker was well off, but the other was poor, though he was industrious and saving, he was unfortunate and he fell into difficulties and was being pressed by his creditors and expected to be thrown into prison. He went to the Quaker and told him his trouble. The Quaker gave him a pair of horses and some provisions and money and told him to go quietly away into the wilderness a long distance off, and there there take up land and commence life again. He did so, and then began his battle for prosperity over again. He made a fortunate selection and in time had a comfortable home around him. Settlers poured in, and soon there was progress and prosperity. The man and his wife saw peace and plenty surely coming to them, and they redoubled their efforts and succeeded. And years after they were noted for their wealth, and noted also for their charity and kindness. They visited their former friends, who were now old and feeble, and they persuaded them to come and live with them, where they were well and tenderly cared for, for they attributed all their success in life to the advice and assistance of the kind old man and his wife, and they strove hard to repay them. The creditors were all paid and the remainder of their days were passed in peace. The above are some examples of friendship, and they serve to show how much real good may be done in this world if people would only listen to the wants of others in need and kindly help them. How many honest, industrious families, struggling against their difficulties, might be placed in the way of success if a little help were only extended to them in time, and how many desolate hearts might be saved much anguish if, instead of the harsh answer, they received a little encouragement and sympathy. But it is so easy to refuse and so hard to help, and the prayers and tears of the poor unfortunates go unheeded, and the result often is that households are broken up, and the wife and mother is turned out of doors and the children are scattered and gone, and what was once a smiling and happy home is now cold and desolate. There is so much always to be met with that even well-intentioned persons often find it difficult to separate the deserving from the bad, and those honestly trying to give help are often repaid with ingratitude, and one can hardly wonder if the hand of kindness is often withheld in consequence. But there are nevertheless many instances of well meaning, honest, though unfortunate people who not only deserve a little encouragement but who would ever feel grateful for it. And these ought not to be made to suffer because of the bad conduct of others. And as it has been said, by One higher than man, that it is better that ninety and nine guilty persons should go suffer than one innocent person should be punished, so if men are deceived ninety and nine times they ought still to help the one hundreth deserving help, And remember that men's positions often change, that the rich man often becomes poor and the poor man often becomes rich. The world is full of changes and there is nothing so unstable as the affairs of human life. This shows the dependence of men one upon upon another. It is no uncommon thing to see parents and their families reduced from plenty to poverty, the mother struggling hard to keep up and after denying herself in order that she may give a little bread to her starving children. Go into the large towns and there see the squalor and wretchedness and misery of the thousands of people, many of whom once lived in comfort, but now reduced to hunger through misfortune or the bad conduct of a drunken father, who has wasted his substance and driven his wife and family to despair. And then think how much good a little kindness and friendship would do them, but how few even stop to listen to their tales of suffering and sorrow. Verily to some the world is hard, and its trials and difficulties are hard to bear, but it is harder still to turn a deaf ear to the cries of little children who are cold and hungry and often have no home. How true it is that a friend in need is a friend indeed.

Oh don't go back to work, mother,
But stop and talk to me ;
They say to-day is Christmas day,
I think it cannot be.

Last year we were at home, mother,
Poor father he was there,
He sat beside the bright fireside,
Propp'd in an easy chair.

I wish we were at home again,
To spend one Christmas day,
We were so happy there, mother,
We had such merry play.

And you gave me a little doll,
Where can my dolly be?
I wish I had my doll again
To nurse upon my knee.

And on last Christmas day, mother,
Poor Tommy had a ball,
And father smiled when Tommy threw
It up against the wall.

And Tommy went up to the wood,
And climbed a holly tree,
And as he cut the berries off,
He threw them down to me.

We stuck them in the window-panes,
To make a pretty show ;
I wonder where poor Tommy is,
I never see him now.

How dull it is to-day, mother,
Although 'tis Christmas day.
I thought it was a happy time,
I wish 'twas passed away.

But if I had a little doll,
Then Kate should play with me.
I think 'twould make her smile again
To nurse it on her knee.

Her mother's dead, and she's alone,
That makes her cry and fret;
But if she had a pretty doll,
Perhaps she would forget.

But in the work-house sure, mother,
There are no toys at all,—
Not even a pretty doll, mother,
Nor yet a little ball.

But if we had some cakes and nuts,
And pretty toys, oh dear!
We still might have a happy day,
Though in the work-house here.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health ; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Don't Do It.

Doubly Benefited.

There is no one remedy known that has more curative power over dyspepsia and liver complaint than Burdock Blood Bitters. "I had liver complaint and my husband was so bad with dyspepsia that he could not labor. One dozen bottles of B. B. B. has enabled us both to attend to our usual work," reports Mrs. John A. LUMINOUS

ALARM CLOCKS.

The Handiest thing in the World Can be seen as well in the Dark as the Light.

EVERYBODY should have One.

R. W. MUNCASTER.

The Festive News Agent.

The reader has often noticed how the self-satisfied and complacent news agent stalks through the train as though he owned the train, the company, and the road. Like "the sun and I," he's "very wide awake," and if one gives him half a chance he'll either talk the unwary passenger blind or compel him in the interest of self-preservation to buy some of the cheap literature with which he is loaded down. But even the great and only news agent "gets left" occasionally, of which fact a Chicago Tribune reporter was an amused witness the other day. A Michigan Central train drew up at the station at Hammond, Ind., and as lank and uncouth a countryman as ever had chills and fever in the Calumet marshes got off. He was accompanied by two females of similar personal characteristics, and he had apparently just returned from his first visit to Chicago and his first ride on a train. In his hand was a paper book probably worth at train prices about a quarter of a dollar. In less than thirty seconds after he had reached the station platform the news agent pounced upon him like a hawk on a June bug.

"Here, young feller," he exclaimed savagely, "where're you goin' with that book? You didn't think I was makin' you a present of it, did you?"

Surprise, doubt, and defiance showed in rapid succession on the countryman's face. The spectators began to snicker. Suddenly it occurred to him that the newsboy was imposing upon him and he put the book behind him.

"B'gosh, ye just chucked it down inter the seat 'thout nobody's askin' ye," he answered surlily, looking around for confirmation of his statement to his two companions who, stood open-mouthed, too astonished to speak.

"O, Lawd!" wailed the news agent. "If the dummed idiot don't think I give it to him for nothin'! Give us a quarter, young feller, an' I'll call it squits.

"Yew be gol durned," responded the countryman, moving off.

"I'll have you jerked if you don't hand over that quarter," yelled the news agent furiously.

"Don't git mad nnow, sonny; you'll spile if you don't keep cool," was the response.

"Gimme the book," bawled the news agent, "or I'll knock a lung out of ye."

"Naw yew don't," responded the countryman, dropping his satchel and squaring off with the awkwardness of an unbroken steer and about the same amount of strength.

The news agent's ardor was visibly dampened by the demonstration and he was once more beginning to resort to argument when the conductor shouted "All aboard!" and the train moved off. The news agent gained the platform and scowled back a deadly, unspoken threat of arrest and divers other ills and calamities. The spectators, evidently in sympathy with the countryman, laughed uproariously and the backwoods hero moved off complacently with his females, remarking that he'd "Got a heap interested in that 'ere book and it 'ud make gol danged good Sunday readin'—all 'bout detectives and burglars and 'Invisible Ike, the Grave Robber.'"

A Subject For Judge Lynch.

A Reading, Pa., telegram says: City Supt. of Schools Balliet was informed a few days ago of a pupil who has just entered the public schools here who shows a remarkable mania for torturing persons and animals with fire. His name is Rueben Briner, aged 7 years, a scholar in one of the Ninth ward schools. The teacher can do nothing with him, and is compelled to keep him seated on the platform near her desk, where he once tried to set her dress on fire. Until recently he resided with his parents in Philadelphia. There, while his parents were absent, he lit a piece of paper at the stove and deliberately set fire to the clothing of his little brother, aged 18 months, whose limbs were burned to a crisp until he died, while the young fiend enjoyed it, and gleefully told his parents what he had done. He was penned in the garret and kept on bread and water for a month, after which he was sent to Reading, as he expressed an intention to cut his two brothers' throats with a butcher-knife.

He continually wants to set things on fire in school, and has several times been detected just in time to prevent the destruction of buildings. While his grandmother, with whom he is now living, was away from home, he caught the large house cat, placed her on the red-hot stove, and roasted her to death. Such inhuman acts of cruelty innumerable have been reported of him.

At a paper mill in Lewiston, Me., the following letter, dated Brunswick, Nov. 11, 1886, recently was found: "Hiram, your actions at the husking bee last evening left me no longer doubtful as to what course I shall take, I thought I cared for you, but I was a fool, and now am punished for my folly. Inclosed are the lock of hair, the picture and the ring you gave me. Perhaps the ring will fit somebody else's finger just as well Jane."

Worth Remembering.

Every inspiration of the lungs, every pulse-throb of the heart, every sweep of the arm—even our very thoughts as they speed through the brain, all create waste matter that must be constantly removed if there is to be that beautiful harmony of functional effort which constitutes health. Nature's remedy is the sure and eminently wise one, of expelling, by proper purgation, the humors which cause disease, and Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are nature's great ally in the cure of digestive disturbances, and an unfailing remedy for constipation and its pernicious effects. 6d-w10

Lumbago of 40 Years Standing—Cured.

Roe Park, Bristol, England.

I am impelled by a sense of duty to testify to the extraordinary efficacy of your remarkable specific, St. Jacobs Oil. I am an old man and for the last 40 years have been a victim of lumbago. I have in vain sought relief from medical science, and was at last led to consider my case hopeless. I procured your Oil and it would be impossible for me to describe the relief that even one application produced and I can affirm most distinctly that its use has completely cured me. JOSHUA MOORE.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cannibal Propensities.

A man named Eddy, from Lakefield or vicinity, attended the wind-up race on the Little Lake Saturday afternoon. He was "half seas over," and without the slightest provocation turned about and struck Mr. Robert Strain, of town, who was watching the races a considerable distance off. That gentleman now wears his eye in deep mourning. Mr. Strain came up town and entered the City Hotel, and was followed shortly afterwards by Eddy, who again attempted an assault. In this he was thwarted by Mr. W. Clancy, the proprietor who interfered, and who was in turn assaulted, Eddy biting him in the cheek and inflicting a severe wound. The latter will be made to suffer for his cannibal-like propensities.

Opera House.

This evening Harry Lindley and his company commence a week's engagement at low prices. The piece chosen to open with is one from the pen of the Detroit Free Press' humorous writer, whose "Brudder Gardner" has been so extensively familiarized by the newspaper, and is entitled "Over the Hills to the Poor House." Mr. Lindley has sole right of this play. The company consists of fifteen performers, foremost amongst whom is Miss Laura Booth, niece of the eminent tragedian. During the week will be given "Galley Slave," "Flirtation," "Condemned to Death," etc. As an extra attraction a valuable cow is given away on Saturday evening, together with a sewing machine. Every ticket bought during the week bears a number, which number stands equal chance for the prizes, so that there is a certainty of one of our citizens becoming a live stock owner at the close of the engagement.

A Blizzardous Blizzard.

Saturday night's blizzard was a furious one, and again railway lines were blocked. On the Midland the express from Toronto, due at 8.30 p.m., passed through at 8 o'clock next morning, while the 5.15 Midland from Port Hope did not reach Toronto till after 3 o'clock Sunday morning. On the main line of the G. T. R. traffic was even worse impeded, several trains having to be cancelled. The C. P. R. express which passes through town at 6.42 did not reach Toronto till 2 next morning. The day following the storm being Sunday and very little movement in railroad circles, the blockade was not so seriously felt as usual. In the vicinity of Toronto and westward the storm raged more fiercely than in the Peterborough district. Trains are running regularly once more.

"Tariff" Triumphant.

The first annual winter ice meeting of the Peterborough Driving Club is over. It was highly successful, and reflects great credit upon the management. The open trot was concluded on Saturday afternoon, resulting in a victory for "Tariff." "Little Ned," "Royal Jim" and "Tariff" were the starters; "Royal Jim," the Toronto horse, took the first heat, and "Tariff" the second heat and the race, having won two heats in the previous day's trot.

A., will give an address on "Work Among the Women of India," in the Baptist church on Tuesday, March 8th, at 8 o'clock p.m. Mr. Hallem has had 27 years experience in missionary work in India. His addresses are most interesting, dealing only with facts and exhibiting curiosities in connection with the address. A collection will be solicited at the door to defray expenses.

Sunday School Anniversary.

Requiescat in Pace.

Imposing Obsequies of the Late Dr. O'Sullivan.

At ten o'clock this morning a long and mournful procession started from the late residence of Dr. O'Sullivan, and before the last vehicle had left the house the head had reached the church. About 115 cutters and sleighs containing near and dear relatives of the deceased, and many of his numerous kind friends and acquaintances, followed the remains of the doctor to their last resting place. Chief among the mourners were the widow of the deceased and her sister, Miss Flanigan; deceased's brothers, Messrs. Cornelius and Daniel O'Sullivan, of Seymour; and Mr. D. A. O'Sullivan, barrister, of Toronto; Mr. M. Flanigan, father-in-law of the deceased doctor, and city clerk of Kingston; Mr. Black, city treasurer of Montreal, uncle of the late doctor; Mr. M. J. O'Brien, brother-in-law of Mrs. O'Sullivan, barrister, of Prescott; and deceased's two nephews from Seymour.

The doctor's remains were enclosed in a handsome casket, which kind and loving hands had decorated with flowers as a mark of their esteem and affectionate remembrance. Prominent among the floral offerings were a beautiful wreath from the Sisters of the Convent; an anchor and the usual floral accessories from the St. Vincent de Paul Society; and a circlet of flowers enclosing a cross, bearing the words "Our President," from the local branch of the Land League. The pall-bearers were: Dr. Kinsmid, Dr. Burnham, and Messrs. T. Kelly, T. Cahill, J. Hackett, N. T. Laplante, J. Moloney and B. Morrow.

Arrived at St. Peter's Cathedral, as the funeral cortege proceeded slowly up the center aisle, the grand organ pealed forth a funeral march, after which requiem high mass was celebrated, the celebrant being Rev. Father Conway, who was assisted by Rev. Father O'Connell, of Douro, and Rev. Fathers Rudkins and O'Brien, of the Palace, the latter of whom was master of ceremonies. In addition, the clergy present were Rev. Father Keilty, Enniskmore, and Rev. Father Casey, of Campbellford.

The special music incidental to the ceremony was solemnly beautiful and impressive. Prof. Denie presided at the organ. After the Kyrie by the choir followed Dies Irae, in which Rev. Father Fayolle, of the Palace, sang the bass solo in excellent voice. Then came De Profundis, with solo by Miss Annie Dunn. At various intervals during the celebration of the mass Prof. Denie played appropriate selections. In the Sanctus the duet was taken by Messrs. J. Coughlin and J. Picard. The final chorus by the choir, during the benediction and after the sermon, was the Libera, solo parts being taken by Rev. Father Fayolle and J. Picard. Mr. W. Ball's full tenor voice was conspicuous in the rendering of the several choruses.

Rev. Father Conway, in his sermon dealt particularly with the doctrine of the communion of the saints as received by the Roman Catholic church, and referred feelingly to the occasion, paying a high tribute to the many excellent qualities of the late Dr. O'Sullivan.

The body was finally placed in the R. C. Cemetery, where the earth closed over the mortal remains of a man whose passing away will leave a blank in every grade of society. His professional visits will be missed in hundreds of homes, and the poor especially will feel the want of that practical sympathy and abundant benefaction practiced both in his professional and personal capacities.

A College Journal.

The races last Friday proved too strong an attraction for the "programme" committee of the Business College Literary Society, and in consequence the weekly entertainment Friday evening was gotten up impromptu. Mr. Bannell Sawyer, principal, gave a reading and song, and the balance of the evening was spent in discussion and conversation. An attempt is to be made to start a manuscript newspaper called the Mirror, to be published weekly. Miss Ratcliff and Mr. Ruth were appointed editors; Mr. H. F. Clarke, exchange editor; Mr. W. C. Moore, reporter, and Mr. John Breckenridge, publisher.

A Heavy Light Transaction.

Messrs. Fortye & Phelan have received two large cases of plate glass for Messrs. Geo. A. Cox and T. Bradburn, about fifteen huge plates altogether. These make about fifty plates received by this firm this season for the town trade alone. If we continue in this line we shall have to quit throwing stones for we shall be living in a glass city.

A Correction.

Mr. John Moore wishes us to correct a report circulated through town that he would not be able to fill his orders for green wood this season. Owing to snow blockades on the railroads he has had some difficulty in obtaining car accommodation, but he is now able to fill all his orders, having over 1000 cords on hand, of the very choicest wood.

Turnbull is now showing an immense stock of carpets and floor oil cloths, all new patterns; intending purchasers should not fail to see them.

Deaf Mutes.

The Ontario government return of attendance at the British Deaf and Dumb institution shows that there were only two deaf mutes from Peterborough county attending that institution. Huron county heads the list with seventeen.

Jail Commitments.

There has been a decrease in the number of commitments to the jail of this county for the past three years. In 1884 the commitments were 148; in 1885, they were 120 and in 1886 they were reduced to 106.

Mr. Waters introduced a bill to enable married women to vote for members of Municipal Councils. The bill was read the first time.

Mr. Creighton moved for copies of advertisements for tenders, specifications and contracts in connection with the new Parliament buildings.

Hon. O. Mowat proposed that the House adjourn, so that the members might proceed to the residence of His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor and present him with an address.

The House adjourned at 2 p.m.

Immediately after the adjournment of the House, the members, preceded by the Speaker, the Sergeant-at-Arms bearing the mace, and the Clerk, went to the residence of the Lieutenant-Governor. After the members had been introduced to the Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. Speaker read the address in reply to the speech from the Throne.

His Honor briefly replied, but his reply had a political significance, chiefly relating to his personal relations to the office he vacates in favor of Sir Alex. Campbell.

The Book-keeping Question.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Mr. Young in his communication of Saturday says that we championed the cause of our merchants. We did nothing of the kind. We refuted his position because it was contrary to our teaching in the College and contrary to fact and possibility. When Mr. Young's reading has swept its widest range he will probably have time to learn from business men instead of books how to be practical.

Yours respectfully,
BANNEL SAWYER.

Peterborough, March 7th, 1887.

Publish the Roll.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Allow me to intimate to the Council of this town that they will confer an everlasting favor on the people of Peterborough if they publish the assessment roll each year, and thus bring to the light of day a matter of vital importance which has been hitherto hid away from the ratepayers. There are few who would not willingly pay 10 or 15 cents for a pamphlet of this description which would more than pay for the cost of printing. Let this be done and the chances are that we will have a fair, honest and equitable assessment system in this good town of ours.
